ROTARY NEWS

President Don Simonds opened another large meeting of the Rotary last week. It is now an accomplished fact that only those sick-such as Walter Bailey and Al Elliott or absent from town such as lucky Bill Hevey in Hollywood Florida - in general are away from the meetings. As witness to the attempt to keep up our attendance we had eight stalwarts who made up in Arlington and Jimmy Cullen making up in Falmouth last week. The meeting was also augmented by five visiting Rotarians and three guests. Chandler Symmes had Ed Forester, Harry Bigelow had Rev. Donald Tarr of the Congregational Church, and Bill Priest had Edward Kenerson of this town.

Charlie Koch's tie inspired not only a hot rendition of 'Let Me Call You Sweetheart' but caused some rather close harmony at the head table between the guest speaker, Mrs. Toye, and Charlie Offkey Murphy. This song with a rather nostalgic rendition of 'Auld Lang Syne' in typical New Year's tradition completed the songs for the day. After the guests had been introduced by John Wallace and a few announcements the meeting was turned over to the speaker for the day.

Allan Wilde, who knows her best thru the many good works she has done in town, introduced Mrs. Gladys N. Toye the present chairman of the Winchester Manpower Committee. All those who know Mrs. Toye realize the excellent work she did not only during the war as special investigator for the F. B. I., but after the war in connection with the 'Sheets for Belgium' affair. Then the Army and Navy decided to make Winchester a guinea pig for the rest of the country on this Manpower Committee and who was better qualified to head up this important committee but Mrs. Toye. As Allan said the other members of the committee such as Ralph Bonnell, Allan, Ted Bartlett and others have had little to do but sit aside and take some credit for her work. She spoke of the urgent need for an adequate military power to keep 'even the cold war cold'. As the present time there are over six hundred of these committees set up throughout the country basing their work on what is being done and has been done right here in Winchester. The main purpose to educate the public to actively support and participate in this over all programme for adequate defense. In so doing she has taken a group of women to one of the army camps to see just what is being done to make this army a really 'new army'. Now that the immediate hostilities have ceased there is more time to train this new army from a long range point of view. Mrs. Toye's work in part consists of interviews in private with the parents of boys who want to join up and attempt to fill the quota that is set for Winchester each month for volunteers public speaking is another one of her projects as well as the wholehearted cooperation of the Winchester STAR in printing articles each week. Store displays are used in conjunction with the business of that particular store. Ministers have been contacted and briefed on the needs of this programme. To add to this one committee set up from each organization in town. All clubs and organizations are urged to get in touch with Mrs. Toye as to information on how to help here and the committee. As an example of some of the work that has been done already in a practical way. Certain bars and saloons have been put out of bounds for army and navy personnel which is tantamount to putting these undesirable places out of business. There is also an urgent need to form a sub committee of professional men such as doctors and dentists and pharmacists to help recruit these men into the army. There is to be a bill passed soon in congress which will allow the calling up of professional men who were trained under the government programme but who never served after graduation.

The Rotary was indeed fortunate to have Mrs. Toye speak on this all important matter and Winchester is doubly lucky to have such a person as Mrs. Toye to volunteer and carry through so admirably this work. All should be proud of her and be proud to help her in this vitally important programme for America.

PATENT AWARDED ARNE GUDHEIM

On December 7, 1948, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,455,363 on a "Process of Making Shortening" to Arne Gudheim, 15 Calumet road, Winchester, Massachusetts.

The conventional method of packaging shortening and other similar edible fat products has been to use non-absorbent containers, such as glass or metal, into which the fat is poured while sufficiently warm to be in a semi-fluid condition. Thereupon, these packages are stored at ordinary room temperature, or in other words, without refrigeration.

Attempts have been made to package these products in paper cartons, but, in general, they have required refrigeration while under transportation, storage and use in the household. This is due to the fact that at higher temperatures, liquid's released from the shortening and renders the paper-packaged item unsightly and unmarketable.

It is therefore the object of Mr. Gudheim's invention to overcome this difficulty and, to accomplish this end his process comprises the operation of rapidly cooling, and at the same time agitating, the shortening from liquid to a solid state at very low temperature, and maintaining it in the latter condition for a proper period of time. As a result of this treatment, it is claimed that the finished shortening will have a sufficient percentage of solid content to eliminate seepage of liquid therefrom when packaged in paper containers and stored at room temperatures.

As additional advantages of Mr. Gudheim's invention, it is stated that his products will cream well and will also undergo a minimum amount of break-down during working by the housewife. Furthermore his method permits the shortening to be extruded from the cooling device in the form of a bar which may be cut into cakes and wrapped, while hard, by automatic paper packaging equipment, thereby effecting a substantial saving in costs.

This patent has been assigned to Lever Brothers Company, Cambridge, Mass.

NOONAN NEWS

The pupils of Miss Doherty's third grade at the Noonan School made presents for their parents for Christmas. They made calendars for their mothers and blotters for their fathers. They all made original pictures for their calendars.

Calendars were also sent to the Haynes Memorial Hospital for children and the pupils have received a letter of thanks from the hospital.

At the request of the State Department of Education, January 14 will be observed as Good Government Day in all the local schools.

The sixth grade pupils have seen many motion pictures in the past few weeks. These included "New Jersey Calling the White House," "New York City," and "New York: Empire Vacation Land."

The sixth graders also made Christmas cards and sent them to the Home for the Aged.

The last lessons of the Noonan School dancing classes will be held on January 17, January 31, February 14, and February 28. The final meeting to be held February 28 will be in the form of a party.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

The members of the Washington School ski school, directed by Mr. Roland A. Nault, fifth grade teacher, have been waiting patiently for a snowfall so that they may resume their activities.

Every Monday afternoon the pupils of grade five listen to the program "Listen and Learn" over station WBZ. This program reviews the news and on Monday presents current events in a manner understandable to grade school pupils.

MISSION UNION GUILD

On Tuesday, January 11th there will be a meeting of the Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church. Sewing will begin at 10 a. m. At noon there will be a board meeting. At 1 p. m. luncheon will be served in the Social Hall by Mrs. Rodger M. Tolman and Mrs. Everett W. Goss and their committee. Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, Director, will preside over the business meeting which follows the luncheon and over the meeting at 2 p. m. in the Ladies' Parlor. Devotions will be conducted by Mrs. Henry Francis Smith. The speaker will be Rev. Earl W. Douglas, Executive Secretary of the Boston City Mission Society. Mr. Douglas has been with the society for seven years and is active in many kinds of betterment work. He works with the Police Commissioner on crime prevention, has a co-ordinating committee for the Big Brother movement which helps the pre-delinquent children. He is chairman of the department of action research of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, a newly organized department which employs a staff of research specialists whose function is that of analyzing community situations leading to patterns of consolidation on an inter-denominational basis. Another one of Mr. Douglas's activities is that of serving as president of the board of trustees of the Chinese Christian Church of New England, in which interdenominational enterprise the Missionary Society maintains one full time missionary. Mr. Douglas has instituted a new department of the mission work which is now nationally known. This is a Boston summer service group of 24 young men and women who live at Andover Newton Theological School and under a good supervisor do practical work in religious education and for satisfactory work receive 6 hours of credit towards a Master's Degree in Religious Education.

The Boston vacation church school is a sort of day camp where the children receive cultural and religious education. Last summer there were 2,875 children attending for three weeks each. 350 adults volunteered to devote four weeks of their summer to teaching in this school. Some of our Winchester college young people work at Camps Andover and Waldron which are under this society. All this shows that the Boston City Missionary Society has a very wide field of service and that it is a worth while place for Winchester people to help in carrying on the work.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE STILL GOING ON

Returns are still coming in for the 1948 Christmas Seal Sale, and it is not too late for Winchester residents to acknowledge Christmas Seal letters that might have been overlooked. Mrs. Sanford H. Moses, Winchester Seal Sale Chairman stressed today.

"Although the Seal Sale officially closed on December 25, the work of the Winchester Tuberculosis Committee and Middlesex Health Association is a year-round project," She added, "and funds received right now are just as welcome and helpful as if they were received during the holiday season. Many of us forget or overlook Seal Sale letters in the rush of other holiday duties. There is still time to acknowledge them."

We are grateful, not only for the prompt and generous response of the people, but also for the unmistakable indication that they want the services of the local committee and the Middlesex Health Association to continue. We are organized to function for the health of the people. Residents of this community obviously understand the importance of our various projects. The Seal funds in this community, as well as that in other towns of the Middlesex Health Association area, will be used to promote a program designed to fight tuberculosis throughout the county, as well as in this community.

Headmaster Frederick Smith of New Hampton School, New Hampton, N. H., has announced that Galen S. Vincent was named on the honor roll for the last ranking period. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vincent of 3 Manchester road.

WINCHESTER FRESHMEN 63 BELMONT HILL FRESHMEN 26

The Winchester High School Freshmen won a practice game from the Belmont Hill School Freshmen by a score of 63 to 26 at the local gym last Thursday. Although Belmont Hill did not provide too much opposition for the locals, the Winchester Frosh were impressive in this victory. They ran off their plays on the offense with a smoothness that pleased Coach Peter Provinzano. The Frosh showed that they know where the basket is and that they can put the ball through the hoop as evidenced by their 63 point total.

Johnny Farrell, Johnny DiOrto, and Dick Errico turned in outstanding performances for the Red and Black in this contest. The Winchester Freshmen open a ten-game schedule on Friday afternoon when they entertain the Wakefield High Freshmen at the local gym.

BELMONT 44 WINCHESTER 32

Belmont High School packed too much power for Winchester High and easily defeated the Red and Black by a score of 44 to 32 at the Winchester High gym last Thursday evening. A turn-away crowd saw the bruising, hard fought contest which was marred by numerous fouls caused by the spirited, aggressive play of both teams. This Belmont team looked every bit as good as last year's crack quintet and possesses the necessary speed, height, and poise to again romp away with the Middlesex League championship.

The locals battled fiercely all the way but did not have the finesse of the visitors and could not get their offense functioning smoothly to get enough good shots at the basket. The Winchester defense bothered Belmont considerably during the early part of the game but after the visitors gradually assumed a good lead, they loosened up and were able to score from outside.

Belmont jumped off to a 14 to 10 lead at the end of the first quarter. Winchester matched Belmont point for point during a fast second period until the last minute when careless mistakes gave the visitors two quick baskets and a 27 to 19 lead at the half-time. The third quarter was a night mare for Winchester as they scored only 3 points while Belmont jumped out to a commanding 39 to 22 lead. The locals outscored the visitors over the last quarter but the damage had been done and Belmont walked away with an important victory.

Captain Tony Bonanno of Belmont was the outstanding player on the floor as his high scoring total 17 points indicates. Captain Ken Donaghey led the Winchester scoring with 12 points while fighting his heart out in a losing cause. Paul Roche and Walter Murphy also looked good for the Red and Black, with Murphy definitely clinching a starting berth for his fine performance in his last two outings.

More headaches are in store for Coach Bartlett as the second team also went down to defeat by a score of 31 to 24. The Winchester Seconds were leading by one point entering the last period of this game, but folded up in that period as Belmont raced away to a seven point victory.

SERIOUS DEFECTION

It isn't often that "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset, has a gripe. Once or twice in the past he has objected to certain derogatory statements emanating from persons high in the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association as to the quality of his pitching accuracy, and from time to time he has differed from the official keeper in the matter of the score. Generally speaking however, "Willie" goes his placid way, limiting his remarks to a friendly "Put it there" at the start of "hostilities" and an "I won all but one" as coats are donned after play for the homeward trip from the beach.

So it is that his complaint at this office on Monday had to be more or less sympathetically received. You have to be interested in the unusual.

Put briefly, "Willie" claims that he had a date to pitch shoes with none other than Royal "Paper Trade" Teele, champion of both the Boston Paper Trade and New England Paper Trade, over the holiday week-end. He advances none other than the crutite Mr. Luke P. Glendon in support of his statement that the President called in person and made a date to pitch the irons on the next day.

Mr. Glendon's support of either side of an argument is usually conclusive and we personally are willing to take it at face value. After all it was Mr. Glendon who first used the old Gaelic word, "defluocation" to describe an artistic trimming handed out at Palmer street upon a well remembered occasion to certain members of the Association whom we for reasons best known to ourselves will not name. Anyone who knows what "defluocation" means surely would know whether a date involving a member of his own household had been made for an occasion as imminent as the morrow, and we feel that there can be no doubt that Mr. Teele challenged Mr. McLaughlin to horseshoes at 40 feet between the stakes, more or less, depending upon whether there was a tape available and who paced off the distance if there was not.

Mr. McLaughlin's complaint isn't that Mr. Teele challenged him to a match at Palmer street. In the long standing series of matches involving himself and Mr. Teele, he can look back over the results with the greater degree of satisfaction. What "Willie" does feel is a bit above the eight is that Mr. Teele, after making the date, in Mr. Glendon's presence, didn't show up for the match.

Reached at his home, Mr. Teele mumbled something about recovering from the gripe and the weather being raw and chilly. Mr. McLaughlin would have none of it. A date is a date, and until he proves otherwise Mr. Teele is a "welsher" in his book!

THE ARMY'S ROLE IN OUR DEMOCRACY

To the Editor:

The following remarks by General J. Lawton Collins, Deputy Chief of Staff, U. S. Army, before the N. Y. State Bar Association, are perhaps timely: "We hear much talk today about the danger of the dominance of our civil institutions. The only answer is a full exposition of the facts. Our Constitution makes it crystal clear that the Army is a creature of the Congress. The Department of the Army, and the Army itself, has no being, and of course no powers except those specifically granted by the Congress in specific substantive legislation; and even the Congress is inhibited by the Constitution from providing appropriations for more than two years in advance. In practice this has meant that the Army dies each year until given a rebirth by the Congress. This is frequently burdensome in that it discourages continuity of necessarily long-range projects... but it is certainly a guarantee against military dictatorship."

Aside from these positive legal safeguards, the fundamental character of our Army and the devotion of its members to the fundamental principles of American democracy, as conclusively demonstrated throughout the century and a half of its existence, are our real guarantees. During that entire time there has never been a threat of militarism in the United States... The Department of the Army and the Army itself are completely responsible to a civilian Secretary as the delegate of a civilian Commander in Chief. Our whole history proves that wherever the professional advice of the General Staff and Chief of Staff has been disregarded (which was markedly true in the tragic period of unpreparedness between the two great world wars) successive Chiefs of Staff have been bound almost without protest to the dictates of the Congress, the main criticism which I feel it fair to direct against our Army in the past has been an insufficient awareness and interest in the affairs of the country outside of the Army rather than of any improper activity in non-military affairs... It is true that the times demand more attention on the part of the average civilian to the problem of national security. The progress of a ruthless military dictatorship in Eurasia demands an unprecedented state of peacetime military preparedness of the people of the United States, including a peacetime draft for the second time in a single decade. But these events are not of the Army's making, nor do they provide for any increase in the governmental power by the Department of the Army or the Army itself. Rather they require an increased awareness of the civilian responsibility for the Nation's safety. Militarism is the antithesis of this condition... The average professional officer, as a matter of personal choice, would doubtless prefer an Army composed of professional long-service volunteers. But unfortunately the exigencies of the military situation, as well as of the economic situation, make this impossible.

Our foreign policy today, in support of the United Nations in its attempt to establish a lasting peace in Western Europe, requires an immediately available military potential to back up the struggle of the Western democracies to remain free. This policy is not made and should not be made by the Army. A nation's military policy must be in support of its foreign policy or both are rendered meaningless."

Very truly yours,
Gladys N. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

Editor of the Star:
I was much interested in the grade crossing letter in last week's Star answering my request for information in recent issue of the paper.

One of the most valuable things about the Star is to let people know what is going on in town. The report is as expected - the grade crossing is as dead as a door nail, but resurrection time for the grade crossing will come. Nothing will be done until there is a bad accident killing a number of people or the citizens organize and start a vigorous campaign against everyone connected with the Department of Public Works and the Boston & Maine Railroad. As I analyze the report, I find money that was available for the grade crossing elimination has been added to other federal funds to be distributed through the State. Politics spreads the butter thin - it goes further.

Winchester's troubles have no standing with the State or railroad. They are content with conditions as they are. We can chase ourselves around the block for amusement as far as they are concerned. Master planning is far more important than grade crossing elimination. Planning is a good thing but these master minds think too far in the future to be of any assistance in solving immediate problems. This same argument has been used for over 50 years to avoid spending money on the crossing. There are some good souls that think the world will soon come to an end so why worry about the grade crossing. According to them we will all soon be wearing wings.

We want to watch the master plan for highways. It calls for a big through road in the middle of the west side which will ruin this beautiful residential district. In fact I think it would ruin all Winchester as a residential town. This is a very serious matter and must be watched carefully.

The railroad always uses the same tactics in the grade crossing matter. They are always sympathetic and treat us with a great deal of consideration but do nothing to help us. It does not bother them. They must be driven to it. A permanent committee should be appointed by the Town to handle the grade crossing elimination and master plan problems as it is a long time matter. The Selectmen cannot give it the necessary attention as the members of the Board are changing all the time and have many other things to do. I would suggest that a committee be appointed consisting of the following members:

1 member from the Board of Selectmen
our State Senator
our State Representative Town Engineer Town Counsel
and two citizens who are familiar with the conditions in the square during the day.
If we have a fire on the west side of the Town and the Fire Department is held up in the square we can console ourselves with the old story that Nero fiddled while Rome burned. I am wondering if Rome had three school-houses without sprinklers on the west side, housing many children. Why worry?

Ed Sanderson
P. S. I understand the Selectmen have put an article in the warrant to have the Town appoint the suggested committee.

NO GOATS FOR OFFICER CASSIDY

Not a tall! Goats are things "Willie" wants no part of, especially when the goats are pretty average size and not too friendly acting!
Wednesday forenoon Police Headquarters received a call from a resident of the Highlands district reporting a couple of goats going at the family garbage with a will. Fearing that the pair might follow the garbage said resident of the Highlands wanted to know if the Police would help, and as a consequence Officer Cassidy was sent out in a cruising car, with full equipment, billy, gun, twisters and two-way radio.

Arriving at the spot in question, "Willie" found the goats all right, and advanced toward them with an easy grace and in his best stalking manner, a technique of proved efficiency in driving away dogs, cats, cows or an occasional "mushrat."
According to Officer Cassidy goats have nothing in common with any of these. At least, their reaction to being shoed, even by a uniformed representative of the law, is along entirely different lines. Instead of turning tail and starting for the great open spaces, goats, when approached by perfect strangers, in or out of uniform, are more apt to emit loud "ma-as" and advance benighted toward the intruder with heads lowered and horns ready.

So it was Wednesday forenoon, and after a couple of recent police examinations, Officer Cassidy was reasonably sure that the "blue book" had nothing to offer in opposition to the theory he had once heard advanced that the best way to handle a fractious goat is to get away from him, but fast. Officer Cassidy did just that. A bit of research brought to light the owner of the goats, and to his wife Officer Cassidy poured out his problem.

The lady was by no means at a loss. Picking up several cigarettes, she started for the place where the goats were in action, with Officer Cassidy bringing up a discreet rear.

On the scene, the lady merely offered the goats a cigarette apiece. Immediately all belligerency vanished and they became cooing doves. Even before Officer Cassidy had surreptitiously returned his "gat" to its holster, the animals were following the lady on their homeward way, and it was just a question of butts to get them safely there. Officer Cassidy taking over when the gal's supply ran out. Goats go for "ciggies," and it's a thing that may be worth knowing some time. Note it down, just in case!

MORE PLEASURE FROM YOUR CHRISTMAS TREE

Maybe you have been pained to see a Christmas Tree, a thing of great beauty from Christmas Eve till January 2nd, suffer degradations which start on January 2nd and end with a ride atop a trash truck to the fire on the Town Dump long-about March 15th or so. Sometimes of course the violent thrusts of wind will roll and pitch it over on your neighbor's lawn; and that's that! Not a very considerate, wise, or frugal way to treat a tree which on Christmas morn stood waist to shoulder deep in sentiment and gifts for you. Maybe you would like to use surgery to prolong her usefulness, as follows:

Prune all branches close to trunk to burn one at a time on each new fire in fire place, for fragrance; saw trunk into pieces for wood pile. It takes 5 to 10 minutes. Do this outdoors and leave branches outdoors so needles stay on and to avoid fire hazards. After you have laid regular wood for fire in your fire place, lay one and only one branch of your Christmas Tree well forward on top or along front side of wood. When you light fire, the fragrance of the evergreen woods will scent your house immediately. Using but one branch each time fire is started, gives you this treat till Spring, from the same tree which has already brought you other blessings. You may find this treat alone, worth more than you paid for the tree. The John D. West family of Wedgemere avenue have been doing this for years; so it is not theory!

MISS NORRIS LOST IN SEMI-FINAL

After successfully negotiating the early rounds and quarter-finals of the national junior girls indoor tennis championship tournament at Longwood last week, Winchester's "Marnee" Norris, Rollins College sophomore, finally was defeated in the semi-final round Wednesday by the defending title holder, Laura Lou Jahn of Hollywood, California.

Miss Jahn, who is 15, beat "Marnee", 6-0, 6-1, losing her first game of the tournament to the Winchester girl.

WINCHESTER EXHIBITORS IN BOSTON SHOW

Educated canines will perform their obedience feats at the New England Dog Training Club's sanction match on Sunday, January 16th, at Horticultural Hall. Dogs carrying the rating of utility dog, the PHD of the canine education world, as well as animals in various stages of training, will compete in the sanction match.

The match is the third annual Boston Preview staged by the training club in advance of its big licensed obedience competition held every year in conjunction with the Eastern Dog Club show at Mechanics Building. The latter show is held every year on February 22 and 23.

Many obedience exhibitors consider the club's sanction match as an essential practice match in preparation for the February 22 and 23 showing.

Any pure bred dog is eligible to enter the sanction match which will feature six competitions, including:

1. Utility class, to be judged by Mrs. Irving Vose of Stoughton, Mass.

2. Open A, to be judged by Helen Evans of Wilbraham, Mass.

3. Open B, with Mrs. William B. Long, Sr. of Boston as judge.

4. Novice A, Miss Lucy Lane of Pawtucket, R. I., judging.

5. Novice B, with Frank Alman of Milton as judge.

6. Novice Y, Mrs. Mabel Stearns of Mattapan, Mass., judging.

Entries may be made at Horticultural Hall on the day of the show, and Miss Edith P. Hall of 154 Coolidge Hill, Cambridge, chairman of the show committee announces that numerous prizes will be awarded at the match.

Seven prizes will be awarded in each class, including cash and trophies, with special prizes given for various breeds of dogs and for junior handlers. A major prize will be offered for the best dog in the show. Doors will open at 1:00 p. m.

THE P. N. G.'s SERVICE CLUB

The annual Christmas Party of the P. N. G.'s Service Club was held Wednesday evening, December 29th at the home of Mrs. Elmer Ripley on Wedge Pond road.

A short business meeting was called before the party, at which time plans were discussed for a dinner and theatre party to be held in February.

Christmas gifts were exchanged by the members, each one selecting a gift from the gaily decorated Christmas Tree. A most delicious collation was served by Mrs. Ripley, assisted by Miss Elsie Lyons, who was co-hostess; the dining room decorations adding much to the festive occasion. The next Club meeting will be held at the home of Miss Lucy Olivier, 60 Charlesgate East, Boston on January 26, 1949.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

When the electrician dismantled the Community Christmas Tree on the common Monday morning he discovered that 71 of the 125 lights on the tree had been stolen. There is surely little in this treatment of a town holiday project to warrant the expenditure of more money in an elaborate Christmas decorative display.

EARLY MORNING FIRES

The Fire Department was called three times during the early morning hours of Thursday, the first call coming at 2:12 o'clock from Woburn Box 56 located near the Winchester-Woburn line. This alarm was found to be false.

At 4:12 Mrs. Carl A. Morton of 219 Forest street called the Central Station, reporting a fire at her home. Box 321 was sounded from the station. The men found that delayed ignition in the heater in the basement had caused trouble. There was considerable smoke in the house, the firemen using the smoke-ejector.

The last run of the morning came at 6:31 in response to a call from an operator at the Telephone Exchange, who reported a pole affire on Pond street at the Woburn line. The men found a short circuit and remained on guard until repair crews obviated the trouble.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB

EDGES DEDHAM 10 TO 9

The week of strenuous practice sessions following the December 23rd tie game with Dedham was just what Winchester needed to give it the punch to produce a 10 to 9 victory over the same team on Thursday night, December 30th, on Skating Club ice. This was achieved despite the absence from the line-up of defensemen Scott Doub and Jim Fuller and forwards Dean Tolman, Whip Saltmarsh and Dick Collins.

Both teams played the game on the basis of the premise that a strong offense is the best defense.

The result was a scoring bee for both sides. The lead changed five times in the first two periods, but after the locals opened the third period with three quick goals in succession they were never headed. Wimpy Burnnett and Don Armstrong each garnered hat-tricks. Bob Collins caged two, Roy Monson and Frank Livingston got one apiece. For Dedham, Paradise scored twice, and each of the other forwards got one.

This victory enabled the locals to pile up two wins and two ties out of the four games played during the holiday season, a commendable record against some of the higher ranking teams of the New England district. Considerable credit for this showing goes to Don Ellis and Billy Dingwell.

They shouldered the entire defense burden alone during the absence of Doub and Fuller from the line-up.

STATE HAD BEST HIGHWAY SAFETY RECORD

Hon. Rudolph F. King, registrar of motor vehicles, has issued figures showing that Massachusetts has had the best motor vehicle highway traffic record in the history of the Commonwealth. During the year there were 437 deaths in which motor vehicles were involved, with an estimated 1,285,000 cars registered and 1,560,000 operators licenses issued. The death total is only one less than in 1917, but the percentage is much lower for in that year only 185,339 cars were registered and 214,229 operators licenses issued. The highest death total recorded was in 1934 when 953 persons lost their lives in automobile accidents in the state.
That year there were 956,240 cars registered and 1,053,527 licensed operators. There were over 800 deaths in each of the years, 1930, 1931 and 1936.

The motor vehicle revenue from registrations, licenses, etc., in

STEAK CASUALTY IN FIRST FIRE OF NEW YEAR

The first alarm of the New Year, that from Box 24 at 7:00
Tuesday evening was for a fire in a gas oven in the kitchen of the home of Mr. James H. Donahue at 11 Kendall street. The principal casualty, according to the firemen, was a piece of steak in the oven, no inconsiderable item, but there was also more or less smoke damaged elsewhere in the house.

Mr. Alden H. Symmes, a long time well known resident of Winchester, has moved with his family from Ridgfield road to Melrose where he has taken up residence at 133 Sewall Woods

TUFTS GRID COACH GUEST SPEAKER

On Sunday, January 9th, the men of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church will escort their families to the 8:00 a. m. mass where all will receive Holy Communion in a body. The special emphasis on the "Home and Family" is thereby stressed by the Holy Name Society, realizing full well that the good home and family is the basis of the good society.
The customary Holy Name Society hymns will be rendered by the entire assembly with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament concluding the church service.

After mass the Holy Name men will adjourn to Lyceum Hall where coffee and doughnuts will be served by Mr. Michael Connolly and his younger aides of the Society.
The customary reports of officers and committees will be given.

The invited speaker will be Fred "Fish" Ellis, head football coach of Tufts College. Fred starred in football, first at Medford High, then at Tufts. He was a halfback on the undefeated 1927 eleven and was noted for his open field running. Football was not the only sport he excelled in because he played the outfield in baseball, was a track man and played basketball, yes, a "four letter man"

That Coach Ellis' remarks ought to prove interesting is putting it mildly. The men are urged not to miss this fine attraction for our January meeting, which is in line with our policy of inviting a priest to speak one month and a lay speaker the next month. Last month we enjoyed Father Stapleton, Chaplain on an aircraft carrier, and next month will be privileged to hear Monsignor Mc-Innis, Rector of St. Sebastian's Country Day School for boys in Newton.

WEST PLAYED IN RICE BOWL

"Bill" West (1st Lt. William
I. West, U. S. A.) son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. West of Wedgemere avenue, played in the backfield of the victorious Far Eastern Army Ground Forces in their football game with the Rice Bowl at Tokyo on New Year's day. The Ground Force won 14-7.

"Bill" as good as individual player as Winchester High ever produced, and captain of the 1942 unbeaten, untied Class C State Championship eleven, afterwards played for Dartmouth during the war years while in the Navy and then was on those great West Point eleven, spearheaded by "Doc" Blanchard and Glen Davis.

After his participation in the college all star game after his graduation bill "Monk" announced he had hung up his spikes, but the lure of the gridiron is strong for "Bill" (remember he had a football hung on his crib soon after his arrival by his grandfather, the famous "Buck" Irvin of Princeton). And it is hard for him to say goodbye. Incidentally he coached the Ground Force backfield for the New Year's game, as well as playing in it.

The Town Basketball League resumed its activities this week after a break in the schedule caused by the holiday period. A large crowd was on hand on Monday evening to see the Rotary Club set a new team scoring record with 81 points against the Bombers. In this same game
Dick Coon broke a three-year Town League scoring record by amassing 38 points against the hopeless Bombers. The Mercurio Insurance remained undefeated by winning over Bonnell Motors while the American Legion broke into the win column with a 39 to 29 victory over the Winchester Appliance Company.

On Wednesday evening the Winchester Appliance and the Sons of Italy established a new three-year scoring record for both teams in one game in the 57 to 51 victory of the Winchester Appliance over the Sons of Italy.
This was the fastest as well as the highest scoring game in the three year history of the present Town League as both teams were shooting like professionals. Roger Swanson paced the scorers with 28 points while "Slim" Lentine scored 20 points in a losing game.

The feature game of the evening found the Rotary coming from behind to beat the Bonnell Motors in the last half. The Bonells had a 17 to 14 lead at the halftime but the Rotary forged ahead 26 to 25 at the end of the third quarter and won in the last period as they restricted the Bonells to three points in that period. The scoring was well divided in this well-played and interesting game but Jim Coon and Dick Coon were outstanding for the victors as they controlled both back boards.

Next week's schedule lists two outstanding games on Monday evening as the Bonnell Motors and the Sons of Italy clash in the first game and the Winchester Appliance and the Mercurio Insurance in the second game. On Wednesday evening the Rotary versus the Sons of Italy should be the feature contest.

TROOP 3

Since September, our troop has done some great work on advancement. We have had twelve boys who have become Tenderfeet since the start of the season. These boys are Dan Blanchard, Allen Cairncross, James Cullen, Jr., James Cusack, Gerry Eaton, Malcolm Johnston, Donald Lewis, Harold McKinley, John Merritt, Thomas Ordway, David Pratt, and Edward Tarr.

We can boast only one boy who has passed his Second Class this year, but we can brag about four boys for First Class. Our Second Class man is Bill Johnston, our First Class boys being David Archibald, Gordon Bird, Jr., Robert Burnham, and Sam Rocray. Sam Rocray has also passed two merit badges. Our highest ranking scout, Trevor Smith, has recently received his Life Award along with three merit badges.

On last Monday, four Senior Patrol Leaders were chosen as well as new Patrol Leaders. The S.P.L.'s are Gordon Bird, Jr., Robert Burnham, David Archibald, and Trevor Smith. The new Patrol Leaders are Sam Rocray, Bill Johnston, Dan Blanchard, and David Snow. Their assistants are David Pratt, Robert Gaffney, John Merritt, and Tom Ordway. We also chose Sam Rocray as our new Scribe.

Congratulations to all of them, and may they all fulfill their jobs with great success. T. G. S.

WINCHESTER COLLEGE CLUB EVENING STUDY GROUP

The Winchester College Club Evening Study Groups will hold their opening meeting next Tuesday, January 11th at the Church of the Epiphany at 6:30.

The dinner will be followed by an announcement of Program plans for the season and a brief gathering of separate Study Groups.

The main feature of the evening will be the showing of "Outposts of American Education" the recent screen story of American Colleges in the near East. Narrated by Lowell Thomas. Quote: "From a Bedouin tribe to a 10 cent store the camera records the merging of ancient and modern living - the synthesis of East and West now taking place so rapidly in the near East."

NARROW ESCAPE IN CALIFORNIA

Fred Donahue, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Donahue of Mystic avenue, had a narrow escape from serious injury Christmas evening when the Oldsmobile coupe he was driving in Yosemite National Park, California, skidded on an icy curve and plowed fifty feet of frozen snow-bank, skidding an additional hundred feet into a snow-covered meadow and narrowly missing several large trees in the immediate area.

Fred and his four companions, all students at Leland Stanford University, were shaken up, but not seriously injured, all refusing medical treatment. Fred's car was damaged so badly about the front end it had to be towed to a garage.

Mrs. Mary Piccolo, well known clerk at the S. K. Ames store on Mt. Vernon street is reported confined to her home on Park avenue by illness.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

The coming Monday is termed Education Day in the Fortnightly program. Mrs. Forbes Norris, chairman of Education, has provided, for the pleasure of the members, Mr. Andre Snow, a professional portrait photographer of note, who will present his Kodachrome color lecture entitled, "France Today." For this lecture he extended a recent visit to his mother, who lives in Paris, to make a comprehensive tour of France from the coast to the French Alps, photographing the varied beauties of countryside and cities, cathedrals and the Riviera. These are the pictures he will bring to Winchester, presenting the charm of France and its condition today.

At the close of the lecture tea will be served. Mrs. Kenneth W. Lamprey and Mrs. H. Parker Melanson of the Social Committee are to be the hostesses.

Literature Group
At a meeting held by the Literature Group of The Fortnightly on Monday, January 3, Miss Caroline V. Everett, introduced by the chairman, Miss Eva M. Sherman, brought to her audience an inspiring word picture of the British Novelist and Poet, Rudyard Kipling. In a brief outline of the life of Mr. Kipling, Miss Everett disclosed the fact that Kipling's given name "Rudyard" was bestowed for sentimental reasons for it was at Lake Rudyard, England that his parents first met. Continuing the story, Miss Everett portrayed Kipling as a small boy, a young journalist and finally as a young novelist and poet. "Born at Bombay, India in 1865, educated in England, Mr. Kipling" stated Miss Everett, "established himself as one of the most interesting and forceful figures in modern literature, capable of producing an astonishing amount of work amazingly diverse in matter and form."

Miss Everett concentrated on the Poetical work of Mr. Kipling but touched briefly on his Prose Works as equally appreciated. Several poems of Mr. Kipling's were read by Mrs. Theo Dissel, poems which brought out strikingly the power of his personality and which revealed him as pre-eminently the spokesman of Anglo-Saxon law, order and discipline, an imperialist proud of the achievements of his race, firm in his loyalty to the British Empire.

Miss Everett concluded the program with a tribute to Mr. Kipling as having interpreted admirably, through his literary work, the imperialistic age to which he belonged.

Rudyard Kipling will ever remain in the hearts of all men for of us can ever forget the haunting rhymes of "Danny Deever", "Tommy Boy" or the stirring strains of "Mandalay."

RALLY DAY

An Event

The Winchester Unitarian Church got off to a mighty fine start for 1949. Dr. and Mrs. John R. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Kelley, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Holdsworth, as hosts and hostesses, greeted the large congregation which filled the church and exceeded the record Christmas Sunday attendance of December 19. The music of the carillon and organ and the singing of the Junior and Senior Choirs was superb. Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, by request, repeated his sermon: "On Which Step Do You Stand?" This frank, forthright, and stirring description of the five steps from inactivity to full participation in the life and work of the church was enthusiastically received. At the close of the service new members were welcomed into the church by Rev. Chapman and Mr. Theodore C. Browne, representing the Board of Deacons. This eventful occasion was concluded by a coffee hour in the Church Parlor, which was in the charge of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. D. Townley-Tilson and their committee.

Mr. Chapman's sermon for next Sunday, January 9, is entitled: "The Man Who Stayed At Home."

SCOUTS TO PRODUCE OPERETTA

"Sunny of Sunnyside", tuneful operetta by Casey and Alford, will be presented Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock and Friday evening at 8 o'clock, January 13 and 14, in Metcalf Hall, Unitarian Church, by Winchester 7th and 8th grade Girl Scouts. Mrs. Elizabeth A. McClintock is the producer, assisted by Mrs. Jane Graham, Mrs. Dorothy Cullen, Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham and Miss Anne Hall.

The operetta has two lively acts with charming costumes and musical scores. The scene is the Children's Home of Sunnyside, an orphanage, and the time is the present. Proceeds from this production will be used by the local Scouts towards the building of their summer camp, and Mrs. James McElroy is heading the committee in charge of tickets.

The Thursday afternoon performance is for school children.

In the third scene Santa arrived at the home of the family portrayed in the first scene. He read the list of toys that the children wanted, and as he called out each toy, a child came out. Each child was in a costume representing his toy, such as a drum, a doll, bugle, etc. During the course of the play, a chorus of forty children sang background parts were Announcer, Anne Marks; Santa, Ken Williams; mother, Virginia Wadsworth; Mrs. Santa, Abbie Abbott; Brother, Ronnie Roberts; Sister, Charlotte Goodwin; Jimmy, Edward Ardini; Sister, Jacqueline Snook.

LEXINGTON TOPPED WINCHESTER
Winchester High suffered its second Middlesex League defeat of the week at the hands of Lexington High at the local gym on Tuesday afternoon by a score of 30 to 17. The Red and Black had one of those days when they could do nothing right and after a close first half, Lexington drew away to an easy victory.
Winchester was unable to get its offense functioning and could score only six baskets, only one of which came in the second half when the locals could not seem to put the ball through the basket. Their defense operated well enough but it was their lack of offensive power that spelled defeat for the Red and Black. It just seemed that all the boys had an off day at the same time.
Lexington went out ahead in the first quarter by a score of 10 to 3. Winchester enjoyed its best period in the second quarter when they outscored the visitors and trailed only 15 to 12 at the half-time. The locals scored only three points in the third quarter however, as Lexington went ahead 23 to 15 at the end of that period. Lexington increased its margin in the final period as Winchester was able to add only two points on foul shots as against the seven points picked up by Lexington.
The lack of height has really shown up in the last three defeats suffered by the Red and Black. The locals rebound pretty well on the defensive backboard but their lack of height shows up badly when trying to follow up their own shots on the offense. This is especially noticeable right now when the locals are in a shooting slump. Their shooting percentage has been very poor in the past three games and when they get so few offensive rebounds, the poor shooting really hurts.
Winchester was able to salvage the second team game by the narrow margin of 31 to 30 as Dave Coon sank a pretty long shot in the closing seconds of play.
The summary: Lexington H. S.

A Boston bound express stopped on the center crossing shortly before four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, because, it is reported the gates were not lowered. Noting that the gates were not down the locomotive engineer applied his brakes. Seeing that he could not stop he blew his whistle as the train slid on the crossing to a stop with the locomotive just beyond the south walk. The prompt action by the engineer probably averted an accident at this busy place.

CLINTON ELLSWORTH FARNHAM

Clinton Ellsworth Farnham, principal of 3 Wolcott road, former principal of Winchester High School and since 1943 associated with the Massachusetts General Hospital, died suddenly at his desk soon after his arrival at the hospital Friday morning, Jan. 7. His sudden passing was attributed to an attack of heart disease and came only a day or so after he had taken out nomination papers as a candidate for election to the Board of Library Trustees in March.

Mr. Farnham joined the hospital as purchasing agent, but following a severe heart attack in the fall of 1943, he gave up this exacting position and at the time of his death was engaged in statistical work and in supervising the workman's compensation accident insurance for the hospital.

Mr. Farnham was the son of Charles W. and Catherine (Barker) Farnham. He was born May 12, 1888, in Westfield and spent his early life there, graduating from the Westfield High School with highest scholastic honors. At Yale, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1911, he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity, in his junior year, and he was also a member of Beta Theta Pi. He received his Master's Degree in School Administration from Teachers' College at Columbia University in 1917.

For some years Mr. Farnham was engaged in education. He taught at Culver Military Academy in Indiana, was principal of Bacon Academy in Colchester, Conn., and headmaster of Academics High in New Britain, Conn., prior to July 28, 1922, when he came to Winchester to succeed the late Edward A. Thompson as principal of Winchester High School. He remained at the head of the local school only a little more than a year, resigning Oct. 2, 1923.

At that time he entered the banking and investment field, subsequently being associated with Moors & Cabot in Boston for 16 years. He went to Washington in January, 1942, to serve in the Foreign Funds Control Division of the Treasury Department, returning to Winchester the next year, at which time he entered the employ of the Massachusetts General.

Mr. Farnham was interested in town affairs, serving as a member of the Finance Committee and as a town meeting member. He was elected a Library trustee in March, 1940, resigning when he went to Washington.

He was a member of the United States Bonds Sales Committee during the war and a deputy sales warden in the town's Civilian Control Division. He was a member of the Finance Committee and of the Winchester Coffee Club. A member of the First Congregational Church, he was active in the work of the Society, having served as a member of the Prudential and Church Committees and being a director of the Men's Club at the time of his death.

On June 12, 1913, Mr. Farnham married Florence Sprague of Springfield, who survives him with a daughter, Mrs. R. Ashley Lewis of Winchester; a granddaughter, Gratia Farnham Lewis; and a brother, Albert A. Farnham of Roanoke, Va.

CONTEMPORARY ART SHOW

There are some fine pictures in the exhibition of contemporary artists being shown this month at the Library Art Gallery under the auspices of the Winchester Art Association.

"Winter Afternoon" by Charles Curtis Allen is a fine landscape with excellent composition, its long rambling whitish-gray farm buildings filling much of the middle of the canvas with wooded highlands in the background and an aqua sky with pink-tinged clouds at the sky-line. A bit of snow-fence to the right, the figure of a man at some homely chore in the yard and a washing on the back porch of the house add human interest.

"Surf at Land's End" by Stanley Woodward is a striking marine, full of motion with the heave of great green combers on jagged reddish-brown rocks and the true color tones in the water and sullen purple-tinged sky.

As fine a study as there is in the show is "Thoreau's Great Meadow" by Loring W. Coleman, a sensitive, painted landscape that reflects nature at its peaceful best. The light touch in the sky and reflected silver in the water are nice facets of a picture that would be nice to live with.

Carl J. Peters has two colorful oils, "Lanesville, Autumn," full of warmth and rich foliage hues, and "Low Tide," with a bit of finely painted beach, dories and a fisherman in the foreground.

Antoinette Inglis has a large study of asters in oils, and Marion P. Sloane, two large oil landscapes, "Clouds," and "Brook in Pownal," the latter fine study being accented by a red barn and silo in the middle background.

Stephen Etnier has an unusual color approach to his seascape, "Morgan's Anchorage," an oil; and Andrew Wyeth has combined white, grays and black with a touch of brown in his watercolor, "Woodpile," another, unusual picture.

"Winter Haze," a large oil by Alexander Haze, has subdued natural coloring and a fresh perspective, as the viewer gazes down upon a cluster of frame houses in the snow with highlands at the side and rear.

Alexander Bower, A.N.A., shows "Cape Elizabeth," a rugged oil seascape; and Eliot O'Hara, "Devil's Thumb, Alaska," a watercolor of ice bergs floating on deep blue water before a towering cobalt peak.

James Wingate Parr's large watercolor, "New Snow, N. H.," is another fine landscape, and that smaller watercolor, "South Woodstock, Winter," by Dwight Shepler, is outstanding, with its line of colonial type houses on a knoll and the shadowy traces thrown by tree branches on the snow of the foreground.

"Fall Landscape" by Randolph Bye, "Last of the Maples Red" by Didge Mackenzie, Vladimir Pavovsky's well done watercolor, "Lobster River," and "Early Spring, Charles River," a vivid watercolor by Glenn MacNutt, round out the show which is open to the public during library hours.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB LOOKS AHEAD TO ITS SPRING CONCERT

After a holiday layoff, the men of the Mystic Glee Club have again started their weekly rehearsals on Monday nights. The first rehearsal of 1949 was held last Monday night, January 10, at the Masonic Hall. The club spent the whole evening in singing old numbers from their ever-increasing library of music. Everyone seemed to thoroughly enjoy singing these old numbers, some of which the club had not sung for nine years.

On Wednesday evening, January 5, the executive board of the Mystic Glee Club met under the gracious hospitality of its host and honorary president, Carl Wood of High street. Under the direction of its president, Robert W. Carlson of Wedgemere avenue, the board made final plans for its big Spring Concert. The club is already starting to prepare music for this Spring Concert to be held at the Winchester High School auditorium on Friday night, April 22.

BOWLER NEW SERGEANT

At a special meeting of the Board of Selectmen held Tuesday, Edward F. Bowler was promoted to sergeant in the police department, filling the vacancy caused by the promotion of Sgt. Charles J. Harold to Chief.

Sergeant Bowler was appointed patrolman for a probationary period April 27, 1939, his appointment being confirmed October 30 of that year. He was born October 23, 1914, in Stoneham, but went to school in Winchester and graduated from Winchester High School, working as a clerk at the Winchester News Company before going on the police force. In recent years he has been serving as desk officer at headquarters.

Sergeant Bowler topped the civil service list for promotion to sergeant and was one of the top three on the list for promotion to chief. He makes his home at 17 Winchester place, is married and has two children, a son and a daughter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Bowler of 35 Spruce street.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Macdonald of Arlington, formerly of Winchester are the parents of a daughter, Marjorie Mae, born January 8, at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Macdonald of Kenwin road.

WINTON CLUB

This year the Winton Club Cabaret has a story to tell that should be interesting to all of us who live here. You will find a book in the library telling about Winchester from the earliest times up to today and it was this source that furnished most of the following incidents.

The Pawtuckets, a tribe of Algonquin Indians, lived, hunted and fished here. Have you ever found an arrow in your garden? It is possible you might. Then a warlike tribe of Maine Indians came down to our valley and nearly wiped out the entire Pawtucket Tribe. During the years of the first Pilgrim Settlements around Boston, the last Pawtucket chief died, leaving his widow, Squaw Sachem to lead the few remaining Indians. A friend of the English Colonists, she lived down the lake beyond the Boat Club and often pitched her wigwam near the spring that still bubbles up below the Fulton Brown's home by the Country Club. You will see Squaw Sachem in the first number of the Winton Club Cabaret.

In 1641 the first rude little bridge was built over the Aberjona River to help open up the new settlement for the Pilgrims from Charlestown. It was built in February and called the "Cold Bridge" because the freezing winter weather hampered the builders. Our present Concrete Bridge stands in the same spot and it was then that the last of the Winchester Indians, an old Squaw, drowned. She grew too fond of the white man's "spirits" and one day, after a lonely celebration, fell off the bridge and drowned in the Aberjona.

In the Cabaret this story will be told in a pantomime and dancing number and packs a definite surprise. The second number on the program covers the farm period when wolves and bears roamed the hills above the valley. There were only fifteen farms and it took a rugged group to hold their homes against disaster. The Symmes Farm included all of Rangleys. History tells of an early blizzard in 1790. Farmer Symmes had a flock of sheep whose wool was needed for spinning and weaving. The flock was pastured in a gully behind the present Central Green. Buried under the enormous drifts in the blizzard, the warmth of their breath melted breathing holes in the snow. When after several days of search, they were found and dug out, only a few had died.

If the notion still persists in any quarters that the feminine mind - particularly a feminine mind topped with an engaging hat - is unable to cope with the rudiments of government finance, the League of Women Voters panel discussion on "The Citizen Pays the Bill" held on the afternoon of January 5th would surely have dispelled it. Under the able leadership of Mrs. Marshall Phil, the members of the Economic Policies committee who took part in the discussion presented their material with clarity and skill. Mrs. Phil introduced each speaker and later summarized the points that had been made.

Mrs. Horace P. Abbott spoke first on the fact that our national economic history has been marked by recurring periods of prosperity and depressions. Mrs. Harold Hall, League President, had as her subject, "Uncle Sam The Great Spender." She pointed out that the U. S. government is the largest employer in the world (including our military personnel), the largest purchaser in the world, the largest debtor (the interest on it being more than the total cost of government in any one year up to 1934), and the largest lender.

Mrs. Warren Whitman spoke on what was by this time the most welcome topic of the afternoon, "How Can Government Expense Be Cut?" She cited "efficiency" as the greatest need in the various categories of government services and functions.

Mrs. Philip Woodward, 13 Sheffield road, very graciously opened her home for the meeting. Punch and cookies were served by Mrs. Theodore Atkinson, Mrs. Don Greer, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. Edward James and Mrs. Clifford Williams.

LEAGUE TO HEAR SPEAKER ON ATLANTIC PACT

With the question of a collective defense pact one of the most critical decisions facing the people of the U. S. and Congress during the early part of this year, the League of Women Voters has planned to present the arguments both for and against such a commitment at a special meeting on Wednesday, January 19th at the home of Mrs. Hoyt C. Hottel, 27 Cambridge Street. The League feels most fortunate in having as speaker Mrs. George Burch, Instructor on International Relations in the department of Government at Tufts, who will have as her subject "The Atlantic Pact."

It has been proposed by the Brussels Pact countries (Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg) that the U. S. and Canada join with them in an arrangement for collective self-defense, along the lines of the Brussels Pact. Among key questions which must be faced are first of all, Should the U. S. support the principle of "defense pacts"? Do they strengthen or weaken the United Nations? Should we support one that is open to all nations willing to join, or one limited to a specific region? To what degree should we be committed to give military aid? Automatically in case of attack or should we reserve the right to decide when the time comes? Any pact would be valueless unless backed by military preparedness, and a program of foreign military aid added to our rearmament program would have an effect on our Federal budget and tax policy.

Mrs. Antonio Mezzacappa, chairman of International Relations in the League, and her committee, are in charge of the program which will begin promptly at 2:30 since there will be no regular business meeting. A particularly large attendance is expected to hear this fine speaker, who is incidentally a member of the Belmont League of Women Voters. Guests are most cordially welcome.

BETA SIGMA PHI

The regular meeting of Beta Sigma Phi was held Monday evening, January 10, at the home of Miss Adelaide Hansen, 2 Ainsworth road. Miss Hansen and Miss Margaret Brauer from Alpha Alpha Chapter in Boston dressed in the costumes of the Norwegian and told in detail about their recent trip to Norway. Miss Brauer then told of the many difficulties that the Norwegians had during the war. For refreshments Miss Hansen served delicious Norwegian cookies from Norwegian bowls. An enjoyable evening was had by all.

The next meeting will be held January 24, at the home of Mrs. Harvey C. Haag, 161 Cambridge street.

GARDEN TALK

The Winchester Home and Garden Club will meet Wednesday, January 19, at 2 o'clock in the Art Gallery, Public Library, for an unusually colorful talk on "March of the Seasons and Down's Greenhouse" by Mr. Percy Brigham of Arlington. Mr. Brigham, through his films shows the four New England seasons with all their garden beauty, highlighting the local beauty spot, Down's greenhouses, which members and their guests will enjoy.

Mrs. Harold M. Twombly will preside.

FORMER WINCHESTER MAN SOUTHERN CITY MANAGER

Mr. Frederick W. Ford, 2nd, who formerly made his home for several years at 5 Copley street with his wife and daughters, Marjorie and Nancy, is now serving as city manager at Oak Ridge in Tennessee, currently instituting a master plan for rebuilding the community, with studies of long-term leases for business establishments and a comprehensive survey of the problems involved in incorporating the city. Great impetus was expected to be given these plans with the opening of the Oak Ridge community development to the general public about January 1. Mr. Ford presently occupies both the positions of City Manager and Acting Director of the Office of Community Affairs.

Mr. Ford, a graduate of Tufts Engineering School in the class of 1914 and a former Tufts football player as well as manager of the college baseball team, went to Oak Ridge last September from the New York headquarters of the Federal Public Housing Administration. He previously was for four years in charge of administration for the FPHA in the Northeast area with headquarters in Boston. It was during that time that he and his family lived in Winchester, his younger daughter, Nancy, having graduated from high school here in 1945. Previously Mr. Ford was City Manager of Auburn, Me., for 12 years, going there from Methuen where he was superintendent of Public Works for four years. During World War I he served with the 35th Engineers in France.

One of the first persons he met when he arrived at Oak Ridge last fall was W. H. Britton, head of the City Management Division's Department of Education and Recreation, against whom he played when Tufts met West Point in football in 1913.

ARAXY ODABASHIAN TO SING HERE

On Tuesday evening, January 18, the women of the First Congregational Church and their friends will be particularly fortunate in being able to hear Araxy Odabashian, one of Boston's most popular mezzo-sopranos, when she is presented by the Junior Mrs. Guild in the Parish Hall at 7:45 p.m.

Madame Odabashian possesses a beautiful mezzo-soprano voice of lovely quality, wide range and great flexibility. In authentic costumes she will sing a group of Pan-American and American Folk Songs.

She has established herself as an artist of unusual attainments both as vocalist and interpreter. Rich coloring and delicate shading impart to her singing a charm that develops all the hidden beauties in the songs she sings.

Hazel Hallett, talented pianist, and Gertrude Davis, accompanist, will assist her.

Araxy Odabashian has recently appeared at several women's clubs in Greater Boston, The MacDowell Club in Jordan Hall, the Musical Guild of Boston, Ford Hall Forum, Music Lovers Club, and concerts in New York, Worcester, and Providence.

The Jr. Mrs. Guild feels especially happy to present Mme. Odabashian for one of their programs which will be instructive, entertaining, and most colorful, and they cordially invite all women of the church and their friends to hear her.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Harrison Simpson and her committee.

FLOWER TALK FOR WOMEN JANUARY 17

"A Day in a Flower Shop" will be presented by Mr. George W. Scott of Scott-Flowers, Arlington, Monday evening, January 17, at 8 o'clock in the Ladies' Parlor, First Congregational Church. All women who are interested in flower arrangements and in the creation of corsages are invited to attend this meeting, and at the close of his demonstration, Mr. Scott will present the flowers to ladies in his audience. A social hour will follow, with refreshments.

This meeting had been planned for January 5th, but due to the heavy rain storm, was postponed to January 17th. Mr. Scott is an amusing and instructive speaker, giving an excellent talk all the while his clever fingers create the flower arrangements for the many occasions the average woman has need of flowers.

Mrs. George E. Connor will preside at the brief business meeting, with Devotions by Miss Gertrude Davis, Candy Table report by Miss Helen M. Monroe, and Caney Creek by Miss Cassie Sands. All will be brief in order to give the spotlight of the evening to the speaker. It is hoped that business and all those ladies interested in flowers, will accept the Guild's invitation to the meeting on Monday evening.

SOCIAL NOTES FROM WINCHESTER'S YOUNGER SET

Winchester's youngsters are looking forward to a gala time on Saturday. In addition to the marionette show "Carnival" being presented at the high school auditorium, several parties are being given before and after the performance.

MRS. BARBARA METCALF, GIRL SCOUT EXECUTIVE, HONORED BY NATIONAL ORGANIZATION AND AMERICAN CAMPING ASSOCIATION

Mrs. Metcalf has been asked to speak at the American Camping Association Meeting at the Hotel Statler on February 5th, on Promotion of The Outdoor Program, and also to serve on the staff of the National Senior Leaders Training Course at Camp Hoffman in Kingston, R.I., in June from the 14th to the 19th. The following is a letter received by the commissioner from the National Office:

Dear Mrs. Cary:
May I wish you and all the Girl Scouts in Winchester a very happy and prosperous New Year? If the Girl Scouts in Winchester continue the high standards which they established in the way of Program during the year 1948, I am sure that the year 1949 will be an outstanding year for all of you. You really do a wonderful job there, especially with Senior Scouting. I have been very thrilled to hear of the progress made with the skiing program, and think that Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. Hersey deserve congratulations on their untiring effort and enthusiasm.

Thank you very much for your continued co-operation. Everything of the very best to you.

Sincerely yours,
Anne Bronkhorst,
Health and Safety Advisor
National Staff

Because of the outstanding out-of-door program carried on by the Girl Scouts in Winchester, the Regional Office has advised Mrs. Metcalf to take the course in administration of this program for professionals at the National Camp, Rockwood Manor, Bethesda, Md., from March 13th to the 29th.

The reason Mrs. Bronkhorst compliments Winchester on the Senior Scout Program is because generally girls leave Scouting upon entering High Scout. Because of the unusual program offered in Winchester for our older girls, such as Wings -- the air group, Mariners -- the sea group, Trail Blazers -- the out-of-door group, and the Hospital aides, etc., our local registration for girls of this age is outstanding.

Miss Margaret McCreery is giving a luncheon for twenty-five of her friends and Master Bobby Dickey has invited twenty youngsters for lunch before the show. Also entertaining at luncheons are Miss Bonnie Campbell, Miss Jeanne Buffum, Miss Tucky Frazier, and George Wyman. Miss Deborah will serve tea to several of her friends after the marionette show.

FORTUNE TOYS WITH NANKING CHINA'S IN-AND-OUT CAPITAL

Years of boom and ordeals of adversity have thrust a hectic tempo of life on Nanking in the past two decades. Once again the Chinese capital is threatened as communist armies swarm southward.

Eight times the seat of the nation's government, Nanking is strategically located near the south bank of the Yangtze in populous east-central China, 200 miles from the river's mouth. In the 20 centuries of its importance, violence and destruction have many times been its lot notes the National Geographic Society. Taiping rebels in 1853 and Japanese invaders in 1937 brutally ravaged the city.

One of the longest, widest, and highest city walls in much-walled China stretches for 28 miles around Nanking, enclosing an area somewhat smaller than the District of Columbia.

Booms On Bureaucracy

Hsiakuan, the capital's river port section, lies just outside the massive wall, which reaches south to encompass the dense heart of the city five miles inland from the river. Ferries ply across the Yangtze to Pukow, southern terminus of government rail lines to Peiping, Tientsin, and Tsingtao. Railroad, highway, and river carry the trade with Shanghai 160 air miles southeast.

Long known as Ginling, the community gained its wall and its present name under the Ming dynasty, founded in 1368. Living Americans can still recall when it was known as Nankeen, source of yellowish nankeen cloth. Nanking, meaning southern capital, was the city of Sun Yat-sen. When in 1928, it was chosen full-time capital of the 17-year-old Chinese Republic, Peking (northern capital) became Peiping (northern plain).

In 1928, Nanking had 300,000 inhabitants, virtually no lighting and sewage systems. Water was sold in the streets by the caskful. The ensuing decade saw tremendous development. When evacuation began before the Japanese attack of December, 1937, more than a million people lived in the city. Nanking had become China's most progressive metropolis. Wide, well-lighted streets had been opened, new buildings of concrete and steel were in use, and water flowed from household taps.

The bombing and sinking of the U. S. S. Panay was an incident of the Japanese assault on Nanking. Exodus and occupation left the capital with 650,000 residents when the Japanese signed surrender papers at Nanking in September, 1945.

Swelling steadily since the war's end, Nanking's population is again well past the million mark. Comparatively untouched by the calamity of continuing civil war, the city has boomed on the building program necessitated for the influx of clerks manning new government bureaus. In addition, jerry-built refugee villages have sprung up outside the guarded wall.

Landmarks Outside Walls
The Porcelain Tower, Lotus Lake, Purple Mountain, and the tomb of Sun Yat-sen, Nanking's foremost landmarks, lie outside the city gates. The Porcelain Tower, built in the 15th century, was reckoned the most beautiful pagoda in a land of pagodas. Taipings destroyed it, and only its bronze cupola remains, a huge inverted bowl outside the South Gate.

Outside the East Gate, Purple Mountain is a memorial ground comparable to Washington's Arlington National Cemetery. Crowning its slopes, and approached by 500 marble steps, is the Memorial Hall, and the blue-tiled mausoleum of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, founder of the modern republic. Contributions from Chinese in America played a part in their construction.

WINCHESTER FRESHMEN TOPPED WAKEFIELD

The Winchester High Freshmen won their first scheduled game of the season by defeating the Wakefield High Freshmen by a score of 33 to 13 at the local gym last Friday afternoon. The Winchester Frosh were in complete control all the way, having a 14 to 4 lead at the half.

Coach Provinzano was well pleased with the performance of his charges in their first outing. The locals made very few bad passes, waved the ball well and set up their plays very well on the offense. Practice sessions this week will be devoted to improving their shooting accuracy as many baskets were missed that should have been counted in the scoring column. Dick Errico and Johnny Farrell were outstanding for the Winchester Frosh in pacing the scorers with 11 points each.

In a preliminary game the Winchester Junior High quintet defeated the Wakefield Freshmen second team by a score of 22 to 8 as John Atkinson led the local's attack with 10 points.

WINCHESTER WON THRILLER FROM READING

Winchester High snapped out of its slump with a thrilling victory over Reading High in a high scoring contest at Reading last Friday night by a score of 49 to 41. This was an exciting game from the spectators' point of view as the lead changed hands nine times during a game that was extremely fast from beginning to end.

It has been many years since a Winchester team has been able to score 49 points on the Reading court. The locals had to be at their best, too, for Reading is a good team and put on a scoring performance in the second quarter that the locals hope they never encounter again. In this hot scoring streak, Reading scored 8 baskets in succession for 16 straight points to take an 18 to 13 lead. During this streak Winchester twice called time out to cool off their opponents and Coach Bartlett made three substitutions but none of these moves had any effect. It is to the credit of the Red and Black, however, that they refused to lose their poise and fought fiercely to pull out a highly gratifying victory in the last quarter.

Winchester started off as though they were going to make the contest a rout by piling up a 12 to 2 lead at the end of the first quarter, sparked chiefly by performances by Pete Dillingham and Walter Murphy. In the second quarter Reading put on the scoring spree already described and took the lead at the half-time by a margin of 20 to 19. The third quarter was a slam-bang affair as the teams matched basket for basket with Winchester getting the odd basket to take the lead 32 to 31 at the end of the third period.

Paul Roche threw in three beautiful one-handed shots from the foul circle at the beginning of the fourth quarter to give Winchester a nice working margin. This was just the stimulus the Red and Black needed and they went on from there to win as Sanford, McGowan and Dillingham matched baskets made by Reading. Those quick six points by Roche were just what the doctor ordered and put the Red and Black in command of the situation.

In the preliminary game the Winchester Seconds continued to be disappointing as they dropped a 39 to 28 decision to the Reading Seconds. The only redeeming feature from the local viewpoint was fine performances by Tony Cirurso and Bobby Walsh.

The "Stop" sign at the intersection of Waterfield road and the Parkway extending along Manchester Field seems to be a good traffic safety precaution, particularly when heavy parking in that usually crowded area obstructs drivers' views. It isn't being observed very well from our observation and several motorists, who know the sign is there and are driving along the Parkway toward Wedgemere, have complained of near collisions with cars which have not come to a stop at the point where the "Stop" sign is located.

The suggestion has been made to the Star that a school question-box would be of interest to many in town. We agree that there are probably not a few with questions about school matters which they would like to see answered in the Star. Our columns are always open for the discussion of matters of public concern, and so if interest develops through questions sent either to this office or to the School Department a question-box will be run commencing as soon as possible. If you have a question about school matters send it in. Please type questions if possible. At least write them legibly, and use one side of the paper only. We suppose there will be questions which cannot be answered, but Superintendent of Schools Forbes Norris has promised his complete co-operation in answering as many, and in giving as complete, answers as possible.

CONSTITUTION BAN ON UNTOUCHABILITY IS BLOW TO ANCIENT INDIAN PRACTICE

India's Constituent Assembly, by giving final approval to the new constitutional clause outlawing Untouchability, has sounded the official death knell for a custom that was old when Julius Caesar raided England in the century before Christ.

The Untouchable classification is believed to have grown out of the rigid caste system that developed after the Aryan invasion of northwest India, more than 3,000 years ago, notes the National Geographic Society.

According to accumulated evidence, the caste sanctions were introduced by the light-skinned conquerors from the Iranian Plateau in order to maintain racial and ruling supremacy over their dark-skinned Dravidian and other subjects. Under this system, the Untouchables came to occupy a position so low in the social and occupational scale that their very shadows falling across the food of the Orthodox Hindu were believed to defile it. Even their presence near some places was considered polluting.

Occupation Marks Caste
At the top of the class pyramid, reserved for the Aryan invaders, was the Brahman caste -- originally composed of priests and scholars -- and the Kshatriya or warrior group, now the Rajputs. Next came the Vaisya, or merchant and professional group, and finally the Sudra, including above the Untouchables, such followers of "clean" occupations as certain farmers, carpenters, barbers, tailors, and goldsmiths.

The Untouchables, as people of no civil or economic rights, were originally assigned the lowest of menial labor. They were the washers, street cleaners, sanitation workers, or leather handlers (an activity especially undesirable because of connection with dead animals). They were not permitted to enter the temples, to use public wells, to attend common schools, or live near the others in the villages.

In the beginning, it is thought, penalty for breaking the rules. Eventually, with the limitations imposed for life, and passed on from generation to generation, this status may have been the outcasts numbered millions.

Long-Fought Reform
Today, it is estimated that there are some fifty or sixty million members of the "depressed" or "scheduled" classes within the new Indian Dominion, with perhaps eight million in the next-door Moslem state of Pakistan.

The anti-discrimination clause in India's new constitution marks a milestone on the road of legal reform pushed by modern Indian leaders. Previously, restrictions against the Untouchables were reported gradually breaking down in larger cities. Provincial legislatures have banned unfair distinctions, and various Indian states have opened their temples to all. The central Indian government has announced that caste will play no part in selections of employees.

Among the mass population, however, the caste system is rooted in millenniums of tradition and religious faith. Although bypassed or modified by more Westernized Indians, strict taboos and demands of the system still determine what and where and with whom pious Hindus may eat, what class they may or may not marry into, and what profession or occupation they may choose. A protracted period of evolution seems likely before the official ban on caste sanction is accepted and observed by all elements of the nation's society.

U. S. AIR FORCE GETS PORTRAIT OF NOTED PRE-WAR LEADER

A portrait of Major General Oscar Westover now hangs in the U. S. Air Force hall of fame.

The oil painting of the pre-war Air Corps Chief was presented by Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, President, on behalf of the National Geographic Society, to General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Chief of Staff of the Air Force on the eve of Armistice Day.

A native of Bay City, Michigan, General Westover became Air Corps Chief in 1935 and held that post until his death in 1938 at the age of 55 in an airplane crash near Burbank, California. He is credited with much of the long range planning and organization work which enabled the Air Force to meet the crisis of World War II.

General Westover also served on the Board of Trustees of the National Geographic Society, to which he was elected as a life member in 1936. Previously he had cooperated with the Society in the history-making stratosphere balloon flights from Rapid City, South Dakota, which it sponsored in 1934-35.

The pre-war Air Corps Chief began his military career at the bottom, enlisting as a private of engineers in 1901. He later received an appointment to West Point and graduated in the Class of 1906. His first duty was with the infantry, but in World War I he was transferred to the Air Corps, won the Distinguished Service Medal, and rose rapidly through a series of important assignments to become nation's No. 1 airman of his time.

The portrait of General Westover was painted by Nicolo Cortiglia, well known artist, of Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania, who attended the presentation ceremonies with his wife.

STIRLINGS LEAVE FOR PANAMA, SEEKS AMERICAS CULTURE LINKS

New knowledge of remote civilizations of the Americas will be sought by a National Geographic Society-Smithsonian Institution expedition sailing from New York for Panama shortly before the New Year.

Dr. Matthew W. Stirling, Chief of the Bureau of American Ethnology of the Smithsonian, will be the field leader, Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, President of the National Geographic Society, said in announcing the expedition plan today. Dr. Stirling has led nine previous archaeological expeditions since 1938 to Middle America sites under National Geographic-Smithsonian auspices. The party is to leave December 29.

Panama westward from the Canal Zone will be the laboratory throughout the four-month project. The area is very little known by archeologists -- perhaps less than any area of comparable size between the United States border and the Panama Canal.

In his first field work there last spring, Dr. Stirling unearthed pottery and farm implements ascribed to a civilization of 2,000 or more years ago -- the earliest culture uncovered in the Isthmian area. Their similarities to the earliest relics found in Mexico, Honduras, and Peru strengthened the view that widely divergent pre-Columbian cultures in scattered parts of the Americas may have had a common origin.

The 1949 expedition will differ from his past field researches, Dr. Stirling said, in that it will be devoted largely to reconnaissance work. He will hunt uncharted burial mounds and sites worthy of later delving, and work a large number of surface collections. At least two sites near the Costa Rican border will be investigated.

Dr. Stirling will be accompanied, as on several past expeditions, by Mrs. Marion Stirling, his wife, an accomplished archeologist in her own right. National Geographic cameraman Richard H. Stewart, a veteran in expedition photography, will make a picture record, as he has done for several of the Stirling field trips in the past.

BADLY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Sam Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perkins of Maple road, was badly injured last Saturday night in an automobile accident in the Jamaica Plain district of Boston.

Sam, who is a student at M. I. T., was returning to Winchester from Jamaica Plain when his convertible was struck in the rear by another car. He was thrown through the top of his machine, the fact that he was driving a convertible undoubtedly saving his life.

The Winchester boy was thrown clear of his car, landing on a grass plot between two streets near the Faulkner Hospital. He was taken to the hospital and attended by several specialists, including Dr. Alexander T. Aitken of this town. The full extent of his injuries had not been determined when the STAR went to press.

Last Saturday's hay-ride between Malden and Winchester proved rather an unfortunate party for Miss Audrey Rogovin of 29 Clarendon street, Malden, who reported to the police the loss of her Swiss wrist-watch, somewhere in Winchester, or between this town and Malden.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

On Monday, January 9th, at Masonic Hall, the regular meeting of The Fortnightly was termed Education Day, the program being under the direction of the Education Committee. Mrs. Forbes N. Norris, chairman, in introducing the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Andre Snow, referred appreciatively to the art and expert science of present day photography, especially of the beautiful achievements of kodachrome presentation.

Mr. Snow's lecture on "France To-day" bore evidence of this artistry. In the spring of 1947 he took his mother to revisit her native city of Paris. Beginning with brilliant pictures of storm-tossed ocean viewed from the freighter on which he and his mother sailed, he displayed to his audience by beautiful color slides the course of his trip, from the coast of Belgium, with its soft atmosphere, through the French countryside to their main objective, Paris, whose charm was shown by many lovely and varied scenes of architecture and people.

From Paris he, with his mother, extended his tour to visit and photograph, among other beauties, the majestic cathedrals of France, the ancient city of Avignon, the brilliant fascination of the Riviera, photographing freely as they travelled to a little town of special interest to him in the French Alps.

To accent the subject of the lecture, on the president's table were standing two French dolls kindly loaned by Mrs. Earle E. Andrews. They were an ancient couple clad in authentic Brittany costume.

At teatime the hostesses, Mrs. Kenneth W. Lamprey and Mrs. Parker Melanson, provided a pleasing variant bouillon was served from beautiful antique turquoise. Mrs. Charles H. Mason and Miss Lizzie N. Mason served, assisted by members of the Social Committee, Mrs. T. Parker Clarke, Mrs. Arthur Haines, Mrs. Amasa Harrington, Mrs. Erskine H. Kelly, and Mrs. Frank I. McCullough. The centerpiece was an amusing expression of education. On an edifice composed of alphabet blocks stood a little doll robed in commencement gown and carrying a diploma.

"Life" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 16.
Golden Text: "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you" (John 6:27).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:
"And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son" (1 John 5:11). Correlative passages from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker
Eddy include:
"The scientific unity which exists between God and man, must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done. The days of our pilgrimage will multiply instead of diminish, when God's Kingdom comes on earth; for the true way leads to life instead of to death, and earthly experience discloses the finity of error and the infinite capacities of Truth, in which God gives man dominion over all the earth"

EXPLORERS, RAMPANT
THROUGH 1948, SLEUTHED
GLOBE FROM POLE TO POLE

The continents, oceans, and atmosphere from the tropics to the polar regions gave up many secrets to scientific expeditions in 1948. A look at the record conveys the impression that everybody with the urge got into the exploration business.

Africa teamed with explorers, says the National Geographic Society. The Dark Continent yielded new material for the story of man's development. The fourth distinct ancestral type found in South Africa since 1936 is 1948's Swartrkranz man, a nine-foot-tall fossil representing a race of men perhaps larger than the established Java giant.

Alphabet in 1500 B. C.
Swartrkranz' discoverer, Dr.
Robert Broom of Transvaal, led one unit of the big University of California African Expedition. Its studies ranged from a continent-wide Navy medical survey of tropical diseases to a systematic recording of 500 tribal melodies.
A varied sampling of its findings so far released: Moses led the Exodus not across the Red Sea, but across the brackish Reed Sea ten miles south of where Port Said now stands; 3,500-year-old inscriptions found in the Sinai Peninsula are the earliest known that use an alphabet similar to our own; Lake Rudolf, Kenya, anciently twice its present size, may have been the original source of the Nile River.

Three Congo peafowl known as afropavos and two elephant shrews led a list of rare finds of the New York Zoological Society's Belgian Congo Expedition. The Carpenter Expedition's animal collections in the "Lake Victoria region" go to Philadelphia's Academy of Natural Sciences. Other African safaris brought back giant termites and stalk-eyed flies, studied the little-known Turkana tribe, tested radio waves on the "Mountains of the Moon."
Stone-Age Arnhem Land in northern Australia surrendered data on the history and customs of its primitive aborigines together with a wealth of fish, bird, and mammal specimens. Many are rare or previously undescrib-ed. U. S. and Australian scientists worked steadily from April to November under joint sponsorship of the National Geographic Society, the Smithsonian Institution, and the Australian Department of Information.

Comparatively near by in New Zealand, the first complete moa skeletons were taken from a jellyooze swamp by Dr. Robert Cushman Murphy for the American Museum of Natural History. The moa, extinct 500 years, is the largest bird of record sometimes surpassing ten feet in height and 500 pounds weight. Elsewhere in New Zealand a find of fossilized bones bespoke ancient penguins larger than any known today.

Eclipses Observed
The urge for increased map accuracy prompted an ambitious, coordinated study of the May 8-9 sun eclipse at seven stations along the 5,320-mile eclipse path from Burma to the Aleutians. Valuable data recorded in Burma, Siam, Japan, and by B-29's flying above the Aleutians are expected to be useful in more precise global measurement, according to the National Geographic Society which sponsored the big project.

A later solar eclipse, November 1, was recorded in Kenya, Africa, by a Greenwich Observatory group. RAF flyers above the clouds could see the brilliant, tail-tailed comet on the horizon
there during totality.
In China, California Academy of Sciences entomologists collected beetles and bugs from Asia's only redwoods for comparison with species found so far only in California's coastal redwoods.
Object: to fortify theory of common ancestry of the giant trees.

At Eridu and at Nippur, ancient-city ruins in southern Iraq, excavations were continued where civilization is presumed to have started. Northward in Turkey, the hot summer produced reports of petrified remains of a ship in tawing snags atop 16,900-foot Mt. Ararat, an additional resting place of Noah's Ark.
Dunes on an Afghanistan desert discovered Lashgari Sarai, buried city of long ago. Czechs found bronze and iron tools in prehistoric diggings east of Prague.
Rome's delvers found the usual quota of buried frescoes, busts, and villas, and competed with contractors digging a subway in a central area described as richer then Pompeii in remains.

Amazon Valley Surveyed
In the Western Hemisphere, the wild upper Amazon basin in 1948 became a new frontier to be won for civilization. Under UNESCO, the Hylean (forested) Amazon Institute was set up at Manaus in idle buildings of a fantastic boom that burst 50 years ago.
Surveys for agricultural, industrial and cultural development were begun.

UNESCO and the French Government sponsored a study of French Guiana's Bonis, descendants of Africans who escaped from the slave trade and took to the forests along the Maroni River. Fierce Oyacuelt Indians are their neighbors.
Bogota scientists found delicate gold jewelry among a wealth of artifacts in the ruins of pre-Columbian "Pueblito," near Santa Marta, northern Colombia. In the same region a survey was begun of the Atrato-Tuando route for a supplementary ship-way joining the oceans 200 miles southeast of the Panama Canal.
In his ninth archeological expedition to Middle America since 1938 for the National Geographic Society and Smithsonian Institution, Dr. Matthew W. Stirling found in Panama the first urn burials to come to light anywhere between the United States and Ecuador. Artifacts of the earliest culture so far found in Panama, supported the theory of a common origin of early American civilizations.

Bering Sea Migrations

Scientists of the U. S. Geological Survey and Denmark's National Museum made independent archeological finds in Alaska adding proof of ancient migrations and contact via Bering Strait between Old World and New. Examining U. S. and Canadian sites and relics of Norse civilization, the Danish museum's director concluded that the Norse had settled in America at least 200 years before Columbus.

"We have found the curlew's nest" was the electrifying radiogram that came in June to the National Geographic Society from Dr. Arthur A. Allen, Cornell ornithologist in southwestern Alaska wilds. Until then, the bristled curlew was the only bird of North America whose breeding grounds had escaped discovery. Arctic Institute of North America co-sponsored Dr. Allen's fruitful search.

U. S. Navy planes mapped 30-000 square miles of Alaska's panhandle from Skagway south to help resolve its water-pawer and paper-and-pulp resources.

Polar Traffic Heavy

Science ships of many nations plied to and from subpolar regions. U. S. Navy and Coast Guard ships with Canadian participating pioneered in far-north meteorological studies. They brought to light Peary papers of 1906 and Sir George Nares papers of 1876 cached in an Ellesmere Island cairn. The two neighbor nations resumed efforts to nail down the elusive North Magnetic Pole, wandering on the Boothia Peninsula and northward.

The stream of northward-ho-projects included Donald B. Mac-Millan's 27th Arctic trip. The Danes alone counted 14 expeditions to Greenland manned by 200 scientists. Large lead deposits were among their discoveries.
The year saw final operations of the Navy's 450-man Antarctic "Operation Windmill" in 1947, and of the Ronne year-long research which mapped 450,000 square miles of Antarctica. Mrs. Finn Ronne and Mrs. Harry Darlington became the first of their sex to winter in the Antarctic.

Farmer Symmes and his sheep will come to life again after nearly two hundred years.

The third number on the program is placed in the Black Horse Tavern. This famous Inn, open for over 100 years, was on the road from the back woods into Boston near the present High School. There the farmers and gentry gathered to talk, drink, sing, dance and enjoy themselves. When the Revolution flamed in Lexington, Winchester residents met here to decide what they would do.

Legend tells that the first Baldwin Apple was found near the Tavern by Loammi Baldwin. A scion from the original tree, planted near his home, proved to be a new apple and was named Baldwin. Wilmington, too, stakes a claim for the Baldwin Apple, and there is still a great deal of controversy over this matter.

You will see the Stories come to life at the Cabaret, along with the presentation of a new song written by a member of the Winton Club. Can you afford to delay in making your plans to come to the Cabaret?

Next week we will continue the story of the numbers on the program. This is to be an evening for residents of Winchester and the surrounding communities to help supply linen for the Winchester Hospital.

Tryouts for the Winton Club Cabaret will be held at Waterfield Hall on Friday the 14th of January at 7:00 P. M. Mr. David Carman Jones from the Jerome H. Carrell Producing Organization, will be our director for this year. We feel that we are very fortunate to have him with us this year.

Mrs. Clarke Staples is Chairman of the Cabaret Committee this year. Her Committee is Mrs. Thomas R. Aldrich Jr., Mrs. James F. Dwinell Jr., Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth Jr. The Program chairman, Mrs. Elisha George Pierce, and her Co-Chairman, Mrs. Percy Bugbee, have done a splendid job in obtaining our advertisers whose support is indispensable to the financial success of the show. Their Assistants are: Mrs. Walter Birnie, Mrs. Carl L. Eaton, Mrs. Warren Shofmaker, Mrs. Kenneth Moffatt, Mrs. Gilbert Hood Jr., Mrs. Geo. Marks, Mrs. Herbert T. Wadsworth, Mrs. Earle F. Spencer.

NAVAL RESERVE PROGRAMS

To the Editor:-

Answering several questions about the Naval Reserve Programs: - It is very important that the Navy continues to build up its Reserves. There are two branches the Class V-6 program which is the "Inactive Reserve" and the Organized Reserve.

The Class V-6 Program: - When a man enlists in V-6, he incurs no obligations except that he has a record on file with the Commandant of the District. He may apply for training duty or training cruises during the year; he is eligible for transfer to the Organized Reserve if there is a vacancy in his rating in the Organized Unit to which he applies. In the V-6 are found both veterans and non-veterans. Veterans are particularly desired. After enlistment in V-6, veterans are urged to apply for admittance to a unit of the Organized Reserves. Non-veterans enlisting in V-6 have the same privileges as veterans but the requirements and qualifications are different. Requirements for enlistments are:

AGE: - New recruits or former members of other branches of the Armed Forces, 17-64.

Former members of USN or USNR, 17-64.

An applicant must be a Citizen of the United States; must pass a physical examination (not required for veterans discharge after 15 August 1945); Must pass the U. S. Navy Applicants Qualification Test (not required of men with prior Naval Service); all enlistments are for a term of 4 years except men under 18 years of age enlist for their minority.

The Navy is currently conducting a drive for enlistments in the Class V-6 USNR and is particularly desirous of enlisting eligible veterans.

THE ORGANIZED RESERVE: - This is the organization that corresponds closely to the National Guard. To gain admittance to the Organized Reserve, a man must first enlist in the Class V-6 Inactive Reserve. The strength of the Organized Reserve is limited by law. Each unit of the Organized Reserve has a complement of men which may not be exceeded. The complement specifies the ratings that may be enlisted. Therefore, in order for a man to be admitted to the Organized Reserve from the V-6 Inactive Reserve, there must first be a vacancy in his rating in the unit to which he applies.

The Organized Reserve Units are located in various cities throughout the United States. Each unit has a fully equipped Armory where drills are held once each week. Each unit has a Commanding Officer and a Staff of subordinate officers. All men are paid a specified amount for each drill period they attend.

The Navy is currently conducting a drive to fill Organized Reserve Units and is particularly desirous of enlisting veterans to fill vacancies in the ratings held by veterans during the war.

Will those interested please contact Chief Burke on Tuesdays at the Recruiting Office as he is in a position to give detailed information as to what vacancies there may be in specific ratings. Chief Burke will be in Winchester on Tuesdays; if you are unable to contact him there, fill out one of the "take one cards" and he will get in touch with you.

ANNOUNCING LETTERS: - No newspaper of good repute takes any notice of unsigned letters. The writer must comply with the ethics of the Star. If the writer will write again and sign her name, your Chairman will be glad to take up her problem.

SUBMARINE SERVICE: - To the young man who telephoned. You are quite mistaken. The Submarine Divisions of the Naval Reserve are closely integrated in the training and operations of the Submarine Forces of the regular Navy. The submarine bases where you may go for annual training are located at New London, Conn.; Key West, Fla.; San Diego, Calif.; Very truly yours,

MILITARY MANPOWER COMMITTEE.

Chairman
Gladys N. Toye.

BOY SCOUTS

Picture, if you will, a group of healthy, strong-lunged Scouts getting up and walking out on a close and undecided football game. It happened.

It was near Chapel Hill, North Carolina, in the midst of the Carolina-Texas game. When the Public Address system paged their Scout Leader, the 27 Scouts in the stadium cocked one ear, but kept both eyes on the game. A few minutes later, when one Scout ran down each side of the playing field, signalling assembly, 27 khaki uniforms poured out of the stands.

A few hundred yards from the stadium, a fierce forest fire was raging, fanned by a brisk October wind. Back in Chapel Hill, firemen fumed in frustration; a town ordinance forbade them taking fire fighting apparatus beyond town limits. The Scouts rushed to the scene and in one long blistering hour of feverish work, brought the fire under control. When the county fire warden arrived with two crewmen and handpumps, they made short work of snuffing out the blaze. Three Scouts remained to patrol the area for three hours to guard against the fire re-kindling.

Nearer home... Last winter the fire and water departments of Greenfield, Massachusetts, looked vainly for hydrants buried under several feet of snow. To the townspeople they said: "Shovel 'em out, please."

The householders said, "Oh no, your job."

While men quibbled Scouts shovelled. Thirty-eight Scouts and two Leaders cleared all hydrants in two evenings work. This winter the Town Selectmen say the water department will shovel. Scouts know about these events but there are many of us who with the rush and turmoil of every day life do not get a chance to assimilate just how good Scouting really is. It is something good for the neighbor's boy or even our own boy in some cases, "but I wish I had more time" is the usual excuse.

Scouting is for any boy race or creed who wants to be a Scout! During the year we hope to make Scouting available to many more boys in Winchester. There are many boys who because of their location are denied the privilege of joining a Troop. We respectfully ask all who read this item, and there will be more of them, that they be alive to this need. More Troops in Winchester where needed. Not forgetting the need for standing behind our present Troops.

Congratulations to Troop 7 for their fine, successful reorganization efforts!

All of the meetings will begin at 7:45 and will be convened as follows:

Wyman School, Tuesday, January 18.
Washington School, Thursday, January 27.

Junior High School, Thursday, February 24.

INJURED BY ROLLING CAR

Daniel C. Pearson of 253 Swanton street sustained a broken left leg, but fortunately escaped more serious injury last Friday afternoon when he was struck and knocked partially through the doors of his garage by his automobile.

According to the police Mr. Pearson had backed his Ford sedan out of the garage under his house, the driveway being at a 40 degree grade. His wife was unable to close the doors securely, and Mr. Pearson got out to do so. In some manner the brakes loosened on the car, which rolled down grade into Mr. Pearson, partially knocking him through the door and breaking his leg. He was able to push the car sufficiently to extricate himself, before the arrival of the police with their ambulance.

Mr. Pearson was taken by Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy and Officers James E. Flaherty and Alfred Poole to the Winchester Hospital where he was attended by Dr. Nelson Fontneau.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

Sunday forenoon Gaspare F. Galuffo of 534 Washington street reported to the police that some time the night previous an expensive hydraulic pump used to raise and lower a snow-plow, was stolen from his truck housed in a building on Cross street.

Two hubcaps were reported stolen Saturday night from the Buick sedan of Mr. Clarence P. Whorf. The car was parked in front of his home on Central Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. O'Doherty of 43 Canal street are the parents of a daughter Karen Ruth, born December 18 at the Choate Hospital, Woburn.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Volpe of Grove street are enjoying a winter vacation at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. John reports fine swimming with plenty of sunshine.

NEW ENGLAND NAVAL RESERVISTS TO JOIN
FULL-SCALE FLEET
EXERCISES

The largest quota of New England Naval Reservists ever to be authorized for participation in peacetime fleet maneuvers, was announced today at First Naval District Headquarters.

Over 70 officers and 700 enlisted men from the New England States have been scheduled to embark in warships at Newport, Rhode Island, for 2nd Task Fleet Exercises to be held in the Caribbean starting February 20 and lasting until March 19.

The aircraft carrier, USS KEARSARGE, has been assigned 35 reserve officers and 400 enlisted men for the training period. Destroyer Squadron TEN, which includes the destroyers: Brownson, R. H. McCard, S. B. Roberts, C. H. Roan, J. P. Kennedy, W. R. Rush, Johnson and Pike, will take 30 officers and 300 enlisted men. The cruiser, USS Huntington, will embark 9 officers and 30 enlisted men.

Other fleet units scheduled to take part in the tactical exercise and who will embark Naval Reservists from various other naval districts are: the large aircraft carrier, USS F. D. Roosevelt, Destroyer Squadron Twelve, Destroyer Division 141, the USS Missouri, the cruiser, USS Juneau, the carriers PALAU and SICILY, the cruiser, Portsmouth, the carrier LEYTE, Destroyer Division 21, Mine Divisions TWO and SIX and the destroyers FOX and STORMES.

Full pay has been authorized for the 28-day period and reservists will be granted liberty in Caribbean ports.

Deadline for applications for the cruise is January 21. All Naval reservists, regardless of classification, are eligible to apply this cruise. Requests should be forwarded to the Naval Reserve Training Center nearest the applicant's home, or direct to the Commandant, First Naval District, Navy Building, 495 Summer street, Boston, 10. Applications are especially desired from inactive V-6 naval reserve personnel and will be given special consideration.

WEEK-END FIRES

The first of several alarms over the week-end came from Box 7-7-542 at 1:33 Saturday afternoon for a grass fire at the west side Well Field. At 2:15 there was a still alarm for burning grass at the rear of the Lane Funeral Home on Upper Main street, and at 7:30 Saturday evening there was a grass and brush fire on Russell's Hill in the North End.

Sunday the department was called to a house on Park avenue where hot steam pipes in a wall had alarmed the occupants. Sunday evening Box 38 came in at 8 o'clock for another fire at the Well Field.

It pays to Advertise in the STAR.

MANCHESTER FIELD

To the Citizens of Winchester:

The development and use of Manchester Field, which now has an important place in the athletic program of the Winchester schools, have created a few special problems. Some of these difficulties have been obvious from the start while others have developed as a result of actual experience. The School Committee, in trying to meet the needs of the athletic program within the limits of its authority and in keeping with the votes taken by the town, has found it necessary to formulate a few rules which it now proposes to enforce. It is the hope of the Committee that these regulations will prove to be practical and in the best interests of the town as a whole.

As might be expected, there has been some conflict between the use of the field for school athletics and its use by the general public, or at least that part of the public which desires to use the field as a short cut in traveling from one part of the town to another. Access to the field from the Junior High School side has been open at all times, and there is no thought of making any change in this arrangement. It has become obvious, however, that if in addition the gates at both ends of the field are kept open at all times, this practice will have the following unfortunate results:

(1) Junior and Senior High students in using the field as a short cut to and from school will mar the surface of the field by making beaten paths, or even ruts insofar as bicycles are used when the surface is soft.

(2) Somewhat similar damage will be done if the general public uses the field as a thoroughfare without limitations.

(3) Citizens passing through the field during team practice will not only interfere with these activities, to a certain extent, but may suffer serious personal injuries.

Gates at both ends of the field have been kept open since the early part of November. Experience has demonstrated that the conclusions which have just been listed are valid. Members of the staff directly in charge of school athletics believes that the only satisfactory solution is to keep the end gates closed to the public except for the spectators at regularly scheduled contests. Such a policy has been opposed, quite understandably, by residents of the Manchester Road-Cutting Street area who cross the field in going to and from the center of town. To accommodate these citizens as far as possible and yet overcome some of the objections mentioned earlier, the School Committee has adopted the following rules to which reference has already been made:

1 - Gates (one at each end) shall be open at all times on week ends and during vacation periods, except that these gates may be closed whenever regular games or practice sessions make it necessary.

2 - On days when the schools are in session, the above gates shall be open from 9:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m.
and shall be closed during all other hours.

3 - Bicycles and other wheeled vehicles shall not be used on the field at anytime.

4 - Pedestrians using the field will do so at their own risk.

5 - Gates may be closed at any time when the School Administration deems it wise to prevent damage to the field, or to prevent injuries to pedestrians or pupils.

During the past three years the town has made a substantial investment in the Manchester Field athletic plant. The Committee assumes that the town wishes to protect this investment and its primary use as an athletic facility.
It is on this basis that these somewhat tentative rules have been adopted. The Committee believes that with the cooperation of everyone concerned these regulations will be found to be workable and otherwise satisfactory.
Naturally it reserves the right to change them if for any reason this seems either necessary or desirable.

JUNIOR FLORENCE CRITTENTON WINTER MEETING

The Junior Circle of the Florence Crittenton League held its winter meeting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Merton E. Ober, Jr.
The president, Mrs. Arthur M.
Agnew, presided and reports of officers and committee chairmen were presented.

Dr. Donald E. McLean, popular Winchester pediatrician, was speaker for the evening. He began by showing many interesting slides of Children's Hospital, including the proposed new building which will someday be a wonderful reality. Then he spoke on the subject of epilepsy, its forms and cures, with emphasis on the remarkable progress made by the use of recently discovered drugs.
A lively discussion period followed his talk, which ended on a social note with coffee and cakes served by Mrs. R. M. Boutwell and her committee.

ST. MARY'S C. Y. O. TO PRESENT THIRD ANNUAL SHOW

Rehearsals are underway for the third annual production sponsored by St. Mary's C. Y. O. to benefit the
C. Y. O. athletic program and other
C. Y. O. activities, for both boys and girls.

The success of last year's Minstrel Show, which was held on one night and played to a capacity audience with many turned away, prompted the C. Y. O. to engage Winchester High School Auditorium for two nights this year.
Therefore the show will be presented on Tuesday evening, February 15th and also on Thursday evening, February 17th.

The show will be a musical, directed by Mrs. Vincent F. Erhard, with committees to be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hildreth, of Main street, have returned to town from Westford, Mass.

THE WINCHESTER STAR.

VOL. LXVIII NO. 23

THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1949

PRICE SEVEN CENTS

JOHN I. DONOVAN
DONOVAN PRESIDENT OF EASTERN MASS. STREET RAILWAY CO.

John I. Donovan of Winchester was elected president and general manager of the Eastern Massachusetts St. Ry. Co., at a meeting of the board of directors held Saturday at the company's offices in Boston. He has been chairman of the board of public trustees since October, 1945.

His election not only marks the first time in 30 years that the company has had a president, but signals the company's return to private operation after being under public control since 1918.

Other officers elected include Herbert F. Graves of Park avenue, Winchester, comptroller.

Mr. Donovan is a native of Lawrence, and prepared for college in the Lawrence schools. Entering Harvard in 1909, he completed his degree requirements in three years, and took his degree cum laude with the class of 1913. He taught English at Lawrence High School until 1917, when he was made headmaster of the A. B. Bruce school. He entered the security business in 1926 after his resignation from teaching, and later served two years on the Lawrence School Committee.

Mr. Donovan is president of the Eastern Mutual Insurance Company; chairman of the board of trustees of the Winchester Scholarship Foundation; and president of the Harvard Club of Eastern Middlesex. He is a member of the Harvard Club of Boston, the Clover Club, and the Charitable Irish Society.

He married Dorothy A. McCulloch of Brookline in 1934, and now lives at 19 Grove street with his wife and two children.

WINCHESTER BOY TEXTILE HEAD

Roger D. Newell, former well known Winchester boy, son of Mrs. Charles F. Newell of Lewis road, and the late Mr. Newell, was elected president of the Newell Textile Sales Co., of New York, at the annual meeting of the organization held January 10.

Mr. Newell was also elected to the board of directors of the company at the stockholders meeting which preceded the election of officers. His uncle, Carroll D. Newell, was elected treasurer of the company. It is understood that he will devote a great part of his time to his duties as an officer and director of the Cyril Johnson Woolen Co. Mr. Newell will also be associated with the Johnson lines, taking charge of distribution.

Mr. Newell graduated from Winchester High School and New Hampton Prep., being an outstanding sprinter at both schools. He later ran for the B. A. A., and was a candidate for the United States Olympic Team as a sprinter in the world World War I days. During World War II he served in the United States Marine Corps.

POSSIBLE $44 TAX RATE FOR '49 PREDICTED BY FINANCE COMMITTEE

Drastic Cuts in Appropriations Necessary to Avoid Skyrocketing Expenditures

The year 1949 will see a local tax rate of almost $44 unless steps are taken to reduce proposed expenditures, according to T. M. Hennessey, Chairman of the Finance Committee.

A total of 227 meetings by the Finance Committee and its 9 sub-committees have been held during the past year investigating, discussing, and conferring on expenditures proposed by the various Town Departments for the coming year.

It is an inherent feature of Town Government, Mr. Hennessey stated, that the impact of departmental expenditures is frequently not recognized until these estimates are combined into a grand total by the Finance Committee. It is at that time that the cost of the various proposals can be put in the very realistic terms of what they are going to cost the taxpayer.

For the coming year these estimates exclusive of any school building additions aggregate a little less than $2 million. With estimated revenues of about $400,000, it leaves almost $1,600,000 to be raised by local taxation. The value of real estate and personal property is estimated to reach a total of $37,000,000 for the year, an increase of $700,000 or 2 per cent over last year. But with the net amount to be raised by taxation up only 20 per cent and valuation up only 2 per cent, the '49 tax rate must necessarily absorb practically all of this increase.

Such a jump in the tax rate, Mr. Hennessey points out, when combined with other tax hikes that have taken place since the war, raises the Winchester pre-Pearl Harbor rate by approximately $16.50.

Increased wages and higher prices for materials and equipment have contributed to the soaring tax rate. But new services and expanding services at a time when taxpayers are burdened with higher costs in all directions are pyramiding the rate still further.

The Finance Committee believes that it will be reflecting the views of the substantial majority of Winchester people who shoulder the costs of town government, if it examines these proposed expenditures critically and recommends that they be judiciously reduced. The Committee believes that as we ride the crest of high prices during 1949, the Town should not start new projects which might well be deferred, should not replace equipment unless absolutely necessary, and should not make permanent commitments on other costs of services which the already overburdened taxpayer is not well able to absorb.

With expenditures outstripping normal revenues, the Finance Committee feels that it has a duty of advising all Winchester residents of this very disturbing trend. The Committee states that it would not be fulfilling its obligation to the community unless it made recommendations to eliminate or reduce certain proposed expenditures. Some increase in the tax rate is probably inevitable — but a jump of $8 seems wholly unwarranted, and the Committee's recommendations will be made accordingly.

Winchester Finance Committee by Thomas M. Hennessey Chairman

BRENNAN — SOMERBY

Miss Joan Evelyn Somerby, daughter of Mr. Rufus A. Somerby of Everett road, and John A. Brennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Brennan of New Haven, Conn., were married Saturday afternoon, January 15, at St. Mary's rectory, Rev. Charles Hewitt of Hartford, Conn., cousin of the bridegroom, which was followed by a reception at the Winchester Country Club, performed the 4 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Somerby was given in marriage by her father, and attended by her sister, Mrs. Richard O. Knox of Newton. Charles M. Brennan, Jr., of New Haven was his brother's best man.

After a wedding journey to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Brennan will go on to Nassau in the Bahamas. Upon their return they will make their home at 90 Linden street in New Haven.

The bride is a graduate of the Brimmer-May School and of Connecticut College. Mr. Brennan prepared for college at The Choate School in Wallingford, Conn., and attended Yale.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Pynn (Yvonne Clennon) are the parents of a second child and first daughter, Susan Gayle, born December 28 at Winchester Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Clennon of 53 Wedgemere avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Pynn of 6 Ridgeway.

CORNELIA OTIS SKINNER NOTED CHARACTER ACTRESS
APPEARING IN ARLINGTON

Winchester lovers of the impersonations and character sketches made famous by Cornelia Otis Skinner will be pleased to learn that this noted actress is appearing at the town hall in Arlington Wednesday evening, January 26, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Skinner's performances are not recitations, but complete dramatic productions. She has always striven to make them theatre, not mere platform appearances. A competent critic, in describing her artistry, has called her "the greatest single attraction of the American Theatre."

BLOOD DONOR DAY HERE JANUARY 27

Thursday, January 27, from 1 to 7 p. m. has been set aside in this Town as Winchester's Blood Donor Day, with the Mobile Unit at the First Congregational Church during that time. This week the Winchester Red Cross Chapter has sent letters to all organizations both civic, fraternal, and of church affiliation, asking each group to appoint one member to secure donors within that organization.

During the last nine months, Winchester has used 300 pints of Red Cross Blood — in surgery, plasma for shock and severe burns, as immune serum globulin. Yet during that period, only 85 pints of blood have been donated by Winchester people. Those men, women and children who receive Red Cross blood do so without any charge. Thus the pint of blood donated by a Winchester resident is directly helping some neighbor here at home.

Employers are cooperating in the Red Cross Blood Donor program by giving time off, at no loss of pay, to employees who wish to donate blood during the afternoon of January 27th. Members of any club or organization answering the urgent call for blood during this drive will have their contribution credited to their club, and the club will be listed in a succeeding issue of the STAR.

Chairman of the Blood Donor Committee is Mrs. James H. Coon, and any person who has not been contacted who would like to share in this all-Winchester program may do so by calling her at Winchester 6-1278-M, or at Red Cross headquarters, Winchester 6-2300. Every pint helps — and it may even help someone in your family!

Doctors Support Blood Bank

"The state-wide program of blood collection being carried on by the Red Cross should be supported by every one who can give blood. It is necessary to have this blood available, regardless of whether or not the local hospital has its own blood bank. It is of explosion, should exhaust the supply in the hospital bank. It is a possible source for one of the rare types of blood when needed suddenly in any emergency in larger amounts than are ordinarily stored in any one hospital bank. Transfused blood has become one of the most important 'drugs' in modern medicine."

(signed) George A. Marks, M. D.

The Mobile Unit will be at the First Congregational Church on Thursday, January 27, 1 to 7 P. M., on Winchester Blood Day.

FACT AND FANTASY

The Winton Club Cabaret Story

The following incidents, that happen in our town of Winchester between 1790 and 1890, are the inspiration for the second act of the Cabaret numbers to be presented by the Winton Club at the Town Hall on February 2, 3, 4, 5. We believe it will add to your pleasure to know the story behind each number you will see at the Cabaret.

During the year 1790 there were about 35 homes in the town. A large number of homes had a small building attached to the house or barn, called "shoemaking shops." This locality was already known for its tanning and currying of leather. The shoes were made by hand, from four to eight pairs a day. A day's work continued until ten at night. The usual wage was a dollar a day. In the evenings a single lamp, filled with whale oil, hung over-head in each little shop. This industry proved the main source of income for the town.

You will see our Winchester Cobblers at work at their benches in the fourth number on the Cabaret program.

In 1800 the Middlesex Canal was completed and in operation. Its purpose was to open up a waterway for trade from the back country to Boston, to carry timber, lumber, farm products etc., the barges returning with manufactured goods to the isolated communities. A route from Charles-town through Winchester, to Chelmsford on the Merrimack, was completed with a long aqueduct over the Aberjona. You can still see the remains of this aqueduct above the Boat Club, while the bed of the Canal can be followed behind Sheffield West. The old town paths were known as Lovers Lane, a favorite place for an evening stroll.

A pleasure trip taken on the Canal by Daniel and Mrs. Webster in 1818 ended with a picnic by the Aberjona. The Canal was put out of business by the arrival of the first train to Winchester in 1835. You will see the Lovers Lane again and the canal boats glide along in the Cabaret, as they did the time of Daniel Webster's picnic.

The Civil War period will be portrayed by a beautiful waltz number, always especially enjoyed, and the last number in the second section of the Cabaret program is placed in the Myopia Hunt Club in 1870. This was the first Country Club in America, and the foundation of the Old Club House can still be seen in the woods behind the Sanford Petts home on Myopia Hill.

The Club was built by Boston men and was named Myopia, as most of its members wore glasses. In 1882 twenty blooded fox-hounds were imported from England to hunt the surrounding countryside. This number promises a definite moment of excitement for the audience as well as the performers. Have you made your reservations? We know you will be insured an evening long to be remembered.

REPUBLICAN CLUB'S CALENDAR A BUSY ONE FOR NEW YEAR

A large gathering of Republicans met at the Masonic Hall last week Wednesday, to hear Louis E. Boutwell speak on "National Defense." Mr. Boutwell is Sheriff of Middlesex County.

His excellent talk he concluded with his hope of building up our National Guard with equipment and training so that if the need arises we will meet it "with the spirit and indomitable will of a free American people."

In the absence of Mrs. William C. Cusack, president of the Women's Republican Club, Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes, Vice-President, conducted the meeting and made some very important announcements pertinent to the Club's activities. First she called attention to a Desert-Bridge Party which is being sponsored by the board members of the Club with Mrs. Marshall Pihl in charge of the dessert; Mrs. Theodore Elliott responsible for prizes and decorations; Mrs. Kingman P. Cass as ticket chairman and Mrs. Don Greer in charge of waitresses.

Mrs. Katharin Roberts, ways and means chairman of the Club will also be assisted by the following: Mr. J. Stanley Barnes, Mrs. Harold F. Meyer, Mrs. Dunbar L. Shanklin, Mrs. Charles O. Nichols, Mrs. Everett Gray, Mrs. Harris S. Richardson, Mrs. Theodore C. Browne, Mrs. William E. Ramsdell, Mrs. William W. Goodhue, Mrs. Woodford Wilcox, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Mrs. Herbert P. Prehle, Mrs. Harold M. Twombly, Mrs. Fred W. Aseltine and Mrs. William S. Phippen.

This event will take place at one-thirty Wednesday, January 26 at the Episcopal Church Vestry.

Mrs. Barnes reminded members to reserve two February dates on their calendars also, these being February 9 which is the regular monthly meeting at which time Mrs. Raymond W. Wheeler who is Vice-Chairman of the Republican State Committee, will be the guest speaker and February 16 when Philip Cummings gives his third lecture in his current event series at the Music Hall.

Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, being unable to be present to speak briefly on legislation, Mrs. Philip J. Woodward substituted for her by giving an interesting report on the National Budget.

At Trinity Church in Haverhill on Saturday afternoon, January 15, Miss Joan Fitzgerald, daughter of Mrs. John J. Fitzgerald of Haverhill and the late Dr. Fitzgerald, was married to Dr. Harry Ludwig Benson of Washington street, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John L. Benson. White gladiolus and candles made an attractive setting for the marriage service which was read at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, assisted by the rector of Trinity Church, Rev. Lewis A. Houghton. Elwood Hill, organist, played the bridal music.

Miss Fitzgerald was given in marriage by her brother, William Fitzgerald. She wore a blue-gray velvet suit-dress with matching hat and carried a bouquet of white camellias.

The bride is a graduate of Westbrook Junior College, Portland, Me., and of the Children's Hospital School of Nursing in Boston.

Dr. Benson, a practicing physician in Winchester and past president of Winchester Rotary, graduated from Boston University College of Liberal Arts and Boston University Medical School, where he was a member of Beta Chi Sigma fraternity. ## STANGROOM — ZINN

The marriage of Miss Janet Marie Zinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Edward Zinn of Yale street, to Rupert Edward Stangroom, son of Mrs. Earl Baker of Hart Place, Woburn, and the late Edward Stangroom, took place Saturday afternoon, Jan. 15, at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church. Dr. Howard J. Chidley officiated at the ceremony which took place at 2 o'clock in an attractive setting of white carnations and snapdragons with tall candles on the altar. J. Albert Wilson, church organist and choirmaster, played the bridal music.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Zinn wore a gown of slipper satin fashioned with a full skirt and fitted bodice with a stand-up collar. Matching satin mitts and a tulle veil caught to a wreath of orange blossoms completed her costume and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Barbara Walters of Winchester was the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress of gold brocade and net with matching net mitts. Her cascade bouquet combined blue flags and yellow jonquils and she wore a wreath of the same flowers.

Edwin Sherburne of Tyngsboro, cousin of the bride was Mr. Stangroom's best man, and the ushers were John Ternell of Woburn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and George Foskitt, Jr., of Winchester.

CORRECTION

Due to an unfortunate error the date of the death of John Charles Gilbert, late of 6 Stevens street, was printed in last week's STAR as December 6. Mr. Gilbert died on Thursday, January 6, at his home after a long illness.

For more than fifty years he was associated with the Massachusetts Civil Service Commission, being at the time of his retirement three years ago executive secretary of the Board. ## WINTON CLUB TRYOUTS

MUSIC GARDEN

Mrs. George H. Lochman opened her Kenwin road home on Monday evening, January 10, for the regular monthly meeting of the Winchester Music Garden.

The President, Mrs. Simon J. Trudeau, welcomed the club and its guests and presided over the meeting. The program committee presented a fine program, and added a special treat when it announced several piano selections by our famous honorary member, Mr. Joshua Phippen, who is internationally held in high esteem as a composer, pianist, cellist and teacher.

Winchester has every reason to be proud of Joshua Phippen, who, though only 92 years old, can give a fine musical performance (without music) which is the admiration of all who are privileged to hear him. Pianists half his age envy his skill. Special mention is due him and Mrs. Lochman for their excellent rendition of the Chopin piano concerto in which he was soloist and she played the second piano as orchestral accompaniment.

By request, Mr. Phippen played Ravina's "Alone", with his left hand only. His encore, also of left hand, was Mr. Phippen's own arrangement of the Sextet from Lucia.

The full program of the evening was as follows:

- 1-Overture - The Bohemian Girl - Balfe
- 2-A Group of Solos for the Harp - Mrs. Anna W. Lochman
  - (a) Ah! Be Not Sad - Oberthur

WINCHESTER BOY WILL ENTER COLUMBIA MEDICAL

The many Winchester friends of Jim Ware, Jr., Winchester High 1945, will be glad to learn that he has been accepted to begin his studies in September at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University. Jim was also accepted at the Medical School of The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, but it looks as though the greater attractions of the Big City proved more seductive than the equally great renown of America's first Graduate School.

If the Faculty continues willing, Jim will complete his studies at Harvard this month where he has been preparing an undergraduate thesis in biochemistry under the guidance of one of the research laboratories of Massachusetts General Hospital. This thesis, we are told, goes by the utterly incomprehensible title of "The Distribution of Diphosphopyridine Nucleotide in the cytoarchitectural Layers of Rat Parietal Isocortex." Present plans call for a continuation of this and other research work from February to September at the McLean Hospital Research Laboratory. Little did we think that Jim would ever become any sort of expert in any part of the anatomy of the Rat!

The pressure for entrance into medical schools at the present time is positively astounding. As an instance we may quote the fact that Columbia has had 140 applications from Harvard students alone, and that Yale University had in all 1,500 applications, each of which was accompanied by a non-refundable fee of $10. Yale accepts a maximum of 70 students!

MARCIA GOODROW PHOTO FINALIST

Marcia Goodrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Goodrow of 116 Forest street, a pupil in the fourth grade of St. Mary's School, was chosen by Harry Conover, famous model expert, as one of six finalists in the Life Bread Photo Contest. The finalists were chosen from 50,000 contestants on the basis of healthy appearance and personality.

As a reward for being chosen by Mr. Conover, Marcia received a Keystone movie camera and projector. Her mother is the former Margaret Foley of Main street and her uncle is P. T. Foley, chairman of the Board of Assessors, and Constable Michael J. Foley, both widely known in town.

Television sets were given to grocers who represented the six finalists. In Marcia's case it was John and Ernest Lynch of Lynch's Market on Washington street.

Public voting will determine the two final winners, each of whom will also receive a television set according to S. Carl Crosby, general manager of Hathaway Bakeries, Inc., who made presentations. The proprietor of every store that sells Life Bread will have a ballot box and will have slips on which anyone may check one of the six finalists' names and drop the checked slip into the ballot box. This will be done during the next four weeks and there is no limit to the number of ballots that may be cast. Any one may vote.

PARKER LANE WINN CO. HAS LIFE-SAVING FIRE SIGNAL

Parker Lane Winn Co., old line Winchester fuel dealers, are showing "Gardsman," an automatic Fire Detector and Alarm, designed to protect occupants of buildings from loss of life by fire.

"Gardsman", at the approach of fire, will ring out a loud warning on its seven inch fire gong, enabling occupants of the building in which it is installed to avoid being trapped by the flames. The signal operates automatically from the effect of heat, sending out its warning before the actual advent of the fire. It is non-electrical, has no batteries, chemicals or fusible links and requires no installation. You simply hang it on a nail or hook, and rest easier, knowing you and your family will have advance warning in the event of fire and won't be trapped by flames.

"Gardsman" is available right now. Contact Parker Lane Winn Company at once. See their advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

MISSING PERSONS DAY SUNDAY

The police didn't actually tab last Sunday's blotter as "missing persons day" but they had three calls that day for persons a.w.o.l., beginning at 12:40 when a two year old boy was discovered to have wandered away from a Church where he was being cared for while his parents were at service. Officer William E. Cassidy was sent out to investigate, but a resident of Pine street reported to headquarters that the youngster was safe at her home, and the patrolman was sent there by radio to pick him up.

Shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon two three-year old boys living on Canterbury road off Grove street were reported missing, and had been for two hours. While police were searching for them headquarters learned that the engineer of the B & M train had reported seeing two very small boys near the Grove street bridge and had been afraid that they might be either struck by a train knocked down by the force of wind made by a train in passing.

The Medford Police were notified and went to the Grove street bridge, but found no boys there. Later, at 3:47, Medford Headquarters called stating that their cruiser had located the two boys at the crossing at West Medford Station, between that crossing and the American Wool Company plant, more than two miles from home.

Officer William Cassidy went to Grove street where he met a Medford cruiser with the two young wanderers aboard. They were transferred to the local cruiser and driven home, tired, but so far as could be learned little the worse for their experience.

The final "missing person" call came in at 5:25 Sunday afternoon when a resident of lower Main street reported his father, aged 86, as missing for nearly three hours. A checkup disclosed the fact that Officer James Farrell had seen a man answering the description of the missing person boarding a bus for Arlington. The police of that town were contacted without results, but later the aged man was located by the police in Somerville and returned to his home.

TWICE ESCAPED POLICE

An unknown boy, thought to be about 14 years old, proved a hard person for the local police to hang onto last week Thursday evening.

The boy was first spotted by Officer Henry P. Dempsey shortly before 9 o'clock riding a bike at Symmes Corner. The bike was unlighted and had no plate so Officer Dempsey stopped the rider, and while questioning him, the boy suddenly dropped the bike and took to his heels down Main street, disappearing quickly.

Officer Dempsey called headquarters and Officers Clarence Dunbury and Thomas Parsons were sent out in a cruiser to have a look around. They too spotted the boy on Washington street near the telephone exchange, but as soon as the cruiser stopped the youngster high-tailed it between the buildings along the street and lost himself in the darkness.

The bike he had was found to have been stolen from a yard on Priscilla Lane, and the police had the satisfaction of returning it to its owner. They would, however, have liked to get their hands on the boy, who they say runs well and chooses his directions very wisely.

It pays to Advertise in the STAR.

WINCHESTER AT MELROSE

The Winchester High basketball team travels to Melrose tonight to engage the second place Melrose quintet in a Middlesex League game. Melrose has played consistently good ball this winter, losing only to Belmont, and will be favored to defeat the Red and Black. Coach Bartlett is in hopes that his charges will have their shooting eyes with them in this contest as they will need to be at their best against Melrose.

Winchester will be on the road for both of their games next week, travelling to Lexington on Tuesday afternoon and to Belmont on Friday night. Meeting Melrose, Lexington and Belmont away from home in succession is a tough break in the schedule for the locals. It is hoped that the Red and Black will be at full strength for these three contests as they have not yet been defeated when they have had their full strength available.

The Town Basketball League completed its first round on last Monday evening and started its second round on Wednesday evening. Six of the teams are still very much in the running for the four play off positions and the competition in this second round promises to be keener than ever.

Two of the games on Monday evening ran true to form as the Rotary doubled the Mercurio Insurance by a score of 44 to 20. The Bonnell Motors defeated the Bombers 45 to 30 after being held to a tie at the half. The other game was an upset, however, as the Sons of Italy surprised the American Legion with a 26 to 19 victory.

Two of the games on Wednesday evening continued the trend of upsets. The American Legion snapped back to end the undefeated record of the Rotary Club at six straight. The Rotary was leading at the half by a score of 14 to 9 but Joe McKee got hot in the second half to score 14 points and lead his team to victory.

In the other upset the Sons of Italy defeated the Mercurio Insurance by a score of 49 to 40 in two overtime periods. At the end of the regulation time the score was tied at 38 to 38. Both teams scored a single basket in the first overtime period to make the score 40 to 40. The Sons of Italy ran wild in the second overtime period to score nine points while holding the Mercurio Insurance scoreless. This was an important victory for the Sons of Italy as it put them right in the contention for a play off position.

WAKEFIELD BEAT
WINCHESTER IN GARDEN

Winchester High put on a very disappointing exhibition in the Boston Garden on Tuesday afternoon as they went down to defeat at the hands of Wakefield High by a score of 35 to 30. This is the first time in many years that Wakefield High has been able to defeat Winchester High in basketball and serves to accentuate the mediocre effort put forth by the locals.

The Red and Black opened the game with no evidence of Garden jitters and ran up a nice 12 to 5 lead at the end of the first period. They showed a complete reversal of form during the second quarter, however, but managed to hang on for a 19 to 17 lead at the half. The second half was a nightmare for the local fans as the Red and Black scored only two baskets on 27 shots at the hoop.

Wakefield went into a 28 to 24 lead at the end of the third quarter as Porter looped three long shots to provide the Wakefield margin. In the early part of the last period the locals fought back to a 28 to 28 tie on two foul shots each by Mathews and Sanford. The next basket would have been the important one for the locals if they could have grabbed the lead, but Wakefield got it instead and went on to win.

The inability to shoot which has plagued the locals all season was the major factor in their downfall. Careless mistakes and mental lapses also provided Wakefield with three or four gift baskets which was their margin of victory. Perhaps some of this may be attributed to the fact that they were playing on the large Boston Garden court and the locals became increasingly tighter as the game progressed.

NEW BADMINTON CHAMPS

Congratulations to Barbara Hichborn and Lois Ladd who brought honors to themselves and Winchester by winning the women's doubles in the Class 'C' State Championships held at the University Club last week. Lois teamed with Whit Gray survived the early rounds in the mixed doubles, as did Lois and Jack Tarbell in their respective singles games. We met stiff opposition in town, for a number of the entrants had been successful in reaching the finals in the Class 'D' championships held in Winchester before Christmas and the remainder were already rated 'C' players.

Our teams continue to play their league matches at home and abroad. The last three matches have been away from home, and though the scores have been very close, in some cases going to three games and fighting for the last point, we have not been able to do more than come out with an even score. Do our teams weaken in unfamiliar surroundings, or could it be that our opponents are too good for us? The answer to this will come when the return matches are played here in Winchester during the next few weeks.

Arrangements are being made to have a professional come out to give lessons to those who are anxious to learn some of the finer points of the game. We expect him to come next week or the following one, so when we have our first intramural tournament of the season in the near future, there should be quite an exhibition of newly acquired technique!

In last week's STAR the School Committee, with an explanatory letter, listed rules for the future use of Manchester Field by the public, other than as an athletic field. These rules we are publishing again this week on this page. The STAR raised the question of permitting the use of the field as a right-of-way early last spring, and after some public discussion the gates were closed to pedestrians and kept closed until the late fall. At that time, yielding to requests from persons in the Manchester road section, the Committee again opened a gate at each end of the field to permit pedestrians to walk across it as a short cut down town. The high school athletic authorities objected to persons going through the field during football practice sessions. On one afternoon when a count was kept more than thirty persons, one or two with baby-carriages, went through the field and 16 bicycles were strewn around the playing surface. This condition was brought to the attention of the School Committee, the members of which considered the problem of keeping open or closing the gates from the latter part of the football season until last week when the rules published in the STAR were finally accepted and put in force. The STAR does not like them. This will not be news to the School Committee, nor to the public. We have already gone on record as opposing pedestrian access to the field as a right-of-way. The School Committee agrees with us that the field, in which the town has a sizeable investment, should be protected, the difference in view-points being one of degree. The STAR thinks one hundred percent protection, insofar as that is possible, is none too good for the only athletic field in town. We do not think that the convenience of a few persons should be permitted to interfere with giving the field the best protection we can. The School Committee believes that the wishes of those who want to walk across the field should be acceded to and hopes that keeping the gates closed part of the time will work out all right. As we see it the Committee has actually settled nothing. It surely has not satisfied those who feel strongly that the field should be closed and the new restrictions probably will not please those who want to walk across the field whenever they desire. We have no quarrel with these people who like a short cut down town. We do question the decision of the School Committee to humor them at the expense of a $65,000 athletic field, which especially now when it is new needs all the protection possible if its turf is to develop properly.

Keeping athletic fields open for the convenience of the public doesn't seem to be the usual thing in communities with which Winchester competes athletically. Winthrop, Swampscott, Belmont, Woburn, Reading and Watertown keep their fields closed, and so does Arlington, the latter being very emphatic about its policy. The gates of the Shore road athletic field were not kept open by the Park Commissioners as a right-of-way for persons living near the field, who doubtless would have liked to go across the field to the center. Take a look at the field now, since the fence has been taken down, and see what we mean when we say it is bad for a field to walk across it. The STAR is not alone in believing the gates should be kept closed. The Superintendent of Schools, High School Principal and Athletic Director, detailed by the School Committee to consider the matter of general access to the field, recommended closing the gates at all times except when the field is in use for athletic purposes and the public is to be admitted. This view is shared by the Faculty Manager of Athletics and Baseball Coach. Others with whom the STAR has discussed the matter and whose opinion should be of value in formulating a permanent policy for the use of our athletic field, favor keeping the field closed at all times. They include Robert F. Guild, former Harvard football player and coach, for many years a football and track official; Lewis Warsky, manager of the Winchester Paul Revere Baseball League; Edward A. Bartlett, head of the Town Softball League; Kenneth S. Hall, chairman of the group of men who transport the high school football team to out-of-town games; Horace H. Ford, former Big League Baseball Player for 14 years; Town Engineer Parker Holbrook; Former Selectman Ralph H. Bonnell, sponsor of the Winchester Junior American Legion Baseball Team and member of the Country Club grounds committee; Parker Blanchard, chairman of the Legion's Junior Baseball Committee; Joseph McKee, Winchester Post, A. L. Athletic Officer; J. Joseph Tansey, Athletic Director of Wentworth Institute; and James J. Fitzgerald, Jr., former Tufts football and baseball star who as a contractor has built athletic fields and worked about them a good deal. We think this is a very representative list of persons who should know what is good for an athletic field. The STAR agrees with them that the field should be kept closed all the time now, not after the surface of the field is damaged. It will not be as easy to close the field after the right-of-way down town becomes a habit.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE'S RULES FOR MANCHESTER FIELD

1. Gates (one at each end) shall be open at all times on week ends and during vacation periods, except that these gates may be closed whenever regular games or practice sessions make it necessary.

2. On days when the schools are in session, the above gates shall be open from 9:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m. and shall be closed during all other hours.

3. Bicycles and other wheeled vehicles shall not be used on the Field at anytime.

4. Pedestrians using the Field will do so at their own risk.

5. Gates may be closed at any time when the School Administration deems it wise to prevent damage to the Field, or to prevent injuries to pedestrians or pupils.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE EXPLAINED BUILDING REQUIREMENTS

Mystic School Addition Urgent

Filling the auditorium of the Wyman School, residents of the Wyman School area heard members of the School Board, Planning Board, and Junior High School Building committee report on the progress in school building and planning at a meeting presided over by Chairman Hazen Ayer last Tuesday evening. Similar meetings will be held in each school district during this month and next.

Mr. Ayer briefly reviewed current school history, mentioning the facts leading to the survey, the resignation of Superintendent James J. Quinn, and the appointment of Dr. Forbes H. Norris as Superintendent of Schools.

He then listed the duties of the School Committee to provide a sound program, good administrators and a good teaching staff, to determine the most suitable budget, and to provide adequate buildings and facilities.

Mr. Ayer pointed out that the school budget of 1948 took only three-tenths of one percent more of the tax dollar than did the budget of 1941. He said that the West Side elementary school is nearing completion and that the business at hand involved a report on the child population of Winchester, a financial report, and a report of the Junior High School Building committee.

Mr. Howard Bartlett of the School Committee was introduced. Mr. Bartlett first complimented the Mystic School Mothers' Association for completing a door-to-door census which had aided the Committee in its investigation of the Mystic School building needs. He pointed out that the present known enrollment for the new west side school is 133, leaving a remainder of 364 pupils in the Wyman School.

Turning then to the Mystic School problem, Mr. Bartlett employed diagrams, projected on a screen by Mr. Thomas Drapeau, to show the growth in the pre school population of the Mystic School area. He also called attention to the map showing that Mystic School is located almost in the exact center of the area served.

Future enrollment charts showed the very sharp increase in the number of kindergarten children and the census figures predict only more and greater numbers. In Precinct Three there are 42 new houses ready for occupancy and 19 in the process of building, foretelling a future of increasing school enrollment which is rather accurately predicted by figures compiled by the Mothers' Club.

Three solutions to the building problem were then examined. Rehabilitation of the old Mystic School building is considered unduly costly and not a wise expenditure for future needs. Making a new elementary school zone to use the Wadleigh building (in the event it will no longer be used as a necessary part of the secondary school set-up) was considered too costly from three points of view: (1) there would be no playground without the town's taking land for the purpose; (2) the entire school enrollment made up of pupils from the area lying between Lincoln School and Chestnut street would not exceed 125; (3) the small classes resulting from such a subdivision would be expensive to operate because of the need for additional teachers for relatively small classes.

The third possibility is the erection of a new wing on the present Mystic School building before the opening of schools in September of this year at a cost estimated as $200,000.

School Committeeman William J. Speers, Jr., was next introduced. Mr. Speers first spoke on the opening of schools in September of this year at a cost estimated as $200,000.

ation standpoint the urgency is not as great as the building problem at Mystic, but that it already is urgent from the point of view of the curriculum, and that within five years the school population will make it a must.

Mr. Speers summed up the cost of the new proposed buildings as follows: New school on the west side of town to be completed and furnished for $365,000.; Mystic school addition, $200,000.; and Junior High School addition $1,000,000. Making the financing of the entire program seem mathematically possible, Mr. Speers suggested that the Mystic addition be paid for by withdrawing from the current reserve fund as the new west side school was.

Referring to Chapter 645 of the General Laws enacted in 1948, Mr. Speers pointed out that under that statute, Winchester should receive a minimum reimbursement for school building costs of twenty percent. The remaining $687,000, and interest on one million dollars, accruing over a twenty-year period, of $173,250, could be amortized in twenty years by average annual payments of $43,000. Further broken down, this would mean $1.16 on each $1,000. of taxable property. Winchester's average real estate valuation is about $9,000., and the resulting tax would amount to $10.44 per taxpayer.

Mr. Speers used many slides of graphs and charts showing Winchester's ability to pay, and Winchester's indebtedness compared to its present borrowing power of $1,700,000. He brought no protest by showing the weekly cost to each taxpayer as the price of a package of cigarettes.

Speaking of the school budget, Mr. Speers indicated that it was showing only the increases apparent in every other town departmental budget. He said the Committee is recommending salary increases, but still doesn't consider itself reckless in spending the taxpayers' money. The budget, he explained, must contain gross estimates for such items as the high school cafeteria, yet all money returned from the administration of that account goes to the Excess and Deficiency fund instead of to the School Committee.

Mr. William Parsons of the Planning Board told of the revisions of the six-year plan to include the Mystic School addition and the Junior High School addition in 1949, and later, additions to the Senior High School, and to the George Washington School by 1952.

Mr. Parsons pointed out that over one hundred building permits were granted in 1947 and 137 in 1948. He said that even though it is possible that a tax on a ten thousand dollar new house would not cover the actual cost of educating several children in that home, but that it is the moral and legal obligation of the community to provide adequate schooling for all of its children.

Mr. Philip Wadsworth, Chairman of the Junior High School Building Committee, then explained diagrams of the Junior High School addition. He pointed out new features of the several floors, and gave dimensions of the cafeteria which seats 590 and is to be located adjacent to the Junior High building on the lot adjoining property of the Unitarian Society.

The auditorium, he said, will seat 930 on the main floor and about 100 more in the balcony. The stage will have professional stage design and gridiron.

In response to a question, he stated that Junior High School students would also use the shop, home economics rooms, auditorium, and cafeteria.

All of the meetings will begin at 7:45 and will be convened as follows:
 Washington School - Thursday, January 27
 Mystic School - Thursday, February 3
 Noonan School - Thursday, February 10
 Lincoln School - Thursday, February 17
 Junior High School - Thursday, February 24

GEORGE J. MEAD

George J. Mead, prominent aviation engineer and former Winchester boy, died early Thursday morning in Hartford, Conn., after a long illness. He was the son of the late Dr. George N. P. Mead, a popular practicing physician in Winchester for more than thirty years, and of Jenny Leman Mead of Winchester and Brookline. He leaves his wife, Cary Hoge Mead, his mother; a daughter, Mary R. Mead; and four sons, George N. P. Mead, a student at Haverford College; Peyton H. Mead, attending Williams; Charles C. and William R. Mead.

Mr. Mead was born in Everett December 27, 1891, spending much of his boyhood in Winchester. After his preparatory school education at St. George's School, Newport, R. I., and the Choate School, Wallingford, Conn., he attended Massachusetts Institute of Technology from 1911 to 1915.

He first worked for the Sterling Engine Co., Buffalo, N. Y., then engaged in developing new type gasoline engines. From 1916 to 1919 he was experimental engineer at Wright Martin Aircraft Corp., where he played an important part in adapting the Hispano Suiza engine to American aircraft. In 1919 he was appointed engineer in charge of the power plant laboratories of the U. S. Air Service at Dayton, Ohio. From 1920 to 1925 he held the position of chief engineer of the Wright Aeronautical Corporation where he was instrumental in designing and perfecting the early "J" series Wright engines.

Mr. Mead was the engineering founder, with Frederick B. Rentschler, of Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Company which was established in the summer of 1925. This company was taken over by United Aircraft and Transport Corporation and Mr. Mead was Vice President, Member of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Technical Advisory Committee from 1930 to 1934. Until June 1939, when he retired, he held similar positions with United Aircraft Corporation.

In October 1939 Mr. Mead was appointed a member and vice chairman of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics and in May 1940 was called to Washington as Assistant to Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau to get the President's 50,000-plane program under way. When responsibility for the entire defense program was transferred to the National Defense Commission in June, Mr. Mead became Director of the Aeronautics Section under General Knudsen and later served as his Special Assistant until March 1941 when he was obliged for reasons of health to leave Washington.

Mr. Mead was for various periods a trustee of Choate School, trustee and chairman of the executive committee of Connecticut College, member of the Corporation of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and member of the Metropolitan District Commission and the Water Bureau. He served the Hartford Hospital as chairman of its building committee from 1941 to 1946 and as chairman of the executive committee from 1942 to 1947.

He was an Honorary Fellow of the Institute of the Aeronautical Sciences, Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society of England and member of the Society of Automotive Engineers. Among his awards were honorary degrees of Doctor of Science from Trinity College and Williams College, the Taylor Gold Medal of the Royal Aeronautical Society "for the most valuable paper submitted or read during the 1936 Session" and the Sylvanus Albert Reed Award for 1939 "for the design and development of high output aircraft engines for military and commercial service." He was a member of the Hartford Club, Hartford Golf Club, Twilight Club, Twentieth Century Club, Engineers Club of New York and the Cosmos Club of Washington.

On June 16, 1948, in a private ceremony held at the Mead Farm, Center Harbor, N. H., Mr. Mead was presented the Presidential Medal for Merit by Major General E. M. Powers, Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Material, representing the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force. The citation was for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services to the United States in the field of aviation.

"And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And behold, here was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God." ### WINCHESTER OFFICER ON EASTWIND SAFE

Lt. Roland H. Estey, Jr., of 4 North Gateway, navigating officer of the Eastwind, U. S. Coastguard Cutter, rammed by a collier and set afire in the fog off the New Jersey coast before dawn Wednesday, was officially reported safe yesterday morning. His wife, at their home with their five year old son, "Ronnie", received a Coast Guard telegram reporting Lt. Estey as safe, and she was waiting to hear personally from her husband when the Star called shortly before noon. Several members of the cutter's crew, some from greater Boston, were reported killed, injured or missing after the collision. A number of young Coast Guard trainees from New England were aboard the craft. It was reported yesterday that the damaged cutter was being towed into New York.

Lt. Estey has been with the Eastwind about a year. He graduated in 1934 from the Schoolship, Nantucket, and has been at sea most of the time since his graduation, first with the Merchant Marine and then with the United Fruit Company. He enlisted in the Coast Guard in 1942 and is a career man in the service with the rank of lieutenant, senior grade. Lt. Estey is a Somerville boy. He and Mrs. Estey lived in Arlington before coming to Winchester last September to occupy the house built for them on North Gateway. Things were much brighter at his home yesterday noon than they had been during the long day and night following the accident to his ship.

MANCHESTER FIELD MORE THAN AN ATHLETIC STADIUM

Was Created As A Verdant And Beautiful Park and Playground

Editor of the Star:

In the letter of the School Committee published in the January 14th issue of the Winchester Star, these words are used in referring to Manchester Field: "its primary use as an athletic facility." The Committee does not even imply its exclusive use as an athletic facility. Its careful mention of the fact that there will always be "an access to the field from the Junior High School side" is proof that it realizes Manchester Field is still legally a public park and playground established for the use of all residents of Winchester, young and old.

The prime objective of Mr. Manchester and his fellow citizens in 1893 (See Chapman's History of Winchester pp. 265-270) was to transform an unsightly combination of railway freight-yard, coal pockets, lumber yards, a tannery, a row of tenements and some marshy land into "a verdant and beautiful park and playground" that would add charm to the center of the town.

Winchester takes pride in the rose-bed by the Post Office, in the flower-beds of our small Common and in the growing number of parks, by which our Commissioners are adding to the attractiveness of the town. Almost every passer-by used to be stirred by the natural beauty of the willow-framed bend of the Aberjona and by the rose-covered fence of the Junior High School. At present no one can admire the straightened brook and the eight foot fence that have replaced the artistic bend and the roses. Some of that past beauty, however, can be restored.

The School Committee states that the rules established for Manchester Field which favor "its primary use as an athletic facility" are "in keeping with the votes taken by the town." I agree that the majority of our citizens voted for the relocation of Manchester Field in order to facilitate its athletic program. Those votes, however, in no way cancelled out the other possible and actual uses of the land involved in the vote. I contend that Rule II in the letter of January 14th, with reference to closing the gates, is not justified.

The motion passed on June 13, 1946 as a Special Representative Town meeting and confirmed on July 11, 1946 by the vote of the town was in part that the land acquired from the Metropolitan District Commission in the relocation of the Mystic Valley Parkway and the Aberjona River should be "held by the town for enlargement of the Junior High School lot and for a public parking place." There was an agreement between the Unitarian Church officers and those in charge of the relocation project that the parking lot would not be established adjacent to the Church property without the consent of the Church.

At the same time verbal promises were given by members of the Relocation Committee to citizens concerned with the future use of Manchester Field that, if it were necessary to erect a fence around the entire field, that fence would be the same height as the original one enclosing the Junior High School property and that there would be paths for pedestrians between the Mystic Valley Parkway gate and the gates opening into Cutting street and Manchester road, so that Manchester Field could still be used and enjoyed as the public park and playground for which it was originally created.

ed. I hope that the School Committee will feel a moral obligation to fulfill at least the promises of the Relocation Committee in regard to the paths.

Ruth M. Gunby,
12 Manchester road.
January 18, 1949.

"WILLOUGHBY WANTS AN ELECTION"

Editor of the Star:

My tardy renewal is entirely due to the unfair practice of the weatherman. We have been tortured for three weeks with extreme cold and a low official reading of 31 degrees. This reading is taken at a height of 125 feet which allows for 10 degrees to 15 degrees lower readings in other parts of the city. Walking fifty yards from our home and looking across Golden Gate we could see snow on the hills in Mill Valley but that is as close as I care to be. We do feel more fortunate than Los Angeles. They have always boasted of their wonderful climate and now San Franciscans think they really have something to boast about.

Hope Mother Nature will be more kind to you back East this year.

Special to the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association

I enjoy reading about the Horseshoe tossers still able to compete at this late season, but there appears a new score called Welch.

An election of Officers should be held and a new President is in order. The association is fast becoming like our National Party - the same Party too long! This will probably be looked on with scorn and a very unfavorable comment by a certain person, but I can take it, even 3,000 miles away.

It gives me a great thrill to read about your games and brings fond memories of a few years back!

A Happy and Prosperous New Year to you All and a President with something more than a close one!

Sincerely yours,
Stanley W. Mobbs
578 Forty-Eighth Avenue
San Francisco 21, California

Ed. Note: Mr. Mobbs was formerly champion of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association back in the days before Mr. Butters took up golf. His departure from town is still regretted!

CAR CRASHED INTO BRIDGE

Last Sunday evening shortly before 7:30 police headquarters was notified of an automobile accident on Bacon street at the B. & M. Railroad bridge. Officers James Noonan and John Elliott were sent to investigate.

They found upon the scene of the accident Officer Winthrop Palmer who had picked up two headlight rims and a hubcap, evidently belonging to a car which had left the scene after colliding with one of the bridge girders on the north side of the bridge while heading west.

The police checked around and finally found a damaged car in a yard between the bridge and the center on the west side of town. The owner of the car stated that he had not been driving the car, but refused to state who had been driving when the car was damaged. The parts found by the police were said to be those missing from the damaged machine.

Chief Charles J. Harrold stated that the matter would be referred to the Registry for any action which they might care to take.

INJURED BY FALLING DOOR

Last Friday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock Charles Carroll of 168 Swanton street, was painfully injured when the large sliding door in Cullen's Barn on Winchester place fell upon him while he was attempting to close it, pinning him to the floor. Carroll's cries for assistance were heard by Officer Edward F. Bowler at police headquarters and he went to the man's assistance, extricating him with the assistance of Henry B. Rogers of Locust street, Burlington.

Carroll was taken to the Office of Dr. Richard W. Sheehy. He complained of injuries to his neck and after an examination, was ordered by the doctor to the Winchester Hospital, being driven there by County Commissioner James A. Cullen, owner of the building.

NEW AUTOMOBILISTS FETED

"The automobile safety record of the young drivers sixteen to eighteen years old is far better than that of the eighteen to thirty years old drivers," declared Mr. Eugene F. Fanning, Supervisor of Driver Education, Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles, to nine new drivers and an auditorium filled with Winchester High School students last Friday morning.

Mr. Fanning, who represented the Registry as Winchester High School completed its first driver training course, complimented the students and their instructor, Mr. William Branley, on the successful completion of the unit.

praised the students, the administrators, and the Registry of Motor Vehicles for their fine spirit of cooperation. Mr. Branley also thanked the parents who supplied the automobiles and gave up an afternoon each of the ten weeks of the course. He spoke of the generosity of Mr. Ralph Bonnell in supplying necessary equipment for teaching the nomenclature and function of the internal combustion engine, and for volunteering to provide a dual control car for practice. Mr. Frank Marshall also won Mr. Branley's thanks for providing a Buick engine from Noyes Buick Company.

Principal Wade L. Grindle opened the program by introducing Father Francis from Brazil. Father Francis is in the United States to study public schools.

Mr. Grindle then introduced Police Chief Charles Harrold, who complimented the new drivers and injected a note of warning to all drivers to realize that the license is a privilege to drive which may be withdrawn at the discretion of the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

He cited the excellent record of Massachusetts drivers in 1948 which eclipses all records of the last 32 years.

The round of applause for the Chief showed that the students respect him and his department and won't willfully let him down.

On the stage to receive their licenses were Bruce Bodin, Sandra Hall, Ann Keeney, Betty Ann Parker, Jean Roberts, Benson Snyder, Mildred True, Richard Wickerson, and Malcolm Wilson.

The STAR received the first of the week a card from "Charlie" Dolan, well known Winchester boy now located in Dallas Texas. "Charlie" wants to know what is the matter with "Bart's" basketball team, but in the absence of "the Deacon's" expert appraisal we will have to forego answering his query. At the receipt of his card the locals had won three in a row which is pretty much par for the course in Winchester basketball.

WINCHESTER PROFESSOR DIRECTING TRAINING COURSE AT TECH.

Prof. Gerald B. Tallman of 17 Cambridge street, a member of the Department of Business and Engineering Administration at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will supervise the selection of ten young executives from various fields of business in a national competition for a year of graduate study in the Sloan Fellowship Program for Executive Development at M. I. T.

Prof. Tallman is director of the Sloan program which is operating again this year after a recess during the war. It was instituted in 1931 and has been supported for several years by grants from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, Inc. The program is a joint project of the Institute's departments of business and engineering administration and economics and social sciences.

The award of ten fellowships this year is made possible by a new grant of $225,000 from the Sloan foundation to cover a program of research in the field of executive development and education for a group of outstanding young business executives.

The Fellowships, awarded on the basis of merit in a nationwide competition, will carry stipends up to $4,000 for married men and $3,000 for single men. Recipients, on leave of absence from their employers, will be in residence at the Institute from June 10, 1949, to June 15, 1950.

In describing the Sloan Fellowship program, Professor Tallman said: "The courses to be undertaken by the fellows are designed to capitalize upon their maturity and background and to offer an experience not otherwise obtainable by the young executive in industry. The practical problem approach is supplemented by study of underlying principles in the consideration of such problems as industrial relations, financial management, marketing methods and research, production, and accounting.

"The work of the fellows also emphasizes in a practical way the responsibilities borne by industry in our economic and social activities and the effects of industrial operation upon other parts of the social structure.

"To supplement the educational resource of the M. I. T. departments, involved an important contribution is made by a distinguished group of industrial, government, and labor leaders meeting with the fellowship men in seminars at the Institute and in field trips away from the Institute."

"CAMPING" TOP CURRENT ACTIVITY AT TROOP 7

Last Saturday saw Troop 7 scouts take advantage once again of their well new campsite, "Pine Hill." The fellows hiked up there - just off Ridge street, if you didn't know - for a day of test passing and instruction, plus a lot of extra fun, too.

In the advancement line, Ray Simpson, Ken Cleaves, George Govostes, Stan Mullen, Dave Ripley, and Phil Dresser all passed Trailing. Terry Tallman passed part of his First Class Compass work and took measurements for a map required in Map Making. Dave Ripley also took measurements for mapping. Other fellows worked on Wild Life, Fire Building, Cooking, Knife and Axe, and Judging. All in all, it was a typically active day at Pine Hill, with plenty of "laughs" thrown in from such incidents as Stu Carlisle and Russ MacLeod getting slightly lost in tracking, and some stampeding cows from a local pasture, upsetting a few knapsacks before they were through.

The weather was so mild that the boys badgered the men to let them camp out for the night. But, experienced New Englanders, the Troop 7 committeemen decided against it in the end!

As far as weather went, it was a wise decision. But it might have helped prevent the vandalism which the camp suffered, if some people had been on hand that night. Some prankster bent the flag pole, broke its guide wires, and stole the flag rope, it was discovered next day when Troop Committee Chairman Paul Butterworth brought in a load of wood. Needless to say, the troop is hopping mad and hoping they'll be in a spot to nab any future "wise guys" who may return to enjoy more damaging "fun" in the future. As one of the situations that unfortunately must be expected, however, this mischief will be foisted from now on by taking down all equipment and installations when the troop leaves.

Incidentally, before we forget, Dave Ripley's swell work in finishing up tests at Pine Hill won him his Second Class badge, at a Board of Review and then an Investiture, Monday night last. Jim Ekstrom became eligible for his Tenderfoot at the same Investiture service. These are just two fellows out of lots who are "breathing on the neck" of their Second Class, and First Class badges. Troop 7 is advancing all the time - in fact, at a faster rate, now, than ever before!

Speaking of how our troop grows, hats off to new men Don MacFeely (if I spelled it right!) and Russ McLeod, for paying us a visit. We want you as active scouts real soon, fellows.

That goes for every other active boy in Winchester, who may not yet have seen the "best troop in town" in action! Drop in at the Baptist Church Social Hall, downstairs, next Monday at seven. You'll be glad you did! See you then! D. B.

Andrew Joseph Giacalone, seaman, USN, son of Frank Giacalone of 51 Oak street, is scheduled to arrive in Newport, R. I., January 22, after a six-month cruise in Northern European waters aboard the destroyer USS Bristol.

Hoover Report

A survey by "Congressional Quarterly" on the Hoover Commission may be read in the reference room at the public library.

Congress will receive reports from the Hoover Commission on Reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Government at various times. The first report, according to information received by Congressional Quarterly, will take the form of a preliminary "over-all" statement on the Commission's findings.

Among subjects to be covered are Executive Services, Foreign Affairs, Post Office, Public Welfare, Medical Services, Indian Affairs, National Resources, Federal State Relations. The library will receive these reports as soon as they become available.

Students' Room

Three additions to the Students Room are books not to be missed by anyone looking for good reading. "The set of the Sails" by Villiers is a warm and enthusiastic recollection of the author's youth spent at sea. Robert Nathan's "Long After Summer" is a strange but beautiful love story, set against a Cape Cod background. "Elizabeth" by "Captive Princess" by Irwin is a sequel to "Young Bess". The author has made history come alive in the pages of her new novel about a turbulent period in England. Movie Program this week:

HIGH SCHOOL HAS FINE
BANKING RECORD

School Thrift, incorporated, the parent organization behind school banking has through its secretary complimented the pupils of Winchester High School on the achievement of an excellent record in banking.

Significant sentences from the letter read as follows: It was indeed a pleasure to note that your high school even in the face of the demands made upon your students during the Christmas season still maintained that remarkable, almost perfect, record. I wish to commend the Winchester High School for its splendid achievement in money management during the year 1948. I know of no other high school in the entire country that has maintained such a consistently fine record.

Year in and year out the Winchester High School Thrift Association, under the leadership of Mrs. Ella Stacy, has maintained an average of ninety-eight or ninety-nine percent bankers. Often several months elapse before less than one hundred percent add to their school savings account.

The school savings account for all Winchester public schools at the Winchester Savings Bank usually totals about one hundred thousand dollars at year's end.

SAVED DOG FROM WOBURN
POND

Last Friday the Woburn Fire Department called the Central Fire Station requesting the local department to send its life-saving boat to Mishawum Pond to save a dog which had broken through thin ice there. Fireman James T. Callahan towed the boat to Woburn with the service truck and got there in time to pull the weakened animal from the pond.

The usual quota of upsets took place in the Town Basketball League during the past week as the teams began to settle down to battle for the four play off positions. The American Legion moved up into a tie for third place by winning two games during the week and established themselves as a strong contender for a play off position.

The Bonnell Motors regained their winning form by soundly trouncing the Sons of Italy on Monday evening by a score of 34 to 19. The Mercurio Insurance flashed their best form of the season in heating the Winchester Appliance by a one-sided 46 to 20 score. The Bombers gave the American Legion a scare by battling them to a 35 to 31 decision.

On Wednesday evening the American Legion knocked the Mercurio Insurance out of the undefeated class by upsetting them 32 to 27 in a well played game. This defeat also knocked the Mercurio Insurance out of the undefeated class by upsetting them 32 to 27 in a well played game. Next week's schedule lists some good games with the top feature coming in the first game on Monday night when the first place Rotary tangles with the second place Mercurio Insurance. On Wednesday evening the Rotary will again have their hands full with the up and coming American Legion quintet that boasts enough height to match that of the Rotary. Another good game on Wednesday will match the arch rivals, the Sons of Italy against the Mercurio Insurance.

WINCHESTER SET BACK CONCORD

Winchester High won its third straight Middlesex League victory by defeating Concord High at the local gym last Friday night by a score of 43 to 38. A capacity crowd was on hand to see the Red and Black pull out a victory in the second half over a very aggressive Concord High quintet.

Winchester moved out in front 9 to 7 at the end of a very tight first period. During the second period Concord twice went ahead of the locals but each time the Red and Black fought back and scored just as the half ended to take a 20 to 19 lead at the intermission. Both teams continued play tight defensive ball during the third quarter but Winchester restricted the visitors to only three points in this period to take a lead of 28 to 22 at the end of the quarter.

Both teams loosened up in the final period to do a lot more scoring. Captain Antonangeli sank three long shots in succession to bring Concord up to a 29 to 29 tie in the early minutes of the period. Winchester then put on a spurt at the right time to take a nine point lead at 40 to 31 with just two minutes left to play. The locals seemed to become careless at this point, however, and did a poor job of controlling the ball over the last two minutes as Concord rallied to partially close the gap.

Captain Ken Donaghey was the outstanding player on the floor as he tallied 20 points to lead both teams in scoring. Most of his baskets resulted from faking his opponent out of position and then driving in to score, or from outmaneuvering the opposition under the basket to top in a rebound. Paul Roche was an important factor in the Winchester victory, also, as he limited Art Pierce, the high scoring Concord forward to only three baskets. Roche had hard luck in his shooting and with a little better break in fortune could well have hit double figures.

In the preliminary game the Winchester seconds had little trouble in defeating the Concord Seconds by a score of 49 to 24. Dan Devlin again paced the Winchester attack with 14 points while Dave Coon came up with 10 points.

Winchester, 58;
STONEHAM, 39

Winchester High won its second Middlesex League game by defeating Stoneham High at the local gym on Tuesday afternoon by a score of 58 to 39. Winchester was in its best shooting form of the season as they rolled up their highest scoring total to date.

The Stoneham defense offered no puzzle to the Red and Black as they were able to work the ball around to break loose frequently for clear shots. Winchester was able to work a fast break several times to catch the Stoneham defense up the floor. Perhaps the Red and Black has regained its scoring punch as evidenced in the past two games and is now ready to continue its winning ways.

The game was close during the first half as Stoneham battled fiercely during this half and stayed within easy reach of the Red and Black. The second half was all Winchester, however, as the visitors tired and the locals were able to effectively use their greater height. Winchester led 11 to 10 at the end of the first quarter and stretched their lead to 23 to 17 at the half-time. Winchester continued to add to its lead during the third period to go ahead 38 to 27 at the end of that quarter. The locals picked up an additional 8-

WINCHESTER GIRLS NIPPED BELMONT

Winchester High girls' basketball team won its second in a row Friday afternoon by outlasting Belmont in a game at Winchester, 26-22. The visiting lassies outscored Winchester over the second half, 10-8, but an 18-12 advantage at half time enabled the home team to finish in front.

Ginny Gaffney and Peg O'Leary divided scoring honors for Winchester, each getting nine points. Belmont's center forward, Sullivan, led both clubs with 14 points. The Winchester seconds, led by the Belmont seconds in the preliminary game by a basket, 17-15. The locals had a 10-4 lead at the half. Following is the varsity summary:

MELROSE FROSH ON TOP

The Winchester High Freshmen suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Melrose Freshmen by a score of 36 to 31 at Melrose last Friday afternoon. The tight zone defense set up by Melrose was too much for the locals to penetrate. The most disappointing feature from the Winchester viewpoint was the failure of the Red and Black defense to stop the Melrose scoring thrusts.

In a preliminary game the Winchester Junior High quintet made it two straight victories by defeating the Melrose Freshmen Seconds by a score of 18 to 11. Reynolds and Thompson were outstanding for Winchester.

WINCHESTER GIRLS WIN THIRD STRAIGHT

Winchester High School girls basketball team won its third straight victory Tuesday afternoon by outclassing the Malden High girls at Malden, 31-12.

The local girls had a 12-7 lead at half time by virtue of "Ginny" Gaffney's three floor goals and two floor baskets for eight big points. The second half was all Winchester with "Ginny" continuing her good work and "Dee" Barrett tossing in five two-pointers to pull out scoring honors for the game.

The Winchester defense bottled up Malden effectively the second half allowing only two floor goals, the home team's other point coming as the result of a free try.

Winchester seconds won the preliminary game, 18-10. Following is the varsity summary:

DR. EARL H. BALLOU Mission Board Secretary for China

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF
THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Women's Association will meet on Tuesday, January 25 at 2 P. M. in the Social Hall. The business meeting will be presided over by the President, Mrs. Walter W. Winship, and will include a report on the Country Fair which was held last Nov. Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdhall, member of the Association, and Executive Secretary of the Department of Women's Work of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, will conduct the devotional service. Mrs. Walter F. Rutter, Chairman of Department of Women's Work, will give a "Report of the Woman's Work in the State." Following this, Dr. E. H. Ballou, recently of Peiping and now Acting Secretary for China under the American Board of Foreign Missions, Boston, will speak on "Our Stake in China These Days."

Dr. Ballou is a Vermont by birth and a graduate of Yale University and Hartford Theological Seminary with a D. D. from Middlebury College. He first went to China as a Congregational Christian Missionary under the American Board in 1916. During his years of service in that land he has seen China slowly awaken to a nationhood. He has lived under Japanese military domination and in areas of Chinese guerrilla fighting. Dr. Ballou has known China in periods of achievement and progress as well as in times of famine, flood and civil war. A missionary statesman with nearly 30 years residence in China, Dr. Ballou has worked closely with the Chinese Christian Churches.

In China Dr. Ballou's contacts reached far beyond church circles. He is a Rotarian and was an officer in the Peiping Rotary. En route to the U. S. A. in 1941, Dr. Ballou reached the Philippines at the time of Pearl Harbor and was detained there by the Japanese. He attended the last meeting of the Manila Rotary Club before that city was taken over by the Japanese military. He was made a 33rd Degree, Scottish Rite Mason in Shanghai in 1947. Following his return to the U. S. A. on the repatriation ship GRIPSHOLM in 1943, Dr. Ballou served for two years as Executive Secretary of the Associated Board for Christian Colleges in New York. He returned to China in 1946 leaving Mrs. Ballou in America. In April 1948 he came back to the U. S. A. to serve as Acting Secretary for China.

From his own observations in North China, Dr. Ballou feels that inefficient and corrupt as the Nationalist Government then was there still lay in it possibilities of internal reform which might have been achieved through adequate and wisely directed assistance from this country. That opportunity appears to have been wasted. "He feels that the present Communist victories in China may easily be the prelude to the defeat of nearly everything we have hoped for in that country. This would increase tremendously the burden resting upon America as the leader of the world's democracies."

The Mission Union Guild is hostess for this meeting. Tea will be served by Mrs. Wellington L. Caldwell and Mrs. George E. Traut and their committee, Mrs. Walter W. Winship and Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson presiding at the tea table.

POLISH D. P.'S ENJOYED WINCHESTER MOVIE

Three Polish D. P.'s were guests of Mrs. William C. Cusack of Lakeview road on Tuesday, enjoying their first American movie at Winchester Theatre where they were greeted by Manager Michael Stranger.

Mrs. Cusack's guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Strokowsky and their 12 year old daughter, Nathalie. They arrived with other D. P.'s Monday on the "Marine Flasher" which docked at 1 o'clock at Commonwealth Pier after a stormy trip from Bremen. The Strokowskys were the last family to leave the boat and were unable to leave with the other D. P.'s aboard for Charlottesville, Va., the arranged-for destination, because Mrs. Strokowsky had been quite ill on the voyage across and the authorities felt she should at least stay over night in Boston.

It was 7:15 before the Strokowskys were finally taken in charge by Mrs. Cusack, to whom they were assigned by the Travelers Aid Society who were in general charge of the whole group of D. P.'s. Through the courtesy of the Church World Service Committee the little family was put up for the night in Boston, and on Tuesday they were entertained by Mrs. Cusack.

Mr. Strokowsky, a boot-maker in his native Poland, is to go on a farm in Charlottesville and as a consequence Mrs. Cusack took him and his family to visit the Walker-Gordon Dairy Farm in Needham during the forenoon. After luncheon at a Howard Johnson restaurant where the party drove to Winchester where the Strokowskys were taken to see "Southern Yankee" and "That Lady in Ermine." They went into ecstasies over the luxury of the theatre and so enjoyed the pictures that it was difficult to pry them from their seats.

After tea and a visit with the Cusacks at their home the Strokowskys returned to Boston to spend the night, after which they were to board a train for Charlottesville. They were so appreciative and so quick to understand, that the whole experience was heart-warming.

Mrs. Cusack got most of her information about the family and its reactions to America and Winchester from the 12 year old daughter. The Strokowskys were particularly excited over the fact that women drive motor cars in this country.

The Strokowskys have wandered through much of Russia and Poland and were in Austria when the war started. They have heard nothing from the 20-year-old son of the family since he left for war services. The father served in the American Army as a kitchen helper, and he and his family had lived many times with 60 persons in one building.

The February meeting of the club will be held in Winchester at the home of Mrs. Warren Hersey, 34 Jefferson road.

MRS. MARIA RANDOLPH CHIPMAN

Mrs. Maria Randolph Chipman, widow of Rev. John Chipman and mother of Prof. John Chipman, head of the Department of Metallurgy at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, died Saturday, January 22, at her son's home, 19 Lorena road, following a brief illness. She was one of the town's oldest residents, being in her 94th year.

Mrs. Chipman was born in Tallahassee, Florida, her father, Dr. Thomas Randolph, having been a physician and his family being of the old Randolph strain prominent in Albemarle County, Va., the home of Thomas Jefferson, and distantly connected with the family of the famous patriot.

Mrs. Chipman grew up during Civil War days in the south. She was educated in private schools and first met her husband when he was surveying for a railroad going through the south to Clearwater, Fla. They met in Tallahassee and were married there in 1892.

Afterward Mr. Chipman gave up engineering and entered the Episcopal priesthood, serving as rector of churches in Augusta, Ga., Lake Corinth and Bascagoula, Miss., and elsewhere in the South. Assisting her husband with his pastoral duties and working for the betterment of his various churches took much of Mrs. Chipman's time. She was however active in the D. A. R., of which she was a five star member.

Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Chipman made her home with her son, John, first at Ann Arbor, Mich., while he was a member of the faculty at University of Michigan and later at Middletown, Conn., where Prof. Chipman was engaged in research for the Army. She came with the Chipmans to Winchester twelve years ago and had since made her home with them here, being a member of the Church of the Epiphany.

Besides her son, she leaves two grandchildren, David and Betty Chipman.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in Tallahassee with interment in the family lot in Episcopal Cemetery there.

JOHN W. KERRIGAN

John W. Kerrigan, a native of Winchester and veteran of World War I, died Thursday, January 20, at the Boston City Hospital, following a six weeks illness. Flags on the Common and Town buildings were displayed at half-staff.

Mr. Kerrigan was the son of John W. and Rose (McCall) Kerrigan. He was born in Winchester May 15, 1893, and grew up in town, attending the town schools and being employed by James J. Fitzgerald and other local contractors. During World War I he enlisted in the Army March 28, 1918, and after training at Camp Devens, went overseas as a private in the 306th Field Artillery of the 77th Division. He saw service on the Baccarat Sector, Vesle Sector, Oise-Aisne and in the Meuse-Argonne Campaign, being honorably discharged May 10, 1919.

Mr. Kerrigan lived in Winchester until 10 years ago when he moved to Boston. He leaves a brother, Daniel J. Kerrigan of Jamaica Plain.

The funeral was held Saturday morning from the Lane Funeral Home with high mass of requiem celebrated at St. Mary's Church by Rev. Fr. John O'Neil. Father O'Neil also read the committal prayers at the interment which was in Calvary Cemetery.

She studied nursing at Lowell General Hospital, and held many positions of responsibility in hospitals in New Bedford, Fitchburg, Waltham, Salem, Gloucester and Leominster; also in Detroit, Mich., and St. Louis, Mo. She interrupted her hospital work to attend Columbia University and obtained there her B. S., then resuming her hospital work with her interest chiefly in the training of nurses.

Her last position was that of Director of the Training School at the Leominster Hospital. This position she was compelled to resign last July because of ill-health. Miss Marsh leaves a brother, H. Stanley Marsh of Boston.

MALCOLM D. BENNETT

WINCHESTER MAN HEADS "ANCIENTS" CLUB

Malcolm D. Bennett of Wildwood street, was inducted as president of The Ten of U. S., an organization of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, at the 53rd annual dinner of the club Saturday evening at the Hotel Kenmore. More than 400 attended.

Mr. Bennett, a lieutenant colonel in the State Guard and head of Kelley & Hawes, funeral directors, of Winchester, heads an organization of long standing with a large membership.

The Ten of U. S. had its inception in the nineties when the Honorable Artillery Company of England, parent organization of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, paid a visit to America. At that time ten members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company were put in charge of the entertainment of the English guests, and these ten members formed a club within the "Ancients" which has continued down through the years to the present day. In a sense The Ten of U. S. is a social organization of members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, which is one of the country's oldest organizations, going back to pre-Revolutionary days.

ATTENDED PRESIDENT'S INAUGURAL

County Commissioner James A. Cullen of Bacon street, with Mrs. Cullen and her mother, Mrs. Annie K. Fitzgerald of Woburn, attended the inaugural of President Truman in Washington last week, motoring to the Capitol, leaving Tuesday morning and getting back home at 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

Commissioner Cullen secured his tickets for the inaugural through Congressman John W. McCormack of Boston. The Cullens attended the Inaugural Ball and two of the big receptions, that for Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin at the Admiralty Club and that for Governor Paul Dever at the Hotel Roosevelt. They met President Truman, Vice President Barkley and James A. Farley, former Postmaster General and for many years a Democratic factotum. Commissioner Cullen had a pleasant chat with the President, who among other things extended his congratulations to Mr. Cullen upon his election as a Democrat in rock-ribbed Republican Middlesex County.

While in Washington the Cullens met a number of Winchester people. At the Dever reception they met Miss Mary C., and Miss Evelyn M. McGurn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McGurn of Oak street and Miss Theresa M. Giuliani, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Giuliani of Richardson street.

Miss Clifford, who attended High School in Winchester, is making quite a reputation for herself as a singer. She was one of the flower girls at the Inaugural Ball, and those who remember her as a girl in Winchester are quite ready to believe she was stunning in that capacity.

VETERANS NOT FORGOTTEN BY FAITHFUL WOMEN PRODUCTION WORKERS

Three days a week during the busy month of December, the same loyal women, who during the war devoted themselves to sewing for the armed forces, reported to the Red Cross production room for work on emergency requests from local veterans' hospitals. Their hours of public service are 9-4 and during November and December 1,500 surplus hot water bottle covers were converted into 700 pairs of bedroom slippers; 125 bathrobes were nearly completed and 500 sterilizing covers were stitched for the Winchester Hospital. Production chairman Mrs. George Nardin can always count on assistance from Mrs. Mary Horne, Mrs. Daniel Kelley, Mrs. Charles Lilley, Mrs. William Luman, Mrs. Irving Mayer, Mrs. Blanche Moody, Mrs. Walter Rice and Mrs. Donald True.

Other public-spirited women who have served since the beginning of the war and who continue to spend a day each week in filling hospital emergency requests are the Wedgemere Avenue Extension Group. Each member in turn opens her home as a meeting place for the group who have recently been making women's bathrobes and men's pajamas. Members include: Mrs. Frederick Allison, Mrs. William Beale, Mrs. Harold Bugbee, Mrs. John Downes, Mrs. William Everett, Mrs. Robert Fletcher, Mrs. Karn Folkers, Mrs. Chester Fox, Mrs. Harley Hart, Mrs. Gerald Hills, Mrs. Jost Michelson, Mrs. Murray Moore, Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. James White, and Mrs. Ed.

WILSON - CROWLEY

Miss Mary Kathleen Crowley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Crowley of 44 Forest street, was married to Arthur James Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson of South Boston, on Saturday morning, January 8, at St. Mary's Church. Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, pastor, performed the marriage ceremony at 10 o'clock and was also celebrant of the nuptial mass which followed.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Crowley wore a gown of ivory satin having a lace bodice with long pointed sleeves and a court train. Her fingertip-length veil was caught to a lace-trimmed halo and she carried a prayerbook bound in ivory satin with a single white orchid and markers of stephanotis.

Mrs. B. Thomas Preston of Winchester was her sister's only attendant. She wore an aqua faille dress having an off-the-shoulder neckline, basque waist and hoop-skirt. Her tiara matched the flowers of her heart-shaped bouquet.

Edward F. Wilson of Dorchester was best man for his brother and the ushers were William J. Wilson of South Boston, another brother of the bridegroom; Bernard F. Crowley, Jr., of Winchester, brother of the bride; B. Thomas Preston of Winchester, brother-in-law of the bride; and Joseph Lordan of Somerville.

TRAIN SMASHED TRACTOR

Shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday morning a Boston & Maine snow-plow tractor, plowing the platforms around Winchester Station, was struck by an inbound freight train at the northerly end of the station.

Stories of how the tractor got onto the tracks differ. The police account states that the tractor stalled on the tracks, and that the operator, Joseph Bergeron, 45 Woods street, Woburn, jumped to safety. Another report is that as the operator was getting off the tractor to wait for the train to go by, the machine started up and backed onto the tracks.

Workmen tried to flag the train with lights and the engineer had slowed down the big diesel appreciably, but could not avoid striking the tractor. The latter was carried about 100 feet by the train and completely wrecked, two sections of the fence between the tracks being smashed. A B. and M. truck with chains provided by the police got the smashed tractor off the tracks. The gates at the center crossing were down for some time, Officer William T. Hagerty re-routing traffic through the square by way of Washington and Church streets.

MRS. ORA BLAIR WOOD

Memorial services will be held this Friday, January 28, at the residence of Mr. James Nowell, 16 Stratford road, at which the Reverend Walter Lee Bailey, minister of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

FORUM TO HEAR SPEAKER ON UNDERGROUND IN GREECE

On Sunday evening at 6 o'clock the members of the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church will hear Mr. Alexander Lambri-mudi speak on the subject, "The Underground in Action." His talk will be illustrated with pictures.

During World War II this young man, who is the grandson of the first president of Greece, served with a British underground unit operating in Athens. He was once captured by the Nazis and sentenced to die. He has served also with the Greek navy attached to the Embassies at London and Washington.

Mr. Lambri-mudi has received his education at Athens, London, and Harvard University. He hopes to work for the United States State Department in the near future.

Preceding the address and discussion, members of the Forum will have a supper together with group singing to enliven the occasion. There will be a brief business meeting. A film strip, "The United Nations at Work" will be shown to give the young people an idea of what they will see when they visit the United Nations on their New York trip in April.

Members of the Forum will attend the morning church service at 10:45 o'clock to hear Dr. Howard J. Chidley preach a youth sermon entitled "True & False Sophistication." Robert Oxford will represent the young people as the chaplain.

The Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps and the Girls Drill Team of the Immaculate Conception Parish have been invited to participate in the Military Pageant at the Infantile Paralysis Ball in the Boston Garden on Monday evening, January 31st.

At the present time there are sixty-two boys in the Drum and Bugle Corps and twenty-eight girls in the Drill Team. The two units made a very excellent impression when they paraded in the Armistice Day Parade in Boston last November. Their performance on that occasion merited them the invitation to the affair at the Boston Garden.

These two Immaculate Conception Parish units were organized less than a year ago. In the intervening months they have made excellent progress and it is expected that by Springtime they will be among the finest parade units in Greater Boston.

FORMER WINCHESTER BOY INSTITUTES NEW TEACHING PLAN AT KISKI

Dr. Lloyd M. Clark, a former Winchester boy, now head of Kiskiminetus Springs School in Saltsburg, Pa., has introduced there a plan of instruction which he hopes will do away with the weaknesses which have been shown to be a part of the orthodox method of teaching subjects at high and prep schools generally.

The usual method has students take several different subjects each day, carrying them throughout the year with assigned work outside the classroom in each. Pupils go from class to class, from trigonometry to English, from English to biology, from biology to French, etc., losing time at the beginning of each new class, and having homework in each of several subjects to prepare.

Dr. Clark found that the product of this orthodox educational system is defective and that many children complete their so-called education with less real knowledge of such fundamental subjects as mathematics, history and English than their grandfathers acquired in the little red one-room schoolhouses.

At Kiski, which he has headed since 1941, the boys study one subject at a time, nothing but French for two months, nothing but physics for two months, nothing but mathematics for two months. The day is divided so that the boy recites in alternate periods with study periods between. At the end of the day at 3 p. m. he is through, with his evenings to himself. Brief review periods at the end of the year are a part of the system.

Thus far the evidence is all in favor of the new plan, a plan by the way which is also being used successfully at Hiram College in Ohio. The teachers like it, the boys like it, and scholarship has shown a definite improvement. Fatigue is if anything less under the new system, which is in many respects similar to the Army's Specialized Training Program which got such fine results during the war.

The question has been raised whether this system of instruction would work in high schools. Its proponents believe it would. Others are not so sure, and point out that whereas preparatory schools prepare only for college high schools must, or should prepare for citizenship, consequently offering a much greater variety of subjects, ranging from machine work to horseback riding. Scheduling of classes under the new scheme would be difficult and teachers with much larger classes could not give much individual instruction, even in the more intensive single-subject-at-a-time regime.

Proponents of the new scheme counter with the opinion that little individual instruction can be given by teachers in public schools anyway, and add that under Dr. Clark's Kiski plan the pupil tackles a subject as a business man would a business problem, staying with it until he has to a degree mastered it and thereby acquiring valuable training for adult life.

Dr. Clark, one of three boys, grew up on Stevens street in Winchester, singing in the boy choir of the Church of the Epiphany and graduating from high school in the class of 1912. He subsequently graduated from Amherst and went into business in New York, being at 46, when he went to Kiski, the owner of a successful business, conducting readership-type surveys for magazines.

Approaching his educational duties with a fresh mind, he found that nine out of ten boys had no taste for study. They would study, but did not like it, doing only enough work to get by. Sports at Kiski got the most attention of everything.

Dr. Clark's new system is an attempt to get boys really interested in studying by staying with a subject until they begin actually to know something about it. Thus far it seems to be working. Of course it is arousing much interest among educators everywhere.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

At the opening of the Fortnightly meeting of January 24, the president, Mrs. Harold H. Given, read a recently received letter from a grateful old lady in Norway to whom The Fortnightly had sent food. She had written that the box was received on Christmas Eve when no food was in the house but two loaves of bread. She wished she had shoes so she could go to church to give thanks.

Mrs. Given also called the attention of all members to their privilege of attending Club Institute days at the Boston Y. W. C. A. the first Thursday of each month at 10:30 A. M. The meetings are free and the programs always interesting, presented by different divisions of the State Federation. At the next meeting February 3rd planned by the Literature-Drama Division, the four branches of literature will be presented by members of that committee. It is of special interest to Winchester members that Drama will be presented by Mrs. Carolyn Gilpatrick of Winchester, an expert in that field.

The chairman of the Literature-Drama Division, Mrs. Alfred L. Skinner, was Fortnightly's guest of the afternoon and with gracious presence told of the work of her Division, with special mention of sending last year 1500 books, 630 of them books for children, to a librarian in Oslo, Norway, whose name and need she had learned from Mrs. Given. The aim of the Literature-Drama Division is "Service with Books," their basic theme being "International Understanding." They urge and forward the sending of good current literature to the peoples of Europe.

In spite of bad weather, the Fortnightly meeting crowded Masonic Hall beyond its capacity. This had also been the case at a previous meeting held there this season, but the present instance was due undoubtedly to the great popularity of the speaker of the afternoon, Marion T. Rudkin, who, incidental to reviewing recent books, entertains as delightfully as any monologist. Her descriptions of characters and incidents in books are highlighted by her dramatic ability to portray them by face and gesture. Her depiction of humorous scenes is irresistibly funny, and the Fortnightly members and their guests had many moments of hilarious enjoyment besides gaining information of many serious books recently published.

Mrs. Rudkin first mentioned as her present favorite for its wholesome sweetness, Hound-dog Man by Fred Gipson, likening it in quality to The Yearling and So Dear to My Heart. High Towers by Thomas B. Costain, an historical novel of 17th century Montreal, she said would be read at one sitting, there being not a dull moment in it. The Hearth and the Eagle was mentioned as a book loved by Marblehead which hated The Running of the Tide which Salem loved. In referring to The Big Fisherman, Lloyd Douglas' latest book, exceedingly popular though not well written, she said that Mr. Douglas left the pulpit to write because he wished to reach people who would never come to church and that in this he has notably succeeded.

The Grand Design, by John D. Passos, she spoke of as a picture of the New Deal and perhaps not wholly to be enjoyed because of ugly things in it. Remembrance Rock by Carl Sandburg was mentioned, also Dukays by Lajos Zilahy which shows the need there was for revolution in Hungary. Of non-fiction books she referred particularly to Popcorn on the Ginza by Lucy Herndon Crockett who tells of Japan under American occupation and has tried by talking with all sorts of people on the streets to determine whether or not the Japanese are sincere about democracy.

For inspiration Mrs. Rudkin advised Guideposts, true stories of inspiration and faith edited by Norman Vincent Peale, and You Can Change the World, which is an account of the Christophers by James Kelley. For humor she cited Yankee Folk by Edward Ballantine Mitchell; Shake Well Before Using, by Bennett Chef; Cheaper by the Dozen, by Frank Gilbreth, Jr. and Ernestine Cary; and It Gives Me Great Pleasure by Emily Kimbrough.

JR. MRS. GUILD TO HAVE MOTHER-DAUGHTER MEETING

Mrs. George E. Connor, better known to most of us as Harriet, has a wonderful collection of dolls of all types, from the early corn husk and wooden dolls to the papier mache and wax dolls and the German Bisque jointed doll forty-eight to fifty years old. She will bring her freshly starched family to the Mother and Daughter meeting of the Junior Mrs. Guild of the First Congregational Church, next Tuesday evening, February 1, at 7:30 p. m.

It is hoped that this will be a very informal meeting and that the youngsters perhaps may bring some of their collections and compare notes with Mrs. Connor, whose dolls are all old, with one exception. She has some peculiar dolls and some curiosities which will be fun to see. They're all dressed in the costumes of their period. She will also bring some of her belongings, including tea sets, soap dishes, and clothing.

All the women of the church, with or without a daughter, are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Raymond Carter, Mrs. Thomas Corkery, and Mrs. William Sleeper will serve dessert in the Ladies Parlor at 7:30, so let's all be on time for this interesting meeting.

SENIOR FORUM SOCIAL

The Senior Forum's social committee is getting ready for an Open House to be held tonight, January 28, from 7:30 to 11:30 in the Parish Hall of the First Congregational Church. Every one of high school age is cordially invited to attend. Besides bowling, ping-pong, checkers etc., there will be square and regular dancing, with music by local talent plus the juke box, which will furnish some popular melodies too. There will also be a very entertaining movie and plenty of refreshments. Naturally, as might be expected there will be loads of fun and enjoyment for all that come.

On the agenda for the coming month Forum will present a gala "Cherry Tree Dance." This will take place on February 23. The "Harmonizers" Winchester's ever popular musicians will provide the music.

TO HAVE ONE-MAN SHOW IN BOSTON

Mr. G. Russell Mann of Fenwick road, a member of the Boston Businessmen's Art Group and also of the Winchester Art Association, is holding a one-man show of his "Down East" paintings in oil at the art gallery of the Copley Society of Boston, 561 Boylston street, for two weeks commencing Monday, January 31, and continuing through Friday, February 11, from 10 in the morning to 5 p. m., except Sundays. Those who have seen some of Mr. Mann's paintings, done this summer at Cape Breton are looking forward to his exhibition.

STANDING

Rotary	8	1
Bonnell Motors	7	2
American Legion	5	4
Mercurio Insurance	4	4
Sons of Italy	4	4
Winchester Appliance	2	7
Bombers	0	8

The Town Basketball League continued on its merry way with five teams battling for the four playoff positions. The American Legion moved up to third place in the League standing while the Mercurio Insurance dropped down to a fourth place tie with the Sons of Italy. These last three teams are very evenly matched and should battle for a playoff position right down to the final night of the schedule.

The games on Monday evening all ran true to form as the Sons of Italy swamped the Bombers 52 to 26 as Pete Provinzano and Sam Tibaud score 14 points each for the victors. The Rotary had an easy time with the Winchester Appliance, winning 51 to 21 as Jim Coon netted 20 points for the Rotary. The Bonnell Motors defeated the American Legion 48 to 30 as Al Switzer garnered 13 points for the winners and Roger Latham 16 for the losers.

The games on Wednesday evening provided the fans with three well contested games. The Bombers threw a real scare into the League leading Rotary Club as they were nosed out 39 to 36. The Rotary team won this one from the foul line as the Bombers outscored them from the floor. The Bonnell Motors had a difficult time with the Mercurio Insurance before beating them 40 to 32 as Pat Patterson threw in 15 points for the winners. The American Legion edged the Winchester Appliance 30 to 27, thanks to 15 points by big John Eshbach.

The big game on next week's schedule comes on Monday night when the first place Rotary Club meets the second place Bonnell Motors. The Rotary won the first encounter between these two teams by a score of 35 to 28 but if the Bonnells have all their strength for this meeting they may very well reverse the result of the first game. A win for the Rotary would just about clinch first place for them while a victory for the Bonnells would throw the two teams into a tie for the League leadership.

Next week's schedule:

Monday
Sons of Italy vs. Win. Appliance.
Mercurio Insurance vs. Bombers.
Bonnell Motors vs. Rotary.

Wednesday
Bonnell Motors vs. Sons of Italy.
Win. Appliance vs. Mercurio Ins.
American Legion vs. Bombers.

MELROSE OUTCLASSED
WINCHESTER

The Winchester High basketball team suffered its worst defeat of the season at the hands of Melrose High by a score of 51 to 36 at Melrose last Friday evening. Melrose has the tallest team in the Middlesex League this year and they were able to control effectively both backboards and retain possession of the ball the greater part of the game.

Melrose was in command of the game all the way as they led 14 to 11 at the end of the first quarter, went further ahead 32 to 23 at the half, and increased their margin to 39 to 25 at the end of the third quarter. Nothing that the Red and Black could do could seem to stop the Melrose offense as they were having exceptional luck with their shooting. Even when they missed their original shot at the basket, they were often able to get the rebound with their superior height and scored on the rebound.

Winchester never gave up battling, however, and at one point in the fourth quarter the Red and Black had cut the Melrose margin to eight points but could not keep their rally going. The local players expressed the opinion that Melrose is the best team they have faced this year and feel that Melrose can give Belmont a real battle when they meet.

The second teams provided the feature of the evening as the Winchester Seconds defeated the Melrose Seconds in an overtime period thriller by a score of 55 to 54. The teams were tied at 49 to 49 at the end of the regulation time after the locals had rallied from a half-time deficit to catch Melrose. Bobby Walsh score 15 points to pace the Winchester attack and he and Tony Cirsuro were the key men in the Winchester rally and victory.

WINCHESTER FROSH WIN
AGAIN

The Winchester Freshmen won their third game in four starts by easily defeating the Stoneham Freshmen 43 to 22 at the local gym last Friday afternoon. The Red and Black was slow in starting as they trailed by a point at the end of the first period, but after their offense started to click they had too much power for the visiting Stoneham quintet. Johnny Farrell and Paul McGowan were outstanding for the locals while Dave Bumgartner gave a greatly improved performance.

The Winchester Junior High team remained undefeated in four games by swamping the Stoneham Junior High by a score of 35 to 12. Donlon was high scorer for Winchester as Bob Wheaton and Dick Reynolds were outstanding for the winners.

COUNTRY CLUB CURLERS IN CANADA

Winchester Country Club has been represented by two rinks this week in the big international bonspiel at Quebec City, Canada. Competitors curl at six different curling clubs in the city and 146 rinks are entered in the bonspiel.

The Country Club party left Saturday night for Quebec. The bonspiel began Monday and continues through Saturday, January 29. Winchester's No. 1 rink comprises Charlie Waghorne, Frank Lane, Al Litchfield and Fritz Craven, skip. Rink No. 2 comprises Tommy Righter, Howard Eteson, Ralph Bonnell and Dan Morse, skip. Carroll Knowlton fills the important roll of alternate on both rinks, and the boys expect to bring back a fine batch of pins for their curling tams.

Winchester had its two Quebec rinks curling at Nashua last week Wednesday evening, winning one end and losing one. Another rink competed over the week-end in the Grand National Bonspiel at Utica, N. Y. Howard Morrison, Geoffrey Neiley, "Shorty" Carr and John Joy, skip, were the Utica competitors. This group wasn't able to get back to town in time to make the Quebec trip, so there will be no Canadian pins for them.

Weather conditions haven't been too good for curling thus far this winter, but the Country Club enthusiasts have been at their favorite sport whenever ice on their outdoor rink would permit and are hopeful of making a good showing in Quebec.

Charles A. Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin E. Jennings, of 127 Church street, is a member of the Carnival Committee preparing for Vermont Academy's 39th Annual Winter Carnival which will be held on January 28th, 29th, and 30th.

LEXINGTON EDGED
WINCHESTER IN OVERTIME

Winchester High lost a heart-breaking double overtime thriller to Lexington High at Lexington on Tuesday afternoon by a score of 39 to 37. At the end of the regulation time the score was tied at 35 to 35, each team scored two points in the first overtime period to make the score 37 to 37, and Lexington scored a basket in the sudden-death overtime period to win. It was a tough game for the locals to lose for they had played good ball against a strong Lexington quintet.

It was a tight game all the way with the greatest margin at any time being a 5-point edge by Lexington in the second quarter. The score was tied at 10 to 10 at the end of the first period, Winchester went ahead 18 to 17 at the half-time, and had a lead of 26 to 23 at the end of the third quarter.

The teams matched points evenly in the last period with Winchester having a 35 to 32 lead with 45 seconds to play. At this point Winchester lost possession of the ball and Lexington worked the ball down the floor. A Lexington man was fouled with 25 seconds to play and although he missed both shots, Ross captured the rebound and was fouled as he shot the basket to make the score 35 to 34. As everyone held their breath, Ross netted the foul to even the score and 35 to 35 and neither team was able to score in the remaining seconds.

In the first overtime period McDonnell scored a basket for Lexington but Captain Donaghey evoked the count with two successful foul conversions, making the score 37 to 37 at the end of that period. In the sudden-death second overtime period, Ross was again the villain as he scored the basket to beat the Red and Black. It was a particularly tough game for the locals to drop as with the return of Captain Donaghey to the line up, they had played good ball in an attempt to avenge an earlier 30 to 17 loss to the Minutemen. George Tansey and Dennis Sanford turned in outstanding performances for the Red and Black.

The Winchester Seconds were victorious over the Lexington Seconds by a score of 37 to 30 as Bobby Walsh again paced the Winchester attack with 14 points.

COUNTRY CLUB CURLERS IN

Winchester Country Club has been represented by two rinks this week in the big international bonspiel at Quebec City, Canada. Competitors curl at six different curling clubs in the city and 146 rinks are entered in the bonspiel.

The Country Club party left Saturday night for Quebec. The bonspiel began Monday and continues through Saturday, January 29. Winchester's No. 1 rink comprises Charlie Waghorne, Frank Lane, Al Litchfield and Fritz Craven, skip. Rink No. 2 comprises Tommy Righter, Howard Eteson, Ralph Bonnell and Dan Morse, skip. Carroll Knowlton fills the important roll of alternate on both rinks, and the boys expect to bring back a fine batch of pins for their curling tams.

Winchester had its two Quebec rinks curling at Nashua last week Wednesday evening, winning one end and losing one. Another rink competed over the week-end in the Grand National Bonspiel at Utica, N. Y. Howard Morrison, Geoffrey Neiley, "Shorty" Carr and John Joy, skip, were the Utica competitors. This group wasn't able to get back to town in time to make the Quebec trip, so there will be no Canadian pins for them.

Weather conditions haven't been too good for curling thus far this winter, but the Country Club enthusiasts have been at their favorite sport whenever ice on their outdoor rink would permit and are hopeful of making a good showing in Quebec.

Charles A. Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin E. Jennings, of 127 Church street, is a member of the Carnival Committee preparing for Vermont Academy's 39th Annual Winter Carnival which will be held on January 28th, 29th, and 30th.

WINTON CLUB NEWS

Our third and last description of the Winchester incidents that inspired the 1949 Winton Club Cabaret, bring us up to the present century. The first two acts cover the periods from 1600 to 1900, the last act from 1900 to 1949. We believe knowledge of the story behind each number will make your evening at the Cabaret doubly entertaining.

Mrs. John Ghirardini of Chestnut street has written the music and lyrics of a song that will be sung throughout the show. It was written especially for the Cabaret and when Harry Marshard and his orchestra lead into the new song, you will be as impressed as we are at our talented Winton Club member. There will be an excellent cast throughout working under a new and very popular coach, Mr. David Carman Jones.

The first number in the last act is a reminder that Winchester supplied over half a million dressings for the Red Cross during World War I. This will be portrayed by a short and snappy Drill of Winton Club Members. The Depression of 1930 is the basis for the second number and the last number. This covers World War II and builds up the climax for the entire show. We are keeping this number a secret and we know it will meet all expectations!

All we hope is that you are making plans to be at the Town Hall one of the four following evenings February 2, 3, 4, 5. The proceeds from the Cabaret keep the Winchester Hospital supplied with linen. Your attendance will give you pleasure and aid the Winchester Hospital Linen Fund.

The STAR learns that the League of Women Voters is not to have its so-called "Candidates' Meeting" in advance of town election this year. This will be good news to the candidates, many of whom have disliked and in some cases, resented making this sort of personal appearance. Nearly all with whom we have discussed the meeting have told us they were going because they felt they must. Their feeling is understandable. Platform speaking is a fine art which unfortunately not too many possess. In many instances the ability to speak in public in no way enters into a candidate's lastness to fill the office he seeks. Last year it was easy to spot those among the candidates whose experience with public speaking made them at ease on the platform. They stood out like beacon lights, and yet there were other excellently qualified candidates who appeared to poor advantage when they tried to speak. The League survey has never wanted to persecute candidates for local office. Its idea in sponsoring these "Candidates' Meetings" was to give the electorate an opportunity to know the candidates and evaluate them at first hand. Relatively few voters have availed themselves of the opportunity afforded and in some instances, at least, those who have attended meetings have gotten an unfavorable impression of well qualified candidates who unfortunately could not speak well. The League is right in discontinuing the meeting.

Mrs. Gunby's letter in last week's STAR raises the old question of whether Manchester Field is a playground or a park, her contention, apparently being that the late Forest Manchester and his associates back in 1893 had as their primary objective the transformation of the old unsightly industrial tract that is now a part of the new Manchester Field into "a verdant and beautiful park and playground." Her authority is Chapman's History of Winchester, and reading Mr. Chapman's text you will find several references to Manchester Field as a "park." The "verdant and beautiful park and playground" was something which, according to Mr. Chapman, Mr. Manchester saw "in his mind's eye" as the aftermath of removing the old industrial buildings and beautifying the tract. Winchester, the Metropolitan Park Commission and the City of Boston joined in the beautification project, each paying a third of the cost. Boston was interested to avoid pollution of the Aberjona because a part of its water supply then came from Mystic Lakes. The Metropolitan Park Commissioners were interested because the improvement fitted nicely into the new Parkway layout through Winchester. The town, under the leadership of Mr. Manchester, wished of course to do away with an eyesore and turn it into a useable and attractive field. There was by no means an unanimity of opinion in town over the improvement, and since the only direct reference to the opposition in Mr. Chapman's History is that a spokesman for the opponents objected to doing away with plants where men were earning a living to build a field where boys could play ball, the School Committee's statement that the primary use of Manchester Field is as an athletic field would seem to have some little historical foundation in fact. The actual vote of the adjourned town meeting on March 19, 1894, which guaranteed town participation in the improvement, seems to support the athletic field idea. The vote was to empower the Park Commissioners to purchase or take from the Metropolitan Park Commissioners certain land between Walnut street and Mystic Place (Grove place) "for public playgrounds." The sum of $50,000 was borrowed for this purpose and the money was taken from "the loan for public playgrounds." There is no mention whatsoever of park in either vote, so apparently the town meeting actually voted for a playground, or playgrounds, not a park. Again, March 5, 1900, a town meeting voted to ask the Metropolitan Park Commissioners for permission to name "the playground" Manchester Field. This permission was necessary because when the land was improved care and control remained with the Metropolitan Park Commission, and did so remain until March 13, 1905, when the town voted to assume care and control of Manchester Field for a period of 99 years. Again it was the use of the field as a playground that prompted this move, the Metropolitan Park Commission having been found inadequate once the field began to be used extensively for games. So in the two votes of town meeting that led to the creation and payment of the field, in the vote to name it and in the vote to assume control there is no reference made to park while three of the four votes actually designate the field a playground. The STAR contends that Manchester Field, according to the vote of the town, is a playground and always has been a playground, and that the School Committee in designating it primarily as an athletic facility is correct. When the town voted, rightly or wrongly, according to which side you happen to be on, to move the river and join old Manchester Field with the Junior High playground, appropriating $65,000 for the job, there is no reference to any use of the resulting area as a park. The School Committee wouldn't be given control of a park. When the sum of $23,311 was appropriated to be expended by the School Committee "for the purpose of providing adequate athletic facilities on Manchester Field" there is again no mention of park, though it was at that time voted: "that it is the sense of the meeting that Manchester Field shall be continued as a PUBLIC PLAYGROUND and be kept open the year round "for that purpose." This vote and appropriation are the last made in connection with the field. Nowhere in it does there appear any provision for foot-paths or rights of way across the field. The field is always open to be used as a playground, access being from Main street. Several persons who find it convenient to use the field as a short-cut down town have the strong conviction that at a hearing, or town meeting, or both, they were promised that the gates would be open for that purpose. Mrs. Gunby, in her letter last week, wrote in part "verbal promises were given by members of the Relocation Committee . . . that there would be paths for pedestrians between the Mystic Valley Parkway gate and the gates opening in Cutting St. and Manchester road, so that Manchester Field could still be used and enjoyed as the public park and playground for which it was originally created. We have attempted to show here that it was not created as a park by any vote of the town, which is after all what counts, and Mr. Hatch, chairman of the Additional School Facilities Committee, which was the steering committee for the enlargement of the playground, stated over his signature in the STAR of February 6, 1948, that to the best of his recollection and that of members of his committee he "made no such promise." Where such a promise was made, or by whom, we do not know, but to hold the School Committee bound by anything but an official vote is expecting quite a lot. Finally, from open gate to open gate across the field as paced by the athletic department of the high school is 320 paces. Walking out side the fence it is 500 paces, a difference of 180 paces, or roughly 540 feet!

WAC OR WAF QUALIFICATIONS

 AGE - 18 to 34 inclusive. (18-21 must have parents' consent.)
 Women over 24 who were in one of the Services after July 1, 1943, may enlist provided age is not greater than 35 plus the number of years of service. (Waived for those now on active duty.)
 EDUCATION - New enlistees must be high school graduates or be able to pass an equivalent examination. (Waived for women with prior service in the Armed Forces.)
 CITIZENSHIP - Must be U. S. citizen.
 MARRIAGE - Must be single, if without previous military service.
 DEPENDENTS - Must have none under 18 years of age.
 HEALTH - Must be in good physical condition as determined by a physician's examination.
 MENTAL APTITUDES - Must pass a test for normal mental aptitudes.

 EDUCATION - Two years accredited college. (Those who do not possess the college minimum, but who are otherwise exceptionally qualified, may establish eligibility to apply by passing an appropriate Army educational examination.)
 MENTAL APTITUDES - Must pass certain screening tests before an OCS Board.
 The writer has received some new and interesting material on the WACs and WAFs. If applicants are unable to contact Sgt. White at the Recruiting Office, please feel free to come to the house to inspect this material. Captain Florence P. Gibbons, at Fort Banks, is keeping the writer up-to-date on this branch of the Service. Her promotion to Captain, Regular Army, is most welcome news as she is a great credit to the women in uniform.

Answering a question on the Military Manpower Committees. The work done by the members of these committees is entirely voluntary. This is one set-up which costs the taxpayers NOTHING. There seems to be some misunderstanding on the one and two year enlistments. The one year enlistments. These are only for the 18 year olders and there is a current campaign to increase this type of enlistment. The two year enlistment has been dropped entirely. The three year enlistments, and up, are Regular Army enlistments.

Very truly yours,
 Gladys N. Toye, Chairman

MIGHT BE A TRIBUTE TO MISS MEAD

Editor of the Star:

The following poem to New York City Librarians by Stephen Vincent Benet might well serve as a tribute also to Miss Mead and her excellent staff in the Winchester Public Library.

Howard J. Chidley,

Hymn of a Reveler to the New York City Librarians

I've lost my card a dozen times
 And plaintively explained,
 I've penciled little ends of rhymes
 In books I then obtained.
 I've driven busy ladies mad
 With idiotic queries
 About the site of Old Bagdad
 And who won the World's Series.

I've eaten nuts and been reproved
 In Central Circulation,
 And every branch where I have moved

Has known my devastation.
 I've sat on three new magazines
 While reading yet another
 And shown myself, like Gaston Means,
 A reader and a brother.

Yet even with my evil looks
 And somewhat worse demeanor, (It is not fair to borrow books
 While you have scarlatina.
 It is not right to scribble "Bosh"
 In love scenes—that is selfish.
 It is not just to murmur "Gosh!"
 What, not one book on shellfish?")

For books you found—and books I lost—
 For aid and comfort given Without reward or even cost
 Unless it be in heaven,
 For priceless clues that I had missed.

For fact unlinked with myth,
 ("I want a book. It's by a man . . .
 I think his name is Smith.")

I here express—in platitude—
 But platitudes are true,
 One reader's heartfelt gratitude
 To every one of you.
 I've bothered you exceedingly,
 I've often caused you pain,
 And just as soon as I need help I'll bother you again.
 —Stephen Vincent Benet

A BLOW AT DEMOCRACY

Editor of the Star:

A traveler said, "Boston must be mighty hard up for honorable executives when it has to go to the federal penitentiary for a notorious crook for its mayor." This "notorious crook" was sent to jail after a fair trial by a high court and could only be liberated by the President of the United States who yielded to political pressure and released him. He did not pardon him.

A Bostonian who visited western cities for his business firm, stated that before he finished his trip, he was ashamed to admit that he came from Boston. When the writer met his old hunting guide in northern Maine last fall, the man queried him in wonderment how a person with the record of Mr. Curley could become mayor of Boston. He couldn't understand it. "What is the matter with Boston?" he asked.

A traveler from Europe arriving in Boston said, "I understand your city is governed by a notoriously corrupt executive."

It is a fact that the administrations of Boston and Philadelphia are rated today as the worst in the country and if Chicago is added, we have a trinity that smells to heaven. In one's travels one is amazed to learn how widespread the knowledge of Boston's ill repute has become. Its former patriots, its outstanding men of commerce, the shining lights in literature, science and the arts, its great institutions of learning, its and honest administrators, names like Paul Revere, Horace Mann, Holmes, Eliot, Warren, Hale and their compeers made Boston known the world over as the Athens of America. Now it is known as Curley's city of corrupt politicians.

Not long ago Mayor Curley was reported in the press to be grieved that some mischief-maker smeared a monument with lipstick. Does he ever grieve at the way he has smeared and disgraced the city and the state that have bestowed upon him its highest honors? Greed and selfishness prevented the Mayor from retiring from public life with becoming humility and repentance after his term in prison.

President Daniel L. Marsh of Boston University said in a Commencement address, "three forces have more often wrought the destruction of free governments than all other forces put together. The first is war, the second is Government regimenting, controlling and 'Santa Clausing' and the third is individual corruption." By its political corruption the Curley administration is contributing its full share to the destruction of democracy—rule by the people and all who voted for it are guilty of aiding and abetting the sordid, selfish clique.

Daniel C. Dennett.

DR. NORRIS FAVORS THREE- YEAR JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

"We were pleased with the attendance at the joint meeting of the Winchester School Committee and the Junior High School Building Committee held last week at Wyman School," said Dr. Forbes H. Norris, Superintendent of Schools, as he outlined objectives of that meeting and of the meetings to be held in the several elementary schools and in the High School auditorium during the next few weeks.

"Thanks to the splendid cooperation of the Mothers' Clubs, in publicizing this series of meetings, large numbers of parents and interested citizens are hearing directly from the committees responsible for the school building program and Winchester's need for school additions."

"However," Dr. Norris continued, "we want the citizens of the town to ask questions, to hear first hand what plans are deemed essential, and to satisfy themselves about the details."

The Superintendent spoke of his eagerness for Winchester to go ahead with the three-year Junior High School. "My own children attended a two-year Junior High School and I've seen its shortcomings from the standpoint of a parent. Though it is naturally desirable that pupils not have to contend with traffic on busy streets, that is not my only reason for urging the immediate completion of the Junior High School."

At this point Dr. Norris drew out a copy of the report of the Public Schools of Winchester, I'd Like to Know, published in 1947. Opening the report to page 43 "Why Should We Have a Three-Year Junior High School?" he indicated paragraphs reading as follows:

A good reason for having a three-year Junior High School is that this type of organization can best serve the boys and girls of this awkward age. It provides the best opportunity for the full development of their emotions and aptitudes.

From a psychological point of view, ninth grade pupils are more nearly like boys and girls of grade seven and eight than they are those of Senior High School age. Therefore, the three-year Junior High School would give a more suitable outlet for social activities and ability to participate in physical activities.

When the ninth grade is placed in the Senior High School, the students are usually relegated to an inferior position by the upper classes. This is quite natural. This so-called submergence of the ninth grade tends to eliminate much of the possibility for assuming responsibility and attaining leadership qualities on the part of the student on this grade level.

Shifting to the subject of school personnel, Dr. Norris said that he contemplates securing seven or eight additional teachers for next year, he is very much interested in the revision of the salary schedule approved by the School Committee. "With Lexington, Stoneham, Belmont, and other towns offering more attractive terms to women teachers than Winchester can, and having the same need for additional teachers, I look for more than the usual difficulty in providing an adequate and capable staff. Nor is the problem limited to women teachers. Winchester has difficulty enough to get and to keep high calibre men teachers. It is noteworthy that the percentage of the Winchester tax dollar spent on schools has increased only three-tenths of one per cent in the last eight or nine years."

During the last few weeks Dr. Norris has met with the Executive boards of the Mothers' Clubs at Washington, Noonan, and Wyman schools, and with the Central Mothers' Association board, consisting of the presidents of all the Mothers' Clubs. At those meetings he has discussed the building program, the current budget, the daily school program, and tried to answer all questions on school matters.

Concluding the interview, Dr. Norris expressed the hope that large audiences would be on hand to hear the School Committee and the Junior High School Building Committee outline their proposals, to ask questions, and to enter into the discussions. "The meetings, he said, "are wide open to every citizen of the town."

Miss Mavis McGrath of the McGrath Travel Service, Woburn, left Boston Wednesday night, January 26th, via T. W. A. Constellation, at the invitation of T. W. A. and the Swiss, Italian, and Spanish National Tourist Bureaus, for a study of travel conditions in Central and Southern Europe.

Arriving in Geneva she will visit Lausanne, Montreux, Gstaad, Interlaken, Lucerne, St. Moritz, Davos, Zurich and Bern.

From Rome she will fly by T. W. A. Constellation to Madrid, Spain, where the Spanish Tourist Bureau will be her host, and she will visit all the important centers in this interesting country.

Leaving Spain T. W. A. will fly Miss McGrath to Lisbon to see the wonderful improvements that have been made in tourist accommodations along the sunny coast of Portugal.

The trip back to the United States will be made by T. W. A. Constellation, the entire trip consuming about a month.

This is Miss McGrath's second trip to Europe within the year, for early last summer she made a study of the tourist conditions in the Scandinavian countries, Northern Europe and Paris.

TROOP NO. 12, ST. MARY'S

Troop No. 12 held its regular meeting last Thursday night under a slight handicap. Their regular quarters were taken over for rehearsal for the coming C.Y.O. Show and the scouts had to adjourn to one of the classrooms of the school. The meeting progressed very nicely however and was honored by the presence of Commissioner George Thompson who gave a short talk to the boys. Plans were made at that time to start a series of instructions in metal-working and woodcraft under the guidance of members of the committee.

Plans were also made for the observance of Scout Sunday on February 6th with the boys attending mass in a body at nine o'clock and going in to the services at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross in the afternoon. All Catholic Scouts in Winchester are invited to attend these services with the scouts of Troop No. 12.

The hike scheduled for Sunday was postponed but some of the boys got together for patrol hikes. Neil MacFeely reported that he took his patrol, the Flaming Arrow, on a day hike in the Middlesex Fells. John and Bobby Pearson, Leo Coughlin and Billy O'Connor were present on this hike and they spent a lot of time brushing up on their First and Second Class requirements.

OPENS REAL ESTATE OFFICE IN WINCHESTER

Edward G. Stacy, for the past eight years the manager of the real estate service Division of the State of Maine Publicity Bureau with headquarters in Portland, has opened a real estate office under his own name in Winchester having severed his connection with the Maine organization. He has been a resident of Winchester for a number of years, commuting back and forth to Maine where he has a state wide reputation as an expert on the valuation of summer estates. Prior to becoming associated with the Maine Publicity Bureau he was for several years the eastern Massachusetts and Maine representative of Previews Inc. and was also connected with a large group of Maine brokers in Realty Associated of Maine. With an earlier background of selling and brokerage in Brookline and Cambridge, Mr. Stacy considers himself well qualified by all around training and experience over a period of twenty years to give service to Winchester property owners and buyers. His office is to be at No. 5 Church street where he is to occupy a portion of the Parker, Lane-Winn store next door to the Star.

GIRL SCOUTS

Every leader is urged to be present at the monthly meeting next Wednesday, the 2nd of February. If unable to be there, please see that the troop is represented by either your assistant leader or a mother, or a troop committee member! New ideas keep people from stagnating. Alert leaders mean alert troops. . . and to give us new ideas, we are having Blanche McGowan of Community Recreation talk to us. Being a new leader, I need all kinds of help, so I'll see you there, gals!

Troops 5, of Wyman School and 10, of Mystic School finished their course at the Arlington Gas offices. The tea was a pleasant climax to the seven weeks course, and most Mothers were there to see Mrs. James Willing, Deputy Commissioner, present them their badges. The leaders felt deeply grateful to Mrs. Cheever, instructor for the course. Through her aid, Mr. Cook, of the Winchester office, has consented to exhibit the best posters in the shop window. Watch for them, girls!

Macefield, jewels and silver-smithing, has announced the first of a series of evening classes to be held in their workshop at 6 Winchester Place. They offer courses in jewelry making and silver-smithing with design as related to these subjects. Two classes will meet once a week for ten weeks, one on Tuesday and one on Thursday, from 7 to 10 p. m. starting February 8 and February 10.

In order to present the best possible instruction, each class is limited to four students: three in jewelry making and one in silver-smithing. Both Mr. Mason and Mr. Field will teach. With two instructors for four students almost constant individual attention is assured. A three hour class allows more to be accomplished than the usual two hour class. The fee for such a professional course is most reasonable amounting to a dollar an hour for both the instruction and the use of the workshop facilities. Materials and a few tools are extra. For further information visit or write Macefield, 6 Winchester Place, or call Winchester 6-2989.

FORMER WINCHESTER GIRL TO SPEAK

Mrs. Arthur J. Snow of Stoneham, well remembered by many Winchester residents as Alice Bigley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bigley who for many years resided on Lloyd street, will be the guest speaker at the February meeting of the First Baptist Women's League, Thursday afternoon, February 3rd, at the Church.

Mrs. Snow's talk on the intriguing subject "Fourteen Years in a Goldfish Bowl, or Life in a Minister's Family" should prove both interesting and entertaining. It is certain that many of Mrs. Snow's and her parents' friends will want to hear Alice, who in addition to being the wife of Rev. Arthur J. Snow, is also an ordained minister herself.

Dessert will be served at one o'clock by the Thursday afternoon group. Mrs. Martin S. Swanson will conduct the devotional period with emphasis on this month's thought "Sunlit Windows." Mrs. Forbes H. Norris, President of the League will preside.

A cordial invitation is extended to all women.

WINCHESTER REPUBLICAN CLUB

At a meeting of the Winchester Republican Club held January 19, it was voted that the following officers should carry on for one year beginning January 1, Charles W. Blanchard, Pres., William A. Wilde, Jr., Vice-Pres., Jacqueline B. Blanchard, Sec., Jane Russell, Treas.

Anne Richardson was voted chairman of a large Ways & Means Committee, which will plan many interesting activities for the club. Donald Drew was voted chairman of the membership Committee.

Meetings will be held hereafter on the second Friday of every month, so that members can hold open that date. This club is open to all young people between the ages of 18-28 and anyone who is interested in joining is more than welcome at any of our meetings. The Republican Club is offering interesting programs, both social and educational. Further announcements of activities will appear in the Star.

Committee No. 19, of the Boston Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants, is now in first place in the annual committee competition. Due credit for this achievement should be given to Charles Lampee of 9 Foxcroft road, a member of this committee.

ROTARY NEWS

As a warning to overconfidence the club slipped a bit in its high attendance for the month of December. Its not necessary so let's correct this in the following months or weeks. President Don opened the meeting this week in the usual procedure and it was soon apparent that this was to be a special meeting since we had roast beef rare. Among the make-ups for this past week were Ben Brennan in Woburn, Charles Howe and Larry Dallin at Stoneham, Harry Bigelow had a long trip over to Chelsea while faithful Bill Hevey tramped thru the snow and cold of Florida and made up at Hollywood Beach Hotel.

The speaker for the day was our fellow townsman and former assistant attorney general, Roland H. Parker. From a wealth of personal experience he gave us a very fine talk both instructive and entertaining. He pointed out what few men know that the attorney general has tremendous powers, sometimes even exceeding those of the governor himself. For instance he can take over any district attorney's office and power at any time he sees fit. In the twenty one dept. of the Commonwealth he has a legal adviser to each and every board and commission under these depts. His opinions have the force of law until reversed or upheld by the courts. For all this work he has but twenty assistants and certainly could use more. Mr. Parker himself had as his chief duty that of legal advisor to the various municipalities of the Commonwealth. He had to pass on all by-laws, codes and zoning laws passed by every community. And some of those zoning laws very extremely difficult to survey being on the edge of legality. Further than that he touched on the duties of the attorney general in seeing that all charitable funds in the Commonwealth of all organizations were properly administered. Of course the tax itself required much supervision also. In closing Mr. Parker told of his personal fight to sue the New Haven Railroad on the Boston Railroad Holding Co. case and expressed his regret that he might not see this interesting case thru the Supreme Court of United States. After several questions he closed this interesting talk. Rotary is grateful to Roland.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NEWS

Announcement of the resignation of Miss Hilda Andrews, Dietitian of the Winchester Hospital since 1942, is made by Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Administrator. Miss Andrews' term of service has been notable for the maintenance of a high standard of the food served throughout the Hospital, for co-operation with the doctors in the exacting preparation of special diets, and for the skillful management of many personnel problems which have fallen within her jurisdiction as Dietitian and as Assistant Superintendent of the Hospital. The record of her department in keeping increased costs at a minimum, without sacrifice of quality, is exceptional. She will be keenly missed, both professionally and personally.

The newly appointed Dietitian is Miss Marguerite Poore, a graduate of Simmons College and a Dietitian of many years' experience in New England hospitals. Miss Poore has served with success as Head of the Dietary Department of the Malden Hospital, the New England Hospital for Women and Children, Holyoke Hospital and others. Both Miss Andrews and Miss Poore are members of the American Dietetic Association.

ST. MARY'S SHOW REHEARSALS IN FULL SWING

"Down The Mississippi" is the title of the C. Y. O. Musical Show which will be staged at The Winchester High School Auditorium on Tuesday evening, February 15th and again on Thursday evening, February 17th at 8:00 p. m.

The show is being staged for the express benefit of the boys and girls C. Y. O. baseball, softball and basketball teams and all other C. Y. O. activities including Scouting and the rest. Much necessary equipment is needed and prevailing prices being what they are, one can easily see how the C. Y. O. needs to realize a goodly sum from this production to establish a necessary fund upon which to draw as need demands.

The successful Minstrel Show which was staged last year thereby launching the Scouting Program off to a good start, is expected to be even surpassed this year. Many of the performers have by this time built up quite a regular following and these plus others who may not have been able to see the other productions of the C. Y. O. will not be one iota disappointed it can be assured.

Robert H. Day, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Emilie C. Day of 12 Euclid avenue, was scheduled to arrive in the Mediterranean sea aboard the aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt.

EN KA SOCIETY

The luncheon meeting of the En Ka Society which took place on Tuesday, January 25th at the home of Mrs. Elisha George Pierce was a gay and colorful affair with more than a hundred members present. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, the vice-president Mrs. James R. Doty conducted the meeting.

After the report of the secretary, Mrs. Philip Woodward, the treasurer, Mrs. Chandler Symmes reported on the financial standing of the Society. Mrs. Clarke Staples, Finance Chairman, told of the groups in Winchester who have received gifts from En Ka so far this year, and among them were the Red Cross, Winchester Library, the Home for the Aged, the Community Fund, the District Nurse Association and several "needy cases."

Mrs. George Marks was appointed En Ka's representative on the Winchester Scholarship Foundation and a five hundred dollar scholarship to be known as the En Ka Scholarship was voted on, to be presented to the Foundation for this year.

WINCHESTER DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

Last Friday afternoon, the annual meeting and election of officers of the Winchester District Nursing Association was held at the home of Mrs. Donald H. Powers, of 68 Church street, with the eminent Dr. John F. Conlin, President of the Massachusetts Medical Association as speaker of the afternoon. A dessert preceded the meeting, followed by the business meeting and election of officers. Mrs. Powers was elected President of the Association for the coming year, succeeding Mrs. William A. Kugler.

In his challenging talk on socialized medicine, as now being discussed by members of Congress, Dr. Conlin answered three vital questions in the minds of most of those present — that socialized medicine in the United States would NOT give people their money's worth, it would NOT improve American medical service, and it would NOT reduce sickness and disease. He was a vivid and sincere speaker, obviously not in favor of socialized medicine as proposed by the Murray-Wagner-Dingell act, but trying to present all sides fairly for his audience to draw conclusions. He related specific instances of cases in England, of doctors whom he knew, of patients being allotted six minutes per visit (and most of that time allotted to paper work), and of payment to the physician on the NUMBER of patients seen rather than on the services given.

The socialized medicine bill now being discussed, he pointed out, looks excellent on paper, and it reads very well — UNTIL one starts to analyze it, and ask questions. For the English system of socialized medicine also looks well on paper — and yet its working is quite another matter. One thing Dr. Conlin stressed — competition keeps standards high, in medicine as in all other phases of our American way of life. Under government intervention, competition dies. Emphatically, the distinguished speaker did not believe that this intervention could possibly be for the best interests of the American people.

WINCHESTER DISTRICT
NURSING ASSOCIATION

The January board meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association, held last Friday morning in the Red Cross room, Wadleigh School, was highlighted by report from the Executive Director, Mrs. Jane H. Lord of the heavy volume of nursing carried on by the District Nurses here during December. A total of 518 calls were made by the nurses, 181 more than the same period last year, with a great increase in overtime work by the nurses.

Mrs. Lord pointed out to the board the great need in Winchester of an incubator to convey prematurely-born babies to the hospital from the homes, and urged the board to see what steps might be taken to provide one for the town. In Concord, Mrs. Lord added, the boys in the high school had made a very adequate incubator, lined it with hot water bottles, and kept it in readiness at the fire station. Locally, the incubator might be kept at the police station, where the ambulance is housed. The matter of the incubator will be taken up by the incoming board.

Included in Mrs. Lord's nursing report was the information that last month, three out-of-town doctors had referred patients to the District Nursing Association, and two from Boston clinics.

One of the most practical services rendered to W.N.D.A. by any local group is done by the Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church, whose members faithfully help the nurses out with sponges and bandages, aprons and other needs. The nurses have need now for wringers to wring out hot towels, and it is hoped that local sewing groups will respond.

The January 1949 board meeting was presided over by Mrs. William Kugler, who has served most capably as president of the Association for the past three years. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Kugler read a brief note of appreciation to her board for their assistance during her term in office, and wished the incoming President and board much success. Mrs. Alfred Higgins, who has served in many capacities on the W.N.D.A. board for five years, also completes her term with this meeting, and Mrs. Kugler paid warm tribute to her.

Mrs. Paul C. Lamb and Mrs. Walcott B. Thompson, new board members, were welcomed to this meeting.

Reports were read by Mrs. Edward R. Grosvenor, secretary; Mrs. William Spaulding, treasurer; Mrs. Henry E. Moffette, educational chairman; Mrs. Ben R. Schneider, finance chairman; Mrs. George E. Connor, publicity; Mrs. Richard Johnson, nursing. Announcement was made of the advertisement given to W.N.D.A. in the Winton Club program by three anonymous donors. Mrs. Raymond Holdsworth was appointed chairman of blood donors for the Association for Blood Donor Day, January 27th.

At the close of the business session, Mrs. John Willis presented an excellent report on "The Meaning of Board Membership," beginning with the history of the founding of district nursing in this country in the 1870's, a review of the story of Winchester's own Nursing Association, the set-up of a board, and the job of its nurses. With nine board members active in the Association this past year, the paper Mrs. Willis had prepared was timely, and of great interest to all.

RIGHT TO THE POINT

The swinging needles on the ultra-sensitive analytical balances in our prescription laboratory enable us to make measurements precise to the Nth degree of accuracy. And it is this accuracy that enables us to keep the ingredients of a prescription in the perfect balance with specified quantities that is so essential to the effectiveness of a prescribed medicine. That is why we are never satisfied with "good measure" — but insist upon every measure being right to the point.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA
ORGANIZATION & EXTENSION

A year or so ago, First Class Scout William Jackson was called before the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America and awarded the Gold Honor Medal for heroism. It is a medal not passed out with abandon. The man or boy upon whose chest it appears has actually and knowingly risked his life to save another. Jackson forced his way into a locked and burning house and handed five children out to safety.

Shortly after receiving this award, Jackson was called before the National Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and presented with a $500 scholarship. The V. F. W. every year awards a similar scholarship to a Scout who has been recognized for heroism.

Showing Scouts what to do and how to act in any emergency covers a lot of territory—but when you stop to think about it most of the necessary skills are already included in a well balanced Troop program. The big job is to emphasize them so they will be readily applied by Scouts in any emergency. Emergencies do not necessarily have to make the headlines to be important. Flash-floods, hurricanes, tornadoes, explosions, fires, big storms—all these catastrophes make headlines somewhere frequently, and many Scouts proved themselves heroes by their co-operation. But equally important on a smaller scale were thousands of less newsworthy events which affected many families—accidents in the home, on the streets, in the old swimming hole, on the ice skating ponds, or in the woods etc.

It is these "emergencies" that all Scouts can cope with and the Troop meetings are on the whole cognizant of this First Aid is one of the more important skills taught boys at the Troop Meeting. How to use the Compass is another skill taught the Scouts. Cooking another; Many times in the home a sudden illness may make it important that a Scout be prepared to cook a meal or two for younger members of the family.

Scouts are taught to be observant. The fellow waving his arms out in the river may be having fun or may be in desperate trouble. A child falling off a bike may have broken a rib or may only have a skinned knee. An observant scout will later be an observing man.

If there be any parents of Scouts who are reading this may we suggest that you make it a point to visit the troop once in a while. Speak to the Scoutmaster and learn his aims. Meet the Troop Committee and see just what boys your son is working and playing with. Yes, Parents and Scouts do have to work together! It is worth it, don't you think so?

The Mardi Gras Committee has completed plans for the first Mardi Gras of the Winchester Lodges. The Co-Chairmen Joe Ciaccia and Joe Russo have stated the affair will be held on March 1 in the Town Hall. There are going to be many prizes and music will be furnished by Andy Jacobson and his Orchestra.

The Membership Drive is progressing satisfactorily. The committee is working hard to have the Winchester Lodge go over the top.

The Building Commissioner for the week ending January 20 issued permits for alterations to the dwelling at 69-71 Sylvester avenue and 40 Lloyd street. A reshingle permit was issued for 27 Ridgefield road.

WINCHESTER COUNCIL OF GIRL SCOUTS

The Annual meeting of the Winchester Council of Girl Scouts will be held at the Winchester Library on Tuesday evening, January 25th at 7:45. All registered adults are members of the local council and are urged to attend. There will be a short business meeting. Following this, Mrs. Horace P. Moulton, chairman of the Storow Out-of-doors Committee will speak and then present a plaque to Winchester Storow Troop 1 for the outstanding work these girls and their leader, Mrs. Waldon B. Hersey have done with the promotion of the out-of-door program in Winchester. We are the only council to be so honored and are justly proud of the work this troop has done.

All leaders, committee members and troop committee members are urged to attend.

The operetta "Sunny of Sunny-side" presented by the Scouts of the 7th and 8th grades was a great success, and the proceeds, will go into the fund for the new Girl Scout cabin. Mrs. William McClintock, Mrs. Robert Graham, Miss Ann Hall and Mrs. Kenneth Cullen deserve praise for their untiring efforts.

"OLD HOUSES" TALK
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 5

"Old Houses", shown in beautifully colored slides and vividly explained by Mrs. Clayton Jenks of Boylston Center, will be the subject of the winter meeting of the Winchester Historical Society on Saturday afternoon, February 5, at 2:30 o'clock in the Gallery, Winchester Public Library. Mrs. Jenks and her husband purchased an old house some years ago, and in the restoration of it, found the subject of "old houses" vast, fascinating, and worth passing on to others. Mrs. Jenks' films are of great interest to New Englanders, and a very cordial invitation to residents is extended by the Historical Society.

GIRL SCOUTS ASSIST 'MARCH OF DIMES' AT WINCHESTER THEATRE

To aid those stricken with Infantile Paralysis, and to provide vital and urgent research in the ever increasing fight against this dreaded and insidious disease, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is once again appealing to all of us, through its well-known fund raising vehicle, the March of Dimes, for funds with which to carry on its work of mercy.

The Winchester March of Dimes campaign is being chairmaned by Mr. Vincent C. Ambrose, assisted by Mrs. Joseph S. Donnell, Jr., as chairman of the Women's Division, Mrs. Barbara H. Metcalf in charge of directory service, and Mr. Davenport F. Davis, serving as local treasurer.

As a special feature of the campaign, Mr. Michael Stranger, popular manager of the Winchester Theatre, conducted a 4-day collection at the Theatre, with an appeal being made from the screen by Miss Margaret O'Brien. Several troops of Winchester Girl Scouts willingly volunteered to serve as collectors at the Theatre and they are to be highly commended for their generous efforts.

If you have not already sent in your donation, you may leave your check or cash at either office of the Winchester Trust Company, or mail it direct to the local March of Dimes treasurer, Mr. Davenport F. Davis. All donations, however large or small, will be most gratefully received.

MRS. KUGLER HONORED

A luncheon in honor of Mrs. William Kugler, retiring President of the Winchester District Nursing Association, was held last Friday at the home of the Association's treasurer, Mrs. William Spaulding, on Main street. A caserole dish, made by members of the board, tossed and jellied salads, hot rolls, home made cake and coffee were served buffet style, and a square flower container of pewter on copper, filled with large white carnations, was presented to Mrs. Kugler by the Board.

COUNTRY CLUB MEMBERS FETED PRESIDENT BONNELL

President Ralph H. Bonnell of the Winchester Country Club was honored last Saturday evening at a "President's Ball" held at the club, with dinner followed by dancing to Ken Reeves' music.

Mr. Bonnell, who had to hurry home from Quebec, where he had been with two Country Club links in the international bonspiel last week, was presented with a silver cocktail-shaker embossed with the club shield, and his wife, as the club's "first lady," was presented with a handsome bouquet of orchids. Chairman "Ed" Kuypers of the entertainment committee made the presentations.

VOTERS OF WINCHESTER

I am a candidate for the office of assessor at the town election on March 7.

Twenty-three years service on the Board of Assessors in Winchester has thoroughly acquainted me with the peculiar duties of an assessor, and I have both the desire to serve the town in this capacity and the time necessary to devote to the office I seek.

At a later date I propose to discuss more fully my qualifications for election.

Meanwhile I respectfully solicit your consideration of my candidacy.

REPORT OF PLANNING BOARD STRESSES NEW HOUSES

The Planning Board, in its 34th annual report this year stresses the fact that dwelling house construction in Winchester reached an all time high in 1948 with 137 new houses being built during the year. The nearest approach to this figure was 123 new houses in 1948.

While new houses have been constructed in many sections of the town, such building has been especially heavy in Precinct 3 where 73 permits were granted, representing 53 percent of all permits for new houses in Winchester.

The Planning Board finds that the housing shortage, as it affects Winchester, has been largely relieved, and believes that it is unlikely that building construction will continue in 1949 at the same rate as in 1948, or even in 1947 when 109 permits for new houses were issued. With reference to zoning the Board mentions the unsuccessful attempt at the last March meeting to have the lot requirement in residence district "A," comprising farms and woodlands of the west side hill district, reduced from 15,000 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The Board finds that 15,000 square feet is actually smaller than many communities require for comparable districts and believes there should be no reduction in the size of such lots.

In the Six Year Program of Public Improvements the Board has not altered to 1950 the proposed construction of Johnson road from Wildwood street to Ridge street as part of the proposed through way to Lexington. Failure to obtain approval of the project as a Chapter 90 Project makes such postponement necessary. Funds to the amount of $59,800, appropriated last year for the construction of a garage at the town yard are carried over to 1949 since the garage was not constructed. To the appropriation are added additional funds of $20,000 scheduled for the building in 1949.

In the important School Department plans the Board has had to revise its time table. The new west side school was completed in 1948 as scheduled, but the addition to the Mystic School, which the Planning Board believed could wait until 1952, now seems to the Board urgently needed this year.

The Planning Board is scheduling the proposed addition to the Junior High School for 1949, at an estimated cost of $1,000,000. The Committee on Additional School Facilities recommended this addition last March and a committee has been at work since then preparing plans and securing estimates in anticipation that the coming March meeting will vote the necessary funds to commence the actual construction. The Planning Board has scheduled the proposed addition to the high school, a $650,000 proposition, for 1951; and is scheduling a $600,000 addition to the George Washington School for 1952. Between this year and 1952 it is proposed to spend $1,910,000 for additions to school buildings. (Continued on page 4)

"NOW MARY"

Wonderful! Delightful! Witty! Charming! -- These were the words everyone present was using to describe "Now Mary", the original play by Mrs. Mary R. Dale Simpson, which was presented last Saturday night by the World Wide Guild Girls at the First Baptist Church, Winchester.

All the characters seemed well cast, and the girls handled their parts admirably. The play was a premiere which always adds greatly to everyone's interest.

Beautiful and poised Miss King, (Muriel Pridel), opened the play at the reception desk of the Terry School of the Theatre. Gladys Graham, (Martha Hodge), was on hand to try the patience of Miss King, and to delight the audience with her wisecracks. Into this scene enters the cautious, uncertain Mrs. Jones, (Marilyn Ward), to enroll her daughter, Mary, (Alice Pridel), in this strange and unorthodox school.

Mrs. Jones becomes even more uneasy about leaving Mary at this school when Dean Whitney, (Kay Nelson), appeared. Dean Whitney was terrifically amusing to the audience, and terribly puzzling to Mrs. Jones. Mary, however, was just too, too pleased with everything and implored her mother to let her stay. Mary won her mother's approval at his point, and in succeeding scenes won the hearts of everyone with her charm, her friendliness, and her dramatic talent.

Winning out over her chief rival, Shirley Sawyer, (Jeanne McKinley), Mary won the lead in the Freshmen Play. Her mother returned to share her daughter's laurels and to impress on others her wisdom in insisting that her daughter stay here to study. She suddenly became uneasy again, however, when she learned that her daughter had fallen in love again. In this, Mary finds new happiness, but poor Mrs. Jones finds it in only new despair. With inflection denoting hopelessness she begins to reason with her daughter, "Now Mary!" she says as the curtain falls.

Barbara Mulea did a splendid bit of character acting as she portrayed the doleful, listless thyroid student, Doty Bennett. Jeanne McKinley's beauty and charm pleased the audience in spite of the fact that her part made her the little villain of the show. Sally Horn as Ginny Blair, Helen Barrett as Nancy Brown, Joan Barrett as Kay, and Joan Dade as a student, all did well in their supporting roles.

On hand to view the play written by her former student was Mrs. True Boothby of Chelmsford. Mrs. Boothby, a graduate of the American Academy, taught Mrs. Simpson when the latter attended the Curry College, Boston. Mrs. Boothby will direct the Arlington Friends of the Drama in their spring presentation of "Life with Father".

Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Paige, Jr. were present from Arlington, representing the Baker Play Co., of Boston. They made highly complimentary comments.

Mrs. Charles Schifferdecker from Allston brought with her Mrs. Roseth Knapp Breed Woodward, well-known for her character monologues, to view the play for use by other girls groups such as the Y.W.C.A. "It certainly is a fine play," said Mrs. Woodward. Perhaps the youngest critic present was Jimmy Stone, four and a half years old, who brought along a pillow for his chair in the third row. Jimmy is the son of Mrs. Margaret Stone, East Woburn.

Mildred Zwicker Abrahamson sang several delightful selections from light opera during the intermission between Act I and Act II. Mrs. Walter Ennis and Mrs. Paul Butterworth presided at the coffee table when refreshments were served.

The final curtain call was highlighted by Jeanne McKinley presenting a large bouquet of Red roses to Mrs. Simpson on behalf of the World Wide Guild Girls. The brilliance of the roses was a fitting climax to a bright and gay performance.

EMERGENCY MEETING CALLED BY FINANCE COMMITTEE

Committee Confers with Department Heads On Soaring Tax Rate

In an effort to determine what steps should be taken to protect Winchester taxpayers from the burden of an estimated 22 per cent increase in their 1949 tax bills, the Finance Committee held a meeting last Sunday afternoon with Selectmen and representatives of the Highway, Park, Water and Sewer, Health, and Cemetery departments.

The meeting was also attended by Town Counsel and a representative of the Town Planning Board.

According to Mr. T. M. Hennessey, Chairman of the Finance Committee, the cooperation of the departments represented at the meeting was very encouraging. "While some reductions in certain budgets have now been agreed upon, much remains to be done to avoid a substantial increase in the 1949 tax rate, he said.

1949 Tax Rate Up Possible $18.80 Over 1944

He referred to 1944 when just before the end of the war Winchester had a tax rate of $25.20. Since then, however, expenditures in all departments rose sharply and for the year 1949 would approach $1,700,000. This will be an increase for the five-year period of 111 per cent.

Miscellaneous receipts from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, water assessments, automobile excise taxes, etc., will approach $355,000 in 1949, an increase of only 13 per cent over 1944.

Valuation of local real estate and personal property will have increased to $37 million, an increase of 10 per cent for the five-year period.

Mr. Hennessey pointed out that as a result of this doubling of expenditures in five years as against an increase of only 13 per cent in revenues outside the tax levy and an increase of only 10 per cent in valuation, the tax rate bears the brunt of the load. This is reflected in a tax increase of $18.80 for the period with a jump from $25.20 in 1944 to a possible $44.00 in 1949—a hike of 75 per cent.

Change in Law Reduces School Aid from State

One of the very distressing developments mentioned by Mr. Hennessey was the substantial loss in Town revenues under Chapter 643 which was passed by the Massachusetts Legislature on June 17, 1948. Under this act a new method was adopted for allocating the Massachusetts School Fund among the various communities throughout the Commonwealth.

Contrary to popular belief, this law did not increase the amount of State aid; it merely distributed the fund under a new formula.

Allocated primarily on the basis of the number of children between the ages of seven and sixteen, rather than on the basis of valuation, it was learned from the State Commissioner of Taxation that Winchester's 1949 share of the fund will be reduced by $54,000 from what it received in 1948. The money Winchester loses by this new arrangement will go to other communities which will receive more.

Thus, instead of getting more aid from the State to relieve Winchester taxpayers in their increased cost of school operation, it will be required to pay $1.50 additional in the 1949 tax rate to help defray school costs in other communities in the State and thereby help to down tax rates in these other communities.

Budget Cuts Made

Mr. Hennessey explained that budgets have been reviewed very critically and reductions totaling $75,000 have already been made, most of which have now been agreed to by the departments involved. Other departmental budgets are still under consideration and it is evident that corresponding reductions will be necessary if all departments will strive toward the same objective, namely, a reasonable price in 1949 for the services rendered by the Town.

Postwar Peak Already Reached
Mr. Hennessey concluded by saying that in his opinion "the time has now come when town government should recognize that the postwar peak has already been reached and that a way should be found to call a halt to these staggering annual increases in the tax rate."

Miss Kraft and Miss Hodge will be heard again on the March 29 broadcast, following a drama titled "There Isn't Time Now," starring Bambi Linn.

NAVAL FLYER KILLED

Lt. John M. Colgate, USNR, in Maneuvers on Cape Cod

Lt. John Marion Colgate of 35 Albion road, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Colgate of 40 Elmwood avenue, lost his life Sunday forenoon, January 30, when two Navy planes collided 4500 feet above Cape Cod while engaged in maneuvers off Welfleet.

Lt. Colgate, a veteran of World War II, was piloting one of a squadron of 10 Navy bombers on an operation flight in a target area. His plane and another crashed shortly after 10:30, debris from the two damaged planes in turn striking a third.

Both Lt. Colgate and the pilot of the other plane, Ensign William R. McIntyre, 24, of 22 Parkman street, Dorchester, attempted to keep their machines in the air after the collision, but the planes commenced to break apart and both officers had to bail out.

Ensign McIntyre parachuted into some trees off shore at North Eastham, but Lt. Colgate came down in the water. Ensign McIntyre was picked up by A. F. Richo of North Eastham who happened to be driving in a beach wagon. He had a canoe, and he and Ensign McIntyre went in it to attempt the rescue of Lt. Colgate. The canoe overturned only a short way out and the pair had to swim back to shore. The Coast Guard was summoned from a nearby house and responded with an amphibious vehicle. Ensign McIntyre went with the guardsmen to attempt to rescue Lt. Colgate, but according to his story, when they finally reached the young Winchester flyer they found him lying face down in the water, dead. The body was brought ashore and taken in charge by Naval authorities until after the inquest Tuesday forenoon. It was subsequently announced that Lt. Colgate had met death by drowning. After news of his death flags on the Common and public buildings were displayed at half staff.

The tragic crash between the planes piloted by Lt. Colgate and Ensign McIntyre brought a third plane to grief and nearly resulted in the death of its pilot, Lt. Allen R. Gettlin, 27, of 50 Naples road, Brookline.

Debris from the colliding planes struck the bomber piloted by Lt. Gettlin, some of it wedging in the motor's intake. The lieutenant thought he could fly his ship back to Squantum, but found he was mistaken, being forced down between Moon and Peckocks Islands. A Navy crash boat rescued him from the icy water of Boston Harbor, but Pharmacist's Mate James L. Sepala of East Weymouth had to plunge into the water to save the flyer just as he was lapsing into unconsciousness.

Lt. Colgate was the son of Kenneth Marion, and Anna (Baudin) Colgate. He was born 26 years ago in Woburn but spent virtually all of his life in Winchester, attending the Winchester schools and graduating from Winchester High School in the class of 1938.

For several years he was employed at the airplane motor plant of Pratt & Whitney in Connecticut, leaving his job there to enlist in the Naval Aviation Corps in August of 1943.

He won his wings and an ensign's commission at Corpus Christie, and subsequently served in the Caribbean area and around Honduras on submarine duty, being promoted to Lieutenant, junior grade, and being honorably discharged in October, 1945.

Following his discharge he was associated with the Ryerson Steel Corporation of Cambridge as a salesman. He had recently been promoted and given territory in New Hampshire and Vermont. He had planned to leave for his new assignment this week. Two months ago he was promoted from junior to senior grade lieutenant in the Naval Reserve.

In May of 1946 Lt. Colgate married Evelyn Smith of East Boston, who survives, with a year old son, Kevin, Lt. Colgate's parents and a brother, Roland Colgate, all of Winchester.

The funeral was held from the late residence on Albion road with services conducted Thursday afternoon at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. John Snook, assisted by Rev. George A. Butters, a former pastor. Full Military honors were accorded by a Naval Firing Squad and Bugler, and the bearers, headed by Lieutenant Conrad S. Larson of Winchester, were members of the Torpedo Air Squadron at Squantum Naval Air Station, of which Lt. Colgate was also a member. Captain Otto Smith, USN, commanding officer of the Station attended the funeral with other officers and naval aviation personnel.

Interment was in Chestnut Hill Cemetery, Burlington.

EDWARD R. BROAD

MISSION UNION GUILD TO HEAR SPEAKER ON LEPROSY

Mrs. Rupert F. Jones, Program Chairman of the Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church, has announced that at the Guild meeting on Tuesday afternoon, February 8, at 2:00 p. m., the speaker will be Mr. Edward R. Broad, Northeastern Secretary of the American Mission to Lepers.

He will present for the first time in Greater Boston a sound version of the very popular film story, "The Healing of M'Vondo". Some beautiful scenes have been added to the picture, as originally taken by Dr. Weber, a number of them by direct permission of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company. It is a fascinating story of a little African boy who develops leprosy, is taken to a Christian Colony by his father, gets over the disease and later returns to the family circle.

Over ten years ago, Mr. Broad gave up an active business career to give his full time to the vital work of the American Mission to Lepers. With more people suffering from this disease in this country than ever before, the Federal Leprosarium at Carville, Louisiana, has become more and more prominent in the news. Mr. Broad has made two trips to Carville, the first time as a member of the U. S. Public Health Service. He has also met many of those afflicted with the disease in New York City. With new sulfa drugs bringing astonishing results, there is more hope today than ever before, and while there is still no specific cure, the medical profession is becoming more and more alert. Anyone interested in leprosy is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The morning sewing at 10, for a negro hospital (Flint Godridge) outside New Orleans, and for Lincoln Academy is urgent. Mrs. Nardin would like more people to sew and to come early. The one o'clock luncheon will be prepared by Mrs. George E. Traut and Mrs. Wellington L. Caldwell and their committee. There will be a business meeting at 1:30 following the luncheon. Mrs. Clarence Wickerson, Director of the Guild, presiding.

Thomas Connolly of 28 Clark street, veteran of the Spanish-American War, died suddenly at his home, Wednesday afternoon, February 2, of an acute heart attack. He had been in his usual health the day previous.

Mr. Connolly was the son of Coleman and Mary Connolly. He was born May 18, 1877, in Galway, Ireland, coming to this country as a young man and settling in Woburn. He came to Winchester, shortly after his marriage to Mary A. Connolly of this town and had made his home here for 46 years until his retirement he was for more than 30 years a stationary fireman at the leather manufacturing plant of Beegs & Co.

Mr. Connolly was a veteran of the Spanish-American War, having served in the Philippines with the United States Army. He was a member of Charles H. Miller Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, of Woburn, and of St. Mary's Holy Name Society.

Mr. Connolly's wife died in 1939. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Raymond Rielly of Winchester and Mrs. George Callahan of Woburn; two sons, Coleman F. and Michael J. Connolly, both of this town; a brother, Michael, living in Ireland; and fifteen grandchildren. The funeral will be held Saturday morning from the late residence with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

To lovers of English Literature the chosen subjects promise an interesting and delightful program. All Fortnightly members are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Do You Know?

That Winchester was one of the first towns in Massachusetts to organize a Woman's Club. This club assumed the name "The Fortnightly" at its first meeting. Starting with a small group of 22 in the year 1881, the club steadily increased in membership, enlisting a large representation of the intellectual and moral force of the town, until finally it became necessary to limit the membership to 50. For many years The Fortnightly maintained a long waiting list.

That an accurate history of The Fortnightly must stress its varied and continuous service to the Town of Winchester. Never losing sight of the purpose of the club, as an organized center for "the promotion of social, educational and civic interests," The Fortnightly has steadily and quietly assisted in all welfare improvements.

That within 3 months after its first meeting, The Fortnightly, discerning the need of improvement in the curriculum as well as other phases of the Winchester schools sought ways and means to present this problem to the Town. A public meeting was sponsored by the club, held on March 11, 1882, to which a member of the State Board of Education was invited to speak. This meeting was well attended by Winchester residents and an interest was aroused for the welfare of the schools. Further work on the part of the club, urgently and repeatedly calling attention of the citizens to this matter resulted in the appointment of a Superintendent of schools.

That in 1886 The Fortnightly sponsored a series of lectures by prominent physicians of Winchester, their topics relating to information authorized by the Emergency and Hygiene Society of Massachusetts. Lectures were also given by these physicians on Home Nursing.

That for several years the Education Committee of The Fortnightly assisted the Trustees of the Public Library in selecting suitable juvenile literature for the children's department of the library. The Fortnightly also took steps during these years to remove objectionable literature from various shops in Winchester. And here again the Community gave splendid support to the efforts of The Fortnightly in their campaign for community improvement, and the request of The Fortnightly to remove all objectionable literature from the shops was gladly acceded to by the respective proprietors.

The above item is especially interesting at this time when again we see Women's clubs and other organizations united in their efforts to promote clean literature. Several cities of Massachusetts are making an extensive drive against the so-called "Crime Comics." The City of Lawrence has gone a step further and has included in its drive some pocket size novels which sell for 25c. Boston distributors have promised full cooperation with the new "Comic Book Review Committee" set up by Mayor Curley. This step taken by the various cities of Massachusetts is most gratifying to all members of Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs. We recall so vividly the talk given by our State Chairman of Youth Guidance, Mrs. L. R. Loeffler of Salem, at the Fall meeting of the Federation held in Springfield. She spoke of the

ROTARY NEWS

This week Woburn entertained Ernie Dade and John McIntyre as make-ups. Somerville played host to much traveled Jimmie Cullen and our neighbors in Florida at the Hollywood Beach Hotel took care of Bill Hevey. John Rutherford attended at Club number five in Rotary International-Los Angeles.

Our speaker for this meeting was Professor Ronald H. Robnett, a Winchester resident and Professor of accounting and finance at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is also fiscal officer of sponsored research which has to do with research for the government by private institutions. His talk was on the effect of the war on M. I. T. and what the institute did for the war effort. It could hardly be presupposed that mere figures could be made interesting or even intelligible to a group such as Rotary but Professor Robnett presented his factual part of the talk in such a fascinating manner that his audience were completely attentive and interested.

Briefly the picture at M. I. T. was an enrollment before the war of some 3000 students, 1500 employees which broke down to 700 on the teaching staff 300 of whom were faculty. This was carried on with a budget of some three million two hundred thousand dollars. Research had been going on undisturbed or undisturbed allowing each man to do what he wished in his own line of work. In a way, then the institute was preparing for an unforeseen war and because of Dr. Compton's work in atomic energy the institute as early as 1940 began to take on work for the government on national defense. The principal of the government of No Loss-No Gain in these various projects worked universally in that they made very little if any money for the institute but left it up to the people involved such as Prof. Robnett to take care that there was also no loss.

During the war about half of the faculty staff members were away from M. I. T. doing various kinds of work for the government. Also many more members were added in this period so that by August 1945 there were 6200 employees and the budget had risen sharply to about forty five millions of dollars. Sponsored research took forty millions of this and the building increase amounted to about fifty per cent. Although there were about 5000 people working on government contracts only 200 regular institute people were left to become the leaders and directors in all this work.

Prof. Robnett went on to give some interesting examples of the type F projects handled by M. I. T. such as radar, atomic energy, sound research and related projects. His observations concerning the abilities of the national peoples to work at such a speed and efficiency during a war crisis and yet not be able to work with like effect towards the peace were well made and could have been elaborated upon had there been time. He closed with the admonition that although United States leads the world in applied science and business she is well behind in the development of fundamental sciences. All scientific data that was used during the war was known and had been developed by foreign scientists and that is true today. Our educational institutions should work towards the development of a programme to train and encourage our own men in this valuable and essential field of fundamental science.

I know that all members of the Rotary present to hear him were in agreement that Professor Robnett presented a most enlightening and interesting talk and also that they would have enjoyed hearing him for a much longer time. We shall look forward to a return engagement.

SMALL BUSINESS OWNERSHIP COURSE AT MEDFORD VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Massachusetts Department of Education is sponsoring a practical evening course "Small Business Ownership and Operation" at the Medford Vocational School, Bradlee road, Medford Square. Registration can be made at the school on Thursday evening, February 10, 1949, beginning at 7:30 according to Melvin V. Weldon, Director. Mr. Weldon states that business statistics indicate that there are many opportunities for one to organize and operate a business; but they also reveal that, because of lack of ability and proper training, many small business owners fail each year. John E. Sullivan is to conduct the course, and will be assisted by specialists in handling the legal, financial, accounting, and merchandising aspects of the course. The Instructor is a graduate of Boston College and Boston University, and did special study at Harvard University.

Mr. Sullivan formerly held supervisory positions in the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, Boston, and in the W. T. Grant Company, New York City. He is assistant to the director of The Fisher School and is on the staff of Northeastern University. Mr. Sullivan has successfully conducted this course throughout the state and it is open to all interested citizens.

KNIGHTS ANNOUNCE BREAKFAST DATE

The first meeting of the planning committee of over 40 members met on Monday, January 24th at the Council Rooms, Winchester Center to formulate plans for the Major Event of the year, the Annual Communion Breakfast which will be held this year on Sunday, April 3rd. Chairman Bill Cantwell and his coordinating committee, Walter Prue and Al Barnard, conducted the meeting.

A parade of members will be held again this year, just as last year, from the Council Rooms to the Church and thence to the banquet hall.

Last year the Communion Breakfast attracted over 300 people and it is expected that this year many more will attend. There will be an invited Guest Speaker and various dignitaries of the Knights of Columbus to round out a perfect program.

Alfred Barnard is Grand Knight of Winchester Council, No. 210, K of C.

A NEEDED STORE

It is but once in a great while that we feel the urge to report about a new store in Winchester Square. This one, however, is unusually bright and cheery, and the atmosphere is in line with that of our more modern shops. The Hillside Paint and Wallpaper Company, at the corner of Main and Park streets, is the store we have reference to.

Indicative of the need for a shop of this kind, it is heartening to have this colorful and comfortable salon, so close to home. They have a vast selection of wall-papers including Strahan, Schumacher, Valor, and even English Imports. The Dutch Boy people and Carpenter - Morton Company are quite pleased to have "these able paint men" to represent their high grade products in Winchester. For the right answer to your decorating problems or for just a visit, why not drop in and say hello.

The Red and Black defeated Reading in their previous game this year by a score of 49 to 41 in what was the best Winchester performance of the season. The locals will need to repeat that peak performance as Reading is going good after a poor start and boasts victories over Lexington and Concord in their last two outings.

Next week Winchester will play two games at home. On Tuesday afternoon the locals will square off with the powerful second-place Melrose quintet. On next Friday the Red and Black will meet Wakefield High at Winchester. This is a game that the locals want very much as they are still smarting from an unexpected loss to Wakefield in the Boston Garden.

WINCHESTER FROSH BEAT WOBURN

The Winchester Freshmen won their fourth game in five starts by defeating the Woburn Freshmen 40 to 30 at the local gym last Friday afternoon. It was an interesting and well played game as Woburn held the lead over the Red and Black until the final quarter. A scoring spree in this last period by Winchester netted them a gratifying victory.

At the end of the first quarter the score was tie at 5 to 5. Woburn moved into the lead at the half time by a 14 to 12 margin and held a 26 to 25 edge at the three-quarter mark. In the final period Winchester limited Woburn to only 4 points while scoring 15 in a splendid display of offensive and defensive strength. In this clutch period two baskets apiece by Rodney Long, Charlie Murphy, and Dick Errico sparked the Winchester attack.

In a preliminary game the Winchester Junior High team won their fifth straight victory by swamping the Woburn Junior High under a 48 to 4 score. Flaherty, Atkinson, and Donlan all hit double figures for Winchester as the locals completely dominated the play.

WINCHESTER GAVE BELMONT HARD GAME

The league leading Belmont High quintet defeated Winchester High last Friday night at Belmont by a score of 38 to 30. The Red and Black gave the undefeated Belmont five a real tussle all the way and with better accuracy from the foul line might well have reversed the decision. The locals made their poorest showing of the year from the foul line as they made good on only four out of seventeen free throws.

Both teams were very tight as the game got underway and Belmont had a lead of 6 to 2 as the first quarter ended. The teams began to loosen up after this first period and score more frequently. Belmont was ahead 18 to 12 at the half and had stretched its lead to 29 to 21 at the three quarter mark. A couple of quick baskets could have put the locals in the contention but the best the Red and Black could do was to match the Belmont output over the final period.

A capacity crowd of over 1,000 witnessed the game which was very fast and featured by close guarding by both teams. Belmont was not as impressive as their undefeated record would indicate and seemed to be very tight during the first half. If the locals could have made their offense function during this half, they might well have caused the potential league champions to work under the pressure. Captain Ken Donaghey and Walter Murphy carried the offensive load for Winchester but did not receive sufficient help from their teammates who gathered only nine points between them.

The Winchester Seconds sprang a big surprise in upsetting the Belmont Seconds by a score of 38 to 32. The locals were trailing 20 to 16 at the half time but enjoyed a good third period to take the lead and held it during the final quarter. Jack Costello was the high man for the Winchester Seconds with 14 points.

WINCHESTER GIRLS LOST INTERCLASS TILT AT MEDFORD

Winchester High School girls basketball squad lost an interclass match to Medford High at Medford Tuesday afternoon, losing the senior match 19-20, and the sophomore match, 11-6. The locals won the junior match, 14-9.

In the featured senior match Winchester had a lead at the half of 11-7, but following intermission the local defense fell apart at the seams, permitting Medford to hold a 13-8 scoring edge with Wheeler tallying eight points on four floor goals. ## WINCHESTER, 62; STONEHAM, 40

Winchester High snapped out of its scoring lethargy by pinning a crushing 62 to 40 defeat on Stoneham High at Stoneham on Tuesday afternoon. This was the highest point total rolled up by the locals in a single game this year and was high lighted by the accuracy of the Red and Black from the foul line as they made good on 18 out of 27 free throws.

Winchester opened the game with a flurry of baskets and opened up a 20 to 5 lead at the end of the first quarter which they stretched to 38 to 12 at the half. The locals became a bit careless during the second half and were content to coast along on their big lead and as a result were outscored by Stoneham over the last two periods. With such a large lead Coach Bartlett was able to give some valuable experience to four of his second team players.

Captain Ken Donaghey was high scorer for Winchester with 18 points, although he was matched in scoring output by Len Goudey of Stoneham who also collected 18 points. Pete Dillingham and Tom McGowan each scored 11 points for Winchester, with the return to scoring form of McGowan being particularly pleasing to Coach Bartlett. Paul Roche continued to be the leading marksman at the foul line for the Red and Black as he sank five consecutive free throws after missing his first attempt.

The Winchester Seconds put on their poorest exhibition of the season in going down to a 49 to 36 defeat to the Stoneham Seconds. The Winchester Seconds had won five straight games prior to this set back but could not get clicking in this one. Jack Costello was the only effective performer for the locals as he netted 15 points.

A PUBLIC PLAYGROUND

Editor of the Star:

I agree with the Star in its editorial of January 28th, that athletic activities always have been of primary importance on Manchester Field. That is why, in quoting Mr. Manchester's phrase "a verdant and beautiful park and playground" I was careful to include the words "and playground." I believe however, that any land used for the athletic activities of Junior and Senior High students does not become, ipso facto, an athletic field with no other possible uses. The Star itself quotes the last vote of the citizens: "that it is the sense of the meeting that Manchester Field shall be continued as a PUBLIC PLAYGROUND and be kept open the year round for that purpose."

The Committee on School Facilities and Activities "the steering committee for the enlargement of the playground" as stated by the Star, kept this fact in mind. Part of their report, in the Star for May 24, 1946, read: "Our final recommendation in connection with this project will be the erection of a fence to enclose the football playing field, and for the present, we believe no further fencing will be necessary around the rest of the field. Thus, the present status of Manchester Field as a public playground will not be altered, since a substantial area of the new field including the baseball diamond, will remain open to the public at all times when not required for school athletic activities."

The restriction of other playing areas by the fencing in of the football field is apparent, so the entire field was fenced in. It is regrettable that the fence along the Parkway was placed so close to the street that it prevents pedestrians from dodging the spray, of speeding automobiles on rainy or slushy days.

On the basis of the present layout of the running-track, the baseball diamond and the football areas, there would be no interference with the student athletes if a definite path were laid out for pedestrians along the easterly border of the running track between the Cutting street gate and the Parkway gate. This would be a great benefit to many on Lloyd street, Maxwell road, Manchester road and Cutting street. A recent canvass of this area shows 137 residents desiring to have the gates open and only 7 opposed.

As for the term "park." That word may not appear in the legal votes of the town, but it does appear in the Report of the Park Department (Volume for 1896-1898 p. 158). In the March 17th and 28th issues of the Star for 1894 (just before and after the vote that brought the then unnamed Manchester Field into existence) the words "park" and "play-ground" are used frequently and interchangeably in editorials, letters and regular reporting about the land under discussion.

The Star cannot deny that many activities connected with parks have taken place in the old Field. The concerts for the general public who gathered around the bandstand by the Aberjona or sat on benches across the field, placed at convenient intervals, and the fireworks twice a year were not athletic activities. If a playground may be called a park when mothers sit on benches around its edge and watch their children play on the grass instead of in the streets; if a playground may be called a park when residents of any age can sit on those benches or walk around and enjoy the exhilaration of an open space, the beauty of a tree's silhouette and the ever-changing field of the sky, then Manchester Field was a park as well as a playground until the days of its relocation.

As for the Star's contention that a School Committee would not rightfully have supervision of a "park." The citizens of Winchester understand the difficulties that might arise if a combined public playground and school athletic field were administered by two groups of supervisors. As fellow-citizens, the members of the School Committee have shown a proper interest in the public playground absorption into the school athletic field.

NEW ENGLAND WOODLANDS

Editor of the Star:

At the fifty first annual meeting of the Massachusetts Forestry Association, 3 Joy street, Boston, on January 27, I saw a moving picture film in color of the fires that occurred in Maine in the fall of 1947.

This film was taken by the U. S. Forest Service and it surely shows what damage not only to the Forests, the Soil, and in these fires to whole villages, even loss of life. To people who attend such meetings, forest fires damage is not news to them, and these association members are the people who try to bring before the public the danger.

To my mind a picture like that should be shown in every school, from Portland, Maine to Portland, Oregon.—The automobile has made it possible for millions of people to get back into the wooded areas of the Country, a large majority with little knowledge of woods or their value, other than to picknick in.

It is a fact that most fires in the woods is caused by careless persons and most people are mighty careless more ways than one. Massachusetts was mighty lucky that they did not have great forest fires like Maine for there are plenty of areas containing thousands of acres covered with slash and down trees left from the hurricane. Education in the School or even those who have been long out of school should some how be taught the Value of New England's woodlands—not alone for recreation but as commercial forests to maintain our wood working industry. We need more people who are Forest Minded.

It is time the schools did something about it. Maybe the younger generation might teach others or older people, The Value of Woods. It is more important than teaching the sciences of Foot Ball. Teach Fire Prevention at least one half hour each month.

APPRECIATION OF LIBRARY

Editor of the Star:

The people of Winchester appreciate the fine library service which the town has at present. This is made possible by the people of the town and by the alert and able staff which carries on the work. In many ways the progressiveness of any community may be judged by the quality of its public library.

Winchester can justly be proud of its library service. Outstanding quality attracts attention. Able staff must be adequately backed up in order to be retained. In thinking of the coming year it is strongly to be hoped that the up-to-date and forward-looking policies of the present library staff will be sustained and adequately recognized by the town. This must be done of the gains of the past few years are to be retained and further progress made in the future.

In some towns the idea seems to prevail that almost anyone who can read and who needs a job can run the local library. The results of such a policy are seen in the archaic and musty library service which such towns offer. Not so in Winchester. Let us keep the gains which we have made. Other communities look to us for leadership in this field. Let's keep out front!

Sincerely yours,

RED CROSS

Last Thursday afternoon, despite heavy snow and bad roads, 110 blood donors arrived at the Red Cross mobile unit, stationed for the day at the First Congregational Parish House, gave their gift of blood, and put Winchester well over the top for its quota. Actually, 120 donors came, but ten were rejected for one reason or another. The drive was a success throughout the town, with every organization helping to secure locally the blood needed to keep this vital blood bank in operation.

Blood donor day had its pageantry and color -- as a great Eastern Mass. bus covered with gay placards in honor of the day, drove up to the Parish House, with 40 bus drivers, all ready and willing to donate. It did much to boost the Winchester quota, that donation from the bus drivers. And their donation entailed some sacrifice--for the night before had seen this area hit by a bad snow storm. Many drivers had worked most of the night, many had had but two hours sleep before they came to the Mobile Unit. Some of their co-workers, who had planned to donate blood on Thursday, were still on the job and unable to help this time. But all in all, it was heartening to see that bus of Eastern Mass. drivers last Thursday!

Another donor who came to give a pint of blood told how his brother's life had been saved by transfusions of blood secured through the Red Cross. And so, in appreciation, he had brought six others with him -- four of whom were new donors!

In the list of donors were women who had given 16, 17, and 18 pints of blood over a period of years. And one woman gave her 19th pint of blood last Thursday.

With every organization, large and small, church, and civic and social, participating in Blood Donor Day last Thursday, donors from the following groups donated: Mystic School, District Nursing, Unitarian Alliance, Winton Club, Girl Scouts, En Ka, Highway, League of Women Voters, Florence Crittendon, Wyman School, Junior Mrs., Baptist Church, Junior High, Park Department, Grange, Lincoln School, Parish Players, Elks, American Legion, Teachers Club, immaculate, Conception Church sional Women, Methodist Church, Congregational Church, Epiphany Men's Club, V. F. W., Unitarian Church, Rotary, Fortnightly, Art Association, Wellesley College Club.

Working "behind the scenes" for Blood Donor Day on January 27th were Mrs. James H. Coon and her staff of nurses--Mesdames Lester Gustin, B. Kenne Way, Henry Goodwin, Alexander Samoiloff, Irving Dingwell, James Earl Dickson, Edgar Trott, John low, James B. ### PLANNING BOARD

New dwelling house construction makes necessary the expenditure of some $45,000 for water and sewer mains in secondary streets. It is estimated that this amount will drop to $20,000 yearly for the remainder of the six year period. The town must appropriate this money, but one half the cost of the sewer mains is assessed as betterments and returns to the town.

The West Side School was built at a cost of $340,000 and financed by withdrawing $210,000 from the post-war reserve and $130,000 from the Excess and Deficiency Fund. Remaining in the post-war reserve is about $200,000, and in the Excess and Deficiency Account, $345,908. The funded debt of the town, after payment of $10,000 worth of bonds maturing in 1949, will be only $22,000 while the legal borrowing capacity of the town is $1,813,000.

The Planning Board recommends paying for the Mystic School addition with the balance of the post-war reserve, and believes that bonds to the amount of $800,000 should be issued to meet the major portion of the million dollar cost of the junior high school addition. Another issuance of bonds will be necessary, in the Board's opinion, to finance the cost of the time comes, and this approximately $400,000 with the junior high bonds will go a long way toward exhausting the town's borrowing capacity.

The Legislature passed last year, however, a statute providing that a portion of the cost of any construction or enlargement of a school house, approved by the state school building assistance commission, contracts for which are awarded after January 1, 1946, will be reimbursed to the town by the State, dependent in part on the valuation of the town per pupil. For Winchester such aid is estimated to be about 20 percent of the approved construction cost. This act, unless extended, will cease to operate on construction projects initiated after June 30, 1951.

The Planning Board, on the basis of an estimate $38 tax rate, proposes for the financing of public improvements in 1949 a tax levy of $100,000. In 1950 the tax levy is to be $110,000; in 1951, $112,000; in 1952, $87,000; in 1953, $65,000; and in 1954, $77,500.

Beside school expenditures and those for the town yard garage and for water and sewer mains, already referred to, only $4,500 for the reconstruction of Forest street, and $5,000 for grading an acquired area at Loring avenue playground are listed by the Planning Board for 1949. Draining the west side playground is listed for next year with Middlesex street playground construction in the future. Town Hall alterations in building are also listed for the future with an addition to the library building placed in the year 1953.

No reference to the Planning Board's report would be at all complete without mentioning that it is the last prepared under the stewardship of Mr. William L. Parsons, chairman of the board for the past 24 years and recognized far and wide as an authority both in municipal planning and zoning. Mr. Parsons has labored long and hard as a member of Winchester's Planning Board and has been responsible in large measure for the accomplishments of the Board, accomplishments which have bulked large through the years in Winchester's civic betterment. He leaves behind him a very large gap which only an exceptionally able and industrious man can fill.

ART ASSOCIATION

Members and guests of the Art Association on Tuesday evening heard Carl G. Nelson, modern Swedish-born artist, explain the meaning behind modern painting, urging art lovers not to make a snap judgment against paintings just because "they are not traditional." An exhibit, such as this one tonight -- of modern art is Art Education. It helps a community grow in tolerance, appreciation, and understanding of art. "Mrs. Elizabeth Lobingier, who introduced the speaker, stated.

Mr. Nelson spoke on Picture organization, admitting that "modern painting today is a most controversial matter." He urged his audience to study the subject, investigate it, and get more pleasure by doing so. "If you just shrug and say you don't like modern art, and so dismiss it, you are refusing to grow. Look at painting for a means of evaluating -- something bigger than any personal thing. Set out to find the meaning -- for the human being is a terribly important center around which life goes."

He pointed out the meaning between two-dimensional and three-dimensional painting, the way of placing things in a picture to give the illusion of space. He touched on form, design, movements and color. "Look at everything for its own kind, he urged. "Painting is exciting because there are so many exciting things about it."

Twenty four modern paintings, courtesy of the Boris Mirsky Galleries, are now on exhibit in the gallery during library hours, and may be seen through the month of February.

Mr. John Navary of the Winchester Short Center is reported as enjoying a vacation in West Palm Beach, Florida.

WHY WINCHESTER MUST HAVE TWO SCHOOLS IN 1949

Interested Washington school district patrons turned out last Thursday evening to hear from the Winchester School Committee and the Junior High School Building Committee what proposals will be made to the Town for school buildings at the annual town meeting in March.

Chairman Hazen Ayer welcomed the audience to the meeting at the Washington School Auditorium and proceeded to outline the objectives of the School Committee. He called attention to the improved methods used in the schools and said that tests have proved that the Town has a modern, sound educational program. He paid tribute to the administrators and teachers who, under the excellent leadership of Dr. Forbes H. Norris, have made Winchester citizens proud of their schools.

"All of the good things about our schools have been made possible by the people who pay the taxes," said Mr. Ayer. "We don't want the taxpayer to feel that he is relegated to the role of the forgotten man. We know the school budget has risen since 1941 about $200,000, but taking into consideration the sixty-cent dollar of today the proportional rise has not been extravagant. For instance, in 1941 the school budget called for 31.7 per cent of the total appropriation. In 1948 the school account received 31.9 per cent of the budget, which shows that the School Committee has kept in line with other Town officers."

Continuing to the fourth objective of the School Committee, adequate buildings and facilities, Mr. Ayer said the west side school would be ready in the Fall, but that other school needs are pressing for immediate attention.

"Educators agree," he said, "that our present set up whereby a pupil spends six years in one place, two in another, one year in another, and finally three years in the high school building is not good."

At the present time, the Junior High School lacks an adequate gymnasium, has inadequate rooms for music and art, and has no cafeteria and no auditorium. The Junior High School Building Committee has the best solution to that problem.

Further complicating the school building needs, Mr. Ayer explained, are the present building boom which has seen over 250 new homes built in the last two years, and the increased birth rate. The Lincoln and Noonan schools, he said, are not filled to capacity and appear to be adequate for some time. In fact, the committee contemplates relieving the Washington School crowding by careful redistricting, and the Lincoln School will be fully utilized.

The Mystic School has the most acute population problem and cannot be satisfied by redistricting, for a disproportionate amount of building there, compared with the remainder of the town, has led to a critical situation.

Mr. Howard Bartlett then took over the task of illustrating the problem and outlining a solution. By employing slides, projected by Mr. Thomas Drapeau, Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds, he showed that Washington and Mystic School would together overcrowd Lincoln School. "Furthermore," he said, "the plan would be an unhappy solution for the problem is not alone one of the total numbers, but of distribution by grades. If the Washington kindergarten continues to average 44 members, it is possible that the 1951-1952 estimated enrollment of 286 can be taken care of by careful redistricting."

Mr. Bartlett then showed figures that proclaimed a fifty-six per cent increase in children of pre school age since 1943. With sixty-one new houses vacant or unoccupied on October 31, 1948, he foresaw a continuation of the overpopulation of the Mystic School, an eight classroom building. He also showed how current needs required twelve classrooms and two kindergarten rooms to accommodate the pupils there.

At this point the questions "When will the Washington School problems be solved?" "What is redistricting?" "Why is the Mystic problem more critical than the Washington problems?" and others were asked and answered by reference to slides and figures.

Mr. Nicholas Fitzgerald, speaking for the Junior High School Building Committee in the absence of Mr. Wadsworth, gave a history of his committee and used slides to show the plans for the proposed addition and new cafeteria - auditorium.

He called attention to the concrete slab construction of the roof which tends to make the new structure fireproof. He explained the use of a proposed elevator thus: "This is really a five-story building, although only three are noticed from the Main street side. Often a youngster is incapacitated somewhat as the result of an operation, a long illness, or other reasons and could attend school if he didn't have stairs to contend with. Also, the elevator would help greatly in delivering supplies to the upper floors.

"There will also be a room for men teachers and one for the women teachers, whereas at present only one such room is available. Besides additional classrooms, larger quarters for the health program, and a larger administrative office, the size of the gymnasium will be doubled.

"The cafeteria, seating 500, will be adjacent to the other building and connected by an enclosed passageway. Tables and chairs will be movable and may be cleared to make the room usable for other purposes.

"Above the cafeteria will be the auditorium, stage, and balcony. The seating capacity of the main floor will be 930 and of the balcony 360, a total of 1,290. The stage will be 31½ feet from front to back and will be 51 feet wide at the rear."

The last speaker was Mr. William Speers, who quoted from "Washington New Letter" and other sources that taxes in the United States are high, but will go higher.

In a most convincing manner Mr. Speers pointed out that the Indian Hill school will be finished within the sum appropriated. He then advocated paying for the Mystic School from the Excess and Deficiency fund and borrowing $800,000 to $1,000,000 to pay for the Junior High School addition.

Besides using charts and graphs to show that Winchester, compared with Lexington, Stoneham, Needham, Wellesley, and other Massachusetts towns, can well afford to use more tax dollars for the support of schools, he explained that Winchester will receive a minimum reimbursement from the Commonwealth of twenty per cent when the appropriations are voted to activate recent legislation.

Mr. Speers then showed that on a twenty-year basis the town's bonded indebtedness could be paid in annual installments of $43,000. The average taxpayer would contribute at the rate of $1.16 on an $1,000.00 of valuation or the price of a package of cigarettes each week.

Charts used by Mr. Speers show that Needham, subject of a series of articles in a Boston newspaper last week, in 1947 spent 47 per cent of its tax dollars for schools. According to the newspaper articles, Needham is faced with a building problem not appreciably smaller than Winchester's.

Questioned about the cost to the taxpayers if the Senior High School addition estimated at $650,000 were added to the bill, Mr. Speers indicated the amortization sum annually would be about $75, 395, or $2.00 on the tax rate, or thirty-six cents per week to the average taxpayer.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:50.

Mr. Simonds Retired
Feted After 42 Years With Factory Mutuals

Mr. Roland E. Simonds of Myrtle street, a life-long resident of Winchester and former member of the Winchester Board of Fire Engineers, retired Monday, January 31, from the employ of the Associated Factory Mutual Fire Insurance Companies at 184 High street, Boston, after more than 42 years continuous services as a fire protection engineer. He was presented by the concern with a gift of a cash, a leather sport-coat and a pipe. He was also given a testimonial dinner by the General Electric Company, in the various plants of which he had done much fire prevention work, and was presented at that time with a fine wrist watch. Mr. Simonds told the Star he has no plans for the future except to "do a few jobs around the house that have been hanging-fire for years."

Mr. Simonds is a real Winchesterite. Son of William B. and Martha D. (Sanderson) Simonds, both natives of the town, he was born in Winchester on the fourth of July, 1878, in a house that was torn down to make way for the Central Fire Station.

After graduating from Winchester High in 1897 he was graduated from M. I. T. as a mechanical engineer in 1901. While at Tech he fired summers on the Boston & Maine Railroad, and after his graduation he continued firing on B. & M. locomotives.

After a few months as a fireman Mr. Simonds went to work for the United Shoe Machinery Company at the old McKay factory, then located on Swanton street. When the plant moved to Beverly he had charge of moving the machines and tools. He then went to work for Dean & Main, mill engineers, now C. T. Main, with whom he remained about a year, before joining the Associated Factory Mutual December 6, 1906, with the intention of staying only for the winter. He rounded out 42 years with the company last December and estimates that he has traveled in its interests more than a million miles during that time.

Aside from his business, Mr. Simonds has always been interested in the Fire Department, of which he was a member from 1901 to 1906. He was assistant chief in 1904, engineer and stoker on the old steamer for a year and a call man on a hose wagon for three years. He was a member of the Board of Fire Engineers from August 14, 1912, to May 1, 1913.

THE WINCHESTER TOAST-MISTRESS CLUB

The Winchester Toastmistress Club held their semi-monthly meeting at the home of Miss Hilda Hope, 37 Glen Green, Winchester at 8:30 Tuesday evening, January 25.

The newly elected President Mrs. Rachel Bagley of Cambridge, presided and announced that Mrs. Hope Powell of Melrose will be the program chairman for the ensuing term.

In accordance with the new policy of having one formal meeting, which presents three speakers who speak for five, ten and fifteen minutes, and one informal meeting, at which all members speak extemporaneously for two minutes. A formal meeting was held. The subject covered by all three speakers was Israel. Mrs. Edna Crode, Past President and founder of this club spoke for fifteen minutes on "The Birth of a Nation". Mrs. Helen Sanger of Winchester spoke for ten minutes on "Religion" and Mrs. Alice Caldwell of Brookline spoke on "Early History of Education" and was allotted the five minute time limit.

All members wrote their constructive criticisms and these criticisms were condensed by a committee of three and presented to the group by Mrs. Ruth Kelley of Winchester who was toastmistress for the evening. Past President, Mrs. Edna Crode and President, Mrs. Rachel Bagley of Cambridge poured at the dessert prepared by hostess, Hilda Hope.

Mrs. Helen Sanger of 17 Kenwin road, Winchester will entertain the club for the informal meeting February 8.

Mrs. Lucy T. Buck, who died Wednesday, February 2, was the mother of Mrs. Barbara Metcalf, executive director of the Winchester Girl Scouts. Funeral services will be held this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at 59 Ferdinand street, Melrose.

FORUM'S OPEN HOUSE - BIG SUCCESS!

Last Friday night the doors at the First Congregational Church were flung open to the high schoolers of this town for a big Open House. Over one hundred young people attended and enjoyed the evening festivities. Besides movies on Winter Sports and Comedy favorites there was ping-pong and bowling etc. One of the main reasons for this Open House was to get the kids in Winchester interested in Square Dancing. So with a violin and piano Mr. and Mrs. Tex Crandell supplied, very well indeed, the country music, while everyone swung their partners round about and had a grand time. Another Open House is being planned in the near future. But now Linda Bartlett and Leon Fernandez with the help of Nancy Kittell, George DeCamp, Robert Traut, Robert Burnham, Tom Wilder, Gordon Bird, Herbert Skerry, Paul Leverette, Susan Melanson, Priscilla Stone, Scott Cunningham and Norman Makechnie are preparing for a "Cherry Tree Dance" to be held on Wednesday February 23, (Mid-Winter vacation) at 8:00 Johnny Hammond's "Harmonizers" will furnish the music.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

The Ways and Means committee comprised of five enthusiastic and energetic members are in charge of a Valentine dessert bridge party which will be held in Lyceum Hall on next Tuesday afternoon, February 8th at 1:30 P. M. No stone has been left unturned to make this mid-winter social well worth while attending. The Committee has arranged for a delicious dessert and over fifty very desirable and practical prizes have been subscribed in the interest of its success.

Members of the Guild who go to business during the daytime or those who feel certain that they cannot attend, can encourage this Committee consisting of Mrs. John J. Gorman and Mrs. Robert H. Cavanaugh, Co-chairmen, Mrs. Leo V. Manoli, Mrs. James C. Marchant and Mrs. Joseph Donaghey by purchasing a ticket or mailing to them a donation which will be most sincerely appreciated. The Guild of the Infant Saviour embraces a most illustrious task in its interest and effort to help the underprivileged and it is only because as members we all do our share that this noble objective can be attained.

WINCHESTER BOY SCOUT NEWS

Boy Scout week, February 6 to 12. This week, Winchester Scouts will join with a million other Scouts all over the country in celebrating National Boy Scout Week, the 39th birthday of Boy Scouting in America. Scouting began in the early 1900's in South Africa where a British army officer, Robert Baden-Powell, trained his soldiers in the skills of tracking, trailing, and wilderness living. When Lord Baden-Powell returned to England he developed his idea into a great organization for boys. In 1907 he took twenty boys to the first Boy Scout camp, and in 1908 he published the first Boy Scout Handbook.

Then, on a foggy day in 1909, William D. Boyce, an American publisher, was searching for an address in old London. He was surprised when a boy approached and asked if he might be of service. After the boy had taken Mr. Boyce to the address, the American reached in his pocket and offered the boy a shilling. He was surprised when the boy refused it saying, "No thank you, sir. I am a Scout. Scouts do not accept tips for Good Turns."

The boy told him about the Scouts and showed Mr. Boyce to Baden-Powell's office nearby. There, Mr. Boyce found out about the Boy Scouts, and decided that American boys would like the great game of Scouting. On February 8, 1910, Mr. Boyce and other men interested in boys, formally incorporated the Boy Scouts of America. And so, thirty-nine years ago this Tuesday, the Boy Scouts of America was born.

Scouting Window Displays this Month

This month, to celebrate the 39th anniversary of Scouting, every Senior Scout, Boy Scout, and Cub Scout unit in Winchester has been asked to plan and install Scouting window displays in Winchester stores. These displays will carry out the anniversary theme: "Adventure... That's Scouting," and should be of great interest to every Winchesterite who is interested in boys and Scouting. A prize will be awarded to the unit who has the best display.

Troop 6 to Present Fire Demonstration

The highlight of Boy Scout Week in Winchester will be a unique fire prevention show called "Fire in Miniature" presented by Troop 6 at the Unitarian Church on February 7th. Every Boy Scout Troop in town has been invited to attend this event.

First Baptist Church to Host to Scouts

The climax of Boy Scout Week is Scout Sunday, February 13th, when all protestant Scout units will attend the church service at the First Baptist Church. The Scouts will assemble in the Recreation Hall of the church and march into the auditorium in a body, where Rev. Walter Bailey will present a service of special interest to the boys.

350 Scouts in Winchester

Almost 350 Senior, Boy, and Cub Scouts are enjoying Scouting in Winchester. Eleven different units serve these boys. Troop 1 is sponsored by the American Legion. Cub Pack 2 is sponsored by the Church of the Epiphany. Troop 3 and Pack 3 meet at the First Congregational Church. The Unitarian Church sponsors Troop 6, Pack 6, and Senior Scout Post 6. Troop 7 and Pack 7 meet at the First Baptist Church, and Troop 12 and Pack 12 are sponsored by St. Mary's Church. Although a Scouting program of this size should have at least 150 adults, at present only about 75 men and women are donating their time and services to Winchester Scouting. These leaders work without pay, not because they have to but because they want to. They want to help boys learn to think for themselves... to have fun and adventure... to become worthwhile men. A Scouters' pay is a Scout's smile. If you think YOU would like to be a Winchester Scout, call the Chairman of Winchester Scouting, Ben Gowing (6-0388) and talk it over with him.

Troop 7 Goes Swimming

On one cold Saturday last month, four Troop 7 Scouts, Dave Ripley, Terry Tallman, Jim Ekstrom, and Russ McLeod, went on a skating party with Committeeman Dick Swanson. They had a hot game of hockey with Mr. Swanson as Team A and the four Scouts as Team B.

On the following Saturday, Dick Swanson and Paul Butterworth took nine Troop 7 boys swimming at the Charlestown Army-Navy YMCA pool. The boys enjoyed diving, swimming, playing tag, and just plain splashing. Every boy passed his First Class Swimming test. Present were: Roger Foster, Ray Simpson, Stu Carlisle, Stan Mullen, "Gorgeous George" Govostes, Dave Riley, Ken Cleaves, Lee Staff and Don MacFeeley.

Last Saturday, the boys spent the day working on the model of their Troop Campsite, Pine Hill Camp. They will display this model at the Scout Exposition at the Winchester High School on April 30th.

Troop 7 is busily planning for their Parents' Night to be held with Pack 7 at the First Baptist Church on February 14th. A delicious ham supper will be served at 6:30 and an evening of Scouting and Cubbing entertainment will be enjoyed. Every parent and friend of Troop 7 Scouts and Pack 7 Cub Scouts is cordially invited to attend this affair.

Pack 7 Holds Sport Night

On Friday, January 21st, Cub Pack 7 held a Sport Night where Coach Meurling (who is "tops" with all Winchester boys) gave a talk and coached the boys in basketball. Then everyone enjoyed movies of the Woburn and Lexington football games. Den 6 was the winner in the Parent-Cub Attendance Contest for January.

Robert Farnham, of Den 6, topped the advancement for January. He received his Bobcat pin, Bear badge-pin, Wolf Gold and Silver Arrow, and Bear Gold and Silver Arrow.

Last month, Bobcat pins were earned by Alfred Gulikseh, Paul Berman, and Stephen Marshall. Lion badges and pins were won by Tom Sawyer, Cecil Pride, Robert Bartlett, Jimmy McLeod, Jay Robinson. Bear badges and pins were by Rich Rimback, William Young, John Kelleher, Leroy Chute, William Young, Harold Ekstrom, and George Stratton won Wolf badges and pins. Robert Bartlett and David Gowing received Bear Gold and Silver Arrows. Jimmy McLeod and James Urmon received Denner Stripes, and Ronny Reed and David Gowing won Assistant Denner Stripes. David Sumner, Richard Bingham, and Seth Weston received Service Stars.

HOSPITAL VISITING HOURS

One of the problems causing most concern to every hospital, as well as to every patient and his friends, is that of the rules governing visiting hours. It is not easy to legislate in a matter like this. It is one of good sense rather than edict. As a help toward cooperation between Winchester Hospital and its visitors, the desk is now supplying copies of a folder which gives brief comments on some of the questions involved, such as the following:

A FEW VISITORS are better than too many. Friends of a patient can well postpone some of their visiting until he is again at home.

DO NOT SIT ON HOSPITAL BEDS. Your garments will contaminate the sterile hospital linen. SHORT VISITS are a fine tonic to a patient, but well-meaning friends often stay too long and exhaust the patient's vitality. Try to make all visits brief, fifteen cheerful minutes are ample.

FLOWERS can be a burden. Don't deluge the patient with them, but try to see that they arrive a few at a time. Remember also that he will probably welcome books, magazines and - perhaps - games for his entertainment.

AND, PLEASE, NO SMOKING. It is best not to smoke at all in the hospital. Even confirmed smokers often find the odor of tobacco obnoxious when they are ill, though they will hesitate to tell you so.

QUIET IS ESSENTIAL to healthful recovery. Try to think of all the ways in which you can add to the quiet atmosphere of the hospital, whether in the corridors or in a patient's room. Try to think, also, not only of your friend who is a patient in the hospital, but of others, some of them very ill, who are sensitive to sound and the presence of people.

THE HOSPITAL AND ITS PATIENTS NEED YOUR THOUGHTFUL COOPERATION

Party Manners for pleasant party lines

It pays to be poised. Party line neighbors are quick to respond to those who are calm and collected when they ask for the line in an emergency. By sharing courteously, everyone benefits... and party line service is smooth.

It's good to be gracious. When a series of calls must be made, it's nice to remember the others on the line by allowing time between calls. This, too, helps give all party line neighbors their fair share of service.

It's polite to be prompt. Answering the telephone as quickly as possible shows consideration for the person who is calling. Telephoning at "off peak" hours - in the middle of the day, or evenings after 8 - is also appreciated.

A NOTE to all party line users

As a general thing, party line service is good enough to meet the requirements of most party line users.

Right now, however, many people who would normally have individual service are on party lines - because this is the only way in which we could supply telephones to the thousands who have asked for new service in the past three years. We are bending every effort to speed the day when we can provide individual service - or lines with fewer parties on them - to fill all present orders.

In the meantime, won't you remember that party line service is largely what you make it. We'll do our best to handle your calls smoothly and efficiently. But, in the long run, the quality of party line service depends a great deal on how it's used.

WINCHESTER CITIZENS' COMMITTEE ACTIVE IN SCHOOLS, PLANNING AND ASSESSMENTS

The Directors of the Winchester Citizens' Committee have been holding regular meetings since September, 1948 in connection with civic affairs in Winchester. Being convinced that there is a definite place in Winchester for an organization of civic-minded citizens, the Directors have undertaken a broad program of examination into Winchester affairs and problems. It is the hope of the Directors that the Citizens Committee, as an organization, can be an effective instrument for increasing community interest and spirit and for maintaining Winchester as a desirable community in which to live.

Sub-committees have been appointed to study the school program, long-range town planning and the real estate assessment problem. Preliminary studies in these fields are now under way.

The sub-committee on the school program is composed of Mr. Harry H. Whiton, Chairman, and Dr. Stanley S. Ballard, Mr. Allan T. Burros, Mr. Charles R. Fish, Mrs. John G. Harder and Mrs. Philip J. Woodward.

Mr. Otto E. Schaefer, Jr., is chairman of the sub-committee on town-planning, with Mr. Harold Bates, Mr. Warren Branch and Mr. Ralph P. Webster, Jr., serving on this sub-committee.

The sub-committee on real estate assessments and valuations is composed of Mr. Carl R. Richmond, Chairman, and Mr. Richard D. Chase and Mr. Melvin I. Kishler. The Directors have requested that these sub-committees have preliminary reports ready to submit to the membership of the Citizens' Committee and all other interested citizens and taxpayers at a general meeting to be held in the latter part of February.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL AGAIN APPROVED

The American College of Surgeons, at its annual meeting in December, issued its List of Approved Hospitals in the United States and Canada, on which the Winchester Hospital is again placed. The listing indicates hospitals of 25 beds and over which have complied satisfactorily with the fundamental requirements that assure the best care of the sick and injured. The Winchester Hospital has 83 beds and 20 bassinets.

There were 3,150 approved hospitals in the United States, Canada and a few other countries at the end of 1948. This constituted 79.7 percent of the 3,947 hospitals under survey. Of the 3,150 on the approved list, 2,820 or 71.4 percent are fully approved with 330 or 8.3 percent provisionally approved.

During 1948 a new point rating system was devised in an attempt to achieve precision in evaluating hospitals, with emphasis on the quality of professional services and care of the patient. Full approval represents a score of 70 to 100 percent; provisional approval, 60 to 69 percent; and approved, below 60 percent. In 1948 there were 3,150 approved hospitals, whereas in 1918 there were only 89. It should also be remembered that all hospitals on the approved list are meeting much higher standards now.

The fundamental principals upon which is based the interpretation of the Standard for hospitals follow:

1. Modern physical plant, assuring the patient safety, comfort, and efficient care.
2. Clearly defined organization, duties, responsibilities, and relations.
3. Carefully selected governing

The Nicest Distance Between Two Points

To ride in a Cadillac is to experience the supreme satisfaction that can be derived from personal transportation. The person at the wheel is the quickest to sense this—for he is the special beneficiary of Cadillac comfort. He enjoys, of course—in common with the other occupants of the car—the matchless benefits of Cadillac balance and springing and roadability. But he enjoys, in addition, the driving ease of a feather-light steering wheel, a quick, powerful, responsive motor that knows no counterpart for agility and smoothness; big, dominant brakes that are as soft to the pedal as sponge rubber; and an over-all sure-footedness on the highway that reduces driving strain to the minimum. Somebody has said that, once you have driven a Cadillac, you're unhappy at the wheel of any other car. Certain it is that a ride in a Cadillac—whether as driver or passenger—is the nicest distance between two points! Have you driven a 1949 Cadillac—or ridden in one? If not, you ought to do so. You are welcome in our showrooms at any time.

This is a diesel ... a modern locomotive that means better service to you.
Leaders of two unions think it's a feather-bed ... a "make work" grab that means less service to you.

● Leaders of unions representing railroad engineers and firemen seek to force railroads to add extra, needless men on diesel locomotives. This is sheer waste—a "make-work" program which would mean fewer improvements and higher costs—for YOU!

Railroads use modern diesel locomotives because they are one of the means of giving faster, better service to you.

Two men compose the crew of a diesel. They occupy a clean, comfortable cab at the front. The engineer handles the throttle. The fireman sits and watches the track ahead. With no coal to shovel, he has practically nothing else to do.

No Benefit To You

Now the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen want to use the diesel locomotive as a means of forcing a feather-bedding scheme on the railroads. The extra men they propose to add to the diesel crews are not needed. There is no work for them.

The union leaders are fighting among themselves about which union should furnish these extra, needless men. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have even threatened a strike. You may not be interested in this dispute of these two unions, but you would be vitally concerned if these groups succeed in putting through this feather-bedding scheme, because it would mean a slowing up of the improvement program of the railroads—of which the diesel is the outstanding symbol. Diesel crews are among the highest paid railroad employees—real aristocrats of labor! Their pay is high by any standard. Granting of these demands, therefore, would mean that the railroads would be paying out millions in unearned wages to those in the very highest pay brackets.

We'd Like To Spend This Money On You

You know how much the diesel has meant to you in increased speed, comfort and convenience. The railroads have many more of them on order for even greater improvement in service to you. But needless drains of money, such as this present demand of the unions for needless men on diesels, reduce the ability of the railroads to spend money on better service for you.

Proud as the railroads are of the diesel, it is only a small part of their improvement program. Since the War, literally billions of dollars have been spent on improvement of tracks and stations, on new passenger and freight cars, as well as on diesel locomotives, and on the many other less conspicuous details of railroading that contribute to improved service.

Feather-Bedding Means Less Service To You

But brazen feather-bedding schemes like the one now proposed would, if successful, divert large sums of money from our present improvement programs. Even worse, they make improvements like the diesel worthless, by making the cost of their operation prohibitive. These demands are against YOUR interests—as well as those of the railroads. They are schemes to "make work". Neither you nor the railroads should be forced to pay such a penalty for progress.

That's why the railroads are resisting these "make work" demands to the last ditch—and why they are telling you about them.

SGT. BOWLER FETED

Edward F. Bowler, newly appointed sergeant of the Winchester Police Department, was given a testimonial dinner Monday evening by an enthusiastic group of well-wishers who numbered close to 150 and taxed the capacity of the Hunt Room at the Town Line, Woburn, to its capacity.

At the head table with Sergeant Bowler were former Selectman Ralph Bonnell, who acted as master of ceremonies, Police Chief Charles J. Harrold, former Chief William H. Rogers, Sergeant Joseph J. Derro, Assessor Alfred D. Elliott, former Selectman James J. Fitzgerald, Jr., former Registrar of Voters Nicholas H. Fitzgerald, former School Committee Chairman Leo F. Garvey, E. P. Mack, McKenzie of the Woburn Daily Times and County Commissioner James A. Cullen. All of the head table guests responded to toasts, though "big Jim" Fitzgerald, "Mack" and Sergeant Derro could be persuaded only to take bows. Other speakers were John A. Volpe of the Volpe Construction Co. and "Charlie" Kochs of the Winchester Sport Shop, the latter doubling in brass by leading the group singing, which had plenty of volume at least.

Mr. Bonnell ably filled the "M.C." role and presented to Sgt. Bowler a substantial purse of money and a gold sergeants badge, the gift of those present. Sgt. Bowler modestly expressed his thanks in a manner that left no doubt of his appreciation.

Interspersing the toasts and introductions there was a professional entertainment program. Officer William T. Haggerty headed the arrangements committee with Constable Gleason Ryerson as treasurer, Park Superintendent Herbert S. Mullen, tickets; and Officer James E. Flaherty and Auxiliary Police Chief Robert A. Johnston; entertainment.

Bob Johnston, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Johnston of 83 Washington street, is singing with the Bowdoin "Meddybempsers", a featured double quartet of Bowdoin College students. The "Meddybempsers" sang last year at many colleges in this country and this year will be heard, among other concerts, at the Boston Pops and in Town Hall, New York. Last summer the Government sent the boys abroad on a concert tour of Europe.

Bob Johnston was very active in the school musical groups while at Winchester High School and was one of the featured singers in the annual school vaudeville show. It is considered quite an honor to sing with the "Meddybempsers" at Bowdoin.

WINTON CLUB SHOW PROVIDES MUSICAL TREAT

Facts and Fantasy is Big Success

Students of legendary lore learn to swallow important facts in various forms and sizes, but perhaps no lessons could be more palatable than the slices of historical pie dished out at the Winton Club's Twenty-eighth Annual Cabaret last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, when a musical revue called "Facts and Fantasy," written by Mrs. Donald G. Crowell, was presented under the direction of David Carman Jones. From the first note of the vocal overture, sung by Susan Hight and the Stryke brothers, to the last stroboscopic flicker of the departing feminine air armada, the show provided a series of nine factual Winchester scenes and chronicled a variety of fantastic activities in a rapid sweep from 1600 to 1950.

In scene one, a chorus of ten little Indian maidens showed how they were tempted by The Devil Rum (Wendell Irving) until Little Hannah Shiner (Priscilla Pendergast), the last Winchester Indian, fell into the Aberjona and drowned. The delightful dancing chorus of little white lambs told the wild and woolly story of Farmer Symmes and the flock that was buried in the blizzard of 1700; and Farmer Symmes (Vincent Farnsworth, Jr.) chased blacksheep George Johnson through a clever acrobatic routine that ended with the sheep chasing the farmer into the barn. After that the scene was shifted quickly to the ancient Black Horse Tavern, where Innkeeper's wife Philippa Young dusted the bar flies off the tables for a drinking scene in which farmers and barmaids cavorted in a sprightly country dance. As part of the same scene, Frank Pynn played the historical Laoni Baldwin, while a snappy and well-coordinated group of tappers, The Baldwinettes, taught a rhythmic version of the first Baldwin apple in a high-kicking modern manner.

Opening Act Two, the period from 1800 to 1900, a group of home cobblers vocalized their troubles, and a charming group of ladies sang of "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair" as they picked out the old Middlesex Canal. This pleasant canal scene, with its taffeta gowns and yellow parasols, was rudely interrupted by the coming of the railroad, when the Baldwinettes returned as Choo Choo Capers to tell with dance and song the story of Casey Jones.

WILLIAM W. McLEAN

William W. McLean, proprietor of the Winchester News Company, died Monday afternoon, February 7, at his home, 125 North street, Somerville. He underwent a serious operation in July from which he had been recovering, having been at his store on last Friday for the longest period he had yet spent there. He was stricken with a shock Friday night and grew steadily worse until the end.

Mr. McLean was the son of Daniel and Margaret McLean. He was born 58 years ago in East Boston, later living for 35 years in Somerville. He was a salesman for a Boston paper house prior to World War I, in which he served with the United States Army overseas.

In 1919 he and Perry Bridges acquired the Winchester News Company which had changed hands several times since its ownership by the late A. William Rooney. The store was then located on the site presently occupied by the Winchester Drug Company. Mr. McLean took over the company in 1923 and moved to the present location at 7 Thompson street shortly after the construction of the building July 6, 1926. He conducted a successful business and was genuinely liked by those who really knew him.

Mr. McLean was a member of the American Legion. He left no immediate family.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Trustees of Winchester Public Library Pay Tribute to Edgar J. Rich

The Trustees of the Library wish at this time to honor the memory of our late associate, Edgar J. Rich. To many in Winchester Mr. Rich stands for the modern interpreter of Abraham Lincoln. We have requested the STAR to print the following extract from a book which the late Mr. Rich said is in his opinion the best short biography yet written about Lincoln. The book is "Abraham Lincoln the Boy and the Man" by James Morgan. Thus, the Trustees would pay tribute to Mr. Rich by this 1949 salute to Lincoln.

One of the most inspiring of the many fine chapters in the book is appropriately entitled, "Lessons from Lincoln".

Abraham Lincoln was born into a world very different from ours - so different that it seems to have been in another age. The bees of Bonaparte swarmed over Europe, and the peace of Vienna had left him, at the climax of his career, the master of the continent, from the Russian frontier to the Mediterranean. George III, though in his dotage, yet wore the crown from which the most splendid jewel had been plucked by the sword of Washington. Africa was almost unknown, and aside from India, Asia was as little known as it was five hundred years before.

"Along the western shore of this continent, the banner of Spain waved over an immense empire, which stretched unbroken from the Sierra Nevada to Cape Horn. In our own flag there were only seventeen stars. Thomas Jefferson was the President of a nation of seven million people. Robert Fulton's steamboat was only two years old. Stephenson's locomotive was yet twenty years away. Labor's burden was measured only by what it could bear. The black toiler was a chattel, and his white brother struggled beneath an industrial serfdom which had every legal and social sanction. Women had almost as few rights at law as they had a cycle before, and no broader sphere of activity.

Democracy was without a foothold in any of the principal countries of the Old World. England was still an aristocracy, and as much ruled by the few as at any time in the six centuries since Runnymede.

NEIL BORDEN, JR. WINNER OF ESSAY PRIZE

At the regular meeting of the Women's Republican Club last Wednesday, Neil Borden, Jr., a High School Senior, was awarded the prize of $25 offered by the Club for the best essay written by a member of the junior or senior class on the subject "Organization of Political Parties in the United States." The winner was present to receive the award, and read the thesis before the members and guests. He showed intelligent thought in the preparation of this thesis and a keen grasp of the subject matter. It was presented in an admirable manner, receiving much favorable comment. Runners-up in this contest, who were also invited to be present, were: Richard Cleary, Patricia McElmurry, David Muncie, John J. Sargent, and David Thomas. The contest was in charge of Mrs. Philip J. Woodward of the Education Committee.

Mrs. Raymond W. Wheeler, Vice-Chairman of the Republican State Committee, who was the speaker of the day, was introduced by the President, Mrs. William C. Cusack, and gave a very interesting talk on "Lincoln, the Man of the Hour."

Among the invited guests were Mrs. Joseph L. Roberts, State Committeeewoman from the 6th Middlesex District, who spoke briefly. As an added attraction, the Winchester High School Octette presented a program of international songs, which were very well received.

Mrs. Cusack called upon the following for reports: Mrs. Clarence A. Roberts, Chairman of Ways and Means, who reported on the very successful dessert bridge which was held recently at the Church of the Epiphany; Mrs. Harold Twombly, who reminded members of the dates for registration of new voters between now and Town Election; Mrs. Warren Whitman, who spoke briefly on legislative matters; and Mrs. Charles W. Blanchard, Secretary of the Republican 21 Club, who gave an interesting report of the current activities of that organization. Mrs. Cusack reminded members of the Philip Cummings lecture, to be held next Wednesday at the Music Hall.

The social hour was under the able direction of Mrs. Fred W. Aeltine and her Committee, the pouters being: Mrs. William E. Ramsdell, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Mrs. Harold M. Twombly and Mrs. Wellington L. Caldwell.

WINCHESTER BOY WINS STATE SKI CHAMPIONSHIP

Last Sunday, at Breakheart Reservation and under the sponsorship of the Snow Chasers Ski Club of Lynn, Ted Elliott, Jr., of Winchester, placed first in the Junior Cross-Country State Championship ski race in the 12-13 year old class. Formerly a member of the old Winchester Ski Club, he raced last Sunday as an unattached member of the United States Eastern Amateur Ski Association, winning a mile and a half race by the generous margin of 47 seconds over a field of ten racers.

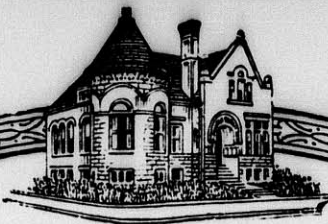

This is his third try in this event. The first year he placed third, last year sixth in an older age bracket and won this year. He started skiing at the age of three and while a Cub Scout he skied for two years and as a Scout is skiing this year under the instruction of Mr. William Davies, III, who is doing a fine job Saturday afternoons at Symmes Corner with his Troop 6 Scouts.

This cross-country skiing probably is the safest but ruggedest sort of skiing there is. Colleges are stressing it more and more each year in an effort to develop more all-around ability and stamina. Ted has made a good start, here's luck in the years to come as he advances through the older age groups.

The regular meeting of the Literature Committee was held in the Art Gallery of the Public Library at two o'clock on Monday afternoon. Under the leadership of Miss Eva Sherman, chairman, we renewed acquaintance with the work of John Galsworthy, eminent British novelist and dramatist. An advocate of justice, tolerance, and chivalry toward womanhood, he longed to see human suffering relieved and an enduring peace in a world rife with unfair practices. His stand for universal brotherhood was linked also to a challenge against vice, vulgarity, and material bondage. A modest, diffident man he declined knighthood. An aristocrat, a sportsman, and a lover of animals he lived a simple, leisurely life. His literary work with its deep kindness for all men occupies a deservedly secure place and is distinguished by its high moral tone and unmistakable refinement. We are indebted to Miss Sherman for her presentation of this fine literary figure.

A writer of very different quality was the subject of Mrs. Blanche S. Barnard's scholarly paper, "Arnold Bennett: The Man and his Work." One of the most prolific authors, Bennett produced novels, plays, pocket philosophies, and a diary of over a million words. Friend of Galsworthy and many celebrities, he traveled extensively incorporating his impressions in extremely detailed stories. Life to him was romantic, never dull, and he glorified the commonplace. Drab lives he made vital and interesting, as in "The Old Wives Tale", his most popular novel. Mrs. Barnard gave a critical estimate of many of his stories, analyzed his complex personality, and placed him as an accurate interpreter of English middle class life in the early days of this century, the period which is being studied this winter by the Literature Committee.

WINCHESTER Hospital

VISITING HOURS

Last week we printed some of the fundamental rules about the right way to use hospital visiting hours. If you missed them, you may enjoy turning to the Star for February 4th to read them. From those brief paragraphs one thing stands out, namely, that the recovery of a patient cannot result from too many visitors who stay too long at his bedside. Rest is a chief element in his getting well. He is weak, and is easily fatigued. A little visiting is good, and will cheer the patient. But if he reaches the point of weariness, he will have lost ground in his recovery, and the visitors will have to be counted on the negative side of the balance sheet. His lowered vitality is also put at the mercy of the germs and other dirt brought in by visitors. Especially regrettable is the careless habit of sitting on or leaning against the bed. It is best not even to shake a patient's hand if yours is not freshly washed.

The hospital administration and professional care of patients has its part also in this problem of visiting hours. Normal hospital routine has to come to a stop during visiting hours. This is always a liability from the standpoint of giving the patients the best possible care, and it may be serious in its consequences if patients are needed attention which cannot be given during visiting hours. Please remember that a patient may not be ill enough to be forbidden by his doctor to have visitors, but he may still suffer something approaching neglect if friends and members of his family are not thoughtful in the length of their visits.

Standards of Nursing Service
The high standard maintained in Nursing Service at Winchester Hospital has been brought out by the recent study of Greater Boston Community Fund agencies. So much has been said about the shortage of nurses all over this country, and the difficulties encountered in providing good nursing service, that the information now available about our local situation is specially reassuring. It is the best way of correcting the impression that the care of patients has everywhere suffered in recent years. Undoubtedly in some hospitals standards have been seriously compromised, but in the Winchester Hospital the hours of nursing service per patient are not only above the average of many hospitals but are above the standard set by hospital authorities.

The facts about hours of nursing service given to patients in our Hospital are as follows. For medical and surgical patients the standard which is considered ideal is 3.4 hours each patient day. In the Winchester Hospital it is 3.57 hours each patient day. In the Obstetrical service (mothers and infants) the ideal standard is 5.8 hours each patient day. In Winchester Hospital the mothers and infants receive 8.3 hours each day.

The standards mentioned above include auxiliary as well as graduate nursing. The Nurses Aides give important help as a part of the auxiliary nursing, and they are indispensable in the maintenance of our fine record.

In the Community Fund study to which we have referred, the figures are also given for the proportion of professional nurses to non-professional in all hospitals of the Greater Boston area. Here at the Winchester Hospital 90% of our nursing is by graduate nurses, and that gives us the highest proportion of any hospital in this area. The next highest percentage is in a Hospital where 81% is graduate nursing. Here again we see the importance of the Nurses Aides, for it is in the 10% of the non-graduate care that their hours of help are included.

The facts given above are important in showing the standards now maintained in Winchester Hospital, and are also important in looking forward to the future enlarged building. The supply of well-trained graduate nurses will continue to present a problem of shortage throughout the country. However, our Hospital which is an attractive place of employment in spite of the present stress and strain of overcrowding will prove even more attractive when it is enlarged and gives relief from the tension caused by inadequate space and overburdened equipment.

WINCHESTER UPSET
MELROSE

Winchester High sprang one of the major upsets of the season in defeating the second-place Melrose High quintet by a score of 31 to 28 at Winchester on Tuesday afternoon. Melrose had previously defeated the Red and Black 51 to 36 in their first meeting this year and were really surprised to be knocked off by the locals in this one. This victory serves to emphasize again what a swell rebuilding job Coach Bartlett has done over the last half of the season after the team fared so poorly during the first half under a series of discouraging breaks caused by injuries and sickness.

The game was as close as the proverbial whisker all the way. At the end of the first quarter Winchester was leading by a score of 8 to 6. This lead was shaved one point during the second quarter as the Red and Black left the floor with a 14 to 13 lead at the half. The third quarter was equally as close as Winchester led 21 to 19 at that point. At the automatic time-out with three minutes left in the game the score was tied at 25 to 25. In those three final hectic minutes the Red and Black went ahead 31 to 26 on a fine clutch basket by Paul Roche and successful foul shots under pressure by Pete Dillingham and Walter Murphy. Crawford scored a basket for Melrose to partially close the gap but the locals successfully froze the ball to nail down a thrilling victory.

The game was really decided from the foul line as Winchester netted nine free throws to the four caged by Melrose and that constituted the margin of victory for the locals. Captain Ken Donaghey maintained his high scoring average with 15 big points but once again it was essentially a team victory as all of the locals turned in splendid performances. The aggressiveness of the locals under the backboard was the determining factor in their victory as they successfully battled the taller Melrose quintet for rebounds and were able to efficiently clear the boards. The Winchester Seconds snapped out of their slump by defeating the Melrose Seconds 34 to 26 in an unusually good second team game. The scoring for Winchester was well divided with six of the locals entering the scoring column.

HOCKEY CLUB BOWS TO ARLINGTON ARCADIAN IN OVERTIME 7-6

Following the Boston College - Northeastern match on Arena ice last Tuesday evening Winchester Hockey Club tangled with the Arlington Arcadians. The latter team was runner-up to Belmont Aces, 1948 National Junior Amateur Champions, last year. The Arcadians are sparked by such stars as Dick Hardin, currently one of the leading goalies in the Atlantic Amateur Hockey League, Bob Emery and Bill Leary of Arlington High's league leaders, and Barnhill of the Boston U Freshmen team. Winchester did mightily well to carry such a club to a 7-6 overtime victory.

Late Saturday evening, February 12th, the second of two games with the Arcadians will be played at the Boston Arena. Winchester spares: Barnhill, Lynch, Nugent, Hanson, Doherty, Wilson. Winchester spares: Armstrong, Bob Collins, Cogan, McGrath. Referee, Kane.

ARLINGTON GIRLS EDGED WINCHESTER

Winchester's second half surge fell a basket short last Friday afternoon and its girls basketball team lost their game to Arlington High, 24-26. The locals trailed at the half, 5-12.

With the resumption of play Winchester improved its shooting and gradually pulled up on the Arlington invaders, outscoring the visitors for the half, 19-14. Arlington's seven-point advantage at the half enabled the Spy Ponders to weather the storm. The locals had the edge in floor goals, 11-9, but made only two of their six free shots good while Arlington sank eight of ten free tries.

"Dee" Barrett led both teams in scoring with 11 points, "Ginny" Gaffney following closely with nine. Weslowski paced Arlington with 10.

The Arlington seconds won the preliminary game 15-8.

SCHOOL BOWLERS SHARE HONORS

According to figures released Tuesday, February 1, Team Three is currently leading the Teachers' Bowling League. Captain Otis Leary's bowlers, Charlotte Foley, Sheila Young, Helen Goodwin, Phyllis Roberts, and Handicap, won four points from the Felmetts while the Aversas were dropping four to the Morses. Thus Fate, Handicap, and a couple of absentees have momentarily fitted the crown on the Leary head.

The absence of one of the three top bowlers, Joseph Aversa, who has a three-string total of 331 to his credit was the deciding factor.

Mary Cullen, women's high single string and three-string leader with scores of 111 and 281, has been unable to pull her team into the lead.

Team One boasts as its captain the holder of the highest single record of 133, Forbes Norris, but despite the efforts of assistant captain Hayward and three absentees they were unable to offer any real opposition, losing all four points to Handicap, Demsey, Red, Mackdon, Absentee, and Curtis.

Fire Chief James E. Callahan has asked the STAR to warn residents of persons who come to their doors purporting to be fire inspectors. Plain clothes inspectors may visit industrial or business places, but any one coming to inspect a Winchester house for fire hazard will ordinarily be in the uniform of the Winchester Fire Department. If he is not in uniform do not let him in without consulting the Central Fire Station, Winchester 6-1201, or the Police, Winchester 6-1220.

At the risk of prolonging a controversy which neither side can settle, unfortunately, the Star would like to make one or two more observations in connection with the argument over Manchester Field. Mrs. Gunby in her letter last week painted a nice picture of the old field in its hey day. We well remember that field, and we heartily agree that at its best it was a beauty spot. We too are sorry that the field as it was then is no more. Manchester Field was, however, even in those days primarily a playground, and it might well have been a much better playground for a lot longer if it had not been for some of the extracurricular activities permitted on its surface. Those fireworks, for instance, ruined the lower end of the field for playground purposes together with a well defined path made by pedestrians across the southwestern corner which seriously interfered with the use of that part of the playground for softball. A poorly installed track hurt the playing surface of the field, already in poor shape from years of neglect, and the annual dumping of snow and debris from the streets with the scars of the sewer installation along the west side of the field added the finishing touches. We are trying with all this to prove that it is possible to spoil a good field by using it for the wrong things, and we do not think we should make the same mistake with the new field, which to date has cost over $89,000 and which in our opinion is now more an athletic field than even a playground, though legally it may still be the latter. Mrs. Gunby in her well written letter contends that athletic field does not become "less" fact an athletic field with no other possible uses. Nor does a part of it by the same reasoning become necessarily a right-of-way simply because people find it convenient to use it as a short cut down town. That is really what the good people represented by Mrs. Gunby want. They are not, we think, particularly concerned with the field either as a park or a playground. They simply do not want to walk the extra 540 feet around the end of the field on their way to the center. That is perfectly understandable, but not necessarily right!

Two or three weeks ago while discussing grade crossing elimination in the STAR, Chairman Edmund C. Sanderson of the Water & Sewer Board, called attention to the Commonwealth's "Master Highway Plan for the Metropolitan Boston Area" with the admonition that the "town fathers" keep their eye on the plan as it affects Winchester. It is reassuring to know that Mr. Sanderson has his eye on the plan, for not too much escapes "Ed's" eagle optic. We agree that the local powers that be will do well to keep in close touch with the proposal to build an arterial highway through the west side of the town. As near as we can determine from the plan the highway comes along parallel to the Boston and Maine railroad tracks past Mystic Lakes in about the same location as the present Parkway, though it is difficult to determine whether it actually follows the Parkway route. Apparently it does not in places. Continuing past the easterly extension of Lafayette road and to the west of Wedgemere Station, the new highway crosses Bacon street and proceeds along the tracks through the easterly side of the former Ginn estate, heading north between the railroad and Rangely Ridge and coming out on Church street slightly toward the center from the present Rangely entrance. Thence it crosses Church street between School and Dix streets, rather nearer the first named, and cutting Dix street again near the Professional building, the Highway crosses Wedge Pond and Lake street to the Main street side of Middlesex street. From there it swings left, paralleling Brantwood road, and runs along beside the river at the rear of Carter and Royal streets to cut Pond street, and Cove street in Wolburn, heading north beside the present Wolburn Parkway. Such a road, if constructed, is going to change the looks of Winchester and put a high speed roadway pretty close to the center of the town. Some homes will have to go to make way for the highway, and apparently the present town yard lies either directly in line or closely adjacent to the new route. What will happen if it goes through the yard, in the event it goes at all? How about that new garage we are proposing to build at the town yard? We are not arguing against it, but what happens if the new road goes right through this building after we build it? We have heard the opinion advanced that we ought to get the town yard on the outskirts of the town, since the land it is now occupying is too valuable to be used for such a purpose. It's a thought, we mean, but meanwhile let us follow Mr. Sanderson's advice and keep an eye on that proposed new highway. Winchester stands to be affected very materially when and if the plan as outlined in the book issued by the State in 1948 is put through.

The School Committee is leaving no stone unturned in its effort to acquaint the townspeople with its proposed building program, and surely there can be no excuse for anyone going to town meeting in March without knowing what the Committee believes necessary in the way of additions to our present school plants. Meetings held in all precincts before town meeting and the Committee has spent both time and energy to prepare its case for the proposed additions as well as to present facts and figures as its members see them. With the exception of the Finance Committee's generalities we have had little of the other side of the picture, but regardless of how it is financed, a building program of $1,910,000 is something to think about, particularly in view of other expenditures which the town will have to make this year and next year and every year. If we only had the school program to think about, the amount proposed to spend for school additions would still be a tidy sum, and when it is only a part of the entire municipal budget, regardless of how it is broken down, it is not surprising that those who have to pay the bills are on the apprehensive side. The Finance Committee's warnings have by no means fallen on deaf ears, and it behooves the town meeting members this year to really inform themselves, not only concerning the articles in the warrant upon which they must pass but also as to how the people they purport to represent feel about things. Unless they accurately reflect the public sentiment we are likely to have some referendums this year. Tax payers are definitely concerned with the sharp rise in the tax rate. Many property-owners with whom we have talked, are emphatic in expressing the belief that all corners possible should be cut this year if desirable citizens are not going to be driven out of town. A tax increase of $18.80 from 1944 to 1949 can not be laughed off, particularly by those young people who of necessity have bought houses and already are hard pressed to carry them and by elderly persons of fixed incomes. The town after all has a certain duty to these segments of its citizenry. Town meeting members this year especially need to examine all proposed expenditures in the light of actual necessity. The Finance Committee has done well to bring to everyone's attention its concern with the skyrocketing tax rate, and its statements have undoubtedly caused many to do some serious thinking. Those alarmed at the possibility of taxes beyond their means to pay will be looking to the Committee at town meeting to continue and intensify its opposition to expenditures it believes unnecessary at this time. We have mentioned the school building program because of the amount of money involved and the active campaign being waged in its behalf. The school proponents are by no means alone. There are other departments and groups girding their loins to battle for their desires. The Finance Committee is the last line of defense between these groups and the town meeting members who must decide for the entire town what money should be spent. Always a real responsibility, the role of precinct member is vital this year, a year in which it is essential to be sure of the issues involved. It will not be at all surprising if the town takes matters into its own hands via the referendum if the precinct members show a disposition to vote willily nilly for whatever the pressure groups happen to want!

SALUTE TO ARMY, AIR FORCE, AND NAVY RECRUITING SERVICES

To Editor of the Star:
 When Congress authorized the enlargement of our Armed Forces, a big assignment was handed our Recruiting Services, and many doubting Thomases said it couldn't be done—they forgot one thing—there is no such phrase as "it can't be done" in the vocabulary of the Recruiting Services, and as of today as far as enlisted personnel is concerned, the assignment has been practically accomplished. The Army, like the Navy, has reached the position where emphasis is on QUALITY not QUANTITY, but both must be maintained. Our present strength represents the amount of manpower needed for our present commitments; any further developments, it would seem to the writer, would mean increased manpower.

The above situation, coupled with the splendid demonstration of co-operation between the Armed Forces and Industry as illustrated by the several meetings held in Boston on 4 February, 1949, should give pause to any potential enemy. This fact was further emphasized in the WBZ broadcast of last Sunday when Maj. Genl. Frank A. Keating, First Service Command; Mr. Roy Williams, V. P. of Associated Industries; Mr. Crothers, Chairman of the Military Associations; Mr. McCarthy, V. P. N. H. & H. R. R.; and Mr. Liming of the Chamber of Commerce pointed out that close co-operation between Industry and the Armed Forces brings peace and security to this country. How many people know that railroad workers are taking night courses in military transportation as a preparedness precaution; that the shoe industry of Massachusetts made guns during the war; that the railroads have a Task Force working with the National Security Board? It took months to correct mistakes in planning during the last war because of not close enough co-operation—everyone concerned is determined that should trouble arise again the present Industry-Army co-operation will have eliminated all the bugs. General Keating paid honor to management and labor alike for their efforts during the last war for without them the man in uniform would be helpless. Inasmuch as the writer is giving the above from memory, apologies for the seeming discursiveness of not having full names, etc.

What we need next is a similar meeting of the Public Information Officers of the Armed Forces with representatives of press and radio to explain to the public what steps are being taken to bring necessary information to the public; of like co-operation; to iron out what amount of censorship is necessary in peacetime, etc. Boston should be an ideal place for such a meeting, for here, press, radio and the Public Information Officers are being most co-operative with this Military Manpower Committee and we have run into no censorship of any kind. The writer believes conservative New England is leading the field in bringing the media of public information together on matters pertaining to the Armed Forces.

Answering a question on the B-36—You will hardly find a B-36 at Bedford! The Convair B-36's are the largest land-based bombers in the world and are based at Eighth Air Force HQs, Carswell Air Force Base, Texas. With a wingspan of 230 ft. the B-36 is taller than a four-story building; longer than half a football field; iron, with wing tanks that hold enough fuel to drive an auto around the world 16 times; it weighs 163 tons.

Mr. P.—Americans DO have trouble understanding each other; the Navy is conducting tests on intelligibility of speech over radio-telephones. Speech scores of men with combat experience were no better than those of pre-flight students. Southerners and New Englanders have the hardest time understanding each other; mid-westerners have the best noise-penetrating voices, while Texans have a hard time understanding each other!

Mrs. R. I think the new fire-fighting suit your son is speaking about is the new aluminum foil suit which is described and pictured in the February copy of "Life of the Soldier and Airman." Copy is being sent you. It was developed in the Aero-Medical Laboratory, USAF, Wright Field; the entire suit weighs less than eight pounds and the eye-piece in the helmet will withstand more than 2000 pounds of shock and 2000 degrees of heat.

Very truly yours,
 GLADYS N. TOYE,
 Chairman
 Military Manpower Committee

RECREATION COMMISSION ACTED WITHOUT AUTHORITY!

Editor of the Star:
 The following is written to you with the wish you pass it on to those Winchester readers who desire to be kept informed correctly on items of interest in the Town.

For some months Aberjona Post No. 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Winchester, has been seeking quarters which will be suitable to us. Our present meeting hall is just that and nothing further. We use our present hall for two business meetings a month, they being the only time available to us.

We looked around the Town to see what building could be made available to us which would suit our needs, and of course our pocketbooks. The only building which fitted both qualifications we found to be the old Mystic School on Bacon street. Taking the second qualification first, we found that the building was Town Property and used by the Winchester Hobby Center, rent free. This fits our pocketbook and actually fits in the pocketbook of all Winchester Tax payers. Our present rental is being paid for by the Tax payers under an Article covered in the Town Warrant. While it was called to our attention that this building was turned over to the Hobby Center by the Winchester Town Recreation Committee we can find no authority for this Committee to do so.

We found that this building was turned over to the Recreation Committee by the School Committee. In the March 1946 Town Meeting it was voted that the above procedure be followed, the building passing from the School Committee to the Recreation Committee to the Hobby Center only if the School Committee notified the Selectmen that this building was no longer needed for School purposes. This provisional notification to the Selectmen never took place so we find the Recreation Committee without authority from the Town Meeting to handle the building as they have. We do find that the School Committee without releasing the school to the Selectmen contracted with the Recreation Committee on November 5, 1946, to turn the building over to the Recreation Committee "for use as a hobby center, or for any other educational, recreational, social, civic, philanthropic and like purpose, as the School Committee deems for the interest of the community." The quotes containing the actual wording binding the Recreation Committee's control of the building. We cannot find that the Recreation Committee has dealt fairly with our request for either joint or single occupancy on our part for though they were elected by the Town and responsible to the Town they felt they must abide by the vote of the Town Meeting of 1946. If their feelings are such, then why if the provisions of the Town Meeting vote were not carried out by the School Committee, did they feel they had authority to turn over this building to the Hobby Center. The Recreation Committee has not notified us they acted according to the School Committee vote and provisions of November 1946. If they had, we would then call to their attention a vote of the School Committee in December, 1948, taken at our request which reads as follows "That it be recorded as the sense of this meeting such an organization as the Veterans of Foreign Wars qualifies as an eligible organization under the above quoted language of the vote of this Committee of November 5, 1946."

I am beginning to think I should have started to write a serial on this subject. Allow me please to go just a bit further and state this: if anyone desires further details regarding the above or wishes to take exception to the above, Aberjona Post, No. 3719, will hold an open meeting in Waterfield Hall on February 22nd at 8:30 p. m. and any person attending will be listened to and replied to. After all, as a recognized National and Local Veterans organization, we are but looking for a fair deal, and so far we do not see that we have had one, in regard to the above matter.

ASKS WINCHESTER SURVEY BY EXPERTS FOR TAX PURPOSES

Its Sub-committee on Equalization of Taxation has submitted the following report to the Winchester Citizens Committee:

This is a report of your Committee on Equalization of Municipal Taxation, appointed December 5, 1948.

It is a fact well demonstrated at public meetings of the Citizens Committee early in 1948 that the municipal tax burden in Winchester was not then equitably distributed among the owners of taxable property. The valuations on which taxes were based were not in any uniform percentage of sound market value or value for use and there were wide variations from any standard of uniformity. Such a condition was one of unfair distribution of the Winchester tax burden, a situation intolerable for men of good will and honestly desiring to maintain and live by the principle of equal rights.

How and why this condition came about is clear on reflection. The unprecedented change in market value of substantially every property that began about 1940, threw an enormous burden on the Board of Assessors if they were to meet the situation in a manner that would continue equalization in their statements of taxable values. The operating methods of the Board of Assessors that had been simple and satisfactory for the period between 1920 and 1940 required revision and expansion to meet the new conditions. A part-time Board of Assessors without an adequate staff of appraisers could not possibly handle the enormous increase in the demand for personal time and expert opinion to maintain all Winchester valuations in any uniform proportion to actual value.

The Board of Assessors appear to have followed a program of doing the best they could with what they had, combined with wishful thinking that the new conditions would not last forever and that somehow they would get through without additional expert appraisal assistance that the situation required for a tolerable result. For eight years the situation has had no broad correction on a town-wide scale; there continues to be an unequal distribution of the tax burden in Winchester to an extent requiring public attention. We are told that the present Board of Assessors have made adjustments of a small percentage of the total assessments following specific complaints and have made a very modest start with complete revaluation of a very few small localities. This is not enough. The present program of the Board of Assessors will take longer to complete than is fair and just to many and nothing short of justice for all, those complaining and those not complaining, can be considered acceptable to the fair-minded citizens of Winchester.

We advocate that the Citizens' Committee continue its policy to work for the equalization of the tax burden in Winchester. In the amount of tax that one pays on real estate it does not matter whether valuations for local taxes are on the uniform basis of 30% or 70% of actual value provided all are assessed on a uniform relation of assessments to value. It does matter to each of us that equity in assessments shall be established now and hereafter. Let each assume his just share and ask no one to assume more, even for one year, to permit someone else to pay less than his share.

Present requirements for money for municipal use are staggering. The town does not want the expense of a scientific general revaluation but it ought to want fairness and justice for all. No proposal meeting the requirements has come to our attention other than that proposed by the Citizens' Committee a year ago; to employ outside, independent, expert praisers for municipal tax purposes, to recommend to the Assessors a schedule of appraisals covering all real estate, combined with a system suitable for Winchester for maintaining continuing equalization in the distribution of the Winchester tax burden.

Your Committee recommends that the Citizens' Committee continue to publicly advocate securing for the assistance of the Board of Assessors a complete new schedule of real estate values for municipal tax purposes from one independent and thoroughly competent source.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. DOWNER

The following from the Sarasota Herald Tribune, Fla., will prove of interest to the many friends of the late Eleanor Likens Downer.

Woman's Brer Fight Ended With Her Death

"Eleanor Likens Downer who died at the Sarasota Hospital Monday night, fought multiple myeloma four years, 30 months longer than the longest known case before."

"Stricken with the disease, a cousin to cancer which eats away the bone, four years ago at their former home in Winchester, Mrs. Downer refused, because of her husband, David R. Downer, and their small son David Robinson, Jr., to be an invalid. She lived through her first year of illness believing herself to have cancer, and pneumonia set in. Doctors were bewildered in her ability to live. Her strong and stout heart, her will to live, they said, carried her over the crisis."

"Then, at her suggestion, her X-rays and her history were sent to California, where Dr. Frank R. Ruff was experimenting with a new therapy. He having contacted her family physician, Dr. Roger Burgoyne, and others. After a few months of treatment Mrs. Downer was able to get around on crutches."

Still refusing to be treated as an invalid, still refusing to be kept inside and away from a normal life, Mrs. Downer asked to come to Florida, and the family packed belongings to make their home in Sarasota. She came here on crutches, and she used them for just one week. By that time she had lost five or six inches in height from the dreadful disease which was centered in her spinal column.

"Every day and all day, the Downers would rest on the beach. The sun and the salt water, Mrs. Downer believed joined hands with the X-ray treatments and his wife's will to live in enabling her to discard the crutches."

"Twice she returned North for treatments, but when the last attack sent her to a Tampa hospital for an additional one, she was sent home after 13 days with the report that they could do no more. Mrs. Downer believes that previous ones had built up an immunity. She entered Sarasota Hospital about November 1."

"Doctors have told Mr. Downer that they feel sure the case will receive discussion in several medical journals, they are still baffled. Her four years of life, much of it quite normal, are a striking contrast to the 18 months which was the previous extreme."

Mrs. Downer attributes it to her strong heart, her will to live, the sun and salt air and Dr. Ruff's therapy, which was, perhaps, tried on multiple myeloma for the first time with Mrs. Downer.

Mrs. Downer's request that flowers be omitted and that, instead friends send contributions in her memory to the American Cancer Society or The Winchester Branch of The Salvation Army, is, it seems a final token of the courage and love she showed during a four-year fight for her life with her family. -- J. S."

SCHOOL MEETING AT MYSTIC SCHOOL

An estimated 250 interested citizens attended the third open meeting of the School Committee and Junior High School Building Committee at the Mystic School last Thursday evening.

As at the previous meetings, Chairman Hazen Ayer related the history of Winchester's public schools, outlined briefly the duties of the school committee, and then called on Mr. Howard Bartlett and Mr. William Speers of the School Committee and Mr. Philip Wadsworth of the Junior High School building committee for details of the program for this year.

Mr. Bartlett showed the need for a Mystic School addition. Mr. Wadsworth showed slides of the proposed Junior High School addition, and Mr. Speers showed how the Town could finance the program over a twenty-year period at a rise of $1.16 on the tax rate.

There were no questions asked about the Mystic School wing or wings, it being the consensus of opinion that the need is apparent as a short trip around the area will easily demonstrate.

Questions were directed at the Junior High School addition. One questioner asked about the seating facilities in the Junior High School gymnasium. Another questioner wondered about omitting the building of the cafeteria and auditorium.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris, when asked at his office how he looked upon the Junior High School, said that he felt the need to have been stressed by the Committee and that investigations into the matter of borrowing money stressed that the present low rate of interest, 165 mills, is certainly an argument in favor of construction this year.

Asked how the Junior High School plans being recommended by this committee would affect the future high school, the Superintendent gave as his opinion that these plans could be adapted either to an enlargement of the present high school building, or an entirely new building. If the present high school building is enlarged and renovated, students could go there for their shop and home economics classes and use the cafeteria and auditorium. If a new building is to be erected, it could be located at the Main street end of the Athletic Field and the distance to the Junior High School would be no greater. The Junior High School plan is being recommended with the understanding that study of the high school problem begin at once. Therefore, the auditorium-cafeteria is an integral part of the overall plan.

Asked about the gymnasium seating, Dr. Norris said it would be very nice if the Town could afford two gymnasiums seating large numbers of people, but if only one were to be provided he preferred that it be a part of the high school plant, for the number of inter-scholastic games at the high school would be much larger than that called for by the junior high school program. "Furthermore," he said, "the cost of construction would be greatly reduced by keeping the larger gymnasium at the high school and a seating capacity of about 400 at the junior high school."

Summarizing the School Committee's requests, Mr. Ayer has stated that the Town will be asked to provide a Mystic School Building Committee and an appropriation to put into effect the plan brought forward by the Junior High School Building Committee. Also a building committee for the high school should be provided so that definite recommendations can be made.

Mr. Wadsworth hopes to have a definite estimate of the cost of the Junior High School additions ready for town meeting.

THE GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

The next regular meeting of the Guild will be held on Wednesday afternoon, February 23rd. Our sewing chairman Mrs. Thomas Higgins plans to be on hand with several (of the desperately needed) infants garments carefully cut out in the hope that the members will take them home to finish in order that she may send a sizeable number to the Catholic Charitable Bureau shortly. This meeting also marks the beginning of the best and busiest three months in the organization's annual programme.

Plans with privileges to participate in same for all new and old members will be openly discussed in connection with the very festive Spring bridge, the annual Communion Breakfast and other equally important dates and decisions.

Your attendance and co-operation is most sincerely solicited.

MR. MACCALLUM TO SPEAK ON RECENT TRIP TO CLEVELAND

Mr. Donald J. MacCallum, Minister of Second Congregational Church, will speak Sunday morning on the meeting of the General Council of Congregational-Christians Churches last week in Cleveland.

At that meeting the General Council took final action towards consummating the merger of the Congregational-Christians Churches with the Evangelical and Reformed church, the merged denominations to be known as the United Church of Christ.

Mr. MacCallum will discuss the spirit of the Cleveland Council and interpret the effect of the favorable merger vote on the Congregational Churches. While the merger of two denominations of diverse backgrounds and unlike polity is another step towards Protestant Unity, it creates problems and difficulties which have yet to be solved. These will be discussed by Mr. MacCallum who will also point out what future developments may be expected within the uniting churches.

John Nicol Mark, well known Minister of the First Parish in Arlington, will be the guest speaker at the Adult Group of Second Congregational Church, February 17.

Mr. Mark is known throughout New England as a speaker and lecturer of unusual ability. His address "The Three F's—Fear, Fatalism or Faith," is based on his observations of conditions in Europe where he travelled last summer. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Austin Nanry and Mrs. Walter Wingate.

MEN'S HOBBY NIGHT

The Men's Club of the First Congregational Church will hold a Hobby Night, Thursday evening, February 17, at 8 o'clock, in the Parish Hall. Mr. Anson M. DuBois will discuss "Your Hobby and What are You Like." Mr. DuBois is a member of the Executive Staff of Human Engineering Laboratory, Inc., of Boston. The work of this laboratory is widely known throughout the United States for its achievements in the analysis of the aptitudes of men and women for industrial work and of students for vocational and scholastic training. Mr. DuBois will discuss aptitudes as they relate to hobbies. There will also be an exhibition of hobbies and all men of the Church are urged to place their hobbies on exhibition.

WINCHESTER BEATS ATHOL

LEGION, 6 TO 3
The local hockey club, five cars and twelve players strong, plus a few loyal supporters, made the long hike to the Millers River Valley last Sunday and invaded Athol, winning its game, 6-3, from the Athol American Legion Hockey Club, a team which has been playing together several years and is boasting its own private rink in the middle of a town whose citizens appear to be all rabid supporters of athletics in general and general hockey in particular. In fact the impending approach of the Winchester team was heralded in large headlines on the sporting page of the Athol newspaper.

Praise is due the strong offensive play of the Winchester forwards, who all skated well. Wimpy Buttnett starred in this respect, with Bob Collins next in line. On defense Don Ellis put on another superb exhibition. Billy Dingwell supported him ably and dealt out some rugged body checks. White of the forwards and Bryant on defense excelled for Athol. The game was cleanly played, there being but one penalty on Winchester and two on Athol. The Legionaires extended hospitality to their visitors after the game in the form of hot coffee and doughnuts served in the Legion House close by. Next game, Stoneham Hockey Club at the Boston Arena, Saturday night at 10:30.

WINCHESTER TOPPED READING

Best Ball of year in 43-35 Victory
Winchester High won a nice 43 to 35 victory over Reading High at the local gym last Friday night. It was one of the best home games of the year as the Red and Black displayed their best basketball of the season for their home fans. This victory serves to emphasize what a factor Winchester would have been in the League race if they had not been plagued by sickness and hard luck in the first half of the season.

The Winchester Seconds did not fare as well as they went down to a 38 to 30 defeat at the hands of the Reading Seconds. The Red and Black made it a close game for the first three periods but did not have the scoring punch to overtake the visitors.

THE HARMONIZERS PLAYING AT NEXT WEEK'S C.Y.O. SHOW
C.Y.O. MUSICAL SHOW HAS OLD AND NEW FACES

Tickets are going fast for the C.Y.O. Musical Show at the Winchester High School Auditorium on February 15 and 17 at 8:00 P. M. sharp. Do not wait until the day of the show to obtain tickets, if it can possibly be helped. The capacity of the auditorium is limited and a Policeman and Fireman will be present, by law, to insure that there will be no overcrowding.

Many of the perennial favorites will be back again namely: The Harmonizers, nine piece Orchestra; The Four Johnsons, acrobatic dancers; Bob Horne; Dottie Hickley; Bob and Dick Fiore; Phyllis O'Neil; Maureen and Sheila Cullen; Kay Parlett; Ray Pierce; Newell; Purinton; and many others with a singing and dancing chorus made up of Senior C.Y.O. members, boys and girls.

The Production Staff is busily engaged in assembling scenery, painting and repairing it while arranging lighting and spot-light effects. The Candy Committee is busy at work on this phase of the show with the Girl Scouts being lined up to be Aides for that Committee. There will be two intermissions during which candy will be sold. The ushering will be taken care of by men of the Holy Name Society assisted by the Boy Scouts.

The Harmonizers, Winchester's popular young men's Orchestra, have through their leader Johnny Hammond, signified their intention of providing a program of popular music for the benefit of those who will be among the "early comers." This is in addition to their regular part in the show.

RED CROSS AIDED VETS

Local Red Cross canteen workers traveled to Bedford last Sunday to prepare a tea for the Open House held there by the veterans at Bedford Hospital for their families and friends. Over 500 attended the Open House, one of the largest to be held there. Mrs. H. D. Townley-Tilson was in charge of arrangements, with Mrs. Carl Zimmerman, Miss Margaret Copland, Mrs. George French, Mrs. Kingman Cass, and Mrs. W. E. Ramsdell.

These same ladies had worked hard the Thursday previous at the Blood Donor Day mobile unit, serving refreshments to donors and to workers. Also on the committee with these ladies, under Miss Dorothy Hall's chairmanship, was Mrs. Harris Richardson, Mrs. Roland Fletcher, Mrs. Raymond Strawbridge, Mrs. Edith Harris, Miss Ann Gleason. Blood Donor Day's activities were helped greatly by the splendid work of Joseph Santo, Jr. of the Junior Red Cross, who did countless jobs that day for the Unit, and by Mr. Francis McFeeley of the Boy Scouts, and Mr. Leon Smith of the First Congregational staff.

Last Saturday morning's alarm from Box 42 at 7:43 was for a fire in the blower system of the split shop at Beggs & Cobb's tannery. Little damage was done.

WINCHESTER WOMAN CHAIRMAN OF CROSSCUP-PISHON RUMMAGE SALE

Mrs. William M. Selberg, 8 Marchant road, is the newly elected general chairman of the women's committee in charge of the 12th annual Crosscup-Pishon Post rummage sale to be held Tuesday, April 12, in Horticultural Hall, Boston.

This child-welfare project, sponsored annually by the Boston advertising men's post of the American Legion, has been Boston's biggest rummage sale, both in attendance and total proceeds, every year since it was originated.

"When city bricks are hottest," lucky youngsters go hallooing out of town in happy, hilarious busloads to spend ten unforgettable days and nights in the Salvation Army's famed Camp Wonderland on the woodland shores of Lake Massapoag, Sharon.

Mrs. Selberg's metropolitan committees and the Crosscup-Pishon Post are now appealing to their friends and the public to contribute all sorts of usable and repairable clothing, furs, furniture, shoes, books, bric-a-brac, household goods, china, glass, kitchenware, jewelry and knick-knacks. All such items may be sent or delivered to the Crosscup-Pishon Post, A. L. in care of the Boston Storage Warehouse, Forsyth St. at Huntington avenue, near the Museum of Fine Arts.

Through Mrs. Selberg (WI 6-1760) and two other Winchester matrons, who are on the executive committee, arrangements may be made to have rummage donations picked up at the home of the donor. These include Mrs. Francis C. Norton, 387 Main street (WI 6-0922) and Mrs. H. Lyman Ames, 410 Main street (WI 6-3162-M).

"Don't throw it away—throw it THEIR way."

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Last Saturday afternoon a large audience greeted Mrs. Clayton Jenks of Boylston Center, as she spoke before the Winchester Historical Society, at the Winchester Public Library, on "Old Houses," with colored films. Not only were members and local guests present, but neighboring Historical Societies sent delegates to this meeting, and such towns as Medford, Woburn, Somerville, Reading, Wakefield and Arlington were well represented. Mrs. George E. Connor presided, with reports from Miss Louise Bancroft, secretary; Miss Laura B. Tolman, treasurer; Miss Clara R. Russell, curator. At the close of the program, the Historical Room in the library was open to visitors and all were much interested in the items displayed there.

Mrs. Jenks told the fascinating story of American homes from the early days when the English settlers came to these shores on the Arabella and on the Mayflower, of their first bark homes and their attempts to wrest food and shelter from the land they found. She traced the stages of American homes from that first thatched roof stage to the garrison type, the Georgian and Cape Cod homes, explaining how each type came into being. Her exquisite films showed present historic houses in Salem, Marblehead, Newburyport, Duxbury, Portsmouth, Wiscasset, and other towns, from the carefully preserved 1600 houses to the magnificent McIntyre-designed homes of Salem. With her story of houses, Mrs. Jenks interwove stories of the early customs and ways of life.

Harry Good who conducted a riding school here for many years is reported to be seriously ill at his home in Medford.

Within An Hour... Someone Will Be Burned To Death

America's annual sacrifice to fire is 10,000 human beings and three hundred million dollars worth of property. The frightful loss of life averages about 30 people per day—more than one an hour. Most of the victims are women and children.

We all fear fire and particularly dread the idea that a fire may break out while we are sound asleep and that we may be overcome by smoke and burned to death.

Sleeping families—women and children—helplessly trapped in their homes—perish in the night. They didn't expect the fire any more than you expect one. Had these fires been discovered when they started, it would perhaps have been a different story—probably no story at all.

Most fires could easily and quickly be extinguished if discovered in time. If you have never experienced the shock of standing helpless while a fire consumes your home and possessions, you cannot realize what a feeling of security one has when a proper equipment is installed to immediately give you warning that fire has started.

"The GARDSMAN" Fire Detector and Alarm doesn't give a fire a chance to gain control—it sounds a loud alarm almost as soon as a predetermined heat is reached. "The GARDSMAN" is a Fire Detector and Alarm complete in itself that does not depend on the human element to start

THE GARDSMAN
Eliminates the danger of being trapped by fire

it, nor does it depend on electrical power—batteries—fuses, or the like. It is a strongly built mechanical device, controlled by a sensitive metal thermostat which starts the alarm when the temperature indicates danger.

An overheated furnace is detected by this delicate instrument, which sends out warning of possible danger. Simple to install, no maintenance expense and the cost very low. Come in right now and see a demonstration or ask us to send a representative to your home, without cost or obligation.

MODERN ART AT LIBRARY

It's moderns this month at the Library Art Gallery with the Winchester Art Association showing paintings from the Boris Mirsky Galleries. There is a lot of color in the show, much of it pleasing and some undeniably beautiful. There is also some good drawing, strange as it may seem, witness that large canvas, "Mother and Daughter" by Barbara Swan and that clean-cut painting, "Lynn Gas and Electric Company" by Bessy Creighton, which looks almost like a lithographed illustration on an industrial calendar.

The Swan painting would grace the most conservative show, if you will except the background, the pose of the figures being admirable, each in its age bracket, while the expressions, features, flesh tones and costumes are wholly natural.

Ann Lyman has expressed the utter weariness and resignation of the type of person she paints in her "Woman Knitting", a thought-provoking, if not particularly pleasing, study. "Street in Paris" by Glenna Miller has a lot of atmosphere and perspective, if not draftsmanship. There is excellent detail in the gilded wall lantern, and much human interest in the realistically painted old man slumping down the street on his cane.

"Shoes" by Ellsworth Kelley is a most unusual large study of many sorts of well-worn male footwear, huddled together on a nondescript floor of the shower or locker-room type, well drawn and embellished with a pair of bare feet in the upper right background.

These studies just about run the gamut of those easily appreciated by your average observer. The others may well want a bit of interpretation. You can however appreciate the fluidity and beauty of color in "Serenade" by Esther Geller, even if you can't understand it, and wonder about the abstract, "Still Life" by Herbert Lieberman, a dimensional painting that also has color appeal.

Strikingly imaginative, if of little beauty, is "Astrological Symbol" by John Northey, depicting a goat's head and forelegs on a fish's body, done in yellow and green against a roughly painted brown background.

"Schooner" by Carl C. Nelson is remarkable for its unusual sky and sea treatment and for its streaks of canary yellow through the white ship. Not the conventional ship picture by quite a long shot, but daring, you can't question that either, any more than you can the courage that prompted the scarlet red buildings across the street in "Philadelphia Interior" by Frank Carbone. It probably took a bit of doing to get those buildings properly in perspective with that vivid shade.

The drawing seems crude in this study, but obviously the artist is not concerned with perfection, any more than Bernard Cheete is with proportion in his "Self Portrait", showing a young man in a brownish smock preternaturally attenuated to appear tall beyond belief.

You will look again and again at "Autumn" by Fay Abrahams, showing a single tree that resembles a big ball of that luscious metallic red color that makes Christmas tree ornaments so fascinating, resting upon a tiny trunk against an equally beautiful background of that luminous purplish blue you find in peacock feathers.

By all means see this show. You may not like it, but there seem to be many who do like what the moderns do, and the Art Association does well to give its members the chance to see this particular art form. And if you should happen to run into Mrs. Lobinger in the gallery, you can find out the "why" of much that will probably puzzle you. Even then you may not like it. We have to admit we don't!

WINCHESTER MEN RECEIVE PATENT

On January 25, 1949, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,460,291 on a "Laminated Envelope Structure" for Electron Discharge Devices" to John G. Trump, Winchester, and Robert W. Cloud, Lexington.

The preferred form of high voltage x-ray tubes, or similar devices that are used in nuclear research, comprises a series of alternate metallic and glass insulating rings properly sealed to each other and interposed between two electrodes to which power is applied. To get a clear picture of these devices, it should be noted that a typical tube has an over-all length of about four feet, an outside diameter of about three inches, with the diameter of the opening in each metal ring being about one inch. These metal discs are placed one third of an inch apart from each other, and they extend for a length of about twenty-four inches within the tube.

Heretofore these metallic and glass sections were sealed to each other by heating them until the glass softened and became plastic, at which time the parts assumed their final spaced relation. However, according to Messrs. Trump and Cloud, these methods were not entirely satisfactory in that they necessitated the use of materials with approximately the same rate of expansion under heat, caused deformation of the glass elements, and resulted in an impaired electrical performance.

It is therefore the object of their invention to provide a solution to this problem, and for this purpose, they have discovered that an adequate bond may be obtained by using a thin film of special plastic material as the adhesive medium between the parts. As advantages of their system, all of the discs of a tube may be mounted on a mandrel and secured together in a single heating operation; their mechanical strength in tension is over 2,000 pounds per square inch; and more than 2,000,000 volts may be safely applied to the tube. Furthermore, the electrical and mechanical properties of the apparatus remain unimpaired for a long period of time, and there is complete freedom of choice of materials for both the insulating and metallic members.

This patent has been assigned to the Research Corporation, New York, N. Y.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The United States had a government for the people, but not yet by the people. There was a governing class in the town, the state, and the nation. The log-cabin was not regarded as a breeding-place for statesmen, and if a fortune-teller had whispered in the ear of Jefferson that the babe in Nancy Hank's arms would one day sit in the President's chair, the imagination even of that great Democrat would have been staggered.

Lincoln's death, as well as his birth, seems remote to the people of this generation. It is commonly said that life has changed quite as much in the few decades which have passed since he died as it sometimes has changed in an equal number of centuries. Certainly the country, which he did the most to save, his grown more in population in that brief period than it grew in the two hundred and fifty years before. Its growth in wealth and luxury has been even more astounding. One of our multi-millionaires today could have brought and sold all the millionaires of the world in 1865. Probably there is one railway system now with as much mileage as there was in all the land and then. One city in these days has as many people as there were in all the cities together in those days.

Life is so swift that men of middle age think of Abraham Lincoln as among the ancients.

Distance, however, does not dim the fame of Lincoln. The years only increase the force of the lesson which his life teaches. Time and change have served to make his example even more needed and more useful.

As the strife in which he spent himself recedes and subsides, his figure looms larger and clearer. Controversy has fallen away from him. He no longer leads a party, as Jefferson and Hamilton still do. All parties invoke his name. In the growing harmony and security of the federation of states, he is ceasing to be the chieftain of a section. In the end all Southerners will claim him, as many Southerners already are claiming him.

The self-respect of the new South does not require that a line he spoke or wrote be stricken out. He stands as the true prophet of the reunited people in this happier day, when the mere reminders of the battles between fellow-countrymen have long been dropped from the regimental standards of the army of the nation and the very name of rebellion has been discarded by the government at Washington.

"The Union with him, in sentiment, rose to the sublimity of a religious mysticism," said Alexander H. Stephens, the Vice-president of the Confederacy, while Henry W. Grady, the most eloquent spokesman of that great and flourishing South, which has risen from the devastation of war, pronounced him "the first typical American, the first who comprehended within himself all the strength and gentleness, all the majesty and grace of this republic."

"In truth, Lincoln is rising above politics entirely. The concrete issues, for which he directly stood as a statesman, are of the past. He is coming more and more to stand for social rather than political principles, - for democracy in all things, in all lands.

"His countrymen are thus moving to place him on the broadest, firmest, and most enduring basis, where the vicissitudes of politics and government cannot reach him. It will take him time to be even national, and that all the races of his 'plain people' everywhere, catching the inspiration of his career, will make universal the old chant: -

"We are coming, Father Abraham!"

Whether Lincoln ranks with, or outranks, Washington, is an old but not important question. Comparison is unnecessary.

"Men who may be counted off in pairs, whether in history or among our everyday associates, are not interesting. A real man suggests no one but himself. Abraham Lincoln was not made in any other man's mould, and when he was made his mould was broken."

"As a brave, adroit, and patriotic soldier, Washington led the American people to independence. As a wise, prudent and incorruptible statesman, he led them in establishing a government. He was the foremost American in the last twenty-five years of his life."

"On the other hand, Lincoln was on the national stage hardly half a dozen years. Until his debate with Douglas in 1858, he was unknown outside of Illinois. So brief a record, however crowded, could not account for so great a renown."

When we think of Washington we think of what he did. When we think of Lincoln we think of what he was. True, he wielded a greater and more despotic authority than ever wielded. Nevertheless, he was remembered and revered more as a man of ideals than as a man of power.

The smoke of battle has rolled away from Lincoln. We know he was the master of generals and the leader of armies; but that is not the picture which posterity carries in its mind's eye. The Kentucky log-cabin, and not the White House, is in the background of that familiar picture. He is surrounded not with the gleaming bayonets of the martial millions whom he commanded, but by the primeval forest of his Indian wilderness, an axe rather than a sword in his hand.

We dwell less on his triumphs at the bar than on his achievements in arithmetic on a wooden shovel, with a lump of charcoal for a pencil. Often we see him among his rustic familiars on the banks of the Sangamon than in the camp of his grand army on the Potomac, among his bucolic equals in the streets of Springfield than with his outlanders in the avenues of Washington. His little Gettysburg address is worth more to us than all his official messages to Congress.

We mark the height of glory which he gained, but chiefly to measure his lifelong struggle upward from the depths of poverty and ignorance, whence he rose.

A passionate protest assails the historian, who attempts to remove or modify a single trace of the disadvantages over which he triumphed. That is the Lincoln who is sacred to us. That is the Lincoln whom Americans claim wholly as their own.

Other nations have bred great statesmen, but other nations have not bred them the way Lincoln was bred, "as God made Adam," said Lowell, "out of the very earth, un-ancestried, unprivileged, unknown."

Napoleon might boast he made his marshals out of mud, but he did not make his statesmen from that material. In the upheaval of war, men sometimes rise from the bottom. In the work of peace, the upper crust generally remains intact. Even the French Revolution did not develop one peasant leader among its statesmen.

Lincoln's greatness is still a mystery, to many a miracle. Possibly it may have been fundamentally the common sense of a common man. The word does not yet know, for it has no standard by which to judge him, since he is the only common man who has walked in a high place without losing his commonness, the only man of the people in the pages of history whom no honor could exalt above his native simplicity.

It was reserved for Lincoln to verify to the world the American contention, proclaimed in 1776, that all men are fit to govern themselves. It remains for future generations to catch the full meaning of his life.

If his countrymen to-day should see ahead of them a task like his in the Civil War, would they dare to choose one of his bringing up for that task? Would they not put their trust in training rather than in character - in an expert rather than in a man?

At the resistless progress of democracy, the race will learn 'how much truth, how much magnanimity, and how much statecraft await the call of opportunity in simple manhood, when it believes in the justice of God and the worth of man.' Then, it may be, that the career of Lincoln will cease to be a riddle, and that a line of Lincolns will, like him, spring from the soil - yes, even from city pavements - and usher in the reign of common men and common sense.

Meanwhile, all men may find in Lincoln's life an inspiration against every obstacle in their pathway, whether they be choppers, fishers, or ploughmen. As toil and hope redeemed him, so any one may redeem himself from poverty, illiteracy, and obscurity, the disinherited may claim their inheritance, the unschooled may make their scantiest leisure their teacher, and the benighted how their way out of the wilderness of ignorance.

As Washington is the father of his country, so Lincoln stands for the brotherhood of the American people. He himself passed through all classes and belonged to none. The boast of heraldry and the claim of privilege are covered with irony in the presence of "This kind of princes peer, This rail-splitter, a true-born king of men."

As the Christian church always returns from afar to its humble source in the rude manger of Bethlehem, so must Americans, while the name of Lincoln lasts, own their kinship with the low-born, the poor, and the ignorant.

FROM ELECTRIC LIGHT... TO ELECTRONIC SIGHT

His genius still shows the way!

Add another to the long list of modern miracles made possible by the genius of Thomas Alva Edison. His inventions gave the world not only electric light, but also the phonograph... the motion picture camera... the radio microphone... and home electric service. Each of these in turn contributed to the creation of the miracle of electronic sight - television!

Your Boston Edison Company - this month marking its sixty-third anniversary of service - honors today the 102nd anniversary of the birthday of this great American whose God-given talents enriched the world.

Edison's invention of the incandescent lamp was the first step that led to the electronic development of today's cathode ray tube, heart of every television set!

WINCHESTER BOY SCOUT NEWS

Exposition Plans Move Forward

All Winchester Boy Scout Troops and Cub Packs are buzzing with activity these days in preparation for the huge Scout Exposition to be held at the Winchester High School on April 30th. Not only Winchester Scouts, but some 1,500 Scouts Cubs, and Senior Scouts from Medford, Stoneham, Woburn and Burlington will take part in this impressive event. Every Scout unit will have a booth at the show, depicting various phases of Scouting, and a continuous stage program will run from 2 P. M. to 10 P. M. with Scouts and Cubs demonstrating various Scouting skills including knot tying, pyramid building, tug-of-war, bugling, Morse signaling, fire by flint and steel, fire by friction, and many others.

Vin Erhard, of Winchester, Publicity Chairman of the Exposition, has revealed that there will be a gala, Scout parade on Sunday, April 24th, as a preview to the big show. A Scouting poster contest is now in progress through the cooperation of the various school departments, and Scouts and Cubs will submit pen and ink drawings to their unit leaders which will be judged in another contest by Ed Dodd, who draws the popular cartoon comic strip, "Mark Trail," and who was associated for eighteen camping seasons with Dan Beard, famous "granddaddy" of Scouting.

Scout Sunday at the First Baptist Church and St. Mary's

This is Boy Scout Week, and to climax this 39th anniversary of Scouting in America, all Winchester Scouts and Cubs will attend church services as a group this Sunday, February 13th, Protestant boys will assemble at 10:15 A. M. in the Recreation Hall of the First Baptist Church. Catholic boys from all over Fellsland Council will assemble at St. Mary's School at 2 P. M. All boys and leaders will be in full uniform and each unit will carry its unit and American flag. At the protestant service, Rev. Bailey will present Church Scout Awards to boys who have earned them, and at the Catholic service awards will be made for advancement to all First Class Scouts and ranks above, and for Cubs who have attained the rank of Webelos.

Two Eagle Scouts Last Year

Last year, two Winchester boys became Eagle Scouts... the highest rank in Scouting. One boy became a Life Scout; four won their Star badge; eighteen Scouts gained First Class rank; and twenty-three Scouts won their Second Class badge. Of the 332 boys in Scouting in Winchester last year, 128 were Boy Scouts; 194 were Cub Scouts; and 10 were Senior Scouts.

It is interesting to note that half the boys in our senior high schools have had Scouting experience and hold most of the elective offices... 60 per cent to 90 per cent of the student bodies of leading universities were former Scouts... more than 65 per cent of all Rhodes scholars were once Boy Scouts... and according to official recognition, Scouts have, in 1,700 instances, saved lives mainly through skills learned in Scouting.

What are Cub Scouts?

The Cub Pack is the "little fellow's club" of Scouting. It is the "feeder" for the Scout Troop. The Cub "learns by doing" in the Pack what the Scout learns in the Troop. He begins to learn nature lore, skill with tools, and most important of all, he learns loyalty to his group. Cubbing is a home-centered activity under the leadership of Den Mothers who have from four to eight boys in their Den meeting once a week at the Den Mother's home. Once a month all Dens meet at the Pack meeting and show what they have been working on during the month.

Cub Pack 12 Holds Monthly Meeting

The January meeting of Pack 12, of the Winchester Cub Scouts was held in St. Mary's School on Friday evening, January 28th with Cubmaster Ralph Ambrose in charge. Rev. John O'Neil and many parents and friends were in attendance.

Den 2, led by Mrs. Leo Manoli, Den Mother, presented an interesting skit entitled, "The Eight Best Doctors." William Gurrill performed a fine solo number ably assisted by the chorus. Other boys taking part in the skit were Richard Mawn, John Mawn, Joseph Russo, Richard DeMinico, Thomas Grace, Ralph Kerrigan, and Joseph Keating.

Refreshments were served and everyone agreed that it was a very pleasant evening.

At the meeting, the Bear Book was awarded to Robert Winn, John Enright, Kelvin McElhinney, Michael Connolly, and Andrew Connolly. Joseph Smith and Charles Cogan received their Lion Book. Wolf badges and pins were awarded to Richard DeMinico, William Gurrill, and Peter Kirk. Francis Boes won his Lion badge and pin; Joseph Russo won Bear and Wolf badges and pins; Richard Mawn and John Mawn received Bobcat pins; John Enright won the Wolf pin; David Loftus received Assistant Denner stripes; Richard Cummings won the Bear badge and pin, and Daniel Doherty received his Winchester strip, Den and Pack numerals, Wolf book, and Bobcat pin.

Troop 12 Prepares For Musical Show

Troop 12, of St. Mary's Church, was very successful in its attempt to raise funds by selling Christmas wreaths this past Christmas season. Scout Laurence Erhard, for example, sold over 70 wreaths for Troop 12 and won a Knife and Hatchet set for his efforts. The Scouts of Troop 12 are busily preparing for a musical show to be held at the High School Auditorium on February 15th and 17th by C. Y. O., sponsors of Troop 12.

Troop 7 — Pack 7 to Hold Parents' Night Monday

Troop 7 and Pack 7 are busily preparing for their joint Cub-Scout Parents' Night to be held at the First Baptist Church this Monday evening. The program starts at 6:30 P. M. with a supper prepared by Scout mother Mrs. Mullen and her committee. All parents and friends of Troop 7 and Pack 7 are cordially invited to attend this affair.

Troop 7 devoted Saturday, January 29 to working on their booth for the coming Scout Exposition April 30th. The boys are making a model of their Troop campsite, "Pine Hill Camp." Russ McLeod and Ken Hiscope made tiny puppets, Don MacFeeley made a miniature table, Dave Ripley worked on a lean-to, Jim Ekstrom made a tiny fireplace grill, and Stuart Carlisle moulded miniature Scouts from clay. Meanwhile Paul Leverette Ken Cleaves, and Phil Dresser worked on the model itself.

If a stranger had walked into Troop 7's meeting on Monday, January 31st, he would have thought the whole Troop had gone crazy! Scoutmaster Millican formed the boys in a circle and gave each Scout a balloon. At the signal, each boy tried to see who could be first to blow up his balloon until it burst. Such puffing! Such explosions! As each balloon burst, the boys found notes inside them instructing them to do all kinds of odd things such as "dance a jig," "make believe you're a train," "kick the boy next to you," "shake hands with your neighbor." David Thoms, a Troop 7 Committeeman, thinks he knocked a rib out of joint laughing so hard!

In a recent Troop 7 essay contest, David Ripley won with this entry, (which is a good way to close this week's column): "I like Scouting because I enjoy the different requirements needed to get my awards. I enjoy the trips and outdoor life. Scouting helps me to become a better citizen in every way and to help the others, in home, church, and school."

A fire in the kitchen oven called the fire department to the home of Mrs. Frederick Bradford at 33 Mystic avenue Sunday forenoon. The fire was of slight consequence but the firemen had to use the smoke ejector to rid the room of smoke.

TEACHERS GOING TO SCHOOL AGAIN

More than fifty teachers crowded into Room 13 at Winchester High School last Tuesday, Feb. 1, to attend the opening session of a new course "Audio-Visual Aids" offered by the Boston University-Harvard University Extension service. Dr. Abraham Krasker is the Instructor.

Although several of the teachers are from surrounding towns, thirty-five or more are from the Winchester Public Schools.

The course, which will consist of fourteen two-hour classes and an examination, carries full graduate school credit toward advanced degrees. Teachers will learn about the best use of films, projectors, and various pieces of sound apparatus.

ENAMELING, AN ANCIENT ART

Vitreous enamels were first made by the inhabitants of the Aegan Island in the Sixth Century B. C.
It is the art of baking glass, chemically treated to give it color and in some cases, transparency, on metal. There are only certain metals that can be used and the enamel on metal is fired at 1500° in a furnace for approximately three minutes. It is fascinating to see the transition of color the enamels go thru under certain firing conditions.

This art is not taught in New England, but Kay Whitcomb is starting a series of lessons at the Aquilum Studio, 1 Mt. Vernon street, beginning February 14th on Monday and Thursday evenings.
- This course will consist of a basic background of the history, contemporary, and types of enameling.
Articles will be fashioned by the students and also constructive help will be given in the development of designs in enamels. Classes will be limited to three students, due to the lack of space. Class instruction will be one dollar an hour for a three hour lesson. Private lessons are five dollars - There will be a small laboratory fee of seventy-five cents for five lessons. Call

FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

ROBERT A. JOHNSTON

Voters of Winchester:

I am a candidate for Park Commissioner. I have no detailed knowledge of the duties of the office, but I am interested in the overall problem of parks and playgrounds as they affect those who use them and those who have to pay the bills to keep them in proper shape.

I believe our park and playground problem is essentially town-wide and that our funds and effort should be expended so far as possible to secure for each plot and recreational group its fair share of both. I believe in keeping our public plots and playgrounds in the best shape possible.

I was born in Malden, December 24, 1896, am a graduate of Northeastern University and a sales metallurgist, if that helps. I was for two years an instructor in metallurgy at M. I. T.

I have lived in Winchester 17 years, own my own home, am married and have three children. Civically I served as chief of the Auxiliary Police in the Winchester Civilian Defense, and I am presently in charge of the Winchester Rifle Range used by junior and senior high school students and by the Auxiliary Police. I am a veteran of World War I and a member of Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion.

If you think I can be of service to the town as a Park Commissioner, and think enough of my qualifications to give me your vote, I will appreciate it. I promise, if elected, to do my best to serve the whole town efficiently and impartially.

CHURCH PLANS REHABILITATION FUND

At the Annual Meeting of the First Congregational Church, January 23rd, it was unanimously voted to raise a Rehabilitation Fund of $27,500 by special subscription of its members.

On account of the shortage of materials and man-power during the recent war, only incidental repairs could be taken care of in connection with the physical property of the Church. There is now considerable essential work to be done, such as repainting the interior and exterior, improvement of the parking space on the Vine street side of the Church, and landscaping of the grounds.

The imposing Church Edifice, which is nearly one hundred years old, is an outstanding landmark, and is a source of interest and pride to the citizens of the entire community, and it deserves utmost care, not only on account of its intrinsic value, but also because of its historic significance. Its estimated replacement value is $750,000.

CARLISLE AGAIN APPOINTED

Mr. Wendell C. Carlisle of 20 Sargent road, has again received appointment to the President's Field Staff of his company and has been notified of this by Mr. B. L. Holland, President of the Phoenix Mutual Life Ins. Co. of Hartford, Conn. This is the third time Mr. Carlisle has attained this honor, which is given for an excellent record of sales and service of life insurance.

ABSENT VOTERS BALLOTS

Registered voters who expect to be absent from Winchester on the day of the Town Election, March 7, 1949, may obtain applications for Absent Voter Ballots at the Town Clerk's Office in the Town Hall.

220 PARENTS ATTEND OPEN HOUSE AT FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SCHOOL

A most successful Open House program for parents and friends of children in the First Congregational Church was held Sunday, February 13.

At 10 a. m. 55 parents crowded the Kindergarten Room for a demonstration session of the Kindergarten conducted by Mrs. Colver P. Dyer, assisted by Mrs. John L. Heaton, Sylvia Smith, and a corps of H. S. girls.

At 4 p. m. parents and friends of children in the Primary, Junior, and Intermediate Departments came with their children to see the Church School in action. Parents of the Junior High Department came without their children since they had had their regular session in the morning. Mrs. Charles Vanner for the Primary Department, Mrs. Clarence Wickerson for the Junior Department, Mr. Edward Robinson for the Intermediate Department conducted the regular departmental worship service with the parents observing. Then parents and children went with the teachers to their classrooms for a regular lesson period, after which the children were excused for movies in the Social Hall while parents remained in the classrooms to become acquainted with the teacher and learn something of the course their child is studying and the aims of the teacher.

Junior High parents met with their children's teachers, followed by a period with Mrs. Norman Padelford, Superintendent, on the aims and materials of the Junior High Department.

At 5 p. m., all parents were invited into beautiful Ripley Chapel for a brief worship period conducted by Rev. Donald B. Tarr. Mrs. Tarr spoke briefly on the subject, "Parents Are Teachers."

At 5:25 parents were invited to join their children and the Church School staff for refreshments in the Social Hall, where there were two excellent display tables for the parents' inspection. Mrs. Robert Keeney had charge of the booktable assisted by Mrs. Murray Moore.

Mrs. Norman Padelford arranged a display table of audio-visual aids being used in this Church School, showing such things as film strips, lantern slides made by a class of sixth grade children, felt-o-graph pictures, a group of Palestinian houses used in the Primary Department, phonograph records used by the Junior Department on "How We Got Our Bible," maps of world missions, and books on Africa, India, and Christian World Ahead made by the young people of the Junior High Department. A chart showing how the offering funds of the Church School have been spent for Church projects and benevolences, and an attendance and enrollment graph made by Mr. Chester Smith, Executive Superintendent of the Church School, were on display.

Mrs. Alexander Clark, Superintendent of the Nursery Department, assisted by Mrs. F. M. Cooper and Mrs. Arthur T. Rogde and a group of High School girls, were on duty both at 10:45 for the regular Nursery School hour, and in the afternoon to care for small children so the parents could attend the Open House.

Gordon Bird, Jr., Scott Cunningham, Dick Rush, Lester Moulton, Douglas Hawkins, George DeCamp, Edward Tarr, Joan Moore, and Katherine Kneeland served as guides.

The refreshment committee was composed of Mr. Edward Robinson, Mr. Richard Lewis, Mr. William Sleeper, Mrs. Clarence Blake, Miss Priscilla Blake, Mrs. Donald Powers, Mrs. Franklin McDermott, all members of the teaching staff of the Intermediate Department.

The Open House had been planned by Mr. Chester Smith, Executive Superintendent, Rev. and Mrs. Donald B. Tarr, Director and Asst. Director of Religious Education, and the departmental superintendents.

D. A. R. GOOD CITIZEN

By vote of her senior classmates and the faculty of Winchester High School Margaret O'Leary of 5 Dunham street has been chosen as the 1949 Good Citizen and eligible for the annual D. A. R. Pilgrimage to Washington, D. C.

Election as the D. A. R. Good Citizen is considered one of the highest compliments that can be paid to a senior girl.

During her school days Peggy has had an enviable record scholastically, with few grades below A, has taken the full commercial course and has competed successfully in several of her classes with the college course students.

Besides her academic achievement Peggy has been a leader in athletics, having been a star pitcher on the softball team and a scoring forward on the basketball team. Last spring, when torn between accepting a late afternoon job and heeding the call of her teammates, Peggy chose baseball, a decision which has meant a considerable cash sacrifice.

Currently Peggy is assisting the Red and Black staff as a book-keeper and financial adviser.

MISS McCORMICK ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy McCormick of 3 Sheffield road, announce the engagement of their daughter Mary, to Mr. John Kenneth Glasshoff, the son of Mr. Henry Glasshoff of New York City.

Miss McCormick attended Smith College and Tufts, and served fifteen months with the Canadian Woman's Army.

Mr. Glasshoff was in the Army Air Corps attached to the Air Transport Command, during the war, and served in North Africa and Labrador.

A late spring wedding is planned.

REV. PAUL HARMON CHAPMAN

To Be Moderator at Lincoln School Round Table

DISCIPLINE: WHAT IS IT?

"Discipline: What Is It?" No one has ever given a satisfactory definition. Trying to define the problem a Round Table will be held at the March 9th meeting of the Lincoln School Mother's Association. Acting as Moderator will be Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman; speaking for the Schools, Dr. Forbes H. Norris; for the Medical-Psychiatric field, Dr. Donald E. McLean; for the Home, Mrs. Winslow Smith; and for the Town Chief Charles Harrold.

Each person has been and is actively interested in the promotion of effective discipline in all fields in which he or she most closely contacts every day. Many of us have the feeling that we have failed in our respective spheres of influence, therefore this discussion should stimulate and provoke a more intelligent approach to mother's problems. This meeting will be an open meeting. All those interested are cordially invited to attend.

PENNY SALE BENEFITS CYO

A Penny Sale will be held at Winchester Town Hall on Friday evening, February 25, to raise funds for carrying on the extensive program of youth activities of the Immaculate Conception Parish. A committee of over one hundred parishioners is assisting Reverend John J. Sheehan, Parish C. Y. O. Director, in the organization and conducting of the Penny Sale.

Four hundred prizes are being offered including: boy's bicycle, girl's bicycle, washing machine, Philco Console Radio-Phonograph, Refrigerator, and a Philco Television Console with 52 inch screen. Some of these articles are on display at Hevey's and McCormack's Drug Stores in Winchester Center and at Murphy's Drug Store and McGah's Florist Shop in Woburn.

The funds raised will assist in continuing the Drum and Bugle Corps and the Girls Drill Team of the Parish, also the development of the extensive recreational program which includes four basketball teams and in the summer three uniformed baseball teams as well as a large number of boys baseball and girls softball teams participating in an inter-parish league.

The Drum and Bugle Corps and Girls Drill Team were founded just a year ago and already they have made for themselves an excellent reputation as two of the finest musical and marching units in the Greater Boston area. They have participated in several parades and only recently were invited to participate in the Military Pageant at the Infantile Paralysis Ball at the Boston Gardens.

The uniforms of the Drum and Bugle Corps and the Girls Drill Team have aroused favorable comment everywhere for their flashing beauty.

Those who attended the Penny Sale last year will remember how excellent were the prizes distributed and how smoothly the program was conducted by the committee in charge.

NURSES AIDE ENROLLMENTS OPEN

A few places are still available in the Nurses' Aide course to be given at the Winchester Hospital beginning on February 28th. The 80-hour course will take three hours in the mornings of Monday, Wednesday and Friday for nine weeks, concluding on April 29th. Those who complete the work will receive the Red Cross diploma as qualified Nurses Aides. Graduates of these courses find the information and skill which they receive to be of practical value in home and family situations as well as in the service they give to hospitals.

Applicants for enrollment should get in touch at once with either the Winchester Chapter of the Red Cross, Winchester 6-2300, or with Mrs. Gustav G. Kaufmann, Winchester 6-3019.

One of the features of the course will be the introduction of the nurse-team plan in training the students. This is a radical departure from former methods of such instruction, and it will result in earlier entrance to experience on the wards, and will give each student an opportunity of working directly with a graduate nurse under her personal direction.

JAMES F. FLINT

James F. Flint, who died February 13 in Boston at the age of 86, was the brother of Mrs. George Perry of 15 Everett road. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Kimball Funeral Chapel by the Rev. Donald B. Tarr, assistant minister of the First Congregational Church. Interment was in Oak Grove Cemetery, West Peabody.

"THE THIRTEENTH CHAIR"

A melodrama in three acts by Bayard Veiller, presented February 10, 11, and 12, in the Little Theatre Beneath a Pipe by the Parish Players of the First Congregational Church, under the direction of Harlan F. Grant, with the following cast:

Helen O'Neil	Dini Meacham
Will Crosby	George S. Hebb, Jr.
Mrs. Crosby	Constance E. Morrill
Roscoe Crosby	J. Waldo Bond
Helen Trent	Jane B. Graham
Mary Eastwood	Emily H. Hanson
Edward Wales	James W. Flynn
Grace Standish	Anne G. Hall
Bradish Trent	Robert P. Blake
Howard Standish	Charles A. Butts, Jr.
Philip Mason	George E. Connor
Elizabeth Erskine	Judy Brown
Pollock	John B. MacLellan
Rosalie Lagrange	Janet N. Dalrymple
Inspector Donahue	Eugene M. Pollard
Sergeant Dunn	David Abbott
Doonan	Otis Jason

The Parish Players showed their public many new faces in this latest production and the performance of the newcomers was very creditable.

"The Thirteenth Chair" does not rank with the best things the Players have done, but it has excitement, suspense, an eerie quality and the good old mother love motif that altogether make for good entertainment.

On the whole the large cast did well by it. Pace was good and the performance, once it got by an awkward opening scene, was spirited and quite convincing. The single set was excellent, the lighting effective and the speaking voices, for the most part, well pitched. The cast was weak in spots, but it would have had to be much weaker to prevent Mrs. Dalrymple's brilliant performance from putting the show across.

Mrs. Dalrymple played an Irish medium who has connived with the friend of a murdered man and the police to trick the murderer into a confession at a seance held at the home of a prominent citizen, Roscoe Crosby.

She arrives at the house to find her daughter engaged to the Crosby son and very much suspected, both of the original murder and a second killing which takes place during the inky blackness of the seance. In this instance the particular friend of the first murdered man is himself struck down as was his friend, by a knife-stab in the back.

The medium's daughter was sitting next the murdered man and was found to have visited the first man killed, shortly before the killing. The police were making much of circumstantial evidence and were about to lock up the suspected girl when the mother's Irish wit, a bit of luck and her medium's art enabled her to save her daughter and produce the real murderer.

A convincing Rosalie Lagrange (the medium) is pretty necessary to "The Thirteenth Chair" and so it was the Players' production was greatly blessed, for Mrs. Dalrymple's performance was heart-warming, eye-moistening and spine-tingling, crammed with realism from well done brogue to clever pantomime. For real intensity we give her prayer, alone, on the darkened stage, a model of gripping directness. There were other fine touches, too, that added sprits to the laurels Mrs. Dalrymple has been wearing as a first-rank character actress since her debut as the little cockney mother in "Outward Bound" in 1936.

The principal supporting roles of Helen O'Neil, the medium's daughter, Roscoe Crosby and Inspector Donahue were in capable hands.

Miss Meacham, a young newcomer to the Little Theatre, gave a most appealing performance of the suspected Helen, remarkable for its depth, restraint and emotional facets. A most attractive stage-presence, good voice and the fortunate ability to win her audience's sympathy enabled this promising young actress to make much of a role most girls her age would have overplayed.

Mr. Bond gave his usual completely satisfactory performance of the pater familias, blending suavely, bewilderment, apprehension and outraged dignity with a sure touch. We have seen Dr. Pollard more convincing, but then we have also seen him, more better cast. Neither he, nor Sgt. Dunn, with their business of looking for the dagger, would have improved the low opinion of the official force held by the immortal Sherlock Holmes. We don't mean to imply that the capable doctor was less than satisfactory, but he is generally so much more than that!

Mr. Connor's portrayal of the guilty Philip Mason at the denouement was a gripping bit, and his handling of his role throughout was nicely done to give the impression that he would bear watching. That business with the glove was well done!

Not too much was asked of the others, if you will except Wales, who really introduces the first sinister note into the story. Mr. Flynn played this part with a virility that gave it the necessary stature. Mrs. Morris and Miss Hanson were others who stood out.

We also thought that offstage business of the voices and knockings was good, together with that very effective waiting during the seance scene. Mrs. Ganson P. Taggart was production chairman, assisted by Mrs. Franklin McDermott.

CORRECTION

The death of A. William Rooney, former owner of the Winchester News Company, referred to in last week's STAR in connection with the death of William W. McLean, recent owner, was found to be incorrect. Mr. Rooney is living at 15 Willow street in Reading, working for the Boston & Maine, and very much alive. Our apologies, Billy, and it doesn't follow, as your brother put it, that any one leaving Winchester is necessarily dead!

CANDIDATE FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

Voters of Winchester:

As a candidate for Park Commissioner at the Town Election on March 7, I wish to present for your consideration something of my background and my reasons for seeking this office.

I grew up in a political atmosphere, my father having been active in politics in Watertown for many years, as Selectman and representative from the Watertown-Waverly District.

I was born in Watertown 69 years ago, graduated from Harvard with the degree of A.B. in 1913, and am in the wholesale provision business in Boston as a managing salesman for Chamberlain Company in the Hotel Division. My business is such that I have the time necessary to devote to the business of the Park Department and to learn of its problems at first hand.

I am not entirely without political experience, having been a member of the Watertown School Committee from 1914 to 1916. In Winchester, my home since 1933, I am a town meeting member for Precinct 3 and was appointed to the Public Recreation Committee in 1939.

My home is at 12 Brooks street. I own my home and have the usual prudent man's interest in public expenditures as they affect the taxpayer. I have eight children, two daughters and six sons, and it was largely through following their activities in the recreational end of the Park Department that my interest became intensified. My daughters have been active in swimming, one of my sons has been town tennis champion, two others have played on the Junior Legion and Paul Revere Baseball teams and two more have played in the soft ball league. I've gone to the games and events they have participated in, seen playground conditions as they exist and want, if possible, to do my part to keep these conditions on as high a level as possible.

I realize that the Park Department is concerned with more than recreation and playgrounds, and my interest though it has been chiefly in these features, is by no means entirely devoted to them. I want all our Park Property to be a credit to the community and to assure those concerned with the appearance of our various town plots that if elected, I will not neglect this important phase of Park Department activity.

I will be glad of any support you may care to give me, and if you think I am the sort of candidate you want to vote for on March 7, I will appreciate your vote.

FARNSWORTH LISTED IN TRINITY WAR MEMORIAL

The late Richard M. Farnsworth of Winchester, was one of the 70 Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., men who died in World War II to whom a new Memorial Field House was dedicated Saturday, February 12.

The $445,000 structure was given as a war memorial by 4,057 alumni and friends of the College in the 125th Anniversary Development Program which raised a million and a half dollars during the past two years.

Mr. Farnsworth entered Trinity in September 1942. He left in 1943 and enlisted in the United States Army Air Forces. He attained the rank of sergeant on February 25, 1944 and went overseas to New Guinea. He was killed in action on June 13, 1944, over Palau Island in the Caroline Islands. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Farnsworth, 4 Central Green.

The new field house is half as big as a football field. A regulation baseball infield can be marked out on its dirt floor, or with a removable hardwood floor and grandstands, it can become a basketball arena with a 2,500 spectator capacity. With its sports annex containing offices, locker rooms, sports and equipment rooms, it brings the value of Trinity's physical education plan to more than a million dollars and provides long-needed indoor sports facilities.

Casack for development and the house torn down, leaving only the large music hall with its pipe organ standing.

In the Ginn's time and after Mr. Ginn's death, when Mrs. Ginn occupied the estate, this music hall was a center of musical activity, often being used for private musicales and concerts benefiting civic and charitable projects. Anthony Perritana quickly gained composure after his younger sister recognized him verbally from the audience and spoke about his drawing of Iceland. Vicky Dattilo and Phyllis Mastia also gave their reports with illustrations on Iceland. Frances Amico summarized this study.

Linda Lutes guided us on the trip to Switzerland and introduced the class singing a Swiss song "The Herd Boy." Carol Swett and Nord passed on to the legend of William Tell, in this original version.

WINCHESTER DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

Mrs. Donald H. Powers, newly elected president of the Winchester District Nursing Association, presided at the first meeting of the new 1949 board Friday morning at the Red Cross nursing room, Wadleigh School, with a large membership present.

Highlight of the meeting was the report by Mrs. Jane H. Lord, director, of the great number of cases handled by the nursing staff in January—491 visits. Her report, with that presented by Mrs. Henry Moffette, chairman of the Nursing committee, made it clear to the board that Winchester's citizens were making more and more demands upon the district nurse, and were becoming more cognizant of her services.

These reports on the great number of daily calls which the nurses make—Mrs. Lord and Miss Peterson, with two and sometimes three additional part-time nurses to help—brought into sharp focus the reports of Miss Helen Monroe and Mrs. Ben Schneider of the Finance committee, that the cost per visit of the Winchester District Nurse was going up, while the charge to the patient remained the same.

Need Book Case
The urgent need of a sectional book case (glassed-in front), and a hat tree for the office at 540 Main street, was reported by Mrs. Moffette, and it is hoped that anyone having such items to donate will get in touch with the office, WI 6-0730 or Mrs. Moffette WI 6-2476-W.

Anniversary Dinner Etc
With the fiftieth anniversary of the District Nursing Association coming on March 22, Mrs. Powers told the board briefly of plans for a dinner that evening, and of the special anniversary committee working on the plans. Further details of the event will appear in the STAR.

Members named to the hospital committee were Miss Margaret Copland, Mrs. Guy Livingstone, Mrs. Paul Lamb, Mrs. Charles Greene, Mrs. John C. Willis.

TEACHERS CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

The Winchester Teachers Club annual meeting will be held on March 8 at 8:00 p. m. in the Lincoln School Auditorium. The Board Members of the Mothers Clubs of all the schools will be guests on this occasion. The Reverend Ross Weston will be guest speaker and his subject will be "As You Lengthen Your Ropes, You Must Strengthen Your Stakes."

Miss Lydia Whittemore, chairman of the Program Committee, and the Program Committee will serve light refreshments in the Kindergarten Rooms.

The Reverend Ross Allen Weston is minister of the Historic First Congregational Parish, Unitarian, of Kennebunk, Maine, one of New England's oldest and loveliest colonial churches. Born in Canada, Mr. Weston was raised in Buffalo, New York. After studying at Syracuse University, he attended Drew Theological Seminary and Union Theological Seminary.

Because of his forthright espousal of applied religion, the Kennebunk church is sponsoring The Community Counseling Clinic, which makes available to the public, as well as to the parish, the professional counseling services of a psychiatrist, a physician, a lawyer, the minister, and a student counselor. The clinic operates on a liberal non-sectarian basis.

Under Mr. Weston's ministry, the Unitarian Church is rapidly becoming the most active and influential church in Kennebunk. Services of worship are held throughout the summer months, and Mr. Weston is becoming well-established as the favorite preacher of the summer residents and tourists.

In addition to his work as preacher, counselor, and religious educator, Mr. Weston is active in many community organizations and is in constant demand as a speaker. He is married and has three sons.

LEAGUE HELD EDUCATION MEETING

The popularity of the subject, the sunshine, and the well-known hospitality of the hostess all conspired to bring out a large attendance at the Education meeting of the League of Women Voters held on Wednesday February 2nd at the home of Mrs. Leon F. Sargent, 8 Central street. "Education" is a completely natural field of interest for League members whether it is "support for an adequate building program for Winchester schools," or concern for equal educational opportunities throughout the country and state. Mrs. Robert Drake, chairman of the Education Committee, presided at the afternoon's program. The speakers were Mrs. Robert Mathewson and Mrs. John White of the Winchester League, and Mrs. Donald Williams of Belmont.

In reporting on the status quo of the Senate Bill for Federal aid to Education which is now in committee, Mrs. Mathewson said that it is expected to be reported out favorably soon and will probably pass both houses of Congress this year. Three hundred million dollars will go to the States. The Federal government will have no control over the spending of the money. Each State will disperse its own funds.

Improved State Aid to public education on an equalization basis is one of the items on the State League Program. Mrs. Donald Williams spoke on this complicated problem with obvious knowledge of her subject and with great charm. Her interesting manner made the report which was entirely concerned with figures, a very palatable one. However it was made obvious that neither the Bill which passed the general court last year nor the revised Bill on State aid introduced this year are likely to actually improve education in the towns since the funds paid to the towns are not earmarked for educational use. Also it is apparent that under the provisions of the Bills the local property tax will not be relieved except in the poorer towns at the expense of towns such as Winchester.

Mrs. John White made a most excellent report in the probable schools needs of Winchester as the town is now growing. She summarized the material that is being presented at the school meetings, and spoke with particular appreciation of the time and effort that the members of the School Building Committees have given to make this information available to the entire town.

Crackers and bouillon were served after the program by Mrs. Theodore Atkinson and her committee.

Winchester was represented yesterday at the hearing on the proposed Master Highway Plan for Greater Boston at the office of Commissioner Cullinan in the State House. As explained to the STAR this hearing was simply to gauge, if possible, the enthusiasm for the plan. There is little here in Winchester for the proposal to extend an arterial highway through the west side of the town across Wedge Pond, and the local authorities are doing well to keep a wary eye on the plan. We are told that our layout printed last week is not the latest plan for Winchester, and that the new highway, instead of crossing Bacon street and heading north through Rangely, swings west at Wedgemere and parallels Bacon street, which makes it look as if a number of houses along this fine residential street may be wiped out. That is not the plan in the book sent this office last year by the State authorities, but there has been plenty of time for change. Some one, somewhere must know what the "Master Plan" holds for Winchester! Meanwhile our town fathers should not relax their vigilance.

OF INTEREST TO WINCHESTER PEOPLE

Editor of the Star:

I am enclosing a reprint of an article by Dorothy Thompson entitled "Compulsory Health Insurance A Step in Wrong Direction."
 This should be of considerable interest to your readers as it deals with a subject which is of tremendous importance to every citizen.
 The lives of every one of us are going to be greatly affected by the action this Congress takes on President Truman's proposed health program. Most of us associated with the hospital and the medical professions feel an obligation to acquaint the public with the facts, because we know that no compulsory bureaucratic administration will be able to provide medical and hospital care to the people as efficiently as our present American way. Regardless of one's sympathies with the proposed program, it seems to me imperative that everyone should learn as much as possible about the proposed system of State Medicine and all that it implies.

Very truly yours,

Compulsory Health Insurance
A Step in Wrong Direction
by Dorothy Thompson

It seems certain that we are going to take another step on the road to bureaucratic collectivism by the passage of a compulsory health insurance bill, to which President Truman has pledged.
 The United States Public Health Service is for it, as every Government agency is always for a vast expansion of its powers. The labor unions and farmers' organizations are for it because it sounds good.
 Industry would like to saddle the Federal Government with the expense of workmen's compensation cases. Professional social workers foresee great opportunities for themselves. And a mere 150,000 physicians, 90 per cent of whom are against it, cannot buck the trend. Besides, they are supposed to be "prejudiced" on the current theory that those who know most about anything are not reliable witnesses.

Also, the opposition has not been intelligent. It has ranted against "socialization" as though the mere word had conjuring powers. Let this opponent, therefore, make herself clear. I am not against it because it is "socialistic," but because it is the application of national socialism in the least appropriate field. Also, I have lived under such medical systems in England, Austria, and Germany, and they were awful.

They cost the people far too much. They provide inferior services at a high price. They are incapable of dealing with really serious and complicated cases.
 They result in two sorts of med-to-do; and bad medicine for the masses, at high cost to those who can least afford it. And they build up a vested interest of physicians and bureaucrats which the people will never get rid of.

The great joker in all these schemes is that they are put forward as "free," meaning something for nothing. Let their proponents at least tell the truth. What is advocated is compulsory insurance.
 Every worker in this country will have the cost subtracted from his pay envelope, and added (by his employers) to the price of everything he buys. He will be paying for unused aspirins when he needs the money for oranges.
 He will be supporting innumerable filing clerks—a horrendous paper staff for 150 million people. When and if he gets ill, he will find himself as one of 50 patients (half of them hypochondriacs bent on getting service for their money) whom a physician must examine in an hour!

And if he really is ill—and finds that under the slap-happy method of overworked doctors, whose fees are assured anyhow, he gets not better but worse—he finally will in desperation consult one of those private physicians who refuse to join the assembly line, and, atop all he already has put up, week by week, pay a private fee.

How do I know this? Because I have experienced it.
 Just why this most inventive country seems compelled blindly to copy social measures originating elsewhere is baffling. We need better health service. Granted. We need many, many more hospitals.
 The existing hospitals need public aid, since the sources of private support are increasingly drained off in taxes. And we need more genuinely free medicine for people in real jams.

But before Congress passes any bill for universal sickness insurance—falsely called "health" insurance—it owes it to the American people to tell them exactly what a person with, say, an income of from $2,000 to $3,000 a year is going to have to pay over a working life of 40 years to take care of his illnesses, and just what services the Government positively guarantees him in return for his money. Will it, for instance, sign on the dotted line that if his wife is in labor, the Government guarantees a bed and a physician at the critical moment?

Don't make me laugh! I've lived under these schemes.

FIRST WATER COMMISSIONERS LEFT LASTING MONUMENT:

Editor of the Star:

Perhaps some of the new residents of Winchester will be delig-tent to be informed in regard to our water system. It is a lengthy story. Hence I shall endeavor to be as brief as possible.

From 1850 to 1874 the inhabitants of Winchester received their water supply from Wells and the Aberjona River. From 1874 to 1949 we have received the water that we utilize from our reservoirs surrounded by the Middlesex Fells property of more than three thousand acres. Up to 1933 the total cost of the system was $1, 000,000, representing about 53 miles of pipe-line, approximately 550 fire hydrants, three high service tanks and two pumping stations.

The total income paid into the town treasury has been $1, 500,000, during the 59 years. At the present time we have an excellent auxiliary system on the westside, thanks to the foresight of the chairman of the Water and Sewer Board.
 Now, Mr. Editor, it would require several columns to delve deeply into this problem, and as I have no desire to gobble up space,
 I assert that I believe the inhabitants of Winchester are greatly indebted to our three original Water Commissioners; namely, David N.
 Skillings, James F. Dwinell, Moses A. Herick, and to the men who constructed our North Reservoir, Messrs. Charles Lineham and Nicholas Fitzgerald, grandfather of Nicholas Fitzgerald, one of the candidates for the Board of Selectmen.

I believe Mr. Sanderson, who has supervised a million dollar proposition for the past 33 years, grates, deserves to be commended.
 Perhaps he will inform us how many miles of pipe have been installed, including hydrants, since 1933, and how much money our entire water and sewer system is worth today.

In conclusion, standing upon the old Indian Squaw, Hannah Shiner ledge on the east shore of the South Reservoir, which is the highest viewpoint on the shore line, the scene has no equal. Its beauty is indescribable.

At your feet is the immense ledge formation. As you look into the crystal-clear water the reflection of the blue sky and clouds presents a picture long to be remembered. You raise your eyes and you see the sturdy red oak, white oak, virgin white pine,
 Scotch red pine, Austrian pine, Japanese red pine, Norway and white spruce, Douglas fir, American fir balsam, arbor vitae and Socrates hemlock that are at their best in the spring. The combination of trees, water and birds, harmonizes so beautifully with the surroundings.

It certainly is a musical treat to listen to the song of the meadow lark as the sun is about to set.
 The voice of the whippoorwill has a charm of its own, the brown thrush is heard in the springtime and mother quail with her little family is an interesting picture.
 There are the king bird, the flycatcher, three kinds of woodpecker, the blue birds, always on the move; robin, red-breast, always after the ground worms, the golden robin or Baltimore oriole, the nest weaver, yellow birds, always active; chickadees that spend much of their time on the bark of the trees, the noisy starling, the well-named black birds, the energetic sparrows, the cat-birds, the beautifully feathered blue-jays, and the kingfisher, always ready for a dive. Among the larger birds are the hoot-owl, the blue crane feathered friends will greet you most any time you decide to make a call.

I believe that David N. Skillings,
 James F. Dwinell, Moses N. Herick, Nicholas Fitzgerald, Charles Lineham and others have left a lasting and growing monument to a grateful posterity. May they rest in peace!

PEDESTRIANS COULD MAKE PATH FOR THEMSELVES!

Editor of the Star:

I was asked recently: "What's this feud between you and the Star all about?" Others may be wondering too, so I would like to present one last picture of the unsettled controversy. The Star would have Manchester Field nothing but an Athletic Field with its gates locked at all times. I am advocating a path through the Playground, which would be open at all times except for regular football games. This would restore to neighboring residents their former short access to town.

There are quite a few among those in this area, for whom the shortest route to town would be of great benefit because of serious heart conditions and other physical disabilities. Many have bought homes here, because of its proximity to the Center. These homeowners have accepted without protest the obvious depreciation of their property caused by the athletic field and its overpowering fence.
 They only request a direct access to the Center to replace the one destroyed by the relocation project. It would seem that those responsible for the changed conditions would do all in their power to make our present lot a happier one.

The Star contends that to walk around the field would cause little inconvenience. This extra distance, however, is a matter of real concern to the elderly and the incapacitated.

My letters have been written also because of ethical principles involved in the problems under discussion, the just interpretation of a vote and the fulfillment of a promise.
 The Town voted that Manchester Field should be kept open
 "the year round" as a public playground. The present supervisors of the Field have held to the letter of that vote by declaring that "access to the field from the Junior High School side has been open at all times." My interpretation of the spirit of the Town vote is that there should be natural and easy accesses to the play-ground. Why should I be forced at any time to walk half a mile out of my way and to trespass over school property in order to enter a public playground, one of whose gates is only 90 steps from my door?

The original plan of the Relocation Committee called for an en-fenced area between Manchester road and the Parkway with a path for pedestrians through it to replace their former sidewalk.
 Though a fence was erected later, its gates were so located that we now have a right of way through the field between the Cutting street gate and the Parkway gate on weekends and holidays and from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. on days when school is in session.

Why should the gates be closed after 2 P. M. on school days even when athletic activities are not going on? Some say it is to prevent paths from being formed across the field by students when leaving school. The Junior High School is under excellent management and traffic monitors at the side-doors could easily direct all students toward the Main street walks. Locked gates are little hindrance to students who might leave school at a later hour. At present boys and girls climb over or crawl under them.

I cannot agree with the Star that 2 Summer displays of fireworks at the footpath at the southwest edge of the old field interfered with softball. It was the location of the running track alone that made one end of the field impractical for such activities.

An occasional pedestrian walking outside of the playing area did not interfere with athletic activities in the old Field and would not interfere with such activities in the new Field if a pathway were located on the easterly side of the running track. The athletes do not need this space. The path would not interfere with the runners on the track. It would be outside the baseball area and the football practice area and of course far removed from the football field.

Contrary to the Star's belief, I am truly concerned with the park and play-ground possibilities of Manchester field. The play-ground was voted into being as a part of the METROPOLITAN PARK SYS-TEM for 999 years. Winchester leased it back again for a period of 99 years so as to be able to exclude non-residents. I hope that some day Manchester Field and all other play-grounds in the Town will have a jungle-jim, a slide and swings in some otherwise unused space. It would give a park atmosphere to Manchester Field by placing benches near the North and South gates beneath some of the trees that are a safe distance from all athletic activities. I would restore the rose-covered fence along the Parkway.

I am not advocating any of these additions at present for they cost money. Along with other citizens
 I am appalled at the "over $89,000" already put into the new field. The one item, on which no penny need be spent, if the Park Commissioner has no available funds for cinders or gravel, is a path which pedestrians could make for themselves.

Ruth M. Gunby

Ed. Note:—Everyone will probably be glad to know that the Star is through with this discussion too!
 That paragraph about the fireworks, path and track really tempted us, but after all enough is enough! So far as we are concerned there has been no feud. Mrs. Gun-by would keep the gates open for the convenience of pedestrians.
 We'd keep 'em closed for the good of the field. Just a difference of

CHARACTER GUIDANCE PROGRAM

Editor of the Star:

Perhaps readers of the "Star" noticed the following in Bill Mauld-in's account of his visit at Fort Bliss - "Not once in two weeks at Fort Bliss did I hear drum-beating from soldiers or officers about
 'The Next War.' Having come from a civilian world full of war-talk, peace-talk, violent arguments about Russia, Europe, China—it was a strange feeling to live in an Army camp where all kinds of horrible new weapons are operated by soldiers who don't get particularly enthusiastic about the possibilities of using them in combat."

The above quote confirms the writer's experience in her contacts with the Armed Services. While every soldier and officer is busy carrying out his job in the national defense picture, I have yet to hear a man who has been in combat advocating another war. The entire emphasis is on being strong enough to prevent a war. This policy has, so far, paid off.

Answering a question on "General MacArthur's position"—the writer is no military expert, but a look at the map in the Chinese area would seem to find General MacArthur in much the same position as in 1941 in the Philippines.
 The answer to this seems to lie in what sort of Communists are the Chinese Communists? Past experience shows that the Soviet leaders are determined to avoid a two-front war, and any further aggressive moves in Europe would indicate they have the Chinese Communist in their pocket.

Chaplain Major Samuel L. High-bert has sent the writer a detailed account of The Character Guidance Program in the Armed Forces" as compiled by The American Social Hygiene Assoc., 1790 Broadway,
 New York City. Included are directives from the Sec'y of the Army and from the Chiefs of Staff of the Army and Air Force which everyone should read. The main theme running through all this material is: "The military forces have an obligation, especially to the parents of the youthful soldier, to continue insofar as possible under the conditions of military service, the wholesome influences of the home, the family, and the community. The reward is rich: better citizens and better soldiers."

"A copy of this bulletin will be sent to the presidents of organizations included in the Women's Council plus copy of a pamphlet 'You're on your own Bud! Take care of Yourself.'"

Answering questions as to how interested people can be aware of Military Manpower Committee activities—read The Winchester Star and attend the meetings of the Women's Council.

Very truly yours,
 Gladys N. Toye, chairman

 MITTEE.

ROTUNDE'S CANDIDACY
DERIVES SUCCESS!

Editor of the Star:

I have just learned that Eugene
 B. Rotundi of 224 Forest street has entered his name in the contest for Selectman which is to be decided in the coming municipal election.

I realize that Gene has been a resident of Winchester for a good many years now but it has occured to me that the people of Winchester might want to know something about his early background.
 Since we grew up in the same neighborhood in Stoneham I feel pretty well qualified to write about it.

Gene and I entered Stoneham High School in 1919, went through the same five year scientific course together. We played on the same baseball and track teams but since Gene was built more on the rugged side he also played a slashing game of football. It seems to me now that our tough baseball competitor in Winchester in those early far-away days was a young fellow named Tansey, who always gave Gene a good battle on the mound.

Throughout all of his summers Gene worked harder than any other fellow that I knew. He comes from an old contracting family in this section, and Gene kept himself in trim by the hardest kind of heavy work.

After high school we both went to evening school. As it turned out I headed into engineering and Gene into law, inasmuch as he was graduated from Northeastern with a Bachelor of Laws degree about 1938. And all through these years all of the people that I know have had a high regard for Gene.

We have kept in touch throughout the years. Gene is married to a fine Winchester girl and what with his large family of children—seven of which are in Winchester Public Schools, I can certainly understand his concern about municipal affairs in Winchester.

In my work I manage to get around the New England States considerably and it's no exaggeration when I write that I know few men who have the down-right energy, drive and ambition that my friend Gene Rotundi has. I hope and trust he will have the fine success in this contest that he deserves.

WHY PUT VETS AHEAD OF CHILDREN

Editor of the Star:

As a parent, I find Mr. Duddy's letter to you in the Star last week completely without point and absolutely unfair in regard to their right to the old Mystic School on Bacon street which the Hobby Center now uses.

Why should the School Committee and the Recreation Committee put the Veterans ahead of our children? They most certainly are more important than the Veterans and the children of Winchester are the ones to have the fair deal.

FINAL SCHOOL MEETING AT HIGH SCHOOL
NEXT THURSDAY

After carrying their message to all parts of the Town by means of public meetings in all of the elementary schools, The Winchester School Committee will complete its series of meetings at the High School Auditorium next Thursday evening, February 24, beginning at quarter to eight.

All interested citizens who want to inform themselves at first hand about the School Committee's decisions may hear for themselves from the School Committee at that meeting.

Major items among the Committee's recommendations are an addition to the Mystic School, made necessary by a disproportionate amount of building in that area and an ever growing pre-school population there; and completion of the Junior High School to make it adequate for the type of schooling being attempted there and large enough to accommodate the third grade which becomes the third class in a 6-3-3 school program.

The 6-3-3 program may be explained as follows: the 6 refers to the elementary school years from kindergarten through the sixth grade; the first three refers to grades seven, eight, and nine (now known as high school freshmen);
 the final number three refers to the three remaining years of public school, familiarly called the sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

Winchester's present school program has the Town's children attend an elementary school through the sixth grade, attend the Junior High School through grades seven and eight, have their freshman year in the Wadleigh building, and finally spend their last three years in the senior high school building.

Administrators have been troubled by the inability of the ninth grade (freshmen) to have a sufficiently broad curriculum in the present program before the high school years. In the junior high school the pupil is not bound so rigidly to a set program of studies as the senior high school must have and he has opportunities to develop his special abilities and to find his place in the curriculum. The additional year in junior high school, they say, allows for a greater freedom of choice among elective courses and presents a better prepared and more matured student to the senior high school.

At present the Junior High School provides little competitive athletics because nearby towns use the 6-3-3 plan. The present Junior High School building, characterized by Dr. John Guy Fowles as a good set of classrooms, has no facilities for adequate art, health, and music instruction and has no auditorium. The gymnasium is one-half regulation size. Pupils have to lunch at the high school cafeteria shortly after eleven o'clock to allow time to prepare for two lunch periods for the seven hundred thirty-six high school people Principal Raymond Dickman sees his pupils assembled only in the high school cafeteria. There are no junior high school assemblies for instruction, music appreciation, or plays.

Another fact to be considered is the presence of increasing numbers of children in the elementary schools and of the more than thirty percent overall increase in pupils for several years to come. By the time The Junior High School is completed, it will be apparent that it is a "must" for population reasons if for no other.

The Fire Department was called at 2:54 Tuesday morning to take care of an over-heated hot-water heater at the home of Mr. Martin Hanley on Nelson street.

"Mind" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, February 20.
Golden Text: "Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite." (Psalm 147:5).
Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:
"The Lord of hosts with us: the God of Jacob be our refuge. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire" (Psalm 147:5). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:
"When the divine powers are understood, they unfold the foundation of fellow-ship. The divine is not a war with another, but all have one Spirit. God, one intelligent source, in accordance with the Scriptural command, 'Let this Mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.' Man and his Maker are correlated in divine Science, and real consciousness is cognizant only of the things of God" (p. 274).

YOUR LIBRARY

Library Handbooks

There are several interesting books and magazines used by the library in selecting and ordering books and, when the books are received, in cataloging them. Many of these library handbooks are also of general interest and use to those using the library.

The Cumulative Book Index is a complete list of all books, exclusive of government publications and material of ephemeral nature, published in the English language. For the research worker who wants a list of all the books on a given subject or for the student who would like to know all the books written by one person, it is of great importance. The price, the publisher, and other information for the book buyer is included under each entry in this publication which is kept up to date by monthly supplements.

The Standard Catalog for Public Libraries is a selected list of non-fiction books, each briefly described. It will answer such questions as what are the best books on the Negro problem, the best in Home Chemistry field, the best in Home planning. Books considered the most authoritative or interesting are double-starred, those not quite so good, single-starred and many unstarred, but every book listed is recommended.

The Fiction Catalog treats novels and short stories the same as the Standard Catalog does the non-fiction. Are there any novels about the naval aspects of the Civil War? Has anyone written a novel about the Micmac Indians? These questions are only two of the recent ones answered by the Fiction Catalog.

The Book Review Digest values current literature. Book reviews from reviewing periodicals are digested and valuated. What did the reviewers think of the novel "Dinner at Antoine's" or the biography "Eisenhower Was My Boss" and in what magazines may reviews of these books be found? This is the kind of information the Book Review Digest gives.

The Saturday Review of Literature, the New York Times Book Review and the New York Herald-Tribune Weekly Book Review are three of the reviewing periodicals used by the Book Review and available at the Public Library. These magazines, in addition to reviews, have interesting articles on books, and in the Saturday Review of Literature there are articles on the theatre, poetry, and a very witty column by the humorist, Bennett Cerf.

JAMES RECEIVES PATENT

On January 25, 1949, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,459,820 on a "Fractionation of Unsaturated Glyceride Oils" to Edward M. James, of Winchester.

Notwithstanding its technical title, this invention pertains to an improved method of separating soybean oil, linseed oil, fish oils and the like into two separate components, each of which is suitable for use in particular fields.

For example, it is known that the aforementioned oils, when subjected repeatedly to high temperatures, have undesirable odor and taste characteristics. However, they may be split into what may be termed "more saturated" and "less saturated" elements, the former being applicable for edible purposes, soaps, etc., and the latter, which still contain the undesirable properties, are adapted especially for paints, varnishes and other similar purposes.

Various methods have been proposed heretofore for effecting this separation, but, according to Mr. James, they have not been completely satisfactory. One of these suggested processes involves the use of "fractional distillation", an arrangement by which the oil is vaporized and separated into the two desired components by reason of the fact that the latter have different boiling points. However, this procedure is expensive and disadvantageous because of the high vacuum necessary and the relatively large amounts of heat required.

It is therefore the object of Mr. James' invention to present a solution to this problem, and, in general, he accomplishes this end by mixing the oil with a suitable solvent and rapidly chilling such mixture, with appropriate agitation, to a temperature within a range of 20 to 60 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit. As a result, there are formed a highly viscous and a liquid component, the former being a product that is adaptable admirably for edible and soap purposes while the latter finds utility in paints.

It is claimed that the process of this invention is continuous in its operation.

This patent has been assigned to Lever Brothers Company.

RED CROSS NURSES' AIDE COURSES BEGINS FEBRUARY 28

A comprehensive Nurses' Aide Course will begin on Monday morning, February 28, at 9 o'clock at the Winchester Hospital, sponsored by the local chapter, American Red Cross, with Mrs. Angeline O'Leary, acting superintendent of nurses, as the instructor. A number of women have already enrolled in the course -- their ages being between 18 and 47 -- and there are still places for more aides, although the enrollment is necessarily limited.

The course provides 80 hours of sound basic instruction, and actual bedside nursing (without medication). Trainees will attend classes Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 9 to 12 noon, and will be awarded their Nurses' aide certificate and cap at the end of that course. A special invitation to join these classes is extended to women who now have children in school all morning, and to older women whose children are no longer at home. To both these women, the Red Cross Nurses' Aide Course offers unlimited opportunity to be of service in one's own home and in the community.

Those wishing to enroll are asked to phone Mrs. Dutton, Winchester 6-2191; Mrs. Gustav Kaufmann, Winchester 6-3019; or Red Cross, Winchester 6-2300, for an enrollment application. Each applicant will be interviewed by a three-woman board, and is then ready for the classes on the 28th. This excellent course offers a golden opportunity -- so phone today for your application!

MOOSE MOUNTAIN SKI TRIP AGAIN A SUCCESS

The Moose Mountain Ski weekend, sponsored each year by the Girl Scouts of Storow Troop 1 for boys and girls of High School age, was again a huge success especially because the weather man favored this happy group of young people with the most perfect weather and ski conditions imaginable in a winter that has been disappointingly open.

Immediately after school on Friday, February 4, 15 boys and 15 girls climbed into a flotilla of ski laden cars bound for Moose Mountain and a week-end of fun and the joy of companionship. Great was the delight in finding "Art" Guyer, a name, to the girls, synonymous with skiing, waiting at the foot of the mountain to transport all skis and baggage in shifts up to the lodge in his command car. And then -- the joys of a baked ham dinner as only Doug can cook it!

Saturday, those wishing instruction were divided into three groups according to their ability and improved or tried to improve their technique under the capable and intensive instruction of "Art" Guyer, "Smokey," and "Nils," instructors from the Hanover Inn Ski School. In the evening, after Doug's roast lamb dinner, the square dancing began with Art's infectious calling of "Dig for the oyster, dig," "Swing your corner lady," "Kiss the little blonde and pass her by." How those boys could swing!

Sunday dawned fair and cold with millions of diamonds sparkling on the icy-covered birches and the sprays of frost crystals thrown up by the skier as he made a sharp turn in the soft powder snow. It was good to be out in the peace and quiet and beauty and the happiness of good comradeship. Free skiing to-day and what fun! But all good things have to come to an end, even that roast beef we had for dinner, the last ride up the tow to absorb a last view of the stretches of snow clad fields, hills and mountains that lay spread out before us, before taking the last long run down the mountain to the waiting cars and home.

In the words of one of the scouts, "This was the most perfect weekend I have ever had. Do you suppose we can have the same group again next year?"

The girls enjoying this trip were -- Anne Farquhar, Alice Hodge, Betty Fitzgerald, Linda Bartlett, Joan Bodman, Barbara Macaulay, Betty Ann Parker, Doreen Stowe, Mildred True, Virginia Dyer, Dorothy Parker, Bette Nelson, Althea Hersey, Alison Hersey, Stephanie Hersey.

And the boys were -- Elliott Hersey, David Shiverick, Tom Joy, Pete Hutchins, Dave Hutchins, Bob Oxford, Charlie McGowan, Phil Nelson, John Rocray, Don McDavitt, Dave Wright, Ted Trott, John Foley, Chuck Hart, Paul Amico.

Adults in charge were -- Mr. and Mrs. Brad Hersey, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson.

Burnham is also showing several rugs made by his wife. From Stoneham the following will have their rugs on display: Mrs. Clarence Lent, Mrs. Albert Fava, Mrs. Leslie Patten, Mrs. Harold Moffitt, Mrs. Leonard Fuyat, Mrs. H. Stanley Kinsley, Mrs. R. A. Kenyon.

Of course the additional feature of the two lectures by Mrs. Marjory S. Thompson, recognized in hooking circles as an authority and expert on color, will certainly attract many who wish to increase their knowledge of this primary requisite for a beautiful hooked rug. Mrs. Thompson is also bringing with her a large selection of patterns and swatches.

Come and enjoy coffee in the morning with your friends, or tea in the afternoon, hear Mrs. Thompson's lecture and see an exceptional hooked rug display such as Winchester has not witnessed for some time.

KING OF KINGS

Friday night, February 25, there will be a free showing of the famous movie, "King of Kings," at the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church.

This is not a new movie, but those who have seen it will welcome this opportunity to see one of the really great films produced by the well known Cecil B. DeMille during the last decade. It is a sound picture depicting the life of Christ. It helps to bring the understanding of the times into correct perspective with the costumes and setting in which Jesus lived and worked.

This showing is given by the Intermediate Department of the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church. The film was purchased in lieu of individual Christmas presents for members of the department. At this showing, they are generously sharing it with the entire church membership and interested friends. Anyone wishing to share in the knowledge of Christ will be welcome.

"SON OF THUNDER"

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman has chosen this subject for the fifth in a series of sermons on Great Men of the Bible, when he preaches next Sunday morning at the 11:00 a. m. Service at the Unitarian Church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

HARVARD FOOTBALL COACH TO SPEAK TO UNITARIAN MEN

The Winchester Unitarian Men's Club is presenting Arthur L. "Art" Valpey, Harvard football coach as guest speaker at its regular Monday evening meeting on February 21 at 7:45 in the Metcalf Hall.

The club is greatly appreciative of Coach Valpey's willingness to devote some of his little free time to give its members an insight into the Harvard 1949 team, and William S. Wolsey, president of the club and a neighbor of Coach Valpey, is doubly appreciative because he knows the popular young coach has spoken at approximately 100 meetings throughout the country since his appointment at Harvard.

"Art" was born in Dayton, Ohio, and graduated from Steele High School which also claims Earl "Red" Blake, head coach at Army. He played end for University of Michigan freshmen in 1934 and the next three years was a varsity wingman for the Wolverines. He coached at Ida, Midland, and Manchester High Schools in Michigan before being called back to Michigan as freshman line coach under Fritz Crisler. In six years he worked up to varsity end coach and chief scout, scouting all Michigan opponents during Crisler's last two years which were culminated with the national championship. He took over Harvard football in 1948 and impressed veteran observers with the success of his attack. He is considered as particularly well informed on the national intercollegiate football picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Valpey live in Winchester at 17 Hillside avenue. They met as students at University of Michigan, and have two children, Betsey, 9, and Billy, 5.

All men of the Unitarian Parish, their sons and their friends are cordially invited to hear Harvard's outstanding young coach. Refreshments will be served.

GETTING RID OF THE BLUES

This coming Sunday, the pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, Rev. John Snook, Jr., will speak again on the problem or hazard so many people face today, in the form of fear, anxiety, fretfulness that result in what we commonly call, "The Blues." Scriptural antidotes are the prescription offered for such common maladies.

ROTARY NEWS

There was an excellent turnout for this meeting there being only six absent members, two of whom are away for the winter. Our record is beginning to climb back up where it belongs now. Harry Benson reported on his last make-up in New York City and told of the large number that were there including members from at least thirty eight states and some twelve foreign countries. Bill Hevey is back home again in Hollywood Beach Hotel in Florida where he made up last week.

Plans were made and discussed about the forthcoming Glee Club Concert under the sponsorship of the Rotary to be held at the High School Auditorium on March 5th. John McIntyre is the chairman in charge of this concert and if last year's success is any criterion this ought to be a complete sell out as well as an excellent concert. George Clark and Ralph Bonnell tried to filibuster a motion to show confidence in the chairman of the committee but they were voted down by the club after an exchange of verbal volleys.

The speaker for the day was a representative of the Boy Scouts of America here in Winchester. He was Trevor G. M. Smith, a life scout from Troop 3 and holder of fourteen merit badges. Trevor gave a short but inspirational talk about what boy scouting has meant to him and in his brief resume of scouting certainly convinced the club of his sincerity and the great value of scouting. After this a movie was shown telling more of the aims of scouting in not taking the boy away from his family but rather making for closer and better ties with his home. Gordon Bird made a motion that the Rotary Club of Winchester sponsor a new ship here in town which is to be started by a group of interested men and boys who belonged to the former ship. A worthy cause and one that Rotary should be proud to sponsor.

YOUTH SUNDAY

Sunday morning will be observed as Youth Sunday in the Second Congregational Church. Members of Pilgrim Fellowship will conduct Divine Worship and deliver the addresses.

Roland Carlson and Judith Nanry will officiate at the service. Edward Reynolds will speak on "What the Church Expects of Us," and Martha Whiting will discuss "How We Can Improve Our Church." Ushers for the service are Ted Wingate, Gordon Richburg, and Roderick Delorey. Appropriate music will be sung by the choir under the direction of Mrs. George Lochman.

During the week two social events have been planned by Cynthia Whiting. On Wednesday evening there will be a roller skating party and on Friday evening the young people will enjoy a progressive supper and a social time at the church.

Roger Creelman son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Creelman of Salisbury street is taking Bunny Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elliott of Milton, formerly of this town, to the Andover Prom, Friday night. He is a student at Andover Academy.

WINCHESTER CRUSADE OPENS TODAY

Treasurer of the drive is Fred W. McCormack. Committee members include Ralph Bonnell, Dr. Philip J. McManus, James Dwinell, Dr. Richard Sheehy, Leo Purdie, James Scott, Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald, Alan Somerby, John Gibbons, David Whyte, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Malcolm Strong Nichols, executive director of the Greater Boston society and a Winchester resident spoke briefly on its aims. He said, "the fundamental purpose of the society since it was founded in 1879 has been to promote sound family life. This is accomplished," he explained, "through a counseling group which is offered to anyone with personal or family problems. The Society," he added, "through its active participation in social legislation effecting the family, and its leadership in discussion groups for those interested in the study of family life make it possible for the Society to get down to many of the basic causes of family breakdown."

FELLSLAND COUNCIL B. S. A.
HOLD CATHOLIC SCOUT
SUNDAY SERVICES

On Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. all Catholic Senior Outfits, Troops and Cub Packs with Mothers, Committeemen and Officials were in attendance at St. Mary's Church, Winchester where the Annual Council Scout Sunday Services were held. Last year St. Charles in Woburn played host. Rev. Fr. Francis O'Neil, welcomed the entire gathering on behalf of St. Mary's Pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, and addressed a few well chosen remarks to the assembled Scouts. Present in the Sanctuary were Fr. John Nelson of St. Patrick's, Stoneham; Fr. Herbert Phinney of St. Raphael's, West Medford; Fr. Francis O'Neil, Fr. John O'Neil and Fr. Thomas Sennott all of St. Mary's Winchester. Fellsland Council's "Ad Altare Dei" recipients who attained this award at the Cathedral on Sunday, February 6th from the Archbishop himself, were seated in the Sanctuary with the Clergy. Mr. John Drohan, Catholic Lay Area Director of Scouting for Archbishop Cushing and Father Dowd of the C. Y. O. had charge of the planning for this affair and many officials of Fellsland were present among them Scout Executive Ed Nelson and George Patton, President of Fellsland. Father Nelson delivered the sermon in which he praised the capable, competent leaders who show by their good example the value of Scouting to the boys and the mothers and dads who are so instrumental in the attaining of the badges that the boys receive. The "Ad Altare Dei" winners of this much sought after Catholic award in Scouting were congratulated by Fr. Nelson. Towards the end of his remarks Fr. Nelson cited two concrete examples where Scout training was shown once in diligent application resulting in the attainment of what will most likely become a boy's life work and the other was a safe trip home on a stormy, foggy sea made possible by the knowledge of the Compass by one "landlubber" when the Captain of the little vessel was stricken. Present were the following: Troop 12, Winchester; Troop 9, Stoneham; Troop 6, Woburn; Troop 21 West Medford; Troop 24, Medford; Pack 12, Winchester; Pack 6, Woburn; Pack 9, Stoneham; Pack 21, West Medford; Committeemen, Den Mothers, Scoutmasters, and Cub Masters of the above; Medford Sea Scout Color Bearers; Catholic Lay Committee for Scouting, headed by John Drohan of West Medford, George Grafton of Stoneham, John Conway of Medford, Vincent Erhard, Winchester; Executive Board Members George Patton, Edward Nelson, (Stoneham); Walter Shaughnessy, (Woburn); and Charles Forbes, (Medford); Thomas Riley, (West Medford); Head of all Cub

WOMEN'S SOCIETY MEETING

The Women's Society of Christian Service held its regular meeting Thursday, February 10th in the Ladies Parlor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church. The President, Mrs. Milton Galucia introduced several new members. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Donald Wilkins. Mrs. Warren Saunders of Winchester spoke most interestingly of the people and their habits on Pitcairn Island. Her exhibit of articles from the Island was unique and entertaining. ST. MARY'S HOLY NAME SOCIETY HELD FATHERS - SONS COMMUNION
BREAKFAST

On Sunday morning, February 13th, a Fathers - Sons Communion Breakfast was held by St. Mary's Holy Name Society, who attended the 8:00 a. m. Mass, Benediction and received Holy Communion in a body. Many men had their sons accompanying them who joined with the men in the fine singing of hymns. The sermon at the Mass was preached by Rev. Fr. Thomas F. Sennott, the Spiritual Director of the Society.

After the Church Services, the men and young men adjourned to Lyceum Hall where Breakfast was served by John Ahearn of the Town Line Inc., who catered a breakfast consisting of fresh fruit, scrambled eggs, sausages, bacon, banana fritters, beans, rolls, muffins, doughnuts, coffee or milk.

The invited Speaker was Very Rev. Monsignor Charles D. McNis, Headmaster of St. Sebastian's Country Day School for Boys in Newton. He chose as his topic, "Joan of Arc," the Maid of Orleans. Turning the current movie of his subject, "A good one to see," Msgr. McNis launched into one of the most interesting talks that the Holy Name has been privileged to hear with many interesting facts and highlights on this fine Saint of God. Among some of the facts mentioned were these: That Joan of Arc was the youngest of five children, her father was a farmer; along with many of the people of that era, she could neither read nor write; she was a churchgoer and a reserved girl, tall and strong and perfectly normal. She had great intelligence and it certainly was an inspired feat for her to ride on horseback over 300 miles to reach her destination on her crusade to liberate France. This journey took 11 nights. In 1431 she was burned at the Stake. Many years later her persecutors met with their just deserts and she was acclaimed the great one that she really was. It was truly remarkable that a 17 and 1/2 year old girl could liberate France as she had done. Monsignor McNis declared that her strength, force and grace could liberate the world today just as it did France hundreds of years ago. Prolonged applause greeted Msgr. McNis at the conclusion of his address.

The Holy Name Society remembered Cardinal Mindszenty in their prayers at Mass and Holy Communion at Archbishop Cushing's request.

The STAR missed another Winchester resident at the recent Silver Jubilee Mardi Gras Ball of the International Institute at the Hotel Statler in Boston. Hubert "Al" Smith, Jr., of Station WHDH, was a member of one of the box parties there.

Winchester Boy Scouts watched E. W. Williams, former Lynn fire official, produce this rabbit "out of thin air" in the unique "Fire In Miniature" show produced by United Mutual Fire Insurance Company and presented recently by Troop 6 at the Unitarian Church.

WINCHESTER BOY SCOUT TROOP

Winchester Scouts See Unusual Fire Prevention Show

A house burst into flame, a garage burned up, a factory exploded, a school caught fire, bells rang, whistles blew, sirens screamed, fire engines roared, a rabbit appeared from nowhere, a fellow named "Wooden Head" crawled out of the school, stepped!

Those are just a few of the many amazing things Winchester Scouts saw recently when Troop 6 invited them to the Unitarian Church to watch a unique fire prevention show by E. W. Williams, former assistant chief of the Lynn fire department. The unusual show, produced by United Mutual Fire Insurance Company and called "Fire In Miniature," is designed to show the many ways that fires are caused by human carelessness and thoughtlessness. Miniature models of homes, factories, and school buildings as well as household articles were used in the show to present its important message. The demonstration has been seen by approximately 100,000 persons in New England and the mid-west and has been telecast over a Boston television station. To add to the entertainment value of "Fire In Miniature" and at the same time to underline important points, Mr. Williams, an accomplished magician, incorporated feats of magic or sleight of hand to fire prevention. Fire prevention is something everyone can and should do through exercise of precautions in their homes and places of business. We use magic tricks in our show to underline the points we want remembered, to stress the every day presence of fire hazards and to make the audience doubly aware of the fire dangers and menaces to life and property. The boys enthusiastically applauded the show and agreed that it was "swell" and they went home resolved to exercise more care and caution and to constantly battle neglect and carelessness which cause 90 per cent of all fires.

Troop 6 to go on Week-end Camping Trip

Troop 6 is bustling with activity in preparation for a camping trip to Professor Carl C. Zimmerman's farm in Gilmanton, N. H., the week-end of February 25th to 27th. Veterans of last year's trip are helping advise the other Scouts who are qualified to go on matters of equipment, clothing, grub, etc. If the fun that Troop 6 Scouts had on last year's trip is any indication, the boys are in for a bang-up good time this year!

A number of awards have been won by Troop 6 Scouts at recent Monday night meetings. Neal Muncester and John Moores received their First Class badges. Ethan Moore won his Librarian and Massachusetts patches. Stephen Dunn was awarded his Massachusetts patch. Sears Walker received the Winchester patch and patrol medallion, and Stanley God-

"We all want to thank Troop 6 for the wonderful show, 'Fire in Miniature,' put on by the Mutual Fire Insurance Company. Come on down and see our Troop in action."

Police Chief Okays Parade

Winchester's Police Chief, Charles Harrold, has given the Boy Scouts official permission to hold their big Scout parade on Sunday, April 24th, as a preview to the Scout Exposition to be held at the High School on Saturday, April 30th.

Cub Pack 7 has Window Display

Many Winchester residents have commented enthusiastically about the interesting Cub Scout display in Hevey's window last week. Designed to commemorate Boy Scout Week and the 39th anniversary of Scouting, the display was created by Cub Pack 7 and featured a varied assortment of handicraft articles made by the boys themselves in their Den meetings. More window displays are being planned by other Scout and Cub units this month.

Troop 7 Pitched Tents in the Snow

Recently, Troop 7 held a winter snow hike to their Troop campsite, "Pine Hill Camp." Scouts Phil Dresser, Stan Mullen, Ray Simpson, Roger Foster, Dave Ripley, and Stu Carlisle bravely plodded through knee-deep snow for two miles to reach the camp. But they claim it was worth it. They had a lot of fun building fires, cooking their grub, skiing down the hill, and pitching pup tents in the snow. Mr. Swanson, Troop 7's Outdoor Man, had a hard time teaching Stuart Carlisle how to button up the two halves of a pup tent without missing any buttonholes. . . but Stu got even with him in the next issue of the Troop newspaper when he wrote, "Never at any time did Mr. Swanson have a fire that was big enough so that a little spit wouldn't put it out."

Her interesting talk about the library service included "that over 1300 books were issued to patients at the Winchester Hospital this year; that all but 32 of the students in the High School were registered borrowers at the library; out of the 749 enrolled students 717 were library borrowers; every week throughout the winter there are educational moving picture programs for children and adults; there are over 200 different current magazines and newspapers available; over 2,000 reference questions have been answered; telephone calls for Tello Test answers have reached almost 50,000; there is a "Family Room" for the use

W. H. S. RIFLEMEN RATE HIGH

A recent official bulletin of the National Rifle Association of America shows that in results of postal matches conducted by 109 entries Winchester is twenty-fifth.

Only one high school in New England ranked higher than the locals. Their score of 483 for ten rounds, prone, at fifty feet, was topped by that of Middletown, Connecticut, High School with a score of 485.

St. Paul's School at Concord, New Hampshire, was sixth; Exeter, thirteenth; Loomis, fifteenth; and the Middleton School, twenty-third. Those were the only New England schools to place higher than the local shooters. Bob Oxford, Dick and John Richmond, Herb Skerry, Dave Shiverick, Edward Cullen, and Andy Antipapas.

Trailing Winchester were rifle clubs in North Quincy, Braintree, Quincy, Melrose, and Wakefield, none of whom was lower than sixty-eighth, a good record for a little publicized sport.

At the December State Board meeting it was recommended that the goal of $20,000 would be Massachusetts contribution to the New Building Fund.

With the announcement of the Annual State Conference, Copple Plaza Hotel, Boston, March 24, 25, the following Delegates were elected—Mrs. Harold Twombly and Miss Clara Russell; Alternates, Mrs. William Eklund, Mrs. Raymond Straybridge, Mrs. William Goodhue, Mrs. Clifton Hall, Mrs. Walter Hawkes, Miss Grace Pound and Mrs. John B. Willis.

The Guest Speaker of the afternoon was Miss Corinne Mead, Librarian.

Willis.

The Guest Speaker of the afternoon was Miss Corinne Mead, Librarian.

Her interesting talk about the library service included "that over 1300 books were issued to patients at the Winchester Hospital this year; that all but 32 of the students in the High School were registered borrowers at the library; out of the 749 enrolled students 717 were library borrowers; every week throughout the winter there are educational moving picture programs for children and adults; there are over 200 different current magazines and newspapers available; over 2,000 reference questions have been answered; telephone calls for Tello Test answers have reached almost 50,000; there is a "Family Room" for the use of parents and teachers and other interested adults, where latest books and materials on Family Life Education are available. Every month there is a different art exhibition in the Art Gallery open to the public during library hours.

At the close of the meeting, Miss Clara Russell, Curator of the Winchester Historical Society invited members and guests to inspect the Society's room on the lower floor of the library.

W. H. S. RIFLEMEN RATE HIGH

A recent official bulletin of the National Rifle Association of America shows that in results of postal matches conducted by 109 entries Winchester is twenty-fifth.

Only one high school in New England ranked higher than the locals. Their score of 483 for ten rounds, prone, at fifty feet, was topped by that of Middletown, Connecticut, High School with a score of 485.

St. Paul's School at Concord, New Hampshire, was sixth; Exeter, thirteenth; Loomis, fifteenth; and the Middleton School, twenty-third. Those were the only New England schools to place higher than the local shooters. Bob Oxford, Dick and John Richmond, Herb Skerry, Dave Shiverick, Edward Cullen, and Andy Antipapas.

Trailing Winchester were rifle clubs in North Quincy, Braintree, Quincy, Melrose, and Wakefield, none of whom was lower than sixty-eighth, a good record for a little publicized sport.

At the December State Board meeting it was recommended that the goal of $20,000 would be Massachusetts contribution to the New Building Fund.

With the announcement of the Annual State Conference, Copple Plaza Hotel, Boston, March 24, 25, the following Delegates were elected—Mrs. Harold Twombly and Miss Clara Russell; Alternates, Mrs. William Eklund, Mrs. Raymond Straybridge, Mrs. William Goodhue, Mrs. Clifton Hall, Mrs. Walter Hawkes, Miss Grace Pound and Mrs. John B. Willis.

ROTARY TO SPONSOR MYSTIC GLEE CLUB IN CHARITY CONCERT

Benefitting the Rotary Club's charitable program for 1949, the Mystic Glee Club of Winchester will sing a concert on March fifth in the High School auditorium, consisting of selections which have proven popular favorites with its audiences over the years. Choosing from its large and well balanced library, Keith Snyder, conductor, has moulded a program which is sure to satisfy all.

If one had dropped in at Masonic Hall last Monday night one would have found the club rehearsing long after the usual closing time of 10:00 p. m. for, in addition to perfecting their new music for their regular annual spring concert to be held April 22, for their sponsoring members, the boys are hard at work on the music for this special concert as well.

A busy scene was this, with fifty men seated in their regularly assigned chairs by sections, half of them with their coats peeled, seriously pouring themselves with satisfaction into the job of mastering their parts. Keith Snyder, with sleeves rolled up was ardently and competently explaining just what kind of effect he wanted to create with his interpretation of a certain passage.

Ralph Curtis and Ernie Hayward, hard working librarians, are busily engaged in stamping and punching the loose leaf holes in some new music for distribution. "Get your latest copies of 'Congo Water' and 'Dartmouth Undying,'" they sing out as they move through the aisles between selections.

In the foyer just outside the hall, President Bob Carlson and a couple of his Concert Committee are taking a few minutes out of rehearsal to get some important business settled with Don Simonds of the Rotary club relative to the program for the coming concert.

Throughout the entire rehearsal Mary Louise Wood is doing her wonderful supporting job at the piano. Occasionally she hears some errant bass wandering off his part like a lost steer, only to coax him back again by bearing down on the bass score a bit more heavily, at the same time giving him a tolerant and encouraging smile. Sometimes she doesn't smile - she glares - and the young bass decides maybe he better shut up and quit faking until he has learned his music.

Great exuberance fills the hall between each selection worked on. The men obviously love the music they are singing. They are keen about their conductor who keeps up the pace of the rehearsal and supplies no little humor too.

We are told the club will welcome any visitors who may care to drop in of a Monday evening. The usual hospitality will be shown. In fact you will even be given a copy of the number they are singing so you may follow the score as they rehearse it. The club loves an audience. It even rehearses well fundamentally for its own enjoyment, and that's why it is real entertainment to listen to them.

Having seen this club of men with its "hair down", so to speak, the writer wouldn't miss the coming concert for a considerable sum of money. It cannot fail to be a swell performance.

Better get your tickets in a hurry as they are selling fast. All Rotary club members possess them now, but at the rate they are going, the hall will be sold out before March fifth. Buy yourself a dollar and twenty cents worth of sheer pleasure and aid charity at the same time.

On the same program Susan Hight will appear as a soloist. Those who attended the recent Staff and Key Society production as well as the Winton club show know that this young Winchester girl has a most pleasing mezzo soprano voice and a delightful personality. A graduate of Colby Junior college, Miss Hight has studied voice and is developing a fine talent.

Melby, dean of the School, announced yesterday.

Derwood Baker of the School of Education and will be attended by more than a thousand principals, superintendents and teachers from secondary schools located throughout the United States.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL BUILDING FUND

Memorial Gifts-Past and Present

To those who have given memorial gifts to the Winchester Hospital in past years, the Building Fund Committee has something to say which it considers very important. Many rooms in the Hospital have bronze nameplates recording a gift when the first hospital unit was built on Highland avenue in 1917, and later, when the wing was added in 1927. These gifts represent permanent investments in the Hospital property, and all records of them will be carefully preserved and will be included in the allotments of units in the enlarged and reconstructed hospital.

The nameplates will, of course, be undisturbed wherever in the present building the rooms will continue to serve the same use as at present. The revised plans leave relatively undisturbed the rooms on the second and third floors of the present building. There will be extensive reconstruction affecting the first floor, and less fundamental changes on the fourth floor. Whenever there is a memorial unit in the reconstructed areas which in future will be devoted to a use different from the original one, the donors will be consulted when they are available in order that space in the new hospital may continue the function served by the present memorial room. When no representative of the donors can be found, the Building Fund Committee will make itself responsible for preserving the original investment in connection with some spot in the new hospital.

The Committee is getting in touch with all past memorial donors insofar as their whereabouts are known. Friends of the Hospital can help in making connection between the Building Fund Committee and families who may no longer live in Winchester.

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS PAID HERE

The Social Security Administration reports that in the year 1948 more than three and one-quarter million dollars were spent in this area for Old-Age and Survivors Insurance benefits.

The area served by this office includes the cities and towns of Cambridge, Somerville, Newton, Woburn, Arlington, Watertown, Belmont, Winchester, Lexington, Bedford and Burlington.

The monthly benefits in the month of December 1948 in the town of Winchester are approximately as follows:

Town of Winchester Monthly Benefit
Retired workers, aged 65 and over $4,909.76
Wives, aged 65 and over, of retired workers 885.69
Children of deceased or retired workers 1,138.15
Aged widows of workers 1,182.42
Widows with children under 18 years of age 832.81

In the absence of persons entitled to monthly benefits, lump sums were paid approximately as follows in the year 1948.

Amount $5,204.38

The local office issues account numbers, aids in the development and processing of claims for Old-Age and Survivors Insurance benefits and furnishes information to the general public on all phases of the program.

It further aids fraternal, veteran, civic and business organizations to become better acquainted with the program by furnishing speakers for their various meetings.

It is suggested that persons who are about to attain age 65 or survivors of persons who have worked in employment covered by the Social Security Act contact the office promptly for advice and assistance in filing claims because benefit payments are retroactive for only a short period of time and such action may avoid a loss in benefit payments.

These persons may contact us by calling in person, by telephoning, or by mail. The telephone number is Kirkland 7-7179 and the office is open five (5) days a week, Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

VALENTINE SUPPER FROLIC

On Tuesday evening the Winchester Teachers' Club was royally entertained by Miss Rich and teachers of the Noonan and Washington Schools. The auditorium looked very festive with Streamers, colored hearts and a beautiful bouquet of red carnations and white snapdragons presented to the Club by Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Ayer. Seventy six members and guests sat around in small groups and enjoyed a delicious meal served buffet style. The tables, beautifully decorated with colored cloths and centerpiece with plants or flowers, were laden with delicious sliced ham, chile con carne, salads of many varieties, rolls, butter pickles, hot coffee, cakes and cookies. As much and more than could be eaten was artistically arranged and the invitation to come back for "as much as you want" was all one needed for a return trip.

Tom Morse, acting as Master of Ceremonies, helped the depleted treasury by auctioning off the remainder of the food. He then introduced Fred Felmet who led—"community sing," accompanied by his wife. This was followed by an hour of square dancing. Betty Beckett of Boston University calling for the dances. Dr. and Mrs. Norris led the Grand March, with Mr. and Mrs. Grindle, Mr. Ayer, Miss Rich, Miss Asher teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Drown and Mr. McKenzie following two by two. Gentlemen's coats were soon off and all were certainly enjoying the freedom and swing of square dancing. The Virginia Reel brought to a close, a very successful and friendly party.

Miss Rich and her teachers certainly deserve a great deal of thanks for such a successful party. Miss Barbara Haley deserves special mention as chairman of the food committee, as does Mr. Drown for the decoration, Mrs. Smith for all that she did and Mr. McKenzie for making the coffee. Thanks go, also, to Mr. and Mrs. Felmet and Mr. Morse for helping to make the evening such a great success for the Teachers' Club.

CANDIDATE FOR SELECTMAN

Voters of Winchester:

I wish to announce that I am a candidate for Selectman at the town election March 7.

Born and brought up in Winchester, as my father was before me, I am associated with my father and brother in the contracting and fuel oil business in Winchester.

I have the best possible reasons to want good government for the town. I own a home and am raising a family in Winchester and my business interests are centered here.

I would like the privilege of serving as Selectman. I am a graduate of the Winchester schools and of Tufts College Engineering School. I have served the town as a registrar of voters, resigning when I became a candidate for Selectman.

If you feel that I have the necessary qualifications, I will appreciate your vote. If elected, I will do my best to discharge the duties of Selectman in an efficient and impartial manner.

BARTON KINGMAN STEPHENSON

Barton Kingman Stephenson, 65 formerly of this town, died at Glen Cove, Long Island, New York last week. While at Harvard he was captain of the Varsity Baseball team, and he was president of the Massachusetts Golf Association for several years. He lived in Winchester on Maxwell road, and was active at the Calumet Club. Old time baseball fans will recall his long hitting while playing for the old town team on Manchester Field. Few put the ball into the river more often in those days.

A native of Boston, Mr. Stephenson was a graduate of the class of 1906 at Harvard. He was a member of the varsity baseball team for four years and captain his senior year. During his last two years at Harvard he was also head football cheer leader.

During World War 2 he entered the Merchant Marine service as a purser. For some years after leaving Winchester he has been in the insurance business in New York City.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Madge C. Lovell Stephenson, formerly of West Newton, two daughters, Mrs. David Huggins and Mrs. John Carlisle, two brothers, Harris G. and Benjamin T. Stephenson, and three sisters, Mrs. William L. Garrison, Mrs. Frank L. Willis, and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hamilton.

FOR WELFARE BOARD

CHARLES A. FARRAR

Voters of Winchester:

As a candidate for a position on the Board of Public Welfare, I wish to place before the Voters of Winchester my reasons and qualifications for seeking this office.

I was born in Melrose, Massachusetts, October 7, 1887. I have lived in Winchester since 1911. My three children were graduated from the Winchester schools. I own my home at 12 Myrtle street and work for the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in their Winchester office.

I have been interested in Welfare work since 1922, having served as a member and later Chairman of the Social and Community Welfare Committee of the B. P. O. Elks. I was Secretary and later President of St. Mary's Conference, Society of Saint Vincent de Paul.

This experience has given me a good background in Charitable and Welfare work. If elected, I feel sure I can be of assistance on the Public Welfare Board of Winchester.

If you feel these qualifications are enough, I would appreciate your vote in the Town Elections on March 7, 1949.

ROBERT A. JOHNSTON

FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

Voters of Winchester:

May we call to your attention the candidacy of Robert A. Johnston who seeks election to the Board of Park Commissioners at the coming town election.

From our knowledge of Mr. Johnston we believe he will, if elected, approach the duties of Park Commissioner carefully and discharge them impartially for the best interest of the entire town. He has lived here long enough to know what the town expects in the way of public service, has been active civically, is energetic, approachable and fair.

We urge his election on March 7.

RE-ELECT AS ASSESSOR

MARSHALL R. PIHL

To the Voters of Winchester:

Last year, I was elected to serve as Assessor for a term of one year. I have enjoyed the work and have discharged the duties of that office faithfully and impartially.

Since March 4, 1948 my regularity of attendance at the usual Thursday meetings has been as good as any member of the board.

In addition, with the other two Assessors, I have devoted a great many extra days to the work of the department with the result that despite the unusual amount of building this year, the work of the department was completed earlier than usual.

I would appreciate your support of my candidacy at the coming election.

ROTONDI FOR SELECTMAN

Voters of Winchester:

That you may determine my fitness to administer the office of Selectman I offer herewith my qualifications and some of the reasons why I seek this office.

I was born June 27, 1906, in Dedham of Italian-American parentage, moving to Stoneham at the age of six and graduating from Stoneham High School in 1924. While pitching for Stoneham against Winchester and the great Francis Tansey I decided that some day I would live in this town.

After graduation I worked for my father in the contracting firm of S. Rotondi & Sons, rated today among the top firms in that field. I hadn't forgotten my decision to settle in Winchester and in 1929 I came to this town, a year later marrying a Winchester girl, Mary Gertrude Brazeau, who was born in Winchester, and whose mother, daughter of the late Patrick Mulrenan, was also born here.

I studied engineering at M. I. T. for two years and then plan reading and estimating at Wentworth Institute, from which I was graduated in 1931. At that time I started my own business, the Winchester Contracting Company, which I still operate successfully, and also founded the Winchester Fuel Oil Company, the first fuel oil company started and operated in Winchester by a local man. This I was forced to give up because of the press of my contracting business.

In 1934, with five children, I began the study of law at Northeastern, graduating with the LL.B. Degree in 1938. I now have ten children, six boys and four girls, seven of whom attend the Winchester schools.

Don't you think this last fact alone gives me a real interest in Winchester and instills in me the desire to do my part to keep Winchester's civic standard high?

It is true I haven't served on the Finance Committee, believed by many to be necessary experience for a Selectman. I have, however, supervised construction jobs in this state totalling millions of dollars, and two years ago handled the $600,000. Western Avenue construction job in Lynn and Salem. This in part at least makes up for what I may lack in Finance Committee training.

For the past two years I have served as venerable (president) of Winchester Lodge, Sons of Italy. I have also been grand deputy of the Massachusetts Grand Lodge, and recently was elected recording secretary of the Christopher Columbus Lodge. My associates in both orders recognize my ability to accept responsibility.

I have served as town meeting member, and have never failed to take a stand in town affairs. I have served on War Bond drives and as a member of the Winchester State Guard Company, being one of the first to enlist and being a corporal under Captain Leslie Tucker. It was while serving with this company during the war years that I definitely decided intolerance does not exist in Winchester.

People have told me no one of Italian ancestry can be elected in Winchester, that things are all cut and dried and that certain sections of the town control elections and everything else.

I say "no"! I believe all the voters, not just one section of them, should and do decide elections, and after serving with men like "Les" Tucker, Morris Kerr, Henry Dellicker, Charles Wadsworth, James Dwinell and Ernest Duckworth I am sure that no one in this town will be beaten for public office because he is of Italian extraction. If he hasn't the qualifications, he should not be elected, whether he be Italian, English, Irish or Dutch.

I honestly believe I have the qualifications to serve the town as Selectman. I would esteem it an honor to serve as a member of the Board and I will, if elected, serve faithfully and to the very best of my ability. I have every reason to want good government in town, the town I love, the town I chose in which to raise my family, and the town in which I own several large properties.

I feel that my candidacy is more than the mere seeking of office. I feel that it will show beyond doubt that Winchester welcomes people of Italian extraction and does not choose its public service by race or creed.

I earnestly await the answer of the voters at the polls.

Established and Rooted to Winchester.

JAMES H. COON

CANDIDATE FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

Voters of Winchester:

I want to urge every one who can do so to vote at the town election on March 7.

I am a candidate for Park Commissioner and hope that my qualifications may appeal to you sufficiently to get your vote. If elected, I will do my best to serve the whole town honestly and impartially.

I am 60 years old, have lived in town 16 years and own my home at 12 Brooks street. I have eight children, two daughters and six sons, all of whom have gone through the Winchester schools or are now attending them.

I have a very vital interest in the town, have the time necessary to devote to the duties of Park Commissioner and would be glad to serve in this capacity to the best of my ability as a public service in return for what the town has done for me and mine.

We have a lot of park property in Winchester. I believe it should be maintained so it will be a credit to the community and give to the taxpayer the greatest return possible in appearance and recreational facilities.

HARRY GOOD

Harry Good, widely known horseman and a former resident of Winchester, died Tuesday, February 22, at his home, 14 Franklin avenue, Medford, following a month's illness. He spent a lifetime in the horse business and his riding school adjacent to his home was the oldest in Greater Boston.

Mr. Good was the son of Henry, and Jennie (Lee) Good. He was born in Cork, Ireland, February 22, 1881, coming to this country in 1902. He settled in New York where he worked with horses, coming to Winchester in 1917.

At that time he started a riding school and stable on the old Hawes property adjacent to Pike's Garage, living at 664 Main street beside the stable. He remained in Winchester until 1928 when he moved to Medford. For more than 20 years he had conducted one of the largest stables hereabouts with 105 horses. Many Winchester riders learned horsemanship from Mr. Good.

For several years he sponsored the Winchester Horse Show, which was held at his grounds until the association acquired its own grounds near the Country Club. He also conducted the Oyster Harbor Horse Show at Osterville. He was a member of Samuel Crocker Lawrence Lodge of Masons in Medford, of the Massachusetts Horse Show Council, Horse and Mule Association of Waterfield Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Mr. Good's wife, Mrs. Ella R. Good, died in 1940. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Karahalis of Medford; two brothers, H. B. Good of Winnipeg, Canada, and T. A. Good of Cork, Ireland; and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Good, Mrs. James MacAdoo and Mrs. Henry Whitney, all of Cork.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at the late residence with Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Medford.

Crocuses were in bloom yesterday on the grounds of the Winchester Savings Bank, a far cry from conditions as they prevailed this time a year ago.

EVERETT D. CHADWICK

Everett D. Chadwick of 24 Everett avenue, retired patent lawyer and for nearly 50 years a resident of Winchester, died Monday, February 21, at his home following a brief illness with heart disease.

Mr. Chadwick was the son of Harrison E. and Ellen E. (Tucker) Chadwick. He was born August 13, 1867, in Bradford, attended the Bradford schools and prepared for college at Phillips Andover Academy. After graduating from Williams College he went to Washington, D. C., where he worked for six years in the Government Patent Office.

Returning to Boston, Mr. Chadwick entered a law office where he worked days, studying law at Boston University nights. He was graduated from B. U. Law School and for a time had his own office on State street in Boston, specializing in patent law and being a member of the Massachusetts, Illinois and Federal bars.

Mr. Chadwick filed the original patent for the Gillette safety razor company and soon afterward joined the company, taking charge of its patent and copyright affairs. He was associated with Gillette for 25 years until his retirement from the firm in 1931. Following his retirement he continued active as director of the New England Trawler Equipment Company, Spray Engineering Company and of the Sarah Fuller Foundation for the Instruction of Deaf Children.

Mr. Chadwick married Adele Davis of Haverhill October 26, 1899, and they came to Winchester two years after their marriage. He was a member of the Winchester Monday Club, and of the Winchester Country Club. Active civically, for six years he was chairman of the Winchester Board of Appeal.

He leaves his wife, two sons, Rep. Harrison Chadwick of Winchester and John Chadwick, a member of the Washington staff of the Associated Press; a daughter, Mrs. William H. Mitchell, Jr., of Winchester; a sister, Miss Mary H. Chadwick of Bradford; and five grandchildren, Adele E., Everett Chadwick, and William H. Ledger Mitchell, 3rd, and John D., and Elizabeth Vaughn Chadwick.

Private funeral services were conducted on Wednesday afternoon at the late residence by Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

CANDIDATE FOR ASSESSOR

JOHN F. CASSIDY

Voters of Winchester:

May I remind you that I am a candidate for election to the Board of Assessors on March 7.

For 23 years I served the town as assessor. During that time I learned a lot about the duties and also the limitations of the office of assessor which should make any further service I may be privileged to give the town in this capacity the more efficient. There is after all no substitute for experience.

I should be glad of the opportunity to return to the Board of Assessors. I enjoyed the work while on the Board, and have the time necessary to devote to the office. My 35 years in the real estate and insurance brokerage business in Winchester have given me a valuable local background.

As a taxpayer and property owner I have every reason to want, and to work for the very best possible government for the town in which I have made my home for the past 45 years. I will appreciate your support.

RICHARD C. CUNNINGHAM

CANDIDATE FOR SELECTMAN

To the Voters of Winchester:

Believing that Winchester is anxious to maintain its present reputation for a competent and able Town government, and feeling that the voters should and will carefully consider the qualifications of all of the men offering themselves as candidates for the various vacancies in the Town government, I wish to outline below my reasons for being a candidate for the office of Selectman.

1. It is my belief that my ten years as a resident and home owner in Winchester has allowed me to absorb and understand the traditionally high standard of civic ideals held by the lifelong residents of the town, and at the same time, view with sympathetic understanding the problems of that group of citizens who have lived here but a short time.

2. With the experience gained in three years on the Finance Committee and as Chairman of several of its sub-committees dealing with budgets submitted by the Board of Selectmen, I feel that I am familiar with the present administrative problems, and aware of some of the serious situations which the Town will have to face in the next few years.

3. As the father of two children now enrolled in the Winchester school system, I am vitally interested in maintaining a high civic standard for the town in which my children will grow up.

4. My college education and engineering degree should be of help in connection with engineering problems which may confront the Board of Selectmen in the near future.

5. Twelve years experience as a Sales Manager in the steel industry has provided a background which could be useful in connection with personnel and publicity work.

6. Past membership and service with the Auxiliary Police has provided an insight into the workings of our excellent Police and Fire Departments whose administration comes under the jurisdiction of the Selectmen.

It is my strong conviction that the present Town government administration has generally followed an economically efficient and wisely conservative policy and, if elected, I intend to follow this same policy, reserving the right to advocate and work for such changes as may seem advantageous to the community.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

A fascinating and novel topic, "State Design and Designers", supplemented by a valuable exhibit of settings and costumes from current New York stage hits by top American designers, will engage the interest of members of the Winchester Art Association at the meeting Tuesday evening, March 1, at 8 o'clock in the Art Gallery, Winchester Public Library. The exhibit is open to the public from March 2 to March 29 during library hours, and the Association extends a special invitation to all those interested in the problems of stage scenery and costumes to see these most illuminating drawings.

Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff has secured this fine exhibit for Winchester, and will be the speaker Tuesday evening on the subject of "Stage Design and Designers", using a model stage to illustrate her points of color, design and lighting. Mrs. Samoiloff, who really needs no instruction to most local art enthusiasts -- is a gifted teacher and lecturer, taught in the Drama Departments of Tufts College and the Cambridge Upper School, studied dancing under Ruth St. Denis, served as an apprentice in the Neighborhood Playhouse (California), studied at the Moscow Art Theatre and was the only American permitted to act in the group scenes. She worked for two seasons under Max Reinhardt in New York, and for four years studied costumes and scenery in the American Laboratory Theatre in New York City. Her other interests have included a study of art -- and many notable mural decorations have been executed by this craftsman. During World War II she served as one of the distinguished leaders in Russian War Relief.

Exhibit by Designers

There is a story behind this exhibit of American stage designers, which visitors to the Gallery during March might enjoy knowing. Mrs. Samoiloff personally drove to New York twice to obtain the coveted drawings -- she contacted, visited, and caajoled key designers -- many of whom are her personal friends -- into lending their drawings. Some of the sketches (a weak word, for beautiful pieces of art) are from the current exhibit in the New York Metropolitan Museum -- pieces that could not be used for lack of space. Many others are the cherished possessions of the owners, who loaned them to Mrs. Samoiloff. And so, by dint of much writing, phoning, miles of travel -- of being caught in the snow storm in Wallingford, Conn., all night and using in a sleeping bag -- Mrs. Samoiloff brought some $11,000 worth of these designs to Winchester. People here will have a rare opportunity when this exhibit is opened, and from this town, it will go to Tufts College and the Museum School of Art, where Mrs. Samoiloff will lecture.

There are colorful and breath-taking sketches of costumes for such musicals as "Shootin' Star", with bits of lovely materials glued right to the card -- for talented Kenn Barr from South Dakota designed these costumes for "Billy the Kid" character, and they are amazing. Kenn Barr also designs gowns for women -- and he is one designer who actually executes his own costumes.

David Folkes' fabulous sketches of masques, his charming costumes for "Sleepy Hollow" (you'll see just how Mrs. Van Brunt and Ichabod should be dressed, the lovely brocated jackets and lace jabots for men in the chorus, his costumes for Maurice Evans, for "Man and Superman", and for "Brigadoon", "Henry VIII" -- all these sketches may be seen at the exhibit, together with a sample of materials and even buttons!

Donald Oenslager (who did settings for "Tristan and Isolde"), Jo Mielziner, Stewart Chaney, Frederick Fox, Woodman Thompson (in the 1920's he did sets and costumes for most of the Barrymore plays); Oliver Smith, Lucinda Ballard, Aline Bernstein, Herman Rossi -- these are just a few of the designers represented in this fine and carefully chosen exhibit by Mrs. Samoiloff.

To see American designers as people and as real factors in the plays America enjoys and loves today, one should make a definite appointment to see these sketches in the Library.

It pays to Advertise in the STAR.

EPISCOPAL MEN MET AT EPIPHANY

Nearly three hundred men of the Episcopal North Suburban Area met on the morning of Washington's Birthday at the Church of the Epiphany for their annual service and breakfast.

At the service of Holy Communion, held at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Epiphany, was assisted by Archdeacon Arthur O. Phinney, a resident of Winchester, by the Rev. Howard R. Lewis of Woburn and the Rev. Morris F. Arnold of Medford.

Actually 290 men met for breakfast in the church parish house after the service. The Epiphany Men's Club prepared and served the breakfast and the boys of the Young People's Fellowship acted as waiters.

Ernest A. Scott, chairman of the North Suburban Area, presided at the business meeting. Dean Charles L. Taylor of the Episcopal Theological School spoke of the great need of recruiting men for the ministry.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET

Following the delightful annual custom established by the Women's League of the First Baptist Church a Mother and Daughter evening will be held in the Social Hall of the Church on Thursday, March 3rd. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock, at which time Miss Shirley Marchant will present a toast to the Mothers, and a member of the League will toast the Daughters.

Mrs. Ernest L. Mills will be the guest speaker on the subject "Mother and I Look at the World." Mrs. Mills is a most entertaining speaker and her talk will be of interest to daughters of all ages, from the smallest up.

Supper reservations should be made with Mrs. Martin Swanson as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

Vice President Thomas M. Hennessey of the N. E. Tel. & Tel. Co., and Chairman of the town Finance Committee, was the guest speaker at the weekly luncheon and meeting of the Rotary Club of Winchester yesterday noon. Mr. Hennessey, a resident of Cabot street, gave an interesting talk on "Post War Expansion To Meet Telephone Needs."

WINCHESTER DEFEATS CONWAY, N. H.

Winchester High travelled to Conway, N. H., last Saturday to defeat Kennett High of that town by a score of 36 to 24. The game was played as one of the features of the Winter Carnival being conducted last week end by Kennett High and the Red and Black put on a good show for the Conway fans. The victory was hard-earned and a note worthy one for the locals as Kennett High is one of the better teams in the state and has been selected for the State Class "B" Tournament being held this week at the University of New Hampshire.

Until the middle of the third period the game was very close as Kennett had a considerable height advantage on the locals and set up a tight zone defense that Winchester found very difficult to penetrate. Kennett was forced to abandon its zone defense during that period and the locals took command of the situation at that point to go on to win handily. In the last quarter the New Hampshire boys were limited to only one point as the locals controlled the ball very well, made very few bad passes, and refused to give up possession of the ball until they had a clear shot at the basket. The Conway boys were off in their shooting in that period, also, as they were pressing and getting off hurried shots at the basket that were not accurate.

At the end of the first quarter Winchester held only a 6 to 5 lead, which they had increased to 19 to 15 at the half. Kennett scored the first two baskets of the second half to tie the score at 19 to 19, but the Red and Black went on from there to have a good third period and to build up a 31 to 23 lead at the end of that period. Paul Roche and Pete Dillingham played outstanding games for Winchester. Roche did a good job of guarding Arnie Quint, the Kennett High scorer, and was setting up numerous plays and driving in beautifully on the offense. Dillingham scored all of his eight points in the second half when they were most valuable and was all over the floor getting possession of the ball for the locals. Arnie Quint of Kennett was a fine performer, as his total of 289 points for the season testifies, and was considered by the Winchester players as one of the best players they have faced this year.

WOBURN HERE TONIGHT

Winchester High plays its final home game of the season tonight when they tangle with Woburn High at the local gym. A capacity crowd will undoubtedly be on hand for this contest as Woburn is enjoying a good season and the local fans would like nothing better than to see their favorites trip the visitors. Woburn has lost only to Arlington, Watertown and Winthrop and in the past two weeks has avenged earlier losses to both Watertown and Winthrop.

Although the Orange and Black of Woburn will be favored over the Red and Black of Winchester, the locals prefer it that way and are confident of upsetting their arch rivals. Winchester enters the game sporting a six game winning streak and playing their best ball of the season after a faltering start. The fact that Woburn is being given serious consideration for an invitation to the Class "B" Tech Tournament is added incentive to the locals to go all out for a victory that would really stamp this as a successful season for the Red and Black. The fireworks start at 7:30 p. m. with a second team game. The line ups:

RAN FINE RELAY LEG

Tom Kirwan of Glen road, former Winchester High track captain and half-mile champ, ran another great race for University of Pennsylvania at Madison Square Garden, N. Y., last Saturday night when the Red and Blue beat Manhattan, New York A. C. and Army in the two mile relay event at the National A.A.U. Track Meet.

Running the third leg, Kirwan started 1 1/2 yards behind O'Connell of Manhattan and made up practically all of this distance with a corking half-mile effort. Strassenburg, Penn., anchor, jumped the Manhattan anchor with a lap to go and held on to win by a yard, but it was the yardage made up by Winchester's Kirwan that really won the race. Penn.'s time, 7m 49.7s was fast.

CHAMOIS SKI CLUB

The local ski club met February 16th at 8:00 p. m. at the usual place, Staff Rogers.

The results of the meet had not yet been received, however, it was believed that the club made a good showing in the meet at Laconia, N. H. on February 13th.

Plans were discussed on the meet February 20th at Intervale, N. H. Movies were shown on the hazards of skiing and the group learned with skiing. Refreshments were also served.

The next meeting will be held March 2nd, 8:00 p. m. at the same place of Staff Rogers.

NORRIS WON AGAIN

"Ted" Norris of Church street continued his winning way for the Harvard swimming team last Saturday though the Crimson lost its first meet of the season to Army, 41-34, at the Harvard pool. Norris outswam Rowell and Herte of Army in the 440 yard freestyle in 4m 59.6s.

A group of six Winchester men attended the three day "Dads' Week End" at Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N. H., February 19th to 20th. Included in the Winchester group were Messrs. Alvan C. Smith, Lawrence Dallar, James N. Jones, Sherman W. Saltmarsh, Henry B. Harris and John E. Allen. All of the gentlemen have sons at Kimball Union. The boys attending are Alvan Smith, Crombie Dallin, James Jones, Sherman Saltmarsh, Peter Harris and John Allen.

WINCHESTER WINS IN ARENA

Winchester High conducted its Middlesex League schedule by defeating Concord High at the Boston Arena last Friday afternoon by a score of 39 to 28. This victory gave the Red and Black a record of eight wins and six defeats in League competition and fourth place in the final League standing.

Winchester opened up an 8 to 5 lead at the end of the first quarter as both teams were a little tight about playing on the Boston Arena surface. The scoring mounted in the second quarter as the teams loosened up and the Red and Black left the floor at the half-time with a 22 to 15 lead. Winchester enjoyed a good third quarter to virtually sew up the game as they went ahead 32 to 19 at the end of that period. Coach Bartlett rested his regulars during most of the last quarter and gave his substitutes some valuable experience as the Red and Black coasted in to an easy victory.

This victory emphasizes again the tremendous improvement of the locals in the closing weeks of the season as Winchester had considerable trouble edging Concord by five points in their first meeting at Winchester four weeks ago. Captain Ken Donaghey was again the key man in the Winchester attack as he netted 20 points and was cutting beautifully to drive in for successful lay-up shots. This was the third time this year that Donaghey has scored 20 points or more in a single game and raises his scoring average to 13 points per game for the season to date.

FRESHMEN WIN FINAL GAME

The Winchester High Freshmen completed their regular schedule with a 56 to 33 victory over the Wakefield Freshmen at Wakefield last Friday afternoon. This victory gives the Winchester Freshmen a record of seven victories and three defeats for the season and several of these boys show promise of developing into future varsity material. Johnny Farrell with 17 points and Paul McGowan with 14 points were the high scorers for the Red and Black.

In the preliminary game the Winchester Junior High team completed an undefeated season with nine victories as they trounced the Wakefield Junior High 46 to 24. Carleton was high scorer for the game as he netted 12 points for Winchester. This is the first time that Winchester Junior High has been represented by a basketball team and it has proven to be a most beneficial as well as a most successful experiment.

WINCHESTER GIRLS WIN LAST GAME

Watertown Victim, 37-35

In a nip-and-tuck game at Watertown last Thursday afternoon the Winchester High School girls' basketball team eked out a single basket, 37-35 victory over the Watertown High girls in the season's final game for the local lassies.

Winchester had to come from behind to win, Watertown having an 18-15 advantage at half time. Only "Ginny" Gaffney, the game's high scorer, was clicking for Winchester the first half while Water's Kazanjian and Cousineau were both finding the hoop.

"Ginny" continued her good work in the second half and got some help from Marilyn Chase who tallied 12 points.

The Winchester seconds had no trouble winning the preliminary game, 29-13. The varsity summary:

SAMPSON WROTE OF "JIM-FITZ"

Winchester had on Tuesday its second story in the "Stars of Yesterday" feature of the Boston Herald being written by Arthur Sampson, former Tufts coach and veteran sports writer. Horace Ford, local restaurateur, was one of the first former sports luminaries written about, and on Tuesday big "Jim" Fitzgerald was the subject of Mr. Sampson's word picture.

It was natural for Mr. Sampson to recall in his article the prodigious dropkick made by "Fitz" in the Mass. State game in 1927, when Tufts had an unbeaten year. With everyone believing a fake play was in the making the big tackle dropped back and booted a field goal from 53 yards out. Your Star reporter was in the stands at the time and always figured the kick started from 55 yards out. It would have gone over on 65 yards. The ball was still on the way up when it went over the cross-bar.

Be that as it may, it was a great kick, one of the best dropkicks of all time. "Fitz's" father thought so. He was also in the stands with Ernest Eustis, and the late Frank Duffy and Jack Flaherty. The hearty whoops of this quartet of rooters, plus the joyous yelps of your reporter must have been audible above even the surprised roar of the cheering section. It was a great day for the House of Fitzgerald and for Winchester!

WINCHESTER SCRIMMAGED WESTERLY

Coach Ted Bartlett took his Winchester High School basketball team to the Tufts gymnasium Wednesday afternoon to scrimmage the Western R. I. high school quintet, coached by the former Winchester coach, all around athlete and ex-B. C. football star, Andy Lentine. Andy brought his team to Boston this week to prepare for the Tech Tournament, in which his will be one of the contesting Rhode Island schools. His club with a record of 15 wins in 17 games is currently leading its league and assured of no worse than a tie for the circuit championship. Westerly is a hot-bed of basketball, and although graduation decimated a great team of last year, Lentine has come up with another fine club.

Andy didn't have a good football season at Westerly, but was not expected to do much, due of poor material. In talking to Coach Bartlett while at Tufts of "Tentine" said he might have to coach golf come spring! Are you listening down Pomfret way Coach Mansfield?

GREAT TIME AT CONWAY!

The Winchester High basketball party that travelled to Conway, N. H., last weekend reported that a most enjoyable trip was had by all. The Winchester High team played Kennett High of Conway as one of the features of the Winter Carnival being held by Kennett High School. The fact that the locals won the game 36 to 24, as described elsewhere in this issue, helped to make the trip a whole lot more enjoyable.

Every minute of the party's stay in Conway was carefully planned and arranged. Upon arrival around noon on Saturday the boys were treated to a steak dinner and then whisked to Mt. Cranmore at North Conway. They were interested spectators at the skating and every members of the party took a ride up the skimobile to the top of Mt. Cranmore and were enthralled with the beauty of the view from the mountain top. From North Conway the party went on up to Jackson where some of them were able to see the new ski development at Mt. Thorn.

The party then returned to the high school where a delicious supper was served in the cafeteria, attended by members of both teams which gave the boys a real chance to get acquainted. Following the game, the boys on the squad were provided with escorts and enjoyed the Carnival Ball while Coach Bartlett had the pleasant task of crowning the Queen of the Ball. The boys were then taken to private homes for the night, in most cases being guests of members of the Kennett High squad. They reassembled at noon on Sunday to make the return trip and many a story will be recited for weeks to come as a result of the memorable weekend.

The members of the party were loud in their praise of the sportsmanship and conduct of the Conway players and fans. The officiating was as good as the locals have encountered this year and the fans were generous with their approval and applause for a good play by either team. The reverse was true, also, as several spectators and the game officials made a special effort to seek out the Winchester party to praise the locals for their splendid exhibition of basketball and fine display of sportsmanship. The game attracted the largest crowd of the year and the Conway authorities evidenced their approval of the performance turned in by the Red and Black by inviting them to return again next year.

Thanks for the whole affair go to George T. Davidson, Jr., headmaster of Kennett High School. George is a Winchester boy, graduating in 1934, and was happy to present representatives from his former home town to his friends in his adopted town of Conway (as he said, he had been bragging about Winchester up there for years). George was responsible for every detail of the weekend and spared no effort to make the trip the most pleasant possible. All sixteen members of the Winchester party can vouch for the fact that he succeeded one hundred per cent.

"THE FORGOTTEN MEN"

Editor of the Star:

We read recently a statement by the Chairman of our School Committee, in which he hoped the taxpayers would not consider themselves as forgotten men.

He needn't worry! The taxpayers are not too well remembered, and they won't forget in a hurry
the greatest spending school committee in the history of Winchester.

It is his forgotten men whose money this great committee wishes to spend, some two million dollars as an opening wedge, not forgetting before completion of any project, the final figure always runs some 20% greater.

He also objects to a pupil spending too many years in any one school, and states it has been proven it is not beneficial to the child.

Just what the proof is we do not know, but it would seem to us that every child has a complete change every single year, rooms, teachers, and some companions. It could be, too, that the pupil isn't in such a hurry to leave his old familiar school as the chairman might suppose.

A statement was made by another member of this greatest of all spending committees that the new Andrews Hill school will be finished within its original contract.

This is certainly good news, and sets at rest persistent rumors that more money is going to be necessary and that plans had to be changed and that the finished product isn't what it was going to be and that the school will be very nearly filled the day it is opened.
If this last is so, we can expect a clamor for an addition there soon to add more cigarette money to the taxes of the men the School Committee doesn't want to feel forgotten!

This same committee member,
in trying to soften up these million dollar blows, referred to them as cigarette money, only the cost of a package a week, $1.16, per thousand dollars of property valuation, per year.

We question this $1.16 figure, which probably covers a package of "El Ropo's," and think he should try to do business with a more expensive brand, "Gold Brick," for example. This would be nearer the actual cost of $2.00.

This reference to cigarettes was good, as one can build up a beautiful smoke screen with them.
This $2.00 "Gold Brick" package really means each home owner adds $20.00 per year to his tax if his property valuation is $10,000, $30.00 if $15,000, and $40.00 if $20,- 000.

Mr. Forgotten Taxpayer, just pay this little amount each year for the short period of 20 years, and then you can tear up the mortgage, and stop smoking, but don't forget this is only an extra.

Your town taxes have got to go up also in spite of all efforts of your Finance Committee, who are doing everything to keep these rising taxes as low as possible.

These school committee spenders all knew that the taxes in Winchester have averaged a $4.00 increase for the past four years, and they also knew this year would be no exception.

Did they give this any consideration? Apparently not, except to say Winchester citizens can well afford more tax dollars.

They travelled along a single track, on a one way street, and apparently they never gave thought to some of their fellow citizens, who couldn't find places to live in,
and finally in desperation bought homes at prices they simply could not afford.

What with mortgages, high cost of foods, clothing, and steadily rising taxes, just how are they going to keep these homes? How did that cigarette money stuff sound to them?

The American Sugar Refinery has just been reported going to build a beautiful office building in Boston. To-day the plan is withdrawn, because of excessive costs.
We all know business is disturbly quiet industry as a whole has reversed itself, your newspapers are giving you higher figures of unemployment every week, and yet this high spending school committee comes through with a $2,000,000 plan, no substitutes!

The members have been very busy on a lecture tour of the town.
Is it possible they feel a little uneasy about their plans, and think it well to try a little salesmen-ship on the people, or is it just a little old fashioned spell-binding to soften the blow.

We are just finishing a brand new school on the west side; we probably need to start an addition to the Mystic School, and we had then better take a breather before we run our necks in a noose, and ruin the town's borrowing capacity, not forgetting our forgotten men.

It might also be well to remember we all are in business in Winchester, and what our neighboring towns are doing is of interest to them, and not to us.

Apparently these greatest of all spenders never ate an apple. If they had, they would know an apple cannot be eaten in one bite. The smaller the apple, the bigger the bite, and the larger the apple the smaller the bite. Eating an apple has an application to our school and other municipal problems, could our School Committee and other town fathers only see it!

POLITICAL HONESTY PAYS

Editor of the Star:

No individual in the body politic is more despised or lower in the social scale than the politician who votes for what he considers his own interest rather than for the good of all the people. Just before the last election a Congressman was asked if he favored a certain measure. "Yes," he answered.
"Will you vote for it?" "That would be political suicide," he replied.

"What this country needs most today is Congressmen who will vote for what they think is right whether they are reelected or not."
When the people learn that the legislator who represents them will do that, they will see to it that he is reelected. Exemplifying the truth of this is the record of the late Walter S. Goodland, Republican Governor of Wisconsin. The people learned that he was honest, conscientious, fair, and fearless.

He vetoed more than sixty bills sent to him by the legislature for his signature because he considered them unsound. These bills were supported by such groups as the LaFollette Progressives, the Socialists, New Deal Democrats, Republicans of his own party, Veterans, and Labor Unions. Notwithstanding, he received such tributes as, "Our most honest governor in forty years." "One of the finest governors Wisconsin has ever had," this from a member of an opposing party. "I have always fought Republicans," said the editor of the Madison Capital Times at a meeting of young Democrats,

"but as long as Walter Goodland is governor he is going to be backed by my paper." When he ran for reelection in his second campaign he made no promises, returned all campaign contributions, said tax reduction was out of the question, paid his own expenses which amounted to a little over two thousand dollars, and when the ballots were counted it was found that he had received more than the combined total of all his opponents.
At that time he was over eighty years of age, the oldest governor in the nation.

This teaches that uprightness in the long run, even in politics, is the best policy. Honesty is the mother of confidence, it lightens the heart, engenders hope and courage, and helps to overcome the difficulties that beset one.

At the head of our Government today we have a dyed in the wool, Pendergast, New Deal politician.
With that sort of mind one may chart his probable political course with reasonable accuracy. For the last twelve years the New Deal administrators have made a favored class of organized labor, exempt from constitutional law. France went the same way to the most amazing debacle that ever befell a great nation.

What must we do in order to be saved? To begin with, "suffer not yourself to be betrayed by a kiss."
Beware of the selfish politicians. If you see a wrong, publicize it. Heed the warnings of our elder statesmen. Join in non-political, bi-partisan movements for the good of the nation. There is no difference between an honest, patriotic Republican and a Democrat with the same attributes.

The Hon. William R. Pattangall of Maine, an outstanding Democrat until alienated by the impossible
New Deal, was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of his state. In one of his published articles he wrote, "The real fact is that the whole, vast scheme of federal aid is a delusion and a snare. It is especially designed to encourage extravagance, waste and political corruption. Either federal money is divided among the states proportionately to the revenue derived from them, or the people of certain states are paying a part of the bills of other states as well as their own.
There is no such thing as federal aid. Buying a man's vote with his own money is the latest manifestation of the New Deal altruism."

President Wilson, Democrat, said in an address in Chicago, March 14, 1908, "Government commissions cannot possibly understand business better than those who conduct it. Their regulative interference with business will only complete the confusion and embarrassment into which we are so rapidly sliding. The old processes of law are the more difficult but the more effective."

Colonel House, politician and diplomatist, adviser to President Wilson, said there was only one man in the United States who could have defeated Governor Roosevelt in his first campaign for the presidency and he did not "choose to run." It was the quiet, unaffected, sincere Vermont Calvin Coolidge who said, "I favor a policy of economy, not because I want to save money, but because I wish to save people. The men and women of this country who toil are the ones who bear the cost of government.

Every dollar we carelessly waste means that their lives will be so much more meager. Every dollar that we prudently save means that their lives will be so much the more abundant. Economy is idealism in the most practical form."

It is plain to see why the people honored and supported Goodland and Coolidge. They were courageous, guileless and incorruptible.
They won the confidence of the electorate. The problems before the Congress today that are inciting its wrangling could be wisely solved by following their precepts.
It is neither trusted nor respected.
We must have government of the people, by the people, for the people if we are to be saved. That was Lincoln's idea of democracy.
Benjamin Franklin, Lord Macaulay,
Daniel Webster and our wisest elder statesmen uttered the same warning, recently repeated by President Daniel L. Marsh of Boston University who said, "Anything that trammels or restricts individual initiative, independence or self reliance leads inevitably to loss of national freedom and democracy."

Speak to your legislators. If democracy is worth having, it is worth fighting for.
Daniel C. Dennett, M.D.
Winchester, Mass.

CAN WINCHESTER KEEP GOOD TEACHERS

Editor of the Star:

Winchester readers possibly saw recently an article in a Boston newspaper to the effect that school committees generally may be blamed for the rising tax rates in Massachusetts cities and towns. Taking a few glaring examples of mismanagement, the journalist would have no regard for the tax paying public.

Studies by responsible educators have shown (1) that school committees not financially dependent on nor subservient to city and town officials do a better job in long term planning and running the schools than when dependent; (2) that school committees, with few exceptions, have been concerned with a community's ability to support schools; (3) that school committees, in most cases, can show a wiser use of public money than other departments of government.

The Winchester School Committee, elected directly by the people and responsible to them, has so conducted the school affairs during the last five years that school expenses have shown an increase of only two-tenths of one per cent in the proportion of Town revenue used.

Why then is there an increase in current school expenditures? The cheap dollar is responsible for this.
In 1939 the dollars purchasing power was $1.00; in January of this year it was 62 cents. Cheap dollars mean more dollars for school supplies, fuel, repairs, and teachers' salaries. In addition to the problem caused by the increase in living costs, the schools have had to compete with business, industry, the military service, and other school systems to get and keep a high calibre of teachers.

The salary median for Winchester women teachers in 1939-1940 was $1700; today it is $3100. On the basis of the current dollar's value, the purchasing power is $1922. How much actual increase has that teacher received?

The salary median for Winchester men teachers in 1939-1940 was $2500; today it is $3700. On the basis of the current dollar's value, the purchasing power is $2294, actually a decrease of $206.

Winchester staff consists of 105 teachers. Since 1940-1941, one hundred and sixty-three teachers have left for one reason or another, an annual turnover of about twenty per cent. That is excessive and costly. It affects instruction and requires the time of the Superintendent and principals to find and hire new teachers. Who pays?
The taxpayer? Yes - and the children.

The schools have been criticized for not teaching some of the work well. What causes this? Two things - poor teachers, or good teachers working under poor conditions. Poor conditions may be caused by lack of books and teaching materials, too much interference by out-side interest, and classes that are too large.

Why will more teachers be needed next September? The increased enrollment in the elementary schools, plus efforts on the part of the School Committee to give a more reasonable class size will require more teachers.

Why are new school buildings necessary? First, the increase in enrollment has brought on an immediate need for more classrooms.
Second, wartime building restrictions caused an accumulation of urgent building requirements.

VETS ARE PARENTS TOO!

Editor of the Star:

I am sorry that Mrs. E. H. Whitney saw fit to reply to you in the vain that she did in taking exception to my letter which you published on February 11th.

First of all we would have Mrs.
Whitney and everyone know we have no intention of discriminating against children as implied in her letter. Mrs. Whitney's statement that she is a parent is not a unique one. I am a parent and so are many of the members of Aberjona Post No. 3719. As to the implement there was no point to my previous letter I believe you will agree with me that there was and so must Mrs. Whitney or she would clearly show she got the point that we are after the old Mystic School for quarters.

Mrs. Whitney states further that the Hobby Center would be hampered in their expanding program if forced to move. She has not mentioned that we had preferred sharing this building with the Hobby Center but that the directors of the Hobby Center vetoed this. Now I would like to call Mrs. Whitney's attention to the further facts that I and other V. F. W. members are also taxpayers in Winchester and so are contributing to the monies which will see her children as well as ours through our schools and other Town-sponsored affairs.

Should we also have to contribute to keep either Mrs. Whitney or her children in attendance at the Hobby Center? We are doing so if the Town continues to provide free of rent this building for the Hobby Center.

As an individual I hold nothing personal against Mrs. Whitney for her opinions. We are all entitled to them, but whereas she took it upon herself to answer as she did there was no choice but to call to her attention some facts which were overlooked. In this case we are the taxpayers, not Mrs. Whitney.

Thomas E. Duddy,
Sr. Vice Commander.
Aberjona Post, 3719, V.F.W.

SHOULD REMAIN IMPARTIAL

Editor of the Star:

Our medical care is of great concern to all of us and that is why I am shocked at Dr. Harlan Paine's implication that Miss Thompson's article speaks for the medical profession as a whole.

Many in the profession are opposed to these views, but the propaganda of the American Medical Association has been so pervasive that a member of the general public hears nothing of the other side of the story, and reacts emotionally to the phrase "government or social medicine." We don't hear of the lowered infant mortality rates,
the lowered venereal disease rates,
the improved rural care, which countries such as Sweden are able to obtain when they have government assistance.

The older, entrenched doctors of the AMA must show more concern for the welfare of the people and less for their own pocketbooks if they wish to regain the respect which they are rapidly losing.
Would it not be wise for Dr. Paine, as administrator of the hospital, to remain impartial instead of committing himself to the preservation of the not very satisfactory status quo?

wish to express their heartfelt and it goes without saying that the coverage that the Star has afforded the C. Y. O. in the various activities of Scouting, Sports and the entertainments helps immeasurably towards the success of these things.

Be assured that the Star has many friends among the St. Mary's C. Y. O. members, the Clergy, and the various Committee members behind the C. Y. O.

35TH ANNIVERSARY OF WINCHESTER GRANGE

Winchester Grange observed the 35th Anniversary of its inception
Tuesday, February 22nd in Lyceum Hall with a delicious supper, which was enjoyed by over 125 Granges and their friends.

Following the supper Winchester Grange in a small way endeavored to pay its respects to the Charter members, who 35 years ago conceived the idea of organizing a Grange in Winchester. At that time about 40 persons gathered together and on February 24th, 1914, Winchester Grange was organized by William T. Herrick.

Corsages were given to the three Charter members present,
Mrs. John Hanlon, Miss Ethel
Roberts and Mrs. Helen Dewar.
The following Charter members were unable to be present, Mrs.
Clarence Gustin, Mrs. Bessie Pierce and David Mellett, but they were not forgotten and flowers were sent to them.

dlessex Essex Pomona Grange was master of ceremonies for the evening and presented the following 25 year members with Silver Star

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE COLLECTOR OF TAXES

During the course of the year many questions are asked pertaining to Motor Vehicle Excise tax bills. These questions are more or less general in character such as
"Why do I receive another bill every time I change my car?"

"Why is my bill larger this year than last and I still have the same car?"

"When I turn my old car in what do I have to do to obtain an abatement?"
Etc., Etc.

As those same questions may be in the minds of many people who have not contacted the office of the Collector of Taxes the following information is presented as a public service.

At the time the Registry of Motor Vehicles receives an Automobile Insurance certificate a card is made out in his office containing certain definite information, especially the name of the municipality where the car is garaged.
These cards are forwarded to the office of the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation where the value of the car is recorded.

The cards are then assorted by the name of the municipality, where the car is garaged, for distribution to the local Board of Assessors.

Upon the receipt of these cards the board of Assessors enter the excise tax according to the valuation as entered by the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation.

The Board of Assessors forward to the Collector of Taxes a commitment sheet showing the name and address of the car owner, make of car and amount of excise.

From the commitment sheets the bills are made out in the office of the Collector of Taxes and forwarded to the car owner.

The excise rate in 1948 was $38.- 07 per thousand and in 1949 is $41.32 or an increase of $3.25 per thousand valuation.

Every time a car is registered the car owner will receive a Motor Vehicle Excise bill.

When a car is turned in or sold the car owner is entitled to an abatement.

Application for abatement of Motor Vehicle and Trailer Excise must be filed with the Board of Assessors within six months of the date on excise bill or of the date of the sale or transfer of the motor vehicle or trailer, but in any event not later than January 31 of the succeeding year. No abatement may reduce the excise collected to less than $2.00.

PRE-LENTEN MOTION PICTURE

A modern medium will be used to help prepare our minds for the Lenten Season when the great motion picture, King of Kings, is shown Friday night, February 25 at 7:30. The place is the Social Hall, First Baptist Church, Winchester. The admission is free.

King of Kings is a Cecil B. De-Mille production depicting the life and passion of Jesus of Nazareth.
It has been shown in many countries and been given world wide acclaim. It is a portrayal of the life of Christ that is vivid without being over-dramatic. In presenting a panoramic view of his work and teachings when he was here among men, his betrayal by his friends, and his suffering on the cross, the motion picture industry has enriched our understanding and appreciation of Christ and Christianity.

This showing is particularly for the Intermediate Department of the Baptist Church School since the film was a Christmas present to that department. They and the Church leaders feel, however, that the film offers such a great opportunity to all age groups of Christians, that the invitation has been enlarged to include all members of the church and interested friends.

It has been planned to serve coffee and cookies to further extend the hospitality of the evening.

C. Y. O. PENNY SALE TONIGHT

The Penny Sale, conducted by the C. Y. O. of the Immaculate Conception Parish will be held at the Town Hall tonight. The excellent prizes displayed at Hevey's and at Mc-Cormack's drug stores during the past ten days have elicited much favorable comment which would seem to presage a good attendance at tonight's Penny Sale.

The committee in charge of the affair comprises the same group who so efficiently conducted the
C. Y. O. Penny Sale a year ago.
The proceeds of last year's affair helped to provide uniforms and equipment for the Drum and Bugle Corps and Girls Drill Team of the Immaculate Conception parish. The proceeds from tonight's Penny Sale will make it possible to carry on the Drum Corps and Drill Team during 1949, and also to foster the extensive program of athletic and recreational activities, which include numerous teams in basketball, softball and baseball.

TEA AT NOONAN SCHOOL

Donlin.

to Miss Leonore C. Rich, principal,
Miss Mary McAuley and Miss Charlotte Foley, teachers, also to the mothers of the kindergarten children who will have an opportunity to discuss school routine.

"Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." (John 8:12). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:
"We are sometimes led to believe that darkness is as real as light; but Science affirms darkness to be only a mortal sense of the absence of light, at the coming of which darkness loses, the appearance of reality. So sin and sorrow, disease and death, are the suppositional absence of Life, God, and the phantoms of error before truth and love." (p. 215).

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR
At a meeting held Wednesday afternoon at Lyceum Hall of approximately seventy-five members it was decided to hold the annual Spring Bridge party on Wednesday afternoon, April twenty-seventh at the Bear Hill Country Club in Stoneham. This is a very festive affair and members look forward to it from year to year with much planning, pomp and pleasure.

Our sewing chairman, Mrs. Thomas Higgins reports having disposed of several parcels of sewing to members present to be finished at home. She has many more articles cut out and will be glad to deliver them to members, who were not present at this meeting, immediately upon receipt of a call for same at Winchester 6-2112-R.

The demand for finished infants garments is great and if all members would do a little it would help immeasurably to accomplish one of our organizations most important contributions.

JR. MRS. GUILD

On Tuesday evening, March 1, at 7:45 p. m. in the Ladies Parlor, Margaret Louise Wood, historian, writer, and lecturer, will talk to the Jr. Mrs. Guild of the First Congregational Church. Her subject will be "By Early Fireside and Candle Light."

Mrs. Wood will present a different talk with a light touch about our ancestors and their children. She delves into quaint and curious customs of the past, tells tales of New England's early settlers who "bundled", believed in witchcraft and old world sayings.

Descended from earliest Colonial Concord and a line of Cape Cod seafaring ancestors, Mrs. Wood as a little girl spent her summers with old-fashioned relatives on the Cape. Here she listened to retired New Bedford whaling captains spin yarns from the Seven Seas. She watched grandmother cook famous New England foods, poked into attics filled with treasures of a bygone age, and spent hours in old gardens overlooking the Bay.

Later she inherited one of these museum-like homes, complete with antiques, hoop skirt dresses and relics of the whaling era.

Mrs. Wood has studied at Boston University and Emerson College. She is a former teacher and is now a homemaker and mother. She has been associated with writing and club work for over twenty-five years and is a past president of The Agnes Carr Writers Club of Massachusetts.

She has a pleasing and gracious personality which make her talks entertaining as well as informative.

Mrs. Wendell Irving, Mrs. William Abbott, and Mrs. John Maynard will serve refreshments. All women in the church are cordially invited to be present and to bring their neighbors to hear Mrs. Wood.

CHAMOIS SKI CLUB LOST N. H. MEET
Members of the Chamois Ski Club of Winchester enjoyed excellent skiing over the past weekend at Pinkham Notch, New Hampshire, but were outpointed on the race course by the Lynn Snow Chasers who snared top honors in all events.

Racing deficiency in the home team can be largely accounted for by a lack of depth which can be filled in next season. Considering the fact that this is the first year the club has competed under the present set-up, it has done remarkably well so far, and if the dwindling snow cover in the North country will provide enough base for the last race date on this Sunday, it may do better still.

Driving up to Bartlett, it was apparent that the gang had chosen the best possible location for the weekly festivities. The south slope at Cranmore was sprouting what appeared to be grass, Thoreau Mountain lift was closed and Black Mountain in Jackson left much to be desired, but up at Pinkham there was plenty of unskied corn snow.

The only low point of the weekend came when Burt Gurley suffered an ankle fracture following the A team downhill race. One of the best skiers in the club, Burt's accident was the result of attempting to retrieve another man's cap which had blown off and was lying in the trail. A fracture is a high price to pay for such an act, but the attempt highlighted the courtesy of one skier to another that is becoming all too rare.

There will be an informal gathering at Staff Rogers' barn in Winchester place tonight to discuss plans for the weekend, and on this coming Wednesday night there will be a regular meeting, same place, at 8:00 p. m. to be followed by a showing of the color movies from Big Bromely, in Manchester, Vt.

Gurley, Lamson, Breed, Samoiloff, Bean, Cary and Twombly were Winchester male winners in the various events, with feminine honors going to H. Goodwin and D. Welch.

ST. MARY'S BROWNIES
The Brownies of Troop 32 and their leaders, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Ryan, were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John DeLay, 28 Vine street, by the Troop Committee Members, Mrs. John DeLay and Mrs. Joseph Dowling.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.
Rev. Frank O'Neill, Spiritual Director of St. Mary's Girl Scouts, made the party a very special occasion for the Brownies by attending.

WINCHESTER BOY SCOUT NEWS

150 Attend Pack 7-Troop 7 Parents' Night

150 parents, friends, Cubs and Scouts of Pack 7 and Troop 7 gathered recently in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church to enjoy an interesting Parents' Night program. The affair began at 6:30 P. M. with a delicious ham supper served by Mrs. Stanley Mullen and her capable committee of Cub and Scout mothers. While the tables were cleared, Dr. Cecil Pridmore led the group in song, and then Rev. Walter Bailey welcomed the parents on behalf of the church and introduced Mr. Everett Littlefield, the church's Institutional Representative. After extending the best wishes of the Men's Brotherhood, sponsors of Pack 7 and Troop 7, Mr. Littlefield turned the meeting over to A. O. Weld, Director of Scouting for the church, who was the capable master of ceremonies for the evening.

Scout Philip Dresser of Troop 7 presented a beautiful set of Scout bookends to Scoutmaster Millican on behalf of all the boys in the Troop as a token of their appreciation for all he has done for them, and committee chairman Elmer Ripley presented gifts to Cubmaster Bingham from each of Pack 7's Dens.

Cub committeeman Ben Gowing then presented awards to these Den 5 Cub Scouts: Jay Robinson and James McLeod received Lion Gold and Silver Arrows, David Bartlett won his Bear badge, and David Gowing received his Lion badge. Mr. Gowing also presented Robert Bartlett of Den 4 with two Silver Arrows, Stephen Marshall of Den 6 won his Wolf badge, Gold and Silver Arrows, and Assistant Denner Stripes, Paul Berman of Den 6 received his Bear badge, and Richard Bingham of Den 3 won his Lion badge.

After Mr. Weld had presented the Troop and Pack Charters to committee chairman Paul Butterworth and Elmer Ripley, these six Cub Scouts from Den 5 presented an amusing skit that got an enthusiastic hand from the audience: Jay Robinson, David Gowing, James McLeod, Mort Ward, Robert Douthine, and David Bartlett.

Stephen Marshall of Den 6 then played a piano selection with his mother, and George Stratton, Erskine Kelley, Allan Osborn, Jimmy Urmon, Paul Berman, Donald Murray, and Robert Farnham of Den 6 presented a skit called, "February on Parade."

Scoutmaster "Doc" Millican gave a report to Scout parents on the progress of their boys in the Troop and then Stuart Carlisle, Philip Dresser, Paul Leverette, and Kendall Cleaves showed the parents how Scouts light a fire using flint and steel. Scouts Russell McLeod, Raymond Simpson, Terry Tallman, David Ripley, and James Ekstrom gave a compass demonstration to explain another Scouting skill. Scoutmaster Millican then welcomed Russell McLeod into the Troop and presented him with his Tenderfoot badge in an Investiture Service. As each new boy becomes a Scout he is welcomed into the Troop in this impressive candle-lighting ceremony.

The boys' leaders wondered if the speaker of the evening could hold the boys' attention, but they needn't have worried. Here's what Scout Stanley Mullen reported in the following issue of Troop 7's newspaper: "Last was a swell talk by Dr. Herbert Lamson, Professor of Sociology at Boston University. He balanced a chair on his chin."

7 Scouts and their friends visited last Saturday, twenty-two Troop and B & M's railroad repair shops in Billerica where they saw interesting sights that they had never seen before, and which they won't forget for a long time. (They were all going to grow up to be become firemen after the trip to the Medford Fire Station. Now they think they'd rather be railroaders.)

Pack 12 Holds February Meeting
St. Mary's Cub Pack 12 held its monthly Pack meeting on February 18th. Den 5, under the direction of Mrs. McElhinney, presented an interesting entertainment about George Washington. Den Chief Dennis Doucette acted as MC and Patricia McElhinney assisted at the piano. Cubs Charles Cogan, Andrew Connolly, Michael Connolly, Peter Cullen, Kevin McElhinney, Richard O'Brien, and Joseph Smith took part in the skit.

At the meeting, Richard Mawn, Thomas Grace, Charles Cogan, Joseph Smith, and Owen Reardon received Lion badges and pins. John Mawn, Peter Cullen, Robert Brigham, and Dan Doherty, Jr. won their Wolf badges and pins. Quentin Roberts and Roland Roberts received Bear badges and pins, and Bear Gold and Silver Arrows.

Joseph Keating received his Lion badge, John Sullivan and David Loftus received their Bear books. Arthur Sullivan won a Wolf Gold Arrow, Dickie Gibbons won his Bear pin, Bear badge, and Gold Arrow, and Richard Cumming received a Bear Gold Arrow and Lion book. Denner stripes and a Service Star was won by Paul McManus, and an Assistant Denner Stripe was awarded to Vincent Murphy. Jim Fitzgerald, Jr. received his Winchester strip, Pack 12 numeral, Den 4 numeral, and Bobcat pin.

Scout Window Displays to Advertise Exposition
The window display contest now in progress among Winchester's Scout and Cub units has been continued to April 30th, the date of the big Scout Exposition at the high school. The displays will be designed to explain some phase of Scouting or Cubbing and at the same time will remind Winchesterites of the coming Exposition. The displays now being prepared by every Winchester unit will be judged by Winchester's Commissioner of Scouting, George Thompson, and the unit with the best display will receive a prize.

SONS OF ITALY LODGES TO HOLD MARDI GRAS
The Winchester Men's and Ladies' Lodges of the Order Sons of Italy in America will hold their first annual Mardi Gras at the Town Hall on March 1, 1949.

The Mardi Gras better known as the "Carnivale," or Italian Halloween, is held on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday each year. It is an event in which dancing and costumes are featured, with prizes for the best, most original and funniest costumes.

The music for the dancing is being played by Andy Jacobson and his Orchestra. All types of dance music will be played such as: Fox trots, waltzes, Italian folk dances and jitterbugging. There will be dancing for young and old.

The proceeds of this affair will be put into the Community Center Building Fund of the Lodges. So, whether you come in costume or not just hike yourself down to the Town Hall next Tuesday night and have yourself a good time, one that you won't forget for a long time.

The committee is headed by Joseph Russo and Joseph Garcia, as Co-chairmen, with Don Provinzano as Secretary and Philomena Corbi as Treasurer. The committee has been unable to contact every one, so if you haven't got a ticket you can purchase one or as many as you like at the Box Office in the Town Hall the night of the dance.

A Classified adv in the Winchester Star brings results.

VONA — CHASE

In a setting of palms at the First Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon, February 20, Miss Helen Louise Chase, daughter of Mrs. Louise E. Chase of 361 Main street, became the bride of Salvador Andrew Vona, son of Mrs. Rose Vona of 184 Adams street, Malden. Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony and the bridal music was played by Mrs. Frederick C. Macdonald, organist, who played in addition to the wedding march, the selections, "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Franklin Pynn, baritone, sang "Always" by Irving Berlin and "Oh Promise Me" by Reginald De Koven.

Miss Chase was given in marriage by her brother, Howard E. Chase, Jr., of Winchester. She wore a gown of traditional heavy white satin with a full hoop-skirt and a three foot train. Her fingertip-length veil was caught to a matching coronet and she carried a white satin-bound bible with an orchid and streamers of white sweet peas.

Mrs. Emerson Roberts of Winchester was her sister's only attendant. She wore an aqua dress with sequins and a matching sequin cap. Her flowers were talisman roses arranged in a cascade bouquet.

Gilbert Masucci of Medford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were John S. Chase of Woburn, brother of the bride; and Emerson Roberts of Winchester, brother-in-law of the bride.

A reception and wedding supper were held after the ceremony in Masonic Hall with the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving.

After a wedding trip to New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Vona will make their home at 14 Chestnut street in Malden.

Discussion time will be approximately 55 minutes. Coffee will be served.

HYMN-SING AT BAPTIST CHURCH

All who love the old hymns will want to join in the hymn-sing at the First Baptist Church, Sunday evening, February 27th at 7 o'clock. Dr. Cecil W. Pridmore will lead the congregation singing with the aid of hymn slides. Following the singing a fellowship hour will be enjoyed at which time Mr. H. ## MYSTIC GLEE CLUB SINGS "POPS" FOR ROTARY CHARITY SATURDAY MARCH FIFTH IN HIGH SCHOOL

Singing under the auspices of the Rotary Club for its 1949 charity program, the Mystic Glee Club will present a concert of favorite selections in the High School auditorium Saturday evening, March 5th at 8:15 P. M. This will be a sort of Pops concert as it was last year, consisting of mostly light music.

The Glee Club is doing double duty these days for, in addition to this concert, which calls for extra rehearsals, it is hard at work on the music for its annual Spring Concert to be held Friday evening, April 22, at the High School.

Appearing with the Glee Club on March 5th as assisting artist is the attractive young Winchester mezzo soprano, Susan Hight, who has already pleased the large audiences which attended the Staff and Key Society production of "The Pirates," and the Winton Club Cabaret. A graduate of Colby Junior College in New London, N. H. where she studied voice, Miss Hight is at present studying at the New England Conservatory of Music. Her part of the program is sure to be well received.

Also appearing on the program as an added feature is a bit of sure-fire nonsense and comedy skill by Aram Mouradian, popular member of both the Rotary Club and the Mystic Glee Club.

Tickets are on sale at Hevey's Pharmacy, Parker-Lane-Winn Coal Company and Mary Spaulding's Bookshop, and from any Rotary club member.

RAINBOW MOTHER'S CLUB

On Tuesday evening, February 15th, at eight o'clock, the Rainbow Mother's Club met at the home of Mrs. Warren-Hersey, 34 Jefferson road, Winchester.

A report was given on the Installation Supper of January 28th; and a report was made that the Rainbow Girls were very happy to receive the lovely punch bowl and ladle recently given to them by the Mother's Club.

For entertainment, an exciting game of "Cootie" was played by all. Mrs. Hodge was the lady with the High Score. Delicious refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Cecil Pridmore and Mrs. Ralph Smith, both of Winchester.

The March meeting of the Rainbow Mothers will be held in Woburn at the home of Mrs. Albert Finethy, 58 Mishawum road.

THROUGH THE NIGHT

That mystery can be fun was ably demonstrated by the cast of the annual Winchester High School junior-senior class play "Through the Night" last Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday evening in the Auditorium.

Since the success of any "who-dunit" depends upon the proper development of clues, the cast for a mystery play has little opportunity for improvising and must follow the script, or at least the story, to the letter. This they did. Everyone in the audience knew the murderer, but no one suspected the "Owl". Hence, the mystery.

Selecting outstanding performers is a dangerous business, because every actor and actress has supporters. However, no one will dispute John Roca's enactment of Calvin Driscoll, the real villain, was a good piece of work. His ability to stay in character and to control his voice were pleasing qualities. Barbara Dunbury as Mrs. Alicia Keefe, scatter-brained aunt of the heroine, had a difficult job to avoid overdoing a part which could have been ridiculous, but which she made good comedy. James St. Clair, also in an adult role, played the victim with restraint and poise.

Bradford Smith was a very correct butler, whose lines, though few and far between, did a great deal to aid the stage set and properties to emphasize the atmosphere normally prevailing. As comedy relief, Milton Galucia did Bart Jessop, police chief, with abandon, throwing his weight around in a truly amusing manner. A real smoothie was John Power as the dapper and elusive "Owl", who haunted the neighbors as a modern Robin Hood, stealing from the rich to ease their income tax burden.

The remainder of the parts called for older juvenile straight roles which were well done by Donald Ducharme, Priscilla Turner, Susan St. Clair, and James Quine. Don was the uneasy prospective bridegroom whose athletic interests and strait-laced thinking became repugnant to his would be bride, Sayre Holbrook, played by Susan St. Clair. The heroine, Sue had to carry the torch for the Bunny (James Quine) without appearing to be a frivolous two-timer, while the active, cynical Kay Stanton (Priscilla Turner), prospective sister-in-law, needed her mercilessly. James Quine as the erstwhile namesake Mr. Hare (got it), shouldered the responsibility as suspected thief and murderer, forgotten man, and finally as the successful suitor in a most workmanlike manner.

Who dunnit? Well, if the reader doesn't already know he probably doesn't care, for there were many empty seats on Friday evening from which one could see and know all. Absentees missed a good show, another directed by Mr. Thomas Morse of the faculty, currently advising the Radio Workshop, and instigator of a speech course which large numbers are eager to enter.

Dorothy Buracker was prompter, Leslie Wilcox did the makeup; Robert Elliott managed the stage crew of Leon Fernandez, Peter Millett, and Robert Oxford.

Music was provided by the High School Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Fred Felmet and the Octette directed by Miss Eleanor Anifantis. Miss Pauline Goodrich assisted the Art students in making many excellent and tricky posters. Mrs. Lenna Travis handled the ticket sales and Miss Helen Skornik directed the making of programs.

The management gratefully thanks Barbo's of Stoneham for the loan of furniture, Mouradian's for the loan of rugs, Winchester Appliance Company for the loan of an attractive victrola.

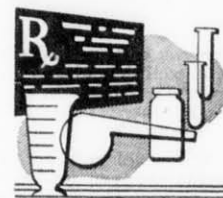

Lorraine Augusta was chairman of the play committee, which consisted of seniors Dorothy Buracker, Theodore Cole (now of Nashua, N. H.), Robert Elliott, Robert Oxford, James St. Clair, Susan St. Clair, and juniors Alice Hodge, David Holdsworth, Robert Morris (now of St. Petersburg, Fla.), and Robert Walsh.

GIRL SCOUTS
Among the activities of the Winchester Council of Girl Scouts this past week, several were outstanding in their particular phases. On Monday evening, the committee of the Winchester Girl Scout Building Fund met at the home of Mrs. Burton Miller, chairman, to discuss ways and means of having our dream come true. Those on the committee (at present) are: Mrs. Francis Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. James Willing, Mrs. Robert Tonan, Mrs. George Cary, Commissioner, Mr. Richard Johnson, Mr. Vincent Ambrose, Mr. and Mrs. Walden Hersey, Mr. John Joy, and Mrs. James K. McElroy.

Tuesday evening there was a Sectional Senior Leaders meeting at which Mrs. Amasa G. Harrington gave a lesson in textile painting.

Wednesday morning the Program Committee of our Council met at the home of Mrs. E. G. Pierce, chairman, to make plans for Winter Sports Day next week. Weather Permitting, 10:30 to 2:30 (the 24th, girls) and also to elaborate on the plans for the coming Father-Daughter dinner.

Needless to say, highlight of the week-end was the Senior Scout trip to Hogback Mt. under the guidance of Mrs. H. Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Parsons. A party of twelve in two cars drove to Brattleboro and thence to Wilmington Vt. for a week-end of skiing. On Saturday night, Trail Blazer Troop No. 2 and the Brattleboro Wing Scouts met at the home of Mrs. James C. Irish. After an evening of singing, fun and refreshments our girls return to their heated cabins on Hogback. Sunday we spent the entire day riding the T-bar lift and skiing down the different trails, returning to Winchester weary but satisfied with the week-end," said Mrs. Parsons.

ON DEANS LIST

Miss Barbara Warsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Warsky of 12 Stowell road, was awarded a Dean's List certificate this week for her first semester's work at Vermont Junior College in Montpelier. Barbara, a Medical Secretarial major, is a Freshman at the College. She graduated from Winchester High School last June. She is an active member of the Glee Club, the International Relations Club, and the Women's Athletic Association.

ROTARY NEWS

Apparently the urge to stay on top in attendance is still very much in evidence since the list of make-ups this week reads like a Who's Who of Winchester. However it might be well to say that makeups are by way of a penance and not a reward. It would almost seem, at times, as if some were purposely making up in order to see their names in print. Should this insidious habit continue to grow it will be necessary to discontinue the publicity of names in the future. Nonetheless here is the current listing of vagrants: Curtis Ware, Harry Bigelow (also Boston), Jim Cullen, Francis MacFeeley, and Gordon Bird all went to Arlington. Mal Bennett and Dav Davis were forced to go to Woburn; Bill Hevey, Pat Foley and John (Black Ball) Navarro all hit somewhere in Florida; and finally Larry Dillin made up some two weeks ago in Montreal.

The winner of a free meal for the day and therefor our guest speaker was none other than Jim McGrath the so-called Clifton Fadiman of the travel agencies. His introduction by John Wallace a former cell mate in Woburn was a little on the nostalgically flowery side but nevertheless Jim had the grace to blush and state that he had never before been praised so highly before a speech. Before he had well launched into his talk it was necessary to eject two hecklers from the hall before he could make himself heard. These turned out to be none other than Everett Bixby, some minor officer of the Woburn Club, and Walter Crotty who has been booked several times for marked cards. Jim opened his talk, after quiet was maintained, with some quaint old folk lore of France and recounted several instances whereby French courtesy was shown to be of a deeper nature than American.

Jim had the honor of being picked one of the five travel agents throughout this country to go to France and make a survey of the Tourists possibilities in Southern France particularly the Riviera. The Government of France wanted suggestions as to how to lure more travel there since the war has hit this particular spot rather badly. The Iron Curtain has closed it to all from Eastern Europe while the English and French themselves have little money to spend on travel. The delegation was royally treated while in Nice and were nearly stuffed to death by the number of buffets and dinners that were given them. Jim's word is that France and Paris in particular is the place for tourists right now since the Franc is very much in our favor. He found most foods except butter and milk in great quantities and cheap. Paris is the same if not better than before the war since it suffered little in physical damage at the hands of the Germans. Really Jim gave a nice talk that was not only interesting but highly informative. He certainly instilled in the Rotarians the desire to travel and see other people and places. Thank you Jim for your talk.

ELECTRICITY CANNOT BE "CANNED"...

...except in small quantities

There's no way to store up a big quantity of electricity in advance to meet the peak demands of the "rush hours". Electricity has to be made the very instant you flip a switch to turn it on — any second of the day or night. This means that generating capacity must be kept ahead of the maximum demand at all times. There you have a basic reason for the million kilowatt construction program now being carried out by your electric companies here in New England — a program to provide New England with the facilities to produce four million kilowatts of electrical energy by 1952.

It Adds a Hundred Miles to the Day!

White sidewall tires available at additional cost.

Owners of the 1949 Cadillac are going to get a pleasant surprise when they take it out for that first cross-country run. Without any extra effort whatsoever, they are going to wind up that first day's touring about a hundred miles farther from home than they expected to be! For here, beyond any doubt, is the greatest "mile-eater" that ever rolled over a highway. We are not talking about excessive speed—because, regardless of the power they have at their command, sensible people observe the laws of the road and the rules of safety. But the 1949 Cadillac is so cat-quick and eager—so smooth and easy and effortless, regardless of terrain—that it covers an amazing amount of distance inside the safe and legal limits. The secret, of course, is found in the great new Cadillac V-type engine—plus the marvelous new engineering in the Cadillac chassis. Actually, you almost seem to move by automatic propulsion. There is no performance like it—anywhere in the world.

CANDIDATE FOR RECREATION COMMISSIONER

Voters of Winchester:

I am a candidate for Recreation Commissioner at the election on Monday, March 7.

I was born in Boston on March 5, 1910. I graduated from High School and attended Niagara University. During my school days I was active in all major sports. Since leaving school I have maintained my activity in sports as a player and manager of teams.

I am Commercial Agent for the Erie Railroad Company, attached to their Boston office, and have been with this Company for nineteen years. I hold membership in the Traffic Club of New England, Worcester Traffic Association and Wachusetts Traffic Club.

I am a taxpayer; an officer of Aberjona Post No. 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars; have been active as co-chairman for the past two years of the Fourth of July and Memorial Day Committees; have been Chairman for the past two years of the V. I am married and intend to bring up my family in Winchester believing it to be the best Town in which I possibly can do so.

FOR WELFARE BOARD

CHARLES A. FARRAR

To the Voters of Winchester:

Seeking a position on the Board of Public Welfare, I feel that twenty-six years' experience in Welfare and Social Work gives me the insight necessary to carry out the work properly.

I think that due to various causes, lay-offs, work curtailment, etc., Welfare Departments are to find their duties greatly enlarged this year.

If you care to give me your vote I will be deeply grateful. If elected I will attend to the duties of the Committee to the best of my ability.

CANDIDATE FOR ASSESSOR

JOHN F. CASSIDY

Voters of Winchester:

John F. Cassidy, formerly for 23 years a member of the Board of Assessors and serving as chairman for 10 of those years, is seeking election to the Board on Monday, March 7. He knows the intricacies of assessing, the duties and also the limitations of the office, and if he is returned to the Board, will discharge his duties within the limits of the assessing statute with fairness alike to the taxpayer and the community.

There is no substitute for experience such as Mr. Cassidy possesses, and his record while on the Board of Assessors needed no defense or comparison.

He was prevented from completing the third year of his three-year term in office by a group of dissatisfied taxpayers who felt that from entirely new assessors only could relief be obtained.

It is fair to ask those dissatisfied taxpayers whether the inequalities to which they objected have been corrected, and whether in defeating Mr. Cassidy last year they did the fair thing.

I believe this veteran assessor is peculiarly qualified by experience long residence and business training to be of real value to the town if returned to office.

Voters of Winchester, avail yourself of Mr. Cassidy's experience and knowledge of assessing. Return him to office on Monday.

CANDIDATE FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

JAMES H. COON

To the Voters of Winchester:

Do you know that
1. The parks and playgrounds of Winchester cover 112 acres?

2. The budget for parks and playgrounds calls for between $40,000 and $50,000?

3. The Park Board is responsible for maintenance of comfort stations and bathhouses, as well as supervision of all beaches?

4. The flag on the common and Christmas tree are under park supervision?

5. The park department has for maintenance equipment 3 trucks, 1 tractor, 1 sedan, 1 gas power-pump and 3 power-motors?

These are some of the services for which your Park Board is responsible and some of the equipment needed to carry on that service.

The Park Department needs a member of sane judgement and experience.

I believe I have these qualifications. If you agree, I shall appreciate your vote.

VOTE MONDAY, MARCH 7.

Your vote is respectfully requested for

JAMES R. WARE

Jim Ware now lives at 1 Highland Terrace; formerly, at 7 Warren Street, Tel. Winchester 6-2140-W. Born November 16, 1901.

He personally is still actively enjoying the Town's recreation facilities, as for the past 10 years, and he knows well both the athlete's and the taxpayer's point of view.

He is a member and former President of the Winchester Tennis Association. He is President of the Winchester Badminton Club.

He teaches at Harvard University and passes a high percentage of his time in his working-study at home, so that he is easily available for day-time, as well as evening, consultation and inspection of Park Department affairs.

He is a former member of the Massachusetts State Guard.

Jim Ware will give of his best to see that Winchester continues to enjoy excellent playground and beach facilities and also excellent adult recreation facilities.

SONS OF ITALY MARDI GRAS

Despite the heavy snow and hard going a large number attended the Mardi Gras party sponsored by the Sons of Italy Lodge at the town hall Tuesday evening. Colorful balloons provided a festive atmosphere for the dancers in their gay costumes and the music by Andy Jacobson's Orchestra left nothing to be desired.

After general dancing those in costume formed for a Grand March, led by Miss Philomena Corby and Joseph Ciarcia. As the marchers moved about the hall a watchful committee of three observed them carefully and finally announced the following prize winners:

Best dressed couple, Mr. and Mrs. James Violante (Gay Nineties); Prettiest, Josephine DeMinico (Period Costume with hoop skirt); Most Original, Dominick Provinzano (Dressed as a woman with blond hair, white hat, bag and shoes). The awards were announced by Dr. A. L. Maietta. Refreshments were served through the evening.

Joseph Ciarcia was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements with Joseph Russo as co-chairman. Gabriel Vespucci was secretary and Philomena Corby, treasurer. Others assisting as committee members were Lillian Frongillo, Lillian Ciarcia, Hilda Violante, Nellie Pizzano, Frances Reero, Angelo Tofuri, Dominick Provinzano and Victor Ficciello.

CANDIDATE FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

WILLIAM J. MURRAY

Voters of Winchester:

As a candidate for Park Commissioner I feel that I am qualified to fill this position.

I have lived in Winchester nearly all my life, and for the past twelve years have conducted a real estate business on Thompson street.

My four children have attended Winchester schools and necessarily their interest in playgrounds and parks has been mine.

In seeking the office of Park Commissioner, it is my firm belief that a well rounded program of parks and playgrounds is a definite asset and a cause for justifiable pride in our town.

MERCI CAR HERE MARCH 13

Winchester will have an opportunity to see one of the "Merci Cars" sent by the French Government to this country as a gesture of international good will.

The car, one of the famous 40 and 8 of World War I, is coming to Winchester under the sponsorship of Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion, and will be on display on Common street Sunday, March 13.

On the same day the Middlesex County Council of the Legion will meet for the first time in Winchester at the Legion House on Vine street.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hiscoe of 1 Lagrange street have left for Vero Beach, Florida where they are spending a month.

RE-ELECT AS ASSESSOR

MARSHALL R. PIHL

To the Voters of Winchester:

Last year, Marshall R. Pihl was elected to serve as Assessor to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. John Cassidy who was retired on a pension at the age of seventy. Since then, Mr. Pihl has discharged the duties of that office, faithfully, ably and impartially. Not only has the regularity of his attendance at the usual Thursday meetings been as good as any member of the Board but together with the other two Assessors he has devoted a great many extra days to the work of the department with the result that despite the heavy load of work required because of new building operations, the work of the department was completed earlier than usual this year.

We feel that through education, training and experience, Mr. Pihl is eminently qualified to continue to serve as Assessor.

During all of the twenty-three years of his professional experience as attorney, he has specialized in the field of real estate law and real estate taxation and has long achieved an outstanding reputation as one of the leading authorities in the state in that field.

For many years, he has been identified with real estate education. A former lecturer on Real Property Law at Boston University Law School, he now lectures on Real Estate at Babson Institute in Wellesley and is Director of the Real Estate Course at Boston University Evening College of Commerce as well as the course on Real Estate Appraising conducted by the Massachusetts Board of Real Estate Appraisers. In addition, Mr. Pihl is General Counsel of the Massachusetts Real Estate Association and Director of the Massachusetts Society of Residential Appraisers.

Winchester cannot afford at this time to lose the benefit of Mr. Pihl's education, training and experience, particularly when he is willing and able to continue to give the time necessary to perform the duties of Assessor.

We wholeheartedly endorse Mr. Pihl's candidacy and strongly urge you to vote for him.

PHILIP P. WADSWORTH

PRACTICING LAWYER - Educated Harvard College and Law School
TWICE ELECTED SELECTMAN - 1943 and 1946
U. S. NAVY - 1943 - 1945
CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF SELECTMEN 1947 - 48
CHAIRMAN, JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING COMMITTEE 1948 - 49

I believe a Town Moderator should (1) be experienced in holding public office, be familiar with Town affairs and have a wide acquaintance with the Towns people; (2) comprehend the exacting laws and rulings governing Town Meeting procedure; and (3) be able and willing to carry out his duties judiciously, independently and impartially.

If you feel I am qualified by education, legal experience and proven civic interest, to serve Winchester as Moderator, I earnestly ask your support.

Philip P. Wadsworth, 66 Oxford Street, Winchester

WILLIAM C. CUSACK CANDIDATE FOR MODERATOR

Voters of Winchester:

I am a candidate for the office of Town Moderator.

There are two principal duties of the Moderator:

1. To preside at Town Meetings

2. To appoint committees.

1. Presiding at Town Meetings.

It is necessary that the moderator be fair and impartial and be unhampered by any business or committee work that will divert his attention from a judicial interpretation of the facts before him.

There is no requirement of any kind that a candidate be a lawyer or trained in any profession. Winchester employs a lawyer known as Town Counsel to do any necessary legal work.

Experience in the conduct of meetings is an asset and I have had such experience in Winchester and elsewhere as many of my friends know, especially those who urged me to become a candidate.

2. Appointing Committees.

Since 1931 I have been an observer and participant in town affairs. I have been a town meeting member for twelve years, three years on the Finance Committee and a member of Advisory Committee to Veterans Housing Committee. As a father of two children educated in our schools, a home owner and a substantial taxpayer I am conscious of the importance of appointing committees representative of all interests of the town and I am equally conscious of the taxpayer's problem.

Educated at Dartmouth College and trained in the investment banking business for twenty years, I am pleased to submit my qualifications and will appreciate your support for the office of Town Moderator.

CANDIDATE FOR SELECTMAN

RICHARD C. CUNNINGHAM

Voters of Winchester:

First let me strongly urge that all those who have the privilege of voting at the Town election next Monday exercise that privilege. This is a civic obligation.

In regard to my candidacy for the office of Selectman, my interest in this office springs solely from a desire to see an efficient, impartial and unbiased administration of our Town government. I wish to point out that I have sought support from no group or organization and if elected will be under obligation to none.

It is my hope that my statement of qualifications and background, here-before outlined, may convince you that I can be of service to the Town of Winchester as a member of the Board of Selectmen.

VOTE MONDAY, MARCH 7.

FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

ROBERT A. JOHNSTON

Voters of Winchester:

Monday is election day. At that time you will be asked to elect, among other town officers, a Park Commissioner for three years.

I am a candidate for this office, which I consider an important one. The increasing responsibility for recreation in Winchester has broadened the scope of the Park Commissioners' duties so that, in effect, they are now charged with a certain degree of the health and safety of our citizens, young and old, as well as concerned with keeping the many park plots in such condition as to be a credit to the community.

If I am elected, I will try to serve faithfully and impartially in the interests of the entire park system for the benefit of the whole community. As a property-owner and taxpayer I am interested in an economical administration for the Park Department as is commensurate with the functions and services it is asked to provide. Seventeen years residence in town has at least enabled me to observe the workings of the Department and to discuss its strong and weak points with my fellow citizens.

I believe I can be of service as a Park Commissioner, and I shall be glad of the opportunity to serve. While chief of the Auxiliary Police in the Civilian Defense days I came to have high regard for Winchester's civic setup, and I would be glad to do my part to maintain our town government on its admittedly high plane. My duties as head of the Winchester Rifle Range, used by junior and senior high school pupils and by the Auxiliary Police, have given me firsthand acquaintance with public recreation.

I will be glad of your vote on Monday, but whether or not you vote for me, BE SURE TO VOTE!

BULGAR MINISTER TO SPEAK

The Mission Union Guild will meet on Tuesday, March 8. Sewing will start at 10 o'clock. There is much to be accomplished in the two remaining sewing days. Mrs. Nardin will provide plenty of handwork and hopes for a large group of helpers. Mrs. Robert A. Drake, of the membership committee, will be at the door to welcome guests to the 1 o'clock luncheon served by Mrs. Robinson S. Whitten, Mrs. George F. Nardin and their committee. Mrs. Wayne B. Thompson will conduct the Worship Service. Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, Director, will preside at the business meeting and present the speaker of the afternoon, Rev. Kroum S. Jordan, a native of Bulgaria, whose presence here is particularly timely in view of the recent persecution of Bulgarian churchmen.

Rev. Jordan came to America at the age of 19. After graduating from the University of Dubuque, Iowa, he specialized in the department of Sociology at Chicago University and graduated from Chicago Theological Seminary in 1935. Then followed several years in Bulgaria as a missionary and as assistant to the dean of the American College in Sofia. At present he is pastor of the First Church in Weymouth, president of the Council of Churches, active worker among young people in the state, and closely associated with the Evangelical Churches in Bulgaria.

His subject, "The Road to Jericho" has little to do with the historical Jericho of Palestine. In his native country he was a Protestant among hostile Eastern Orthodox people; he was a foreigner in the Near-West side of Chicago; he was traveling west with hundreds of migrants at the time John Steinbeck was writing "Grapes of Wrath." The story of these experiences presents Christianity as a Road where men of many kinds are fellow travelers.

She spent her girlhood in Winchester, living on Canal street and graduating from Winchester High School, playing the feminine lead in the class play in her senior year. She had lived in Woburn since her marriage to Mr. Weaver, who was one of Woburn's outstanding pitchers.

During World War I Mrs. Weaver served as a chief yeoman in the United States Navy. She was particularly active in both the Legion and its Auxiliary during the early days of both organizations. She had a host of friends, both in Winchester and Woburn, everyone with whom she came in contact admiring her cheerful acceptance of her physical disability which included total blindness.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

February 28th will be pleasantly remembered by the Fortnightly members, as the day the American Home and Preservation of Antiques committees united to give one of the outstanding meetings of the current season.

At 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Harold H. Given greeted the members and introduced Miss Louise J. Bancroft, chairman of the American Home Committee.

Miss Bancroft presented Mrs. Henri Blanc, who came to us through the courtesy of the R. H. Stearns Co., of Boston, who spoke on "Romance of Silver". She said the earliest known of silver dates back 2000 years and traced its history from the early work of Benvenuto Cellini, the greatest of the Italian Renaissance goldsmiths, who was born in Florence, Italy in 1500 and who was known for his elaborate silver vases and bronze statues, to Apollon Rivoire as he was known. Appollon Rivoire upon reaching manhood, finding his name not easily pronounced changed it to Paul Revere. We know him as Patriot, Engraver and Goldsmith. The best collection of Paul Revere silver is in the Metropolitan Museum in New York. About five hundred of his masterpieces are in existence today.

The original Paul Revere Bowl was lately acquired by the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

She spoke on the English Hallmark on silver, of the great honor among craftsmen to be known as a member of the Goldsmith Guild, still in use today. It was interesting to learn the origins of the knife and fork - which first came into use as weapons - while the spoons were first sea shells - then with silver handles attached - later all silver. Salt cellars were very important, because of the scarcity of salt - often the rank of a guest was suggested by his position at the banquet board whether he was seated above or below the salt.

Mrs. Blanc had on exhibition a very elaborate Sheffield tray formerly belonging to the Earl of Rosberry, who had married a Rothschild.

Machines are today taking the place of handcraft but much history has been made by the artisans of old. A beautifully appointed table set with fine Damask-Lenox China and exquisite place settings, candleabra and small silver was greatly admired. She graciously answered questions at the close of her talk and gave many suggestions for the care of fine silver, and invited the members to examine the fine display the R. H. Stearns Co., had sent for the pleasure of the Club.

A delicious assortment of sandwiches, salad rolls, dessert and coffee was provided by Mrs. Kingman P. Cass and Mrs. George W. French, at the Snack Bar. A social hour was enjoyed until the regular meeting convened at 2 o'clock.

The President, Mrs. Harold H. Given called the meeting to order and graciously congratulated Miss Louise J. Bancroft on the success of the morning meeting.

She then introduced Miss Corinne Mead, Chief Librarian of the Winchester Public Library, Miss Mead paid a tribute to Miss Given and Mrs. George W. French for collecting books for children, sent to the Oslo Public Library in Oslo, Norway, and also spoke of the interest taken by The Fortnightly in the Winchester Public Library. She called the attention of the Club to the acute situation due to the scarcity of trained librarians, the inadequate salaries Winchester is paying in comparison to surrounding towns and appealed for an understanding support in meeting this situation. Winchester is fortunate at this time in having a finely trained staff and it is important that they be retained.

The President read a letter from a nurse in a hospital in Norway expressing their appreciation of the box sent by the Club which arrived in time to make their Christmas one to be long remembered.

Mrs. Given introduced our honor guest, Mrs. Walter K. Freeman, Eighth District Director who spoke briefly bringing greetings to the Club.

Attention was called to the Club Institute Forum March 3rd at the Y. W. C. A., at 10:30 o'clock and to the Musical Festival at the Copley Plaza Hotel all day, March 31st.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Grace Blanchard Mitchell who gave a most interesting talk entitled "From Pigtales to Pearls". She accompanied her talk with many beautiful examples of the comb maker's art showing some fine tortoise shell combs.

Mrs. Mitchell is an authority on comb making and hair styles. Her father was a comb manufacturer in Leominster, Mass., which was once known as the "Comb Shop Town of the World."

Her talk was thoroughly enjoyable, there was a nostalgic quality about it that made it particularly appealing and her anecdotes of personal knowledge and experience marked it as very worth while and authentic.

Many fine articles of hair jewelry were on display dating back from the Civil War to the period of 1840. Among the exhibitors of fine heirloom silver were Mrs. Harold H. Given, some very fine silver from Norway. Mrs. Greenwood, Mrs. Marion Symmes, Mrs. Blanche S. Barnard, Mrs. Willis, Miss Gertrude M. Hall, Mrs. Herbert C. Ross, the Misses Bancroft and a communion set from the First Congregational Church.

Among those whose cards were attached to heirloom treasures of hair jewelry and fine antique jewelry were Mrs. Walter Chamberlin, Mrs. Herbert C. Ross, Mrs. T. P. Messer, Miss Gertrude M. Hall.

The President expressed her thanks to Miss Louise J. Bancroft, Mrs. Kingman P. Cass, Mrs. George W. French, and Mrs. Talma T. Greenwood for a most successful exhibition.

BAPTIST YOUTH CHOIR PARTY

Once again the Youth Choir of the Baptist Church has enjoyed one of its popular social get-togethers. This time it was a sports party on February 24th, at the home of the Choir Director, Mrs. Richard Abrahamson, 3 Holton street.

After a program of humorous games the guests enjoyed hot chocolate and griddle cakes, which melted away in the traditional Little Black Sambo fashion.

Those present were Helen Barrett, Joan Barrett, Phil Dresser, Jim Ekstrom, Valrie Honsinger, Adele Jonah, Don MacFeeley, Russ MacLeod, Dorothy Miggins, Elaine Miggins, Virginia Moore, Barbara Mulea, and Margaret Reid.

Gunnar Abrahamson assisted in entertaining.

The choir's next appearance will be at the Sanctuary service on Sunday, March 20th.

LITERATURE GROUP

On Monday, March 7, at 2:00 p. m. at the Winchester Public Library, the Literature Committee of the Fortnightly with Miss Eva M. Sherman as chairman will present a program on the dramatic work of Sir James Matthew Barrie. Miss Gertrude A. Kimball will review several of Barrie's plays.

All Fortnightly members are welcome.

WINCHESTER NIPPED WOUBURNWon Seventh Straight by 44-40 Score

Winchester High won the first game of their annual series by defeating Woburn High by a score of 44 to 40 at the local gym last Friday night. This marks the seventh consecutive victory for Winchester and gives them a record for the season to date of twelve victories in eighteen games against high school opposition. The Winchester victory was a wild upset for Woburn had boasted the better record entering the game but the locals are playing top notch ball at present and have met sterner opposition this year than their Woburn rivals.

Actually the game was won in the first half as Winchester took a commanding lead and was able to stave off a spirited surge by the Tanners in the last period. In these first two periods Winchester played just about its best ball of the season and the only occasion for any Woburn cheers was their rally in the last quarter which served to reduce the Winchester margin of victory and raise Woburn hopes for a victory in the return game to-night. Winchester really won the game from the foul line as it was in this department that the locals built up their margin of victory.

The first period was the fastest and highest scoring period of the contest as Winchester built up an 18 to 12 lead at the end of that period. The Red and Black continued to add to its margin during the second quarter and left the court at the half with a 29 to 17 lead. Woburn outscored the locals by one point in the third quarter as the Red and Black held a 40 to 29 lead at that point. Winchester scored only four points in the final quarter as Woburn netted eleven in this last period surge to cut the locals' winning margin.

Captain Ken Donaghey was the game's stand out performer as he and Walter Murphy paced the Winchester attack. Donaghey was at his offensive best, frequently outmaneuvering the Woburn defense for a clear shot or driving in beautifully for a lay-up shot. Walter Murphy and Paul Roche did a good job of clearing the backboard and permitted Woburn few opportunities to score on rebounds. The two Woburn guards, Martin and Tedesco, gave good accounts of themselves both offensively and defensively.

The Winchester High Seconds made it a clean sweep for the evening by defeating the Woburn Seconds by a score of 32 to 25. This game was close during the first half but Winchester enjoyed a good third quarter to build up a lead which carried them through the final period.

WINCHESTER TRIPPED
WINTHROP AGAIN

Winchester High continued its winning streak by defeating Winthrop High by a score of 40 to 35 at Winthrop on Tuesday afternoon. This was the second victory of the season for the locals over the strong Winthrop five and is highlighted by the fact that this was only the second game in four years that Winthrop has lost on their home court. The Red and Black victory is all the more noteworthy when it is recalled that Winthrop is the champion of the Northeastern Conference and has been selected for the Tech Tournament.

Winchester took the lead in the first quarter by a margin of 8 to 5 and increased it to 23 to 13 during the second quarter, thanks to some excellent set shooting by guards Paul Roche and Dennis Sanford. Winthrop came out fighting in the third quarter and cut down the Winchester margin by four points to make the score read 32 to 26 at the end of that period. The locals controlled the ball well in the final quarter to stave off any further Winthrop rally and came home with a very gratifying decision.

Captain Ken Donaghey and Paul Roche pulled the locals through to victory in this one as they spearheaded the Winchester attack. Donaghey netting 16 points and Roche 12. In addition, they had possession of the ball most of the time and were largely instrumental in preventing Winthrop from getting scoring opportunities in that tight final quarter. Roche, in particular, did a masterful job of clearing the backboard and bringing the ball up the floor, and was a constant threat with his driving in for a lay-up which presented his opponent from playing him too closely and thus causing a jump ball.

The Winchester Seconds did not enjoy the good fortune of their older brethren and lost a close decision, 28 to 27, in the final seconds of play. This game was close all the way as only one basket separated the teams at the half and the score was tied at the three-quarter mark. The summary:

WINCHESTER SONS OF ITALY
LODGE NEWS

The 19th match of the Winchester Lodge No. 1580 Bowling League was rolled off on Tuesday, February 22nd at the Winchester Sports Center.

A highlight of this match was the 2 trumpet players and the placards that Villanova had at the bowling match. They were something different that put excitement into the bowling according to some of the bowlers and spectators.

St. Mary's is still in the lead, with Santa Clara and Villanova tied in 2nd place and followed by Notre Dame, Holy Cross, Fordham, Georgetown and Boston College.

Richard Fiore took the Individual 3 string high with a 319, while Nick Molea and Carlo Bertolucci were tied for the Individual high single, both bowling 121. The team highs were: High Single Notre Dame 510; High 3 string St. Mary's 1395.

There are 2 matches remaining in the 21 match series, which are going to be full of excitement, as every team wants to get in the roll-offs.

There was no match this week as the Winchester Lodges had their first annual Mardi Gras on Tuesday, March 1. The 20th and 21st matches will be bowled on March 8th and 15th.

DEDHAM TAKES ANOTHER FROM WINCHESTER
HOCKEY CLUB

On Wednesday evening, February 23, at the Skating Club, Dedham Hockey Club, newly crowned champions of the Boston Amateur Hockey League, handed the local hockey talent a defeat to the tune of 9 to 5. Paradise paced the attack of the winners with a "hat trick", while Roy Monson, having his best performance in many a game, matched Paradise goal for goal and in addition collected two assists. Wimpy Burnett had a good evening, too, accounting for the locals' two other tallies besides contributing an assist.

Scott Connor, consistent Winchester goaler, was absent from the lineup. Stevenson filled in for him. Although Scott Doub, Billy Dingwell and Don Ellis strove valiantly to keep the enemy out of range, some of the shots were bound to get through. On these Stevenson made several fine saves. However, he probably found the pace much faster than anything he had experienced in high school competition. On the whole he did very well and certainly should not be discouraged.

The battle for the four playoff positions in the Town Basketball League continues down to the final set of three games that will be played next Wednesday night. The Bonnell Motors have nailed down first place in the League standing and the Rotary has clinched second place. The other two positions will not be decided until the final night.

Strangely enough the schedule matches the American Legion against the Sons of Italy and all sorts of possibilities exist. If the Legion wins, they clinch third place. If the Sons of Italy win, then the two teams are tied for third place and a playoff would be necessary. If the Sons of Italy and the Mercurio Insurance both win, then a three-way tie for third place would exist. If both the Sons of Italy and the Mercurio Insurance lose, then these two teams would be tied for fourth place and a playoff for that position would be necessary. With all these possibilities existing, interest is running high and a good crowd will be on hand to watch the proceedings.

There will be no games on Monday night as the gym is not available. The schedule for Wednesday night is as follows:

THE WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

The Winchester Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Waldo V. Lyon on February 24. The program "Horticulture" was presented in a most interesting and instructive manner by Mrs. Samuel L. Kirkwood.

Many suggestions were given on soil preparation, fertilizers, compost beds and lists of drought resisting annuals and perennial plants. Spring blossoms throughout the home gave a note of cheer and many expressions of appreciations proved this meeting to be one of lasting interest.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB
OUTWITS THE WINTHROP
INDIANS 4 TO 3

A game planned months ago and much discussed since then finally took place at the Skating Club last Friday evening, when Winchester and the Winthrop Indians, arch-rivals in both the spring and fall divisions of the Mayflower League, squared off against each other. The fact that the Indians imported an entire line comprising McKinnon, star center, and the two Lallys from Dedham, champions of the Boston Amateur Hockey League, is some indication of how much the Redskins wanted to scalp the local paleface outfit.

For the first time in two months Winchester was at practically full strength, with Don Ellis, Don Armstrong and Whip Saltmarsh each travelling over a hundred miles to get home for this important contest. What all this travelling meant can be seen from the scoring picture. Armstrong scored two, Wimpy Burnett and Bob Collins one each. The winning Winchester goal was one for the book. It came late in the third period. Saltmarsh, facing off deep in the Indian defense zone, captured the puck from the redskin center, whipped it lightning fast over to Don Armstrong thirty feet out from the cage and he sent the puck ankle high into the strings before the bewildered Indians realized what had happened. Ellis played a particularly brilliant game, breaking up so many enemy attacks that Scott Connor in goal was not as busy as usual. Scott Doub likewise was a power on defense. Both defense-men made several spectacular rushes the length of the ice that narrowly missed ending in a score.

For the Indians McKinnon excelled, ably supported by the two Lallys. The nicest thing that can be said of this game is, that although hard-fought, it was cleanly played from start to finish, there being not a single penalty meted out.

NEW 1949 DE SOTO
ANNOUNCED

Saturday, March 5, will be "At Home Day" at the Maguire Motor Company, De Soto - Plymouth dealership, 808 Main street, Winchester, where the brilliantly styled new line of De Soto cars will be displayed for the first time.

In issuing a general invitation to the residents of Winchester, Woburn and surrounding communities to visit his show-room, Mr. E. Frank Maguire, president of the dealership, said: "We're proud of the beautiful new De Soto car that just arrived and naturally want to show it to as many people as we can."

In describing the new De Soto which is being introduced under the slogan "The car designed with you in mind," Mr. Maguire stated that the cars have a longer wheelbase, so that passengers ride cradled between the axles, yet over-all length has been slightly reduced. Seats are much wider, yet over-all width of the car is less. No headroom has been lost, yet over-all height has been reduced. Legroom has been increased.

The result is a car that is far roomier inside, where space is needed, yet easier to park, garage and handle in traffic because of elimination of unnecessary bulkiness outside.

Safety factors include the grouping of all instrument panel controls within instant reach of the driver; "black lighting" of control dials to eliminate glare; better hydraulic brakes; improved, easier steering; and new mounting of shock absorbers for better lateral control. Beautifully designed tail-lights have been placed to obtain maximum visibility from the rear and sides. Safety-Rim wheels provide safety in event of blowouts by holding tires and tubes in place.

FOLK SONGS AND KENTUCKY EXHIBIT ON TUESDAY,
MARCH 9

"Homespun and Harmony," an entertaining and novel program of Kentucky Mountain ballads, sung and explained by Mrs. Walter H. Sears of Newton, self-accompanied by a quaint dulcimer, will form the entertainment for the March meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Guild, First Congregational Church, in the Ladies' Parlor on Tuesday evening, March 9, at 8 o'clock. All women interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. Sears, known as "Aunt Sal," presents the charming old songs she has learned from the Kentucky mountain people, and she tells wonderful stories of the people who sang them to her. In addition to the "harmony" portion of the program, Mrs. Sears also has a "homespun" side, in which she gives an excellent picture of the homelife of these people in Kentucky, with emphasis on the hand-weaving and vegetable dyeing of materials. Mrs. Sears herself taught weaving for two years to the mountain people, and she will exhibit some of her own weaving on Tuesday night. The program promises many delights to the audience -- in both the field of music and handicraft.

Mrs. George E. Connor will preside, with Miss Helen Monroe in charge of the social hour which will follow.

ART ASSOCIATION

Heavy snow and freezing temperature did not deter a large audience on Tuesday evening from attending the splendid talk by Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff on "Stage Design and Designers," given before members and guests of the Winchester Art Association in the Gallery, Winchester Public Library.

Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes, president, presided, and at the business session, three changes in the Association's by-laws were voted upon.

Beautiful flower arrangements by Miss Dorothy Nash graced both speaker's and guests' tables. Pourers were Mrs. James B. Willing and Mrs. G. R. Barrett, assisted by Miss Edith Caverly, Mrs. John Chipman, Mrs. Carl Siedhof, Mrs. Richard Wyman, Mrs. Fulton Brown, Mrs. Loring Nichols.

As a speaker, Mrs. Samoiloff held the audience's complete attention as she entertained them with anecdotes of theatre life, facts and foibles of stage people and stage designers whom she knows, and of some of her own personal experiences in the theatre. There were many chuckles as she told of her role as one of the nuns in "The Miracle" some years ago -- but the chuckles did not blind the audience to the fact that here, within an amusing lecture, was a wealth of information about the stage, its people, its function, its growth.

Mrs. Samoiloff, who had secured the fabulous stage and costume sketches for this March exhibit from designers who included many personal friends, told how some of the sketches had been obtained -- of visits to the designers and their studio. As she talked, one could almost see the immaculate Brownstone home of David Folkes, or the quaint brick house overlooking the Hudson -- in charming disorder but with an exquisite view -- of Woodman Thompson. It was quite like meeting Norman bel Geddes, to hear of his designs for "The Miracle," and of his incredible modesty in choosing to remain backstage when curtain calls were given with stagefright when he actually did face an audience!

"The scenery designer has a three-fold problem," the speaker went on, seriously. "The physical limitations as to the play itself and the small space allotted to him by the time and place of the play; expression in terms of beauty limited by the playwright and the producer; the need to give a psychological impression or picture, through design, which will help create a mood for the players and carry out that mood to the best advantage. The costume designer, in turn, must create costumes for the characters which will help express their characters or moods in the play."

Mrs. Samoiloff touched on the history of setting in the theatre, from the Greek pageants which used the magnificent architecture of the temples as background, to the that architecture for its plays, to the stage designs of Gordon Craig in the 1920's. She paid warm tribute to Robert Edmund Jones, a Harvard School of Architecture graduate, who did much to improve costume and design in the American theatre. The audience, some of whom were old friends of the late Dudley Murphy, were glad to hear that Jones and Oenslager (one of the exhibitors) had studied under Mr. Murphy at Harvard.

The speaker also told of the importance of lighting to the stage, with most designers creating their own lighting effects. Today Peggy Clark is one of the leading lighting designers -- And from her personal observations, Mrs. Samoiloff told how a play is put together -- with actors, ballet, costumes, scenery and lighting finally assembled into one great unit for rehearsal.

Barbara May Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Elliott of Herick street, has been elected vice president of the freshman class at Skidmore College. A graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1947, and a post graduate student at high school last year, she has been getting excellent grades at Skidmore.

Town Election is Monday, and on that day the citizens of Winchester, qualified to vote, will select their governing officers for another year. It is to be hoped that there will be a representative vote cast, so that those chosen can be seen to be the clear choice of the majority. It is also to be hoped that those voting will know for whom they are casting their ballots when they actually get into the polling booths. So often voters vote for the same old names without knowing why, or conversely cast ballots for almost total strangers in town for no apparent reason, except that they are new. Either procedure is bad, and unnecessary in Winchester. Our town is not yet so large that we can not learn of our candidates at pretty much first hand. The advertisements in the Star, though to be sure, partisan, give a pretty good idea of the various candidates' backgrounds, and other factual information is offered by the League of Women Voters in its Candidates' Questionnaires. It is in practically all cases possible to find some one you know who actually knows any candidate about whom you are in doubt, and in this way resolve any question which may be puzzling you. The point is, find out about the candidates! Determine the ones likely to administer their jobs as you believe they should be administered, and then VOTE for them, but be SURE you know for whom and what you are voting!

MR. TEELE GOT OFF THE TRACK

Editor of the Star:
Since the present School Committee has held its last regular meeting and its duties as a member and Chairman of the Committee are completed, perhaps I can speak from the vantage point of a former member in answering some of the comments which appeared in Mr. Teele's letter of last week. First of all, it appears doubtful that the writer of this letter is well informed on just what the Committee has recommended. For example, he alleges that the Committee "objects to a pupil spending too many years in one school" and favors shifts from one school to another. Of course, this assertion is completely contrary to the facts. The disadvantages of frequent moves of this kind are one of the reasons the Committee has advanced against frequent redistricting and are also a primary reason for advocating a three-year Junior High School, thus eliminating the one-year shift to Wadleigh.

Perhaps Mr. Teele got off the track a bit in his other comments. It raises the question as to whether the Committee had enough public meetings and worked as hard as it should in presenting the real facts to those Winchester residents who did not attend. The object of these meetings, incidentally, was to present the essential facts regarding some extremely important problems. There was no thought of high pressuring anyone. Any less thorough presentation would, I believe, have simply meant that the Committee was neglecting its responsibilities. But the letter in question emphasized particularly the cost of the school program. Mr. Teele may recall that immediately prior to my term on the school committee I had the privilege of serving on the Finance Committee and as Chairman of that committee. From such an experience a person necessarily obtains at least two strong impressions: (1) the fine contribution which this committee makes to town government; (2) the need for careful attention to expenditures by all departments. Among other School Committee members, Mr. Jellison had also had Finance Committee experience, and Mr. Speers had served as Chairman of the Board of Selectmen. No one connected with the schools has liked the steady increase in operating costs during recent years. For the most part, however, these increases have resulted from two well-known developments: (1) the depreciation in the value of the dollar; (2) the necessity of raising teachers' salaries.

definitely essential town employees and partly to meet the competition of other towns, many of which have raised their salaries more sharply. An added cause is the current and anticipated increase in pupil enrollment. As to the proposed building program, it is indeed unfortunate that so much construction is necessary now or in the years immediately ahead. It would have been much less expensive, for example, to have added to the Junior High School years ago. In any event, the problem is still with us. After careful study three town committees have all agreed on the most desirable procedure. The program now proposed by the School Committee follows the outline developed by the School Facilities Committee and is precisely the program recommended by the Planning Board in its current report. The latter has not been classified by people as an extravagant part of the Finance Committee released indicates that the 1949 tax rate will be $40 more or less. Ten years ago, in 1939, the tax rate was $27.20. The intervening increase is, therefore, about 47%. If the rate turns out to be $42, the increase for ten years would still be less than 55%. For the same period of time the cost of living is up 70%, wholesale commodity prices 105%, and the cost of Federal government 350%. In paying for its municipal services, including schools, I believe, a remarkably good value. If the School Committee has not contributed this highly desirable result, it is not because it has not tried within the limits of its responsibilities and its best judgment. There is just one final point I should like to make. In town affairs, as in our own families, we debate how to spend our available dollars and cents -- and we certainly should continue to do just this. In the end we have to decide what is really important and what is less so. In making a close decision I think we shall do well to recognize that in this day of great unrest abroad and rapid social change at home, good public schools are extraordinarily important, perhaps more so than ever before.

SMALL PERCENTAGE OF PHYSICIANS FAVOR SOCIALIZED MEDICINE

Editor of the Star:

In a recent letter to the STAR, one of your readers had occasion to attack the motives of Mr. Harlan Paine, Administrator of our Winchester Hospital, after he had contributed a factual article on the advantages of our private system of medical care and of our voluntary hospital system, from a layman's point of view. Mr. Paine's extensive experience in hospital administration has eminently qualified him as an astute observer in the field, and since any system of government control inevitably brings increased administrative control and mountainous bureaucracy, I'm sure Mr. Paine had the welfare of the public and not his own interests in mind when he wrote to the Star.

Further criticism in the above mentioned letter centered around the much maligned American Medical Association for opposing state medicine and a complaint that the public never hears the other side of the story. In regard to the latter, the reader would do well to study the article entitled "Our Most Dangerous Lobby" in the December Readers' Digest which exposes the tremendous propaganda campaign being conducted by Federal officials, with your money, to make Big Government bigger and increase their power over the lives of all of us.

As for the American Medical Association, it is not a group of octogenarians stuffing greenbacks into their pockets, but instead it is composed of the autonomous county medical societies, your family doctors, who govern themselves entirely, and who elect men to represent them in the national councils. Far from advocating a status quo, the history of the A. M. A. has been one of steady progress. Progress which has given this country medical care far superior to any other country in the world; progress which has increased life expectancy so remarkably and reduced infant mortality so dramatically; progress which has made us the healthiest nation on the globe as is so graphically shown by the report of The Brookings' Institute in their impartial, independent survey. And during all this progress, every nation that has embraced socialized medicine has had a steady downward trend in the quality of its medical care.

As for being infallible, the medical profession would be the last to make such a claim. Certainly, mistakes have been made. You could not get 170,000 people together without having their fair share of die-hards, obstructionists, fanatics and sincere loyal oppositionists. In answer to the statement that many in the profession are in favor of state medicine, they actually number about 1500, or roughly less than 1%, although they are very vocal. The largest group is the Physicians Forum with about 1000 doctors, 2/3 of them in or near New York City, and led by Dr. Ernest Boas who has been identified by a congressional committee as a member of eight communist front organizations. It is a communist axiom that state medicine is the keystone in the communist arch.

Perhaps the greatest mistake the profession has made has been that it has been so busy improving medical care and raising standards among themselves that they have neglected the economic aspects. Ineffective methods of diagnosis and effective methods of treatment have been developed but they cost a lot more money than "the squirt at your tongue" and "the dose of calomel" you got 50 years ago.

But progress is being made to correct that mistake. The profession has aided and backed the Blue ed the Blue Shield. Both are highly successful, voluntary methods of medical care insurance that are growing steadily and rapidly. In addition private enterprise has provided prepayment of medical care for millions more by insurance companies, also at a cost to the individual far less than estimates of the cost under state medicine. A council of progressive forward looking men are at the helm of the American Medical Association's plans for increasing diagnostic facilities, improving rural care and raising educational standards, without encroaching on the personal liberty and freedom of the individual.

It can't happen over night. Real progress doesn't come that way. We younger members are proud of the achievements of our profession, yet know that we can not rest on the laurels of those who came before us but must make our contribution to its steady forward progress.

Harry L. Mueller, M.D.

HOBBY CENTER OUTLINE'S ACTIVITIES

Editor of the Star:

In view of letters published in recent editions of the Star relative to the use of the old Mystic School building, the Winchester Hobby Center would appreciate an opportunity to outline the circumstances under which it was granted use of the property. It would also like to give the town an account of its stewardship. The old Mystic School building had been unused for many years. In 1946, the founders of the Hobby Center requested permission in Town Meeting to use the building for their activities. Such permission was voted and the Recreation Committee was directed to place the building at the disposal of the Hobby Center. The Hobby Center assumed responsibility for making the building usable and for its maintenance.

In order to place the building in usable condition it was necessary to (1) install oil heating system, (2) replace a major portion of the plumbing, (3) replace large areas of unsafe ceiling, and (4) replace much electrical wiring. The costs of these improvements paid for from Hobby Center funds amounted to approximately $1200. The interior of the building was cleaned and redecorated by Hobby Center members a task of no small magnitude.

On twenty-two Saturday mornings in 1948, the Hobby Center provided instruction in hobbies and crafts to an average of seventy-five grade school children from all parts of Winchester. The number of children attending these classes was limited only by space and funds available. Some of the crafts and hobbies were: ceramics, fired and non-fired; finger painting; woodworking; puppet making; stamps; leather working; metalry; block printing; and nature study. In addition to the Saturday classes the Hobby Center operated several afternoon and evening craft groups in stamp collecting, fly-tying, and model airplanes for junior high school students.

The Hobby Center also sponsored during 1948 adult classes in rug hooking, furniture decorating and gray painting.

Regular bi-monthly meetings of the membership were held at the Hobby Center and at each of these some hobby or craft was featured. The high cost of heating and operating the building has made it impractical to keep the Hobby Center open in mid-winter and it has been customary to recess during this time. Good use is made of this time in organizing for the ensuing year.

We had hoped to avoid any controversy with the V. F. W. in their efforts to find suitable quarters. The reference to our refusal to share the old Mystic School building with them needs clarification. The building contains two rooms which together were not large enough to always accommodate all the children who wanted to attend Hobby Center classes. The V. F. W. proposal to "share" amounted to a request for exclusive use of the building with the exception that one of the rooms would be available to the Hobby Center on Saturday morning and on two evenings a week. The Hobby Center felt that this arrangement would not be satisfactory to either group. In attempting to provide the children of Winchester with instruction and facilities for learning worthwhile hobbies, the Hobby Center welcomes the suggestions and active participation of all Winchester residents.

THE CASE OF THE OLD MYSTIC SCHOOL

Editor of the Star:

There have been several items in the STAR relative to the use of the Old Mystic School Building on Bacon Street.

It would consume a great deal of space to go thru the whole story of action, votes, arguments, with clauses of limitations, etc., by which the Hobby Center is being allowed to use the only two rooms there are above the basement of this old school building, to carry an educational work, but here is the main theme. The Hobby Center asked the 1946 Town Meeting and the 1946 School Committee for use of the building. This action prompted passage of a vote whereby the two rooms above the basement were entrusted to the School Committee on a six month's notice of cancellation basis and with limitations of authority and with restrictions as to use. The Recreation Committee in turn, assigned these rooms to The Hobby Center under like agreement.

To make use of the building possible, The Hobby Center paid storage on school material moved out of these rooms, and expended their monies and labor to the equivalent of approximately $1800, to make the rooms useable. As a non-profit organization which is open to any shouldered their operating expenses and those of the building. Because of all this, the Recreation Committee has felt that it has been carrying out the wishes and intent of the Town in consigning the use of the building to The Hobby Center.

Respectfully submitted,
John D. West, Chairman
Recreation Committee

B. U. GROUP TO STUDY WINCHESTER AS MODEL COMMUNITY

Mr. Harold Bates, Vice-Chairman of The Winchester Citizens' Committee, announced today that letters are being sent to a representative list of Winchester citizens, suggesting that they assist a group of students of Boston University who are studying community viewpoints and other aspects of community life in Winchester. Mr. Bates pointed out that the letter, as follows, is self-explanatory.

"Dear Fellow Townsman:
The Town of Winchester has been recently selected by the instructors and members of a class of graduate students at the Boston University School of Public Relations as a typical American community. This selection was made because they believe that Winchester provides a locale which will afford the students an opportunity to observe how a community with good civic spirit functions.

"The Winchester Citizens' Committee has been asked for advice and information concerning the community. It is hoped that other residents of Winchester will also be willing to contribute their knowledge of community viewpoints so that this student group can benefit from a well-rounded picture of Winchester. Any conclusions reached as a result of this study will, of course, be made available to interested individuals or groups. "Therefore, we are writing this letter of introduction in the hope that you will give a student about a half hour of your time for an interview when he calls upon you in the near future. From our own experience, we are satisfied that they will appreciate your courtesy but will not impose upon it.

Very sincerely yours,
The Winchester Citizens' Committee

by Harold Bates

In commenting on this student project, Mr. Bates said, "I have met a number of these students and found them to be an alert group of young people, who are seriously studying Winchester. They were very courteous and thoughtful in their manner of asking questions, and I found it a very stimulating experience. I thought it was a compliment to our community to be selected by the School of Public Relations as a town which these students could study. I hope that every citizen of Winchester who is interviewed will enjoy the experience as much as I did."

WESTON L. BRANNEN

GUEST ORGANIST AT UNITARIAN CHURCH
MARCH 20

Mary Ranton Witham, Director of Music at the Winchester Unitarian Church, announces that the church has been fortunate in securing Weston L. Brannen as guest organist in the presentation of Brahms's Requiem on March 20th at 4:00 P. M. Mr. Brannen, Conductor of the Reading Symphony Orchestra, is organist at the First Congregational Church in Andover.
Of excellent musical background, he has a reputation as a sensitive accompanist.

Since kettle-drums are essential in the performance of the Requiem, Ralph Stevens has been engaged as tympanist.

John Ffestyn Jenkins, noted oratorio singer and bass of the Unitarian Quartette will sing the baritone solos in the third and sixth sections and Dorothy Perkins, soprano, will sing the fifth section solo. Muriel Thorley and Edgar Randle of the Quartette and many of the finest voices in Winchester will augment the Unitarian Choir in this service.

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Unitarian Church, will read from the Scriptures the text of the Requiem.

The reputation for excellence of these choral and instrumental Vespers under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham, has been firmly established and the church cordially invites everyone to share the inspiration of this monumental choral work.

This performance of the Brahms Requiem is dedicated to those who have fallen in World Wars I and II and all service men and women are invited to join members of the American Legion Post 97 who will attend to memorialize their departed comrades.

COUNTRY CLUB HELD COSTUME PARTY

One hundred members of the Winchester Country Club and their guests made merry last Saturday evening at a dinner and costume dancing party at the clubhouse.

Hors d'oeuvres were served from 7 to 8 o'clock, with dinner at 8, followed by dancing to Ken Reeves Orchestra. Nearly all of the guests were in costume and there many novel as well as beautiful costumes displayed. Colorful decorations and balloons added to the festivity, the dancing opening with a grand march, led by the outgoing chairman of the entertainment committee, Ed Kuypers and Mrs. Kuypers, both in Swiss Tyrolean costume.

Prizes were awarded the most original costumes, the best costumed husband and wife, and the prettiest and funniest costumes, awards being announced by Phil Hendrick. Mrs. Horace Ford as "the Candy Kid" won the lady's prize for the most original costume. Her dress was embellished with strings of candy kisses from waist to hemline, she wore a necklace of lollipops and candy-bar epaulettes and her hat was decorated with multi-colored life-savers.

Paul H. Walton won the men's prize for the most original costume. He came as a radio beacon, with flashing lights and soft music from a small set hidden under his clothing.

The husband and wife adjudged to be best costumed were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harlow, who came as a "Gay Nineties" couple. Mrs. Harlow making a stunning Gibson Girl. Mrs. Peter Cramer as Scarlet O'Hara won the prize for the prettiest costume.

Prizes for the funniest costumes went to petite Mrs. Harry C. O'Brien, garbed as a man in white tie and tails, and to William Sinclair as an old time dandy, in a plaid suit, gray bowler hat, complete with cane and spats, and wearing both sideburns and mustaches.

ROTARY SPONSORED GLEE CLUB AT HIGH SCHOOL SATURDAY

Once more the lovers of choral music in Winchester are privileged to hear our own Mystic Glee Club in a concert being held at the Winchester High School auditorium Saturday night. There are a few seats available to those who have not already purchased their tickets and to those who have never heard this splendid group of men's voices this is indeed a rare chance. For this club which has been honored several times by first awards in the annual contests for New England Glee clubs, will present a program Saturday night that should please any music lover. The selections are of a 'Pop Concert' variety and yet it is well known that even such simple songs require infinite hours of rehearsal to reach the perfection that the Mystic can and does reach. These men are banded together because they love to sing and all have some knowledge of fine choral music. This is their main purpose in forming a Glee club, the concerts being only a culmination of all their work and desires to please their friends. Along with this love of music they have a deep sense of civic pride and duty and therefore consider it a privilege to be able to bring an extra concert to Winchester for the benefit of the Winchester Rotary Charity Fund. The earnings realized from this fund by the Rotary are used for various worthy causes such as the scholarship foundation, the Boy Scout camp and other needs for the young people of this town. It is then, with pride and full recognition of their combined talents for good that these two splendid men's organizations present this now annual Glee Club Concert.

RULES and REGULATIONS

BOARD of HEALTH

of Winchester, Massachusetts

Relative to:

DISEASES DANGEROUS TO THE PUBLIC HEALTH

The following rules and regulations, made under the provisions of Section 31, Chapter 111, of the General Laws, shall supersede all rules and regulations heretofore adopted by the Board of Health of Winchester, Massachusetts, relative to diseases dangerous to the public health and the control thereof.

Regulation 1. Definitions. The following words and terms as used in these regulations, unless a different meaning is required by the court or is specifically prescribed, shall have the following meanings:

A. Householder. The head of a family or person in charge of a house as hereinafter defined.

B. House. Any dwelling or place of human habitation including school dormitories, hospitals, asylums and institutions, whether public or private, lock-ups and jails.

C. Carrier. A person who, without symptoms of a disease dangerous to the public health, harbors and may disseminate the specific microorganisms of that disease.

D. Contact. Any person known to have been sufficiently near an infected person or animal to have been presumably exposed to transfer of infectious material directly, or by articles freshly soiled with such material.

E. Placard. An official notice, written or printed, posted as a warning of the presence of a disease dangerous to the public health on the premises or in the apartment or room so placarded.

F. Quarantine. The restrictions to the premises, house or apartment of materials and persons that presumably have been exposed to a disease dangerous to the public health.

G. Isolation. The restriction that no person in any house as defined herein or any certain portion thereof subjected thereto by the Board of Health, shall leave such house and that no person except physicians, nurses, and clergymen in attendance upon such person therein and authorized health officers shall enter such house, and that no person shall remove or aid in removing any persons or any articles therefrom, unless and until permitted by the Board of Health.

Regulation 2—Reporting Contagious Disease. A householder who knows that a person in his family or house is sick of smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever or any other infectious or contagious disease declared by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, dangerous to the public health, shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Board of Health, and without delay report in writing to the Board of Health, stating the name, age and sex of the person so afflicted, the name and nature of the disease, the time when the person was taken sick, the exact location of the house and room occupied by the sick person and from whom milk and cream consumed by the sick person were obtained. Any physician who knows that any person whom he attends is sick as aforesaid shall also give such notice and make such report. If the attending physician shall promptly give the notice in writing hereby required, the householder may be excused therefrom. Blank forms for this purpose will be furnished by the Board of Health and their use is desired but the failure to obtain them shall not excuse householder or physician from complying with this regulation.

Regulation 3. Reporting of illness suspected of being due to consumption of food. Every physician and every superintendent or other person in charge of any school, hospital, institution, dispensary, laboratory, labor camp or other camp, who shall have knowledge of the occurrence of a number or group of cases of illness believed to have been due to the consumption of food, shall report the same immediately, by telephone or telegram, to the Board of Health.

Regulation 4. Control of carriers. No person found to be harboring typhoid, paratyphoid, dysentery or other pathogenic intestinal organisms may engage in a food-handling capacity until it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Board of Health that the said person no longer harbors the organism.

Regulation 5. Removal of Quarantine Notice. No person shall without the permission of the Board of Health remove, obliterate or deface a placard which has been placed on premises in which there is a disease dangerous to the public health. In the event of the removal, obliteration or defacement of such placard, the householder shall immediately notify the Board of Health.

Notes

1. Definition of Adult: Any person who has reached his eighteenth birthday is considered to be an adult, for purposes of these regulations.

2. All of the above diseases except five should be reported to the local board of health. The five exceptions (chaneroid, gonorrhea, granuloma inguinale, lymphogranuloma venereum and syphilis) should be reported directly to the State Department of Public Health on special forms, provided upon request.

3. Food handlers living in a household where a case of typhoid, cholera, bacillary dysentery or paratyphoid fever exists shall be excluded from their occupation as long as they continue to live in the same house in which the case exists, and thereafter until freedom from infection, as judged by clinical and laboratory evidence, has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Local Board of Health. Food handlers living in a household with a recovered case which continues to excrete typhoid bacilli after convalescence shall be excluded from their occupations unless they have been inoculated with typhoid vaccine within two years.

4. Contacts shall be quarantined until three weeks have elapsed from the date of last exposure unless immunized by a previous attack, by a recent successful vaccination, or showing the immune reaction.

5. Patients who have lesions of primary or secondary syphilis on exposed parts of the body or in the mouth, and are employed in any occupation requiring regular, direct contact with other persons, such as barber, hairdresser, manicurist, waiter, waitress, nursemaid, domestic, etc., shall be reported by name, address and occupation, to the State Department of Public Health, unless the physician will assume responsibility that the patient discontinues such occupation until the lesions are healed.

6. Patients with open tuberculosis should in most cases receive sanatorium treatment, both for the benefit of the individual and the protection of his family. Those who remain in their homes shall observe all precautions necessary to prevent infection of the members of their families and of others with whom they may come in contact. This shall include approved methods of collection and disposal of the sputum, the sterilization of any articles of clothing and of toilet articles which may become contaminated by the sputum, the use of separate dishes and eating utensils and proper sterilization of the same. The patient should sleep in a separate room. For details concerning precautions in home care a pamphlet of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health entitled "Home Care of Tuberculosis Patients" is available.

As soon as a diagnosis of tuberculosis has been established, arrangements should be made for the examination, including an X-ray of the chest, of all members of the immediate family and of other persons with whom the patient has been in close contact. If the family cannot afford X-ray examination by a private physician, facilities are available through the various state, county and municipal sanatoria. Persons with suspicious findings and those who have had contact with a tuberculous patient should be kept under medical observation as long as advised by the physician. It is the responsibility of the local board of health to provide hospital care for cases of tuberculosis, when needed, and to see that contacts are examined where such examinations have not been made through a private physician.

When a case is reported the public health nurse representing the board of health should visit the patient's home. She should instruct the family in the sanitary precautions described above, see that arrangements are made for the examination of contacts and if necessary provide transportation to the place where they are to be X-rayed, and should aid the patient in obtaining admission to a sanatorium if this has been recommended by his physician.

Thereafter, the nurse should make visits to the home at least once in six months to determine whether the patient has moved, whether the above-mentioned precautions are still being observed, and whether any new measures are needed to control the spread of the disease. If the patient has moved to another town or state, the Local Board of Health should be notified. In cases where the physician wishes to exercise complete supervision, the nurse should obtain such information from him.

The only acceptable reasons for the board of health failing to exercise the supervision outlined above are: refusal of the family physician to permit periodic visits by the nurse; or placing of the patient's name on an "inactive list" as a result of examination including X-ray.

No person who has or has had tubercle bacilli in the sputum or other bodily discharges shall be allowed to engage in teaching, nursing, dairying, or occupations involving food handling or the care of children until he has received a certificate from the board of health stating that his employment would not be dangerous to the public health.

7. Persons living in a family in which a case of tuberculosis exists or has existed within two years, and whose occupations involve food handling or contact with children, shall be required to have an X-ray of the chest to determine whether they shall be allowed to continue in such occupations.

Prescribed and established by the Massachusetts Departments of Public Health August 9, 1938; amended May 13, 1941; January 11, 1944, and November 3, 1948.

SEWER COMPLETED

Coal was spilled from East Somerville to above Winchester along the railroad track last Friday when the dumping hopper of a car of coal on an early morning freight became unfastened. The train was stopped above Winchester and the car was sidetracked, but most of the coal was lost. Trackmen were busy Friday forenoon cleaning up the roadbed.

Water & Sewer Department crews have completed sewer installation in Pond street between Woodside road and Chesterford road to care for six new homes. Chairman Edmund C. Sanderson, veteran head of the Water & Sewer Board, stated it was the first time to his knowledge that it has been possible to dig sewers during February. WHITEMORE and LOWE
TO PRESENT PIANO DUA

The final presentation of the year for subscribers to the Community Concert series is to be the two-piano team of Arthur Whittemore and Jack Lowe, who will be heard Monday evening, March 7, in the High School auditorium. (As is the case with all the Community Concerts, no tickets will be available at the door.) Meeting originally at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, where both were majoring in composition, they made their American debut in 1949 at New York's Town Hall. They were well established as a favorite team in this country by the time the war broke out. A few days after Pearl Harbor they joined the Navy where, after four years of vital but dull desk jobs, they toured with a Navy entertainment unit which appeared at various debarkation stations, recreation centers, hospitals, and later, throughout the entire Pacific zone. As stars of the all-Navy musical "Drop the Hook," Whittemore and Lowe established a concert record that may stand for all time, playing five hundred performances before half a million servicemen.

After their discharges they returned to their pre-war careers in concert tours, best-selling records and numerous radio appearances. As top-ranking artists in their field, Whittemore and Lowe are much in demand as soloists with the country's leading orchestras. New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Washington, Cleveland and many others. On records these versatile pianists have hit the over-a-million mark of best-sellers, with classical, romantic and contemporary records equally popular with collectors. Their album, "Doubling on the Ivorys," the largest selling Victor album in its field, is undoubtedly familiar to many Winchesterites, while their latest, the Poulenc Concerto with Dimitri Mitropoulos conducting, is a special favorite throughout the country as the pianists themselves introduced this important contemporary work to over a dozen cities with as many orchestras.

The week following this presentation, the Winchester Community Concert Association will open its third annual membership campaign with a tea at the Winchester Country Club March 13th for officers, directors and workers. Miss Adelaide Homer, president of the local Association, announces that headquarters this year will be at Peck and Peck's, and will be open from Monday, March 14th, until the end of the campaign, Saturday noon, March 19th. In accordance with the regular Community Concert plan no admissions for single concerts will be sold, and no memberships can be accepted after the close of the campaign.

"WHAT WAS THE CREED OF CHRIST"

Did Christ formulate a creed? If so, what was it? Where is it found in the New Testament? How do the so-called Christian Creeds compare with it?

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman will give his answers to these questions in the first of a series of Lenten sermons at the Unitarian Church here next Sunday morning at 11 a. m.

If you are not a regular church attendant, you are cordially invited to attend this friendly church. The inclusive covenant of this Church states: "In the love of truth and the spirit of Jesus we unite for the worship of God and the service of man."

The ice went out of Mystic Lake on Saturday, February 26th. It broke loose under a strong north-west wind and landed up against the shore on the Mystic Valley Parkway side of the lake. By the next day only a small amount was left in the coves on the easterly side. This is very early as it usually goes out between the first and third week in March.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Ronald Kenneth Hatch, Mechanical Engineer
Born: March 12, 1903 at Winchester

Ronald Kenneth Hatch has achieved a position of leadership in manufacturing circles of Detroit. The son of William S. and Lillian (Snow) Hatch, he may be remembered as a student at Tufts College where, as a brilliant scholar, he was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering (cum laude) in 1925.

Mr. Hatch's career may be said to be divided into two phases. With respect to the first of these, he was employed by Mead-Morrison Manufacturing Company from 1925 to 1934. Starting as draftsman, he was promoted through positions of steadily increasing responsibility, eventually becoming machine designer. Since 1934, he has been chief engineer of the Winch and Crane Division of the Gar Wood Industries, Detroit; and his activities in this capacity constitute the second phase of his professional life. During the years, he has become recognized as an authority on the construction of heavy machinery, and, in this connection, it should be noted that, in cooperation with the U. S. Army, he was instrumental in the development of truck winches and cranes for our armed forces during the recent World War.

In addition to holding memberships in the professional societies of his field, such as the Society of Automotive Engineers, he is particularly active in the affairs of the Y. M. C. A. and serves on the Board of Management of its Northern Branch of Detroit.

Mr. Hatch was married to Grace L. Lewis in 1939 and they are the parents of two children.

WINCHESTER GIRLS IN BATES DEAN'S LIST

Two Winchester girls, Judith Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hawkins of 242 Highland avenue, and Melissa Meigs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Meigs of 11 Hancock street, are on the Bates College Dean's List for scholastic excellence for the first academic semester of the year.

Miss Hawkins is a senior, majoring in psychology. She has participated in athletics, is active in the Women's Student Government of the college and a member of the Bates Conference Committee.

Miss Meigs is a sophomore candidate for the A. B. Degree. She is active on class committees at Bates and was a member of the National Honor Society at Winchester High School.

MARCH 15 - IMPORTANT DATE FOR PARENTS

The Central Mothers Association is delighted to have the opportunity to present again to all parents and teachers in Winchester the educational film, entitled "Human Growth." This picture will be shown at the High School Auditorium on Tuesday, March 15 at 8:30.

All parents are urged to come so they may decide whether or not they eventually would want a personal relations course offered in the schools.

It is evident to doctors, ministers and educators alike that there is a growing need for a sound educational program to prepare all boys and girls for a good relationship to the world, to one's self and to one's fellowman.

Mr. Franklin J. Lane has been made a member of the Maintenance Committee at Bouve-Boston School of Physical Education, which is affiliated with Tufts College. Mr. John Coulson, Jr., has been re-elected to the Finance Committee, and Mrs. John Coulson, Jr., to the Scholarship Committee. Mrs. Coulson is a graduate of the school.

WINCHESTER BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 3 - Troop 7 Hold Rally

If you felt the ground shiver and shake on a certain Monday evening not long ago, don't worry. It was only Troop 3 and Troop 7 holding a surprise rally in the recreation hall of the First Baptist Church. Thirty-two live-wire boys competed enthusiastically (and loudly!) in the active program of events. Winchester's Boy Scout Commissioner, George Thompson was the capable judge, and when the dust had finally cleared, he announced that Troop 3 won the Compass Race 5 to 0; Troop 7 won the First Aid Contest 20 to 10; Troop 3 won the Antelope Race 8 to 1; Troop 7 won the Chair-and-Neckchief game 10 to 0; Troop 7 won the "Blowhard" game 5 to 4; and Troop 3 won the Ping Pong Ball Roll 5 to 0. Final score: Troop 3, 32 points; Troop 7, 36 points.

Troop 3 Appoints Two Buglers

Troop 3, who hold their Monday night meetings at the First Congregational Church, do things in a big way. Most Troops consider themselves lucky to have one bugler, but Troop 3 has not just one, but two buglers. Scouts Farr and Trevor were appointed official Troop 3 buglers recently. The Troop also appointed Sam Roca as Scribe, and Lester Godwin as Librarian. John Merritt and David Snow, Patrol Leader of the Eagle Patrol, recently received their Second Class badges, and Bill Johnson has earned his Carpentry and Bird Study merit badges.

Troop 12 Hikes To Camp Rankin

Scout Tom Gallagher, our Troop 12 reporter, says: "Troop 12 held its regular meeting Thursday, the 24th. John Barry held the opening ceremonies. Afterwards, Norman Doucette, Mr. Washburn, and Mr. McFeeley talked over with the Troop the booth we shall display at the Exposition to be held at the high school on April 30th. They also wanted to see the boys who will enter in competitive events."

There was a hike to Camp Rankin in Medford by the Flying Eagle Patrol. Those who participated were: T. Gallagher, D. Doucette, E. Reardon, T. Sullivan, B. Francis, and a cousin of the Patrol Leader, D. Gallagher. They enjoyed a well-cooked meal.

Our Troop is planning to buy some tents so we can have some trips this year. The Flying Eagle Patrol has challenged any Patrol in our Troop to a game of basketball. Come on down and see some Scouts in action."

Troop 7 Scouts Smell a Skunk!

Last Saturday, in spite of the rainy weather, these brave Troop 7 Scouts enjoyed a camping trip to Troop 7's campsite, Pine Hill Camp: Jim Ekstrom, Roger Foster, Stuart Carlisle, Raymond Simpson, Philip Dresser, George Govostes, Stanley Mullen, and David Ripley. They pitched tents, built fires, and cooked their grub. And Mr. Weld taught them the difference between a cedar and a yellow pine, and a pear tree and an apple tree as a start toward passing their Woodlore requirement.

But the main object of the trip was to pass the Wildlife requirement, by "finding evidence of six different kinds of wildlife." Several of the boys needed to find only three more "evidences" to complete their Second Class requirements so they can appear before the Board of Review this month, and receive their badge. Mr. Swanson took them off on a hike and they soon found a crow's nest and a fox hole. But although they tried and tried, the boys just couldn't seem to find that last "evidence of wildlife" to complete their requirement. But, at last, just as they were about to give up, it "came to them." They passed the final test, to become Second Class Scouts . . . they smelled a skunk!

High School Band To March In Scout Parade

The Winchester High School band has accepted an invitation to march in the Boy Scout parade to be held on Sunday, April 24th as a prelude to the Scout Exposition at the high school on April 30th. The Stoneham High School Band and the Troop 7 Medford Drum and Bugle Corps will also parade. Invitations have also been sent to the Woburn High band, St. Charles C. Y. O. band, St. Joseph's Medford C. Y. O. band, Medford High band, St. Patrick's Stoneham C. Y. O. band and the Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps, Winchester.

Does Your Boy Want To Be A Scout?

If your boy wants to become a Boy Scout and if he's 12 years' of age or older, it's easy to join. Just come down to any one of the weekly meetings. Troop 3 at St. Mary's Church, and these Troops all meet on Monday evenings: Troop 3 at the First Congregational Church, Troop 6 at the Unitarian Church, Troop 7 at the First Baptist Church, and Troop 1 at the Legion Hall. We'll be looking for you!

WINCHESTER STUDENTS TO TAKE PART IN WCOP BROADCAST

James Loftus, of 64 Woodside road, James Hennessy, of 36 Cabot street, and Felicia Mezzacappa, of 100 Wildwood street, will participate in WCOP's "Stories to Remember" program on March 8. Following a 15-minute dramatization on the subject of tolerance and understanding among all religions and nationalities, the program features a roundtable talk by local high school girls and boys, moderated by Rev. Duncan Howlett, of the First Church of Boston. The students informally discuss the drama just presented and bring the racial, religious and social injustices which form the basis of these programs down to the local Boston community level. The Winchester students will be heard following the transcribed drama "Seasoned Timber," written by Dorothy Canfield Fisher and starring Raymond Massey. The "Stories to Remember" series is a weekly program feature of WCOP and WCOP-FM every Tuesday, 10:30 - 11:00 p. m.

HOLY NAME TO PRESENT SPEAKER AND SINGERS MARCH 17

On Thursday evening, March 17th at 8:00 p. m. at Winchester High School Auditorium, St. Mary's Holy Name Society will present Rev. Joseph A. Robinson, Ph.D.; LLD, Pastor of St. Stephen's Church in Boston and Chaplain of State's Prison in Charlestown, who will speak on "Faith and the Iron Curtain", a timely topic. Fr. Robinson is a noted orator, lecturer and traveler. He has been behind the "Iron Curtain" and knows his subject from first hand information. As Prison Chaplain he undoubtedly will have many interesting facts on crime, prison life, penal institutions and the pitfalls leading to crime.

The Boston College Choral Group will provide musical entertainment before Fr. Robinson talks and after his address is finished. This group of fine male singers will be well worth hearing. Tickets will be handled by the Officers of the Holy Name Society for this event.

DON'T GIVE UP THE FIGHT

(For The Winchester Star)

Often when a failure or two come. Some give up a fight well begun: It is the fellow with the gift to stick Who will find that his effort will click; Who will come out way up on top; Who will not let any act of failing him stop. With help of God he will repossess The will to carry on his fight in perfectness.

Elected Selectman with High Vote

TOWN ELECTION HELD

Coon Won Featured Park Fight. Fitzgerald and Cunningham Selectmen. Pihl Defeated Cassidy for Assessor

In an election which on the whole ran pretty true to form Winchester cast 4471 votes at the annual town election Monday. With 9219 on the present voter list less than fifty percent of those eligible went to the polls, the number being undoubtedly kept down by the lack of contest for school committee.

It was 10:20 when the last precinct, 6, came in, and 10:50 when Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson was able to give the final tabulation. During the day the Mt. Holyoke Club served coffee and doughnuts in the basement of the town hall, with dinner at noon.

RICHARD C. CUNNINGHAM

New Selectman

Pre-election interest was centered this year in the contest for Park Commissioner, a five-cornered fight among James H. Coon, Hall B. Gamage, Robert A. Johnson, William J. Murray and James R. Ware. Of these only Mr. Murray, a local realtor, had run before. Mr. Coon was the winner, polling 1317 to 929 for Mr. Johnson, the runner-up. Mr. Coon waged a vigorous campaign for the office which paid off. Mr. Ware's vote in Precinct 6 was a surprise to many as Mr. Johnson was expected to run next behind Mr. Murray in that precinct.

MRS. GERTRUDE MURPHY RECOVERING

The many friends of Mrs. Gertrude Murphy of the Ruth C. Porter office, will be happy to learn that she will be able to return to her home this week. While returning from a South America-West Indies Cruise, Mrs. Murphy became seriously ill, due to an infection and was confined to the ship's hospital. Upon reaching New York, she was immediately taken to the Presbyterian Hospital by ambulance, accompanied by her sons Russell and Dick, who had driven to New York to surprise their mother, planning to drive her back to Winchester, not knowing she was ill. When she reached the hospital her name was immediately placed on the "danger list." She was then removed to Harkness Pavilion, which is connected with the hospital, where she has been for two weeks. Her son Russell remained in New York for a few days until he was assured his mother was out of danger. Dick returned to Winchester to convey the sad news to the rest of the family. It is now reported she is feeling much better and is counting the days when she will be back in Winchester again.

GENEROUS GIFTS TO HOSPITAL BUILDING FUND

In recent weeks contributions from three Winchester families, totalling $17,500., have greatly encouraged the Building Fund Committee. These will provide (1) the Doctors' Lounge in the enlarged Hospital, (2) a Prematurology, and (3) the Electrocardiograph and Basal Metabolism Room. A wide range of other units are available for gifts to which a donor's name will be attached, including private rooms, the Pathological Laboratory, Surgery, and the Pharmacy.

The present total of the Winchester Hospital Building Fund is $425,000., more than two-thirds of the way to our goal. Many of the generous contributions already received have been made without designation. To other donors - like those referred to above - the satisfaction is greater if the gift is at-

SUPER HIGHWAY DISCUSSION

Through the interest of Mr. William C. Cusack of Lakeview road a large group of Winchester property owners met on Sunday afternoon at the Music Hall in Rangely to listen to an explanation of the new "Master Highway Plan" now in the forefront of interest in Boston and most suburban towns and cities. Mr. Cusack found it impossible to include in his invitation to attend more than a limited group of citizens directly interested as being affected by the plan owing to the limit of the hall's capacity. As it was over 150 interested people attended, filling the hall to overflowing.

Although known to many, this plan for a super-highway approaches Winchester by way of the Parkway. It crosses Bacon street, running along the west side of the railroad to a point below the railroad signal house. Here it turns through Rangely and crosses by a tunnel to Wedge Pond. The Pond will be filled in through its middle to Lake street, where the highway continues on to the outskirts of Woburn.

In opening the meeting Mr. Cusack outlined its purpose and introduced William H. Buracker of Grassmere avenue, former chairman of the State Committee and Commissioner of Public Works, under whose direction the plan was conceived and formulated. Mr. Buracker described the program, touching upon its salient features.

Following speakers were Senator Harris S. Richardson, who expressed regrets that the plan did not include elimination of the grade crossing in the center, and Representative Harrison Chadwick. The latter gave a most comprehensive answer to several points in question in the minds of many property owners.

He stated that the rumor that the plan of the highway through Winchester has recently been changed from the distributed map outline is incorrect. While previous speakers had stated it would be a number of years before this section would be built, Mr. Chadwick stated that as the plan was a so-called "ten year plan" and as the Winchester section stood seventh in order of construction, it appeared that it would be from nine to ten years before this section would be undertaken. He stated that the Town should keep a close watch upon developments and promised that he and his fellow representatives would follow this feature, as well as to include the proposed grade crossing elimination and the possibility of the proposed rapid transit line to Boston.

The maps showing the "Master Highway Plan," he stated, are available at the Public Library.

A general discussion followed in which a number of citizens voiced their objections to certain portions and routes, the money involved, etc. Mr. Cusack is to be praised for his interest in bringing the matter before the town and opening the discussion of the proposed project. It is anticipated that the Planning Board and Selectmen will give due consideration to the route and attendant factors and town hearings will undoubtedly be held as the people become aware of what is proposed. Thus far little publicity has been given to this important project and a map, covering the Winchester route, would be of interest to many who have not yet been able to view the book plan.

EIGHTY YEARS YOUNG

Monday evening was quite eventful for Mrs. David O. Dishman, mother of Mrs. Theodore Elliott of Herick street.

It was her 80th birthday and she quite surprised by a dinner table decorated in honor of the event, presents and cards from her relatives and many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Twombly and Mrs. William Goodhue dropped in for dessert which included a birthday cake with 80 candles, all burning brightly. Incidentally Mrs. Dishman had little trouble blowing out all the candles and making her wish.

The younger folks in the party played bridge, with Mrs. Dishman taking everything in and evincing a lively interest in everything and everybody. All agreed to return for Mrs. Dishman's 81st birthday next year and are looking forward to this event.

For well over half a century Mr. Rice taught violin, numbering many pupils from Winchester and surrounding cities and towns. He also directed choirs in Stoneham, Albany and Gloversville, N. Bicknell in the old "Winchester Amateurs," and later played with the Winchester Orchestra Society. His home was always open for musical events and in recent years was the locale of a delightful series of pianoforte concerts by the distinguished Mr. Joshua Phippen. He took the greatest interest in young musicians and a number of young people now making their mark professionally got their musical start and inspiration from him.

Aside from music Mr. Rice was actively interested in gardening and grew beautiful flowers on the grounds of his home. He was an ardent yachtsman and a member of the Boston Yacht Club at Marblehead, sailing his own yacht, the Bob-o-link, for more than 30 years. ### FACTS FOR WINCHESTER RESIDENTS

Editor of the Star:

The following letter which is being sent to residents and voters of Precinct 3 is herewith offered for publication in the columns of the STAR. The writer feels that with certain facts which should be brought to the attention of all Winchester residents prior to Town Meeting.

To the residents and voters of Precinct 3:

Within the Warrant for Town Meeting to be acted upon at the Annual Representative Town Meeting, March 17, 1949 there are contained certain articles which should be seriously considered by you, and in regard to which you should make your settlements known to your duly elected Town Meeting Representatives for their guidance and action.

Certain meetings have been held by the School Committee, Winchester Citizens Committee and other interested groups. At these meetings certain facts have been presented to town residents. It is not believed by the writer that all facts which should be taken into consideration have been completely presented, particularly as relates to the Junior High School Building Program.

It is believed that each of you will agree that, for all income levels, today's cost of living presents a very real problem. Rising tax rates are an increasingly important part of this problem. Therefore it is to be assumed that you are directly interested in anything which can be done to avoid unnecessary Town expenditures, premature spending which might prove to be unwise as viewed from only a few months in the future, and above all, anything which will reasonably guarantee to you that you are being asked to pay only fair "equitable" share of the tax burden.

Article 29 of the Warrant presents to you a challenge as relates to taxes. It reads: "To see if the town will appoint a committee consisting of a member of the Board of Assessors and six members of the Finance Committee, one from each precinct, to be designated by the Moderator, for the purpose of determining the desirability of revaluation by independent expert appraisal engineers for tax equalization purposes of all residential, business, commercial and industrial real estate, and all business, commercial and industrial personal property, exclusive of residential personal property in the town, or will take any other action in relation thereto."

This article is favorably reported on by the Finance Committee as it pertains to the appointment of a committee for the purpose of this article provided that the composition of the committee does not include any members of the Finance Committee.

It is hoped that upon the consideration of this article an amendment will be offered instructing the committee to report at the next regular, or special Town Meeting which could mean a report by June of this year. If revaluation was accepted at such time it is probable that such a program could be activated and concluded by late 1950.

It is believed that the Winchester Citizens Committee, over the past year and a half, has unquestionably proved that many tax inequalities do exist in Winchester, and that if revaluation was to take place an entirely new picture of the borrowing capacity of the town would be established.

Revaluation could only increase your existing tax burden if the assessed value of your property is presently inequitably low as compared to your neighbors and other property owners. Revaluation would lower your tax burden if the present assessed value of your property is inequitably high as compared to other properties. A serious and analytical approach to present assessments indicates revaluation would probably raise the grand total of all assessments, but would likewise lower the actual tax rate per thousand of assessed valuation.

How does revaluation affect other articles in the Town Warrant? Articles 16, 17 and 18 either lead to, or if favorably acted upon appropriate funds, part of which must come from utilization of the town's borrowing capacity. In any well run business, or home, a decision to borrow against one's assets or future earnings is generally made only after the most careful analysis of just exactly what those assets are, or conservative appraisal of earning power. It is believed that until such time as a true and accurate picture of the town's total borrowing capacity can be arrived at, action to use such capacity should be taken only where necessary because of direct emergency.

Articles 16 and 17 deal with acceptance and action upon the report of the Junior High School Addition Building Committee together with the appropriation of funds. The School Committee have aired some of the facts relative to the remodeling and addition to the Junior High School in which they have been assisted by the Building Committee. It is not believed that all of these facts prove that an actual emergency exists, nor is it believed that facts have been presented which conclusively prove that any hardship would exist upon students, school personnel, parents and town residents if action on at least a part of this building program was to be deferred until such future date as a more comprehensive and detailed analysis can be made of the High School Building requirements (Article 18,) and until such time as through revaluation a true determination can be made of the town's borrowing capacity.

Specifically, it is not believed that at this time funds should be appropriated for the construction of the combined auditorium and cafeteria facilities which it is purported will be jointly used by both Junior and Senior High Schools. The following facts support such conclusion:

1. There has been no adequate consideration given to the possibility that it might be the town's wish to construct a new High School at some point removed from the existing site, or removed from immediate proximity to the proposed auditorium building.

2. There has been no adequate consideration of the parking problem which would be created by such proposed auditorium. Residents upon adjacent streets to the present High School upon the occasion of events at the existing school auditorium have been repeatedly forced to appeal to the Police for the removal of cars from street areas and driveways in order to enter their own property. A definite feeling of alarm exists relative to the possibility of fire apparatus being barred from entrance to certain streets, or parts thereof, and with the talked of increased use of the proposed auditorium this hazard to Precinct 3 residents in that area would be multiplied many times.

3. There has been no conclusive proof presented that at any time during the past year the school department, town authorities, or town organizations have been forced to curtail activities because of inadequate seating facilities in existing auditoriums, nor if such has occurred has it been proved that the condition has become so acute as to be deemed an emergency.

4. By vote of the school committee with the expressed agreement of parents there has been instituted in the lower grade schools of the town a one session program which necessitates the vast majority of all students in such schools carrying a lunch and eating such lunches at their desks. It is hard to understand why children from ages 5 to 12 should be subjected to such a program in the first place, but if it is a sound program there appears to be no reason why their older brothers and sisters in the two High Schools conceivably cannot do the same, if necessary.

5. There has been no indication that any particular use has been considered for the Wadleigh School following completion of the remodeling and enlargement of the existing physical structure of the Junior High School. If it is so mandatory that cafeteria facilities be extended it would appear entirely feasible to utilize all, or any part of Wadleigh for this purpose for a reasonable period of time.

6. There is an adequate number of seats available in existing public restaurants located in the center of town to seat the entire Senior class of the High School, and probably part of the Junior class. Local business men engaged in the restaurant and lunch business would undoubtedly be very glad to co-operate with school authorities in arranging a special school luncheon to be served between 11:00 a. m. and 12:00 noon.

7. If any genuine emergency exists in cafeteria facilities it would appear reasonable that the governing body of the Unitarian Church would be public spirited enough for a reasonable period of time, to rent their kitchen and dining hall facilities.

8. Assuming that no other temporary, or permanent cafeteria arrangements can be made it is well to bear in mind that the Town Hall auditorium is vacant, or could be made so, every day of the school year excepting on election days.

In short there appears to be no logical reason from a standpoint of emergency why the proposed auditorium and cafeteria should be erected within a matter of months. There further appears to be no hardship being imposed upon Junior and Senior High School students which is not already being, or has been, imposed upon lower grade students. And lastly, there appears to have been no particular effort upon the part of many concerned with the problem to consider every last possible move prior to saddling taxpayers with what might conceivably turn out to be the biggest white elephant ever the town has yet known. All dependent upon desire and vote of the town as relates to the senior High School Building problem.

If any emergency exists in Winchester today certainly the lack of a fire station in the westerly part of the town can be definitely termed such. Article 28 of the Warrant deals with this problem. The ultimate solution of this problem will be an expensive one, and again we have something which has material bearing upon the borrowing capacity of the town.

There is no question about the interest which you as a resident of Precinct 3 has in Article 15 calling for a building committee to procure plans and estimates for an addition to the Mystic School Building. This move is unquestionably to meet an emergency. It would appear proper in this regard for all to remember that if well over a half million dollars is appropriated for an auditorium and cafeteria for the High Schools there can be no reasonable defense offered as to why any addition to Mystic School should not likewise include a cafeteria. . . and if this is done then how about the other lower grade schools?

Your tolerance in reading this rather lengthy letter is appreciated, and it is believed that it may awaken you to some of the facts which must be considered by a Town Meeting Member who attempts to discharge his duties and responsibilities to those who elected him as their representative. It is my earnest desire to have you advise not only myself, but other Town Meeting Representatives of Precinct 3 your personal reaction to some of these facts. To that end this letter is addressed to you, and attached hereto you will find a complete list of Precinct 3 Town Meeting Members, including those elected on March 7, 1949.

In closing may I say that I have my personal opinion upon the course of action which should be taken. . . I intend to express same upon the floor of the Town Meeting. My actual vote on any article, however, cannot help but be guided by what the residents of Precinct 3 express as their majority desires and wishes.

Sincerely yours,
Nelson K. Brown

DIG UP THE LOST $1475

Editor of the Star:

In reading the warrant for the annual town meeting, I noticed with pleasure that on page 22, paragraph 2, the Finance Committee recommended salary adjustments in cases "where a group such as the Library staff was considered to be in need of 'upgrading' to a level more in keeping with the professional requirements of the work." With much less pleasure I read later on page 49 that the actual 1949 salary recommendation for our very valuable assistants to the Librarian was just $1475, less than the figure the Librarian requested.

I sincerely hope and strongly urge that the town meeting members see fit to make right this discrepancy not only because our library staff should be paid decent salaries commensurate with their very obvious abilities and past thorough training, but also because it is to the very great interest of this town to keep them here. Good librarians are scarce and probably will be for years to come. Right now we have a splendid library, but it would certainly be a useless, hollow shell if there weren't a trained staff to run it, particularly because it really serves as the school library for the High School and all the elementary schools.

When we consider as taxpayers that the very small sum of $2.50 that each of us pay for our Winchester Public Library, a sum that would hardly buy one book at today's prices, we should be hit by the fact that it's the cheapest source of education most of us have been exposed to up to now. So let me again urge the town meeting members to dig up "the lost $1475."

A new series of television broadcasts that will take the audience behind the scenes in modern railroading was announced by the Boston and Maine Railroad today. The opening show of the new series will be telecast on March 10 and will take the viewing audience on a fast ride with the engineer in the cab of the Diesel locomotive hauling the Kennebec non-stop train, from Boston to Portland, Maine. All the thrills of riding with the engineer at 70 miles an hour through the countryside will be possible through motion pictures made from the cab of the Diesel.

KIRWAN SECOND IN HEP MEET

Tom Kirwan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Kirwan of 30 Glen road, was only a long stride behind Mealey, Cornell's brilliant sophomore middle distance star, when the latter won the 1,000 yard event at the Ivy College Heptagonal Meet in the Boston Garden last Saturday evening in the record-shattering time of 2m. 12.8s.

Kirwan, running for Penn., was caught in 2m. 12.9s., also under the old mark of 2m. 13.8s. The former Winchester track star and Massachusetts State 880 yard champion ran sensationally for a boy who has had little experience at 1,000 yards, his time placing him among the first three runners of the nation for the distance.

Tom won the 1,000 in the Penn-Princeton meet with a 2m. 18.9s performance. He drew a much faster time trial at the Hep meet than Mealey, having to run in 2m. 17s. while the Cornell star was able to go much slower.

In the final the Winchester boy was boxed for three laps and at the end had to run around a couple of competitors before he could really go after Mealey. Kirwan finished with apparently more left than the Cornell sophomore, and with a little better judgment of pace, particularly in the early stages of the race, might have won.

He has been specializing in the relay for "Pennsy" this winter and was a member of the team that clipped several seconds off the all time Penn record, made by a team anchored by the great Ted Meredith. He was caught in 1m. 53.9s for his half-mile leg at the Nationals this winter and has been one of the key men for the Red and Blue in its very successful relay season.

WINCHESTER BEAT WOBURN AGAIN

Closed Season with 38-32 Victory

Winchester High completed its basketball season in a blaze of glory at Woburn last Friday evening as they defeated Woburn High by a score of 38 to 32. This was the ninth straight victory for the locals who recovered from a faltering start in the early weeks of January to compile an excellent record of fourteen victories against seven defeats. Sickness to key personnel during the early weeks of the season definitely prevented this Red and Black quintet from compiling a more enviable record and possible tournament consideration.

After beating Woburn 44 to 40 at home a week ago Winchester anticipated a hard fought game on the Woburn court but as in the first game, the locals dominated the play during the first three quarters. Woburn again staged a rally in the final period to narrow the margin of victory but the locals had too big a lead for the Tanners to overcome. In those first three periods Winchester's defense was outstanding as they limited the Orange and Black to three baskets on their home court. In the final period the Woburnites began to hit from all angles of the floor and scored 20 points in that period as composed to the meager 12 points they had accumulated in the first three periods.

At the end of the first period the score was tied at 4 to 4 as Woburn's sagging defense bothered the locals and they were unable to set up their offense. In the second period George Tansey sank two beautiful set shots which loosened up the Woburn defense and the locals began to function more smoothly as they went ahead 16 to 10 at the half. In the third period Winchester reached its peak form of the season as they completely dominated the play, scoring 16 points to Woburn's 2, and leading 32 to 12 at the end of that quarter. As described above, Woburn's late surge fell short of victory as they scored 20 points to Winchester's 6 in that final period.

Winchester's offensive stand out was Captain Ken Donaghey as he tallied 14 points in spite of the close attention given to him by the Woburn defense. It was strictly a team victory, however, as the Red and Black played as a smoothly functioning unit with all five of the regulars, plus George Tansey, scoring at least four points. Big Walter Murphy and Paul Roche controlled the Woburn backboard while Pete Dillingham and Dennis Sanford turned in outstanding performances. Al Bevilacqua and Bob Tedesco looked good in the losing Woburn cause.

The Winchester Seconds made it a clean sweep for the evening by defeating the Woburn Seconds by a score of 36 to 24. This was the second victory for the Red and Black Seconds over the Woburn Seconds and was highlighted by a fine performance by Joe Migliacci who paced the scorers with 10 points.

Terming children, "The greatest national asset", Mr. McGowan no doubt will have something to say about them.

Tickets for the Holy Name Society Special Event, Fr. Joseph A. Robinson, Ph.D., LL.D., and the Boston College Choral Society at Winchester High Auditorium, March 17, at 8:00 p.m. are being distributed this week by Eric Johnson, William Cantwell, Vincent Erhard, William Croughwell, Ralph Ambrose and Philip Gange. Proceeds from the event will be used for the Society's Sick and Vigil Benevolent Fund and Charities.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Last Saturday night, March 5, 1949 the second annual Rotary sponsored Mystic Glee Club Concert was held before a near capacity crowd. For this was not only an additional opportunity to hear the Mystic Glee Club's fine singing but was also an opportunity for the loyal friends of Rotary to show their appreciation for all that the club is doing in Winchester. The Charity Fund was greatly augmented by this happy event and it was certainly a fine tribute to both clubs that so many purchased tickets.

The program presented was a full evening of entertainment having not only many of the old favorites of the club sung but also some very pleasing singing by our local Mezzo-Soprano Susan Hight. An additional feature for the evening was the rendition of two selections on his magic violin of the great Maestro Aram Mouradian. Playing with a technical virtuosity that was almost too perfect Mr. Mouradian held his audience spellbound and one might almost say incredulous of such great skill. For those who came to sneer or scoff stayed to cheer and laugh in sheer delight at his light-fingering dexterity.

Miss Hight sang two groups of songs and as evidence of her popularity she was encored at both groups. Her first group consisting of a number by grieg was particularly well received-the second number being her best called "Into the Night" by Clara Edward. Her very pleasing stage appearance together with her air of suppressed volume lends her an illusion of experience in one so young. The second group consisting of lighter numbers from popular music more in keeping with the rest of the program showed promise that she will some day be a popular night club singer is she so wishes. With the knowledge that Miss Hight was singing over a layngitis it is all the more remarkable that she was able to give as finished a performance that she did.

The rest of the program was made up of three groups of popular and folk or spiritual music by the Glee Club under the very able conductor, Keith Synder. The first group also included a number by bach which was well sung but difficult to follow since there was quite a bit of noise of late comers to the concert. The encore in this group was the ever popular negro spiritual "steal away". The club sang this with a very telling dramatic effect and turned out to be one of the best numbers of the evening. The second group was mostly folk songs and a chantey-also and old favorite old man Noah which was exceedingly well done. As an encore to this group the club sang their prize winning song "The Animals Are Coming". This was not as well sung as in the past and one had the feeling that either the club was over trained or else had not had enough rehearsals for this. The third group consisted of that grand folk song "Rain And The River" which was certainly as well done as any other number on the entire evening. Then the club sang a new arrangement of the ever popular "Secrets" with an entire chorus done humming. This again left the impression that some of the members had not sung this newer arrangement too many times although the latter part of this was well done and very pleasing to the audience as evidenced by their long applause at its conclusion. The final number in an all too short evening of lovely music was the rousing "Border Ballad" by J. H. Moulder. It seems to be the general feeling among the faithful followers of the Mystic that this type of full volume song is the best that they do and certainly Saturday night was no exception for it was well sung and well sustained with all the clear diction that go to make up the really fine Male chorus singing. The accompanist for the entire program was once again the ever faithful, Mary Louise Wood.

All in all it was a very delightful evening of music that pleased not only the members of the audience that have heard them before but also the people who came to hear the Mystic for the first time. It is certain that they made many new friends and received encouragement from their old by this concert which had as its purpose such a laudable cause as the Charity Fund for the Winchester Rotary Club. The committee under John McIntyre for the Rotary and the officers and men of the Glee Club are to be congratulated for the success of this concert.

VISIT THE SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

David F. Whorf, of Central Green, a junior at Amherst College, sang with the college glee club last Sunday afternoon in the current radio concert series, "Songs from New England Colleges," over NBC stations in New England at 5:00 p.m. Mr. Whorf is a member of the second senior section of the 75-voice glee club at Amherst.

LITERATURE GROUP

The Literature Group of The Fortnightly spent a very pleasant afternoon on Monday, March 7, renewing acquaintance with the dramatic works of Sir James Matthew Barrie. Miss Eva Sherman, Chairman of the Literature Committee introduced Miss Gertrude Kimball as narrator for the afternoon. Miss Kimball read a brief synopsis of Barrie's life revealing him as primarily a novelist and essayist who occasionally wrote plays. He was born at Kirriemuir, a Scotch village later made famous under the name of "Thumbes". Barrie was created a Baronet in 1913 and the Order of Merit was conferred on him in 1922 in recognition of his war plays, one of which Miss Kimball chose to narrate for the latter part of her program.

In the reading of Barrie's play entitled "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" Miss Kimball proved herself an able narrator, bringing out skillfully the pathos and sprightly snatches of humor as expressed in the drama of "three nice old ladies, and a criminal who is even nicer." It was a pleasure indeed to listen to the unusual timbre of Miss Kimball's voice, a deep, warm contralto eminently suited to vocal expression.

The final meeting for this season of The Literature Group will be held at the Winchester Public Library on April 4, 1949.

SOCIALIZED MEDICINE FROM THE LIONS MOUTH:

Editor of the Star:
Herewith is a copy of the article which appeared in The Daily News, England, Friday, November 5, 1948. Some of the readers may be interested in this report from the lion's mouth.

Sincerely yours,
Parker Heath, M. D.

THE DAILY MAIL
Friday, November 5, 1948
THE G. P. AND STATE MEDICINE

Why I'm Giving Up Doctoring At 40 by a private medical practitioner who asked that his name be withheld Spectacles? (A green form somewhere.) Thank you; good afternoon!

Next? (Cough?) (Pad of special prescription forms.) Good afternoon! Corsets? (Oh! Certificate to be written out in accordance with Board of Trade regulations.)

Next! More coal? (Special Ministry of Fuel pro forma.) Good afternoon! Milk? Yes. Special buff form and Ministry circular on symbols. Good afternoon!

Yes, that is what the practice of medicine in this country has come to now -- 30, 40, 45 patients to the hour; and it will have to be stepped up in the winter time.

What Chance?

I have talked to doctors in the industrial North-West who, since July 5, have organized their "surgeries" to dispose of 40 to 45 patients an hour.

What chance have they of practicing medicine under such conditions? None! Absolutely none, and they know it. The system forces it on them, and for many of these men, who at one time took a keen interest in their work there is no escape.

Other doctors tell me that increasing panel and clerical work now spread to over 90 per cent of their patients, they have little interest left in their work and have come to regard the practice of medicine simply as a means of making a living and seek their interests outside their professional work.

The hospital out-patient department affords further evidence of how the practice of medicine must deteriorate under nationalisation.

More patients attend, and wait longer in out-patient clinics: yet many need never have been referred to hospital if their own doctors had simply had time to hear their stories and examine them: that is, carry out the work for which doctors are trained.

More and more under such system must the hospital out-patient clinic take on the work of the general practice in the country: for fault again lies not in the individual practitioner but in the system. How can a doctor attempt to diagnose and treat cases when he is overwhelmed by demands for mass certification for financial benefits and scarce commodities?

In a purely private practice, on the other hand, I never see more than four patients to the hour, frequently fewer, and many a patient needs an hour's hearing if he or she is to be helped. Such cases become more and more common under the strain of lowering standards of living.

What To Do

Twenty years ago, in a great Scottish hospital where my father and many relatives had walked the wards before me, they taught me the art of my profession.

I learned the paramount need for time and patience in the investigation of disease; how a patient must be allowed to tell the story of his illness; how the rest of the story, if necessary, must be extracted from him, without asking leading questions; how all this should be noted in his case history; and how important it is to record his past illnesses, the health of his family, how he works and plays, what he eats and drinks -- in short, all that may have a bearing on his illness.

This must be followed by a careful examination of the patient symptom by symptom; and in a proportion of cases, further investigation beyond this is necessary.

Believe me, if we are to make progress in medicine, individually and as a profession, each doctor must be allowed time to devote to his cases.

Medicine becomes more complex and, incidentally, more absorbingly interesting every year, yet more than 80 per cent of the students there now are destined to become general practitioners, shackled to this soul-destroying system of certification, which will allow them no time over to practise what they are being taught now.

On Borrowed Time

Far better a six-month apprenticeship at a post office where they would learn how to carry out such work.

Small wonder that practically no doctors' children are entering the profession now: what men and women will take up this work in future?

It has been suggested that the State doctor may counter this situation by limiting the number of patients he takes on his list and leave himself some time free from clerical duties to practise his profession.

Yes, but let me introduce you to a personal budget known to me well. Before the war your average doctor in private practice received by fees about £1,500 a year (in return for which he could give all his time and undivided attention to the care of his patients). About a fifth of that went to meet the expenses of running his practice, leaving an income of about £1,200 a year.

Then came the war, which meant a captain's pay of about £600 a year, and many expenses continuing. Back to practice at £800 a year, rising year by year to perhaps £1,600 -- but in the face of practice expenses rising steeply.

And now nationalisation and an immediate fall in earnings to £1,100 -- £1,200 a year, but with practice expenses still about £800 a year -- an income of £400 a year to live on, with the pound devalued to 6s. and school fees alone amounting to more than that figure!

How can our budget be balanced in this new era? Only by seeking a list of thousands of State patients; yet 4,000 would mean only an actual income about £1,500 a year (still a considerable drop from a pre-war £1,200).

Spectacles? Yes! (A green form.) Good afternoon! Next? Milk? (A buff form.) Next! Good afternoon! Sicknes benefit certificates? (A choice of pink and white forms.) Good afternoon!

No. Never. Not that, good-bye.

SOCIALIZED MEDICINE OR PRIVATE MEDICINE

Editor of the Star:

First came the draft animal; then the wheel and carriage. These were followed by the locomotive, the automobile, and now, jet propelled airplanes. A similar, sharply demarcated sequence of events can be traced in the development of medical science.

During medieval times, brutality, ignorance, and superstition were for centuries the chief characteristics of the medical man. Treatment by a physician was far more likely to kill than to cure. Hospitals were breeding places of infection and plague. If you had a bad cold, you were liable to be put in a hospital bed with four or five other people -- dying, perhaps dead, of everything from typhoid fever to childbirth. When you had a slight wound, the doctor poured boiling oil in it to avoid infection. During an operation, you were held struggling on a table by burly attendants instead of being given an anesthetic. When you fell ill, your doctor dosed you with bitter, rock salt, violets, beet root, cinnamon, and crocodile dung. Powdered mummy substance possessed special healing properties. -- Egyptian mummies being considered superior to the mummy substance made in France from bodies stolen from the galleys. The Unicorn's horn was a highly prized remedy, but an expensive one -- a specimen being worth $75,000.00. Stones of concretion, formed in the intestines of some animals, usually goats, were supposed to prevent despondency, all kinds of poisoning, and snake bite. Moss, not ordinary moss, but moss scraped from the skull of a criminal who had been hung in chains, possessed miraculous curative properties. A mixture of horse dung in white wine was prescribed for Cardinal Richelieu as he lay on his death-bed, -- and the Cardinal drank it!

Not many years ago, during the age of the frock coat and stovepipe hat, not all physicians were graduates of medical schools! A neophyte expressed his desire to be a physician, became apprenticed to a doctor, attended a few lectures, and, in a relatively short time, engaged in the active practice of medicine in his own right. A diagnosis often was made by mere looking at the tongue. A doctor entered the sick room, sniffed about with regal head held high, and exclaimed in a pontifical voice "I smell fever!" In the eyes of many patients, this made him a very wise doctor indeed. Doctors were judged by their stature and presence. Medical acumen was attributed generously to tall, imposing practitioners.

The turning point came with the great medical advances of the latter half of the 19th century. The scientific era of the healing art began with Rudolf Virchow, a German pathologist, who first laid down the theory of disease. He wrote voluminously on public hygiene, the reform of medicine, epidemics and endemics, statistics of morbidity and mortality, hospitals, military medicine, school hygiene, criminal law, forensic medicine, and the cleaning of cities. Then followed Pasteur in bacteriology, Lister in surgery, and Osler in medicine; while Madame and Pierre Curie discovered radium and Roentgen the X-ray.

Subsequent to and in keeping with these medical advances, the American Medical Association rated the medical schools and hospitals, broadened the medical curriculum, demanded a medical degree, established approved internships and residencies in the specialties of medicine, and, in general, steadfastly improved the standards of the medical profession. As a result, the American Medical Association has given to the American people the greatest system of medical care not enjoyed by any other nation. The American people are the healthiest in the world. Infant mortality has been reduced and life expectancy lengthened.

If socialized medicine or government controlled medicine under any other name becomes a reality, the high quality of medical care which the American Medical Association has so zealously guarded and guarded will undergo regressive metamorphosis. Inevitably a double standard of medicine will become available to the American people. Patients cared for by socialized doctors are very apt to receive incomplete studies, snap diagnosis, and inefficient care because of the much heavier patient load that each doctor will be forced to carry under the "free" medical system. The terrific strain of such a practice will demoralize a physician, stunt his professional development, blunt his medical initiative, and, finally, reduce him to the "pill-pusher" level. On the other hand, the well-to-do patients will consult physicians who remain unencumbered by socialization and will continue to receive a high grade of medical care.

The lines are drawn! The issue is clear! Would you relinquish your sleek automobile or airplane to ride an ox-cart? Would you give up the present, high grade quality of private medical care to accept a "free" but taxation paid and inferior medical service? Would you turn the clock back 50 or 100 years?

A. L. Maietta, M. D.

SOCIALIZED MEDICINE SHOULD NOT GO UNCHALLENGED

Editor of the Star:

The letter of Margaret Haag in this week's Star has prompted me to indulge in a letter to the editor. I have never felt that these argumentative letters on the editorial page were very valuable but there are some insinuations in her letter that should not go unchallenged.

In the first place the overwhelming majority of doctors are convinced that the socialization of medical care would greatly decrease the quality of that care. The propaganda of the American Medical Association has been severely criticized by many doctors because it has been inept, inadequate and has allowed the tax supported propaganda of the leftist groups to steal the headlines and entirely misrepresent the situation.

I do not have any figures on the mortality rates for Sweden except the crude death rates. In 1947 it was 10.8 in Sweden and 10.1 in this country. It is often impossible to make fair comparison by statistics from different countries where the conditions of life and classifications of disease are different. I do however happen to have available from a paper which I prepared the statistics on infant mortality and maternal mortality in the United States from 1920-1944. Over this period of time the maternal mortality decreased over 70% and the infant mortality under one year of age over 50%. I very much doubt that any other country can show as good a record. Moreover the decrease has been pretty steady. We have been through a boom, a crash and a war with very great changes in economic conditions and yet these changes have not influenced the mortality rates at all. This I think goes far to prove that the problem of lowering death rates is not one of economics.

The only reason for the existence of the medical profession is to save lives and reduce suffering. Our one aim is the improvement of medical care. We think we have done a good job of it and what we want is for everyone to help us do it better. We do not want to supplant our present successful system with a bureaucratic control which will inevitably be destroyed by the spirit which has produced all these blessings.

GROWTH OF DISTRICT NURSING

Today's work of the busy district nursing staff, under the capable direction of Mrs. Jane H. Lord, director, with visits to all types and classes of homes in the town, helping in all types of illnesses and emergencies, is the fifty year result of a project started by a few women half-century ago. On an afternoon in February 1899, a group of civic-minded members of the "Fortnightly" met at the home of Mrs. Stephen Thompson, and formed a much-needed Nursing Association. A board of officers was formed, a constitution adopted, and by the end of that first year, it had a membership list of 143 members and 65 subscribers. (In those days, the Association's only financial aid came from three-dollar memberships -- today it has assistance from the Community Fund.)

For transportation to homes in the town, Kelley and Hawes loaned the nurse the use of its cabs, and managers of the electric roads supplied her with passes. A small local store allowed quarters for the nurses and was kind enough to take messages for her. The STAR did much to make known to its readers the needs of the district nurse, and helped greatly in securing many of the items needed to start a small "office." Thus, with one nurse at a salary of $50 a month, and with the faith of the townspeople behind it, the District Nursing Association was born.

By 1912, the Association's needs had grown so that a house was rented, equipped for a hospital -- and the house which once stood on the corner of Washington and Lincoln streets became the first Winchester Hospital -- dedicated on March 8, 1912.

He will also outline plans for the 1949 phase of the Children's Medical Center Fund Campaign, which opens Tuesday, March 22.

Goal of drive is to raise a balance of $7,000,000 toward an $11,500,000 fund with which to erect a modern Children's Medical Center building on a site adjoining the present Children's Hospital of Boston.

The audience will also be shown the Center's dramatic motion picture, "That Your Children May Live," filmed at the hospital. Many young patients and medical personnel are cast in leading roles.

William S. Wolsey of 19 Mt. Pleasant street, Winchester, is in charge of the meeting program.

Prof. Zimmerman has been at Harvard University since 1931 and is now associate professor and chairman of the board of tutors in Sociology. He was on leave of absence from 1941-1944, during which time he served as Major in the U. S. Army Air Corps. Bass Soloist At Brahms' Requiem March 20

John Ffestyn Jenkins, Bass of the Unitarian Quartet who was recently soloist of the Handel & Haydn Society at Symphony Hall will sing the two baritone solos in Brahms' Requiem on Sunday, March 20th at the Unitarian Church.

"Lord, make me to know" in the third section and "We shall not all sleep" in the sixth are perfectly suited to Mr. Jenkins' brilliant voice.

Dorothy Perkins will sing the pathetic fifth section solo "ye now are sorrowful" with the pianissimo choral background "yea, I will comfort you." Her clear, true tone will be heard to especial advantage in this number.

Weston Brannen will be guest organist and as an added feature Ralph Stevens will be tympanist.

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman will read the Biblical text of the work. This final choral Vespers of the season has been dedicated to all who have fallen in battle in World Wars I and II and all service men and women are invited to join American Legion Post 97 in this memorial service.

Mary Ranton Witham, Director of Music, who in her three years at the Church has presented outstanding choral and instrumental Vespers, has augmented her choice with some of Winchester's finest voices to give this monumental work a notable performance, which will remain in the memory of all who hear it as a lasting musical experience. All Winchester residents are cordially invited to attend this Vespers.

POSITION OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE RESTATED

Horace Mann, the first Secretary of the Massachusetts State Board of Education in his Fourth Annual Report said, "The close connection of the schoolhouse with the cheerfulness and health of children, with their symmetry of form and length of life; its intimate relation to their habits or order, cleanliness and punctuality; its powerful influence on intellectual progress, on manners and temper, and thru temper on conduct and character; its prerogative of deciding the question, whether the school shall be a place of attraction or repulsion to the young, from the day of their earliest associations with it; its power to further, or to baffle all the plans of a good teacher; and its being the pride or the opprobrium of the district where it stands;—all these considerations have been so earnestly and loudly urged, that there can scarcely be an individual in the State whose ears they have not reached."

The Winchester School Committee in the annual report for 1948 again calls the attention of the Town to the need for completion of the Junior High School, an item which has appeared in Annual Town Reports for many years. During the interval since first mention was made of the necessity for making the Junior High School a complete unit, the other building need mentioned several years ago, an elementary school for children residing west of Cambridge street, has been cared for. The need for a three-year Junior High School program has continued to be a pressing educational problem. Allowing a minimum of time for completion of preliminary plans and designs and for the actual construction of the building, by the time the building is ready for occupancy, pupils will be pressing for admission. Long considered an educational "must", the complete Junior High School will be immediately used in its entirety as soon as it is ready.

The Mystic School addition, readily admitted as necessary, has caused an acute situation there. Two shifts of pupils in several grades will be necessary from early September until completion of additional classrooms as soon thereafter as possible.

It is also recommended that a committee be empowered to study the High School building needs. The position of the School Committee on the school building needs as stated in Reports of the Town Officers for 1948 is as follows: "Under the circumstances, the committee would be neglecting its responsibilities if it did not propose a program which will take care of the most urgent requirements so that present standards can be maintained or even improved."

Their final sentence in that Report bears repeating: "The future success of our schools must rest on a spirit of cooperation among all who wish Winchester schools to be among the best."

DEAN GEORGE MAKECHNIE

DISTRICT NURSING 50 YEARS OLD

George Kinsley Makechnie, dean of Sargent College of Physical Education for Women, and widely known for his courses at the Boston Children's, Peter Bent Brigham and Boston City Hospitals, will be the key speaker on Tuesday evening, March 22, at the dinner in honor of the 50th anniversary of the Winchester District Nursing Association. The dinner will take place at 6:30 o'clock in Parish Hall, First Congregational Church. Mrs. James Russell, honorary member of the Association, will review the interesting and human highlights of the growth of WDNA from early days to the present. Mrs. Donald H. Powers, President, will speak briefly on the Association's current work as a vital health agency in Winchester, and of its work ahead. Mrs. Ben R. Schneider, general chairman of the Anniversary committee, will preside, and Dr. Howard J. Chidley will open the occasion with a special prayer.

Dean Makechnie, who makes his home here at 5 Glengarry, has been associated with Boston University since 1930. From 1933 to 1945 he was assistant to the Dean, and associate professor, registrar and director of under graduate studies. Since 1945, he served very ably as the Dean of the College and as Director of the Sargent Camp at Peterborough, N. H. He is a member of the advisory committee to trustees at the Mass. Memorial Hospital, member of the Mass. Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation; and chairman of the Varsity Committee on Athletics at Boston University. His topic on Tuesday evening will be "What's Next in the Field of Health?", a challenging discussion for his audience.

The special anniversary dinner is for all friends of the District Nursing Association, and those interested in attending are asked to call Mrs. Erskine N. White WI 6-2059. Tickets for the catered dinner are necessarily limited, and reservations must be made before March 15.

A special exhibit of a uniform worn by the district nurse fifty years ago and the uniform worn by the nurse today, will be featured in Filene's Window at the time of the Birthday, with pictures showing the Winchester visiting nurse at work. Miss Virginia Symmes will model the old costume, with Mrs. Richard H. Merrow (Joan Moffette) wearing the present-day uniform, as these two young ladies take part in a birthday cake ceremony at the dinner on Tuesday evening, March 22.

TIME AND GOLD AND SILVER

There are many who specialize in repair work who are good at it. Others (too few) work at design. Those who can design have not enough time in the world to make all the beautiful new things we need to replace prevailing poor design. Good design, well used, should need no repair; and far outlasts its maker and its owner. This is the work of Macfield - jewelry and silversmithing, 6 Winchester place where full time is given to bring more enjoyment through their original work in jewelry and silversmithing. No repair work please.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES

The trefoil-shaped cookies that Girl Scouts sell open the door to more and better camping because the funds raised in this way are generally used to improve camp sites or to purchase camp equipment.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Girl Scouts all over the United States are celebrating the 37th year of Scouting this Saturday, and we of Winchester have two good reasons to rejoice. First of all, it is our own 32nd year and we are starting the new year of Scouting with our Cookie Drive. Second, the above picture, used in our campaign Headquarters for special use in all Cookie Drives sponsored by Councils all over the United States! In other words the picture of our three girls, Phoebe Greenwood, Mariner, Jean McElroy, Intermediate, and Betsy Lamb (then a Brownie) is the official publicity mat available. Mrs. Robert Tonon, Chairman of Finance, announces.

On Saturday, all Scouts will report to the homes of their leaders for their order books, so as to have them all start at the same time. Mrs. Tonon tells me that there will be prizes for the best salesmen in each Scout rating (Senior, Intermediate, and Brownie) and also the second and third best salesman. The cookies will be filled vanilla and chocolate anew this year and will be an excellent value at 35 cents a box, or three boxes for one dollar. If any one wishes to aid our cause by using the cookies in larger quantities (for a tea, frinstance), please contact Mrs. Tonon at WI 6-0122.

At the Leaders meeting last week, Mrs. Gerald Curtis announced the general plans for the coming Father-Daughter dinner. It is to be held in the Town Hall on April 7th, and there is some excitement among the girls in the planning of the entertainment for their Dads. Be sure to save the date for your daughter, Dad! April 7th.

Also at the Leaders meeting, Mrs. Murdock of Medford spoke to us on the life and personality of Juliette Low, the founder of the Girl Scouts. Mrs. Murdock told of meeting her here in Boston in the "early days" of Scouting, and how in spite of her deafness lived a most enthusiastic and constructive life.

Letters have been sent to all Senior and 8th grade scouts with information on the trip to Washington, April 15 to 22. If you have not received your letter, call at the Girl Scout office for your copy! Registrations must be in by March 18th.

Camp Joy Reunion March 21 at 7:30 in Waterford Hall. All girls who attended Camp Joy as well as a Senior and 7 and 8 grade scouts are invited. Parents may accompany the girls. Colored slides of Day Camp and year round outdoor activities will be shown. Refreshments will be served!

NOONAN SCHOOL NEWS

On Thursday afternoon, March 3, Mrs. Lawrence Donlin, 70 Hemingway street, and Mrs. Thibault, her mother, were hostesses to Mrs. Kenneth MacArthur, president of the Noonan School Mothers' Association, the mothers of the kindergarten children. Miss Mary McAuley, the teacher of kindergarten, Miss Charlotte Foley, assistant to Miss McAuley, and Miss Leonor Rich, the principle of the school. This is the first in a series of grade teas that will be held during the coming weeks in the homes of several members of the Mothers' Association. Three major purposes for these occasions are:

1. Enabling mothers and teachers to meet in an informal, friendly way in order to know each other better, thus establishing a unity that aims toward providing more completely for the best all-round child growth and development.
2. Interpreting several aspects of the school program.
3. Giving parents an opportunity to present questions for clarification.

Mrs. Donlin and her able committee provided much pleasure for the group in attendance. The attractive table appointments and artistic floral arrangements added much to the general spirit of good fellowship.

The committees were as follows:

1. Contact
- Mrs. Kenneth MacArthur

Mrs. Frank Muse
Mrs. William Haggerty
2. Refreshments
Mrs. Lawrence Donlin
Mrs. Albion Ayer
Mrs. Frank Doherty
Mrs. John McCormack
Mrs. Frederick Murray

Following the social hour, Miss McAuley spoke on CHARACTERISTICS OF FIVE-YEAR OLDS. Miss Charlotte Foley explained her work with the kindergarten children, and Miss Leonor Rich discussed THE READING READINESS PROGRAM. A general discussion period showed that Noonan School parents are keeping abreast with educational practices.

On March 16, the mothers of children in both of the first grades will be entertained by Mrs. Mathew Benincasa, 895 Main street, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Star adv. bring results.

TO CORRECT POSSIBLE MISUNDERSTANDING

Editor of the Star:

Mr. Royal Teele's letter commenting on the high level of school operating costs and the proposed expenditures for school construction provoked a response from Mr. Ayer in last week's Star. Since reference was made to my part in confining the operating budget within reasonable bounds and further reference was made to building program I feel obliged to correct a possible misunderstanding which might result from Mr. Ayer's reply letter.

It would be anomalous indeed, in these times, if the cost of providing public school education could be kept constant while all other prices were going up. In an age of infrequent miracles no informed or fair minded person believes that Winchester can insulate its school program from the effects of economic forces which are nation wide, or can expand that program to meet the needs of a growing community without finding that it costs money to do so. The responsibility of your Committee has been to see to it that Winchester provides the best educational program its resources can reasonably afford. I am satisfied that the Committee's proposed operating budget is not extravagant and that it cannot be materially reduced without seriously impairing that program.

I did not become a member of the School Committee until after the proposed building program had been formulated by the School Facilities Committee. Mr. Teele's criticism of these plans has some merit. I do not approve of several aspects of these plans and believe that they are over-costly in relation to the character of school plant they will provide.

The proposal for classroom additions to the Mystic School at an estimated cost of $200,000 emanates from the School Committee based upon a thorough study of imperative need for accommodation of a growing elementary school population in that area. This plan forms no part of the Facilities Committee recommendations. The addition must be built in 1949 to avoid adoption of a double session schedule in that school.

The plans, however, for Junior and Senior High School improvements are poorly conceived, in my opinion, and will not give us the kind of school plant to which the proposed expenditure of nearly $2,000,000 entitles us.

Winchester has made some serious mistakes in building schools in past years. We do not want to repeat those mistakes. I think it would be a mistake to adopt the entire proposal for Junior High School enlargement in accordance with the Facilities Committee Plan. The proposed classroom additions to the Junior High are necessary to implement the purley educational objectives of the school administration and the Committee and to adequately house essential facilities but the proposed wing containing an auditorium and cafeteria at a cost of about $500,000 is an extravagant use of public money for the following reasons:

(1) It represents piecemeal planning.

(2) The wing is not immediately necessary and perhaps not eventually desirable.

(3) Construction of the wing practically commits the Town to the further adoption of an unsatisfactory and wasteful plan for Senior High School improvement.

The plan lacks cohesion because the Town has not yet decided what it wants to do and can afford to do with reference to the Senior High School. It is true that the Facilities Committee offers a plan for the Senior High School, of which it is fair to say they are not proud, but the plan has met a cold front of public apathy if not disapproval. It proposes to take an old building, standing on an inadequate and topographically absurd lot, at the junction of main thoroughfares, which absolutely preclude the possibility of future expansion should our future growth exceed present estimates, of inferior and obsolescent construction, and to add to it an estimated $750,000 in improvements including about $100,000 for a "tunnel". Those who have studied the drawings of the proposed building may agree with others who have called the result "an architectural monstrosity". Good school planning would incorporate auditorium facilities in the Senior High School rather than in the Junior High School inasmuch as the former makes a much wider use of these facilities. If a new Senior High should be built incorporation of an auditorium and cafeteria in it would prove more economical than construction of these facilities in a separate and independent wing.

I do not believe Winchester can afford to spend that much money on that kind of a building. In any event, the decision as to improving the present building or erecting a new building at another location remains largely undecided as of this time. For that reason it seems unwise to build a Junior High School wing predicated upon the principle of "joint use of facilities" when such use may never materialize. Those who approve the plan contend that the wing, if built, will not foreclose the possibility of a future high school building at another location but obviously this is true only within narrow limitations.

Let us not rush into this expensive program for school building until we have thought it through to its end. These proposals involve a greater expenditure of public money than Winchester has ever before undertaken. Remember that the obligation assumed will be with us for years to come and that it means a disproportionate sacrifice on the part of the small home owner, tax payer, wage earner and the younger families in a non-industrial community of our kind. Let us build only what the necessities of our educational program absolutely require. Let us forego the rest until we are definitely certain what we want and what our further building plans are going to be.

Charles E. Jellison,
Member of the Winchester
School Committee

REPORT OF THE WEST SIDE BUILDING COMMITTEE

Editor of the Star:

At the annual Representative Town Meeting of March 11, 1948, it was voted "that the sum of Three Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($340,000) be and hereby is appropriated for the purpose of constructing and originally equipping and furnishing a new school house upon the land acquired for school purposes in 1937 on Andrews road, Samoset road and Emerson road.

To meet said appropriation, the Town Treasurer be and hereby is authorized and instructed to sell such portion of the bonds in the Post War Rehabilitation Funds of the town as is necessary to obtain from the proceeds Two Hundred and Ten Thousand Dollars ($210,000).

One Hundred and Thirty Thousand Dollars ($130,000) shall be raised from the available funds in the Excess and Deficiency Account. The construction, original equipment and furnishings of said school house shall be undertaken and carried to completion by the Andrews Hill School Building Committee appointed at the special town meeting June 13, 1946, which committee is hereby authorized and empowered to make and execute on behalf of the town all contracts pertaining to the same.

Said committee shall keep a record of its proceedings, and on completion of the work under its charge, file a report in writing in the office of the Town Clerk with a detailed statement of receipts and expenditures in relation thereto.

In view of the fact that this committee has already received firm bids on both the construction of the building as well as the clearing and grading of the land, it immediately proceeded with the instructions in the vote and made a contract with the John McCourt Co., of Boston, low bidder on the land clearing and the Franklin Construction Co., of Medford, low bidder on the building construction work.

Work on the job was immediately started after the completion of contract negotiations, and has proceeded according to schedule so that the completed building will be turned over to the School Committee this Spring ready for pupils at the opening of school in September, 1949.

The contract price for the land clearing and grading was $19,910.00. Due to the favorable weather conditions this fall, final work on this grading has been completed with the exception of some of the planting of grass seed, and the committee is very satisfied with the actual results of the architects plan and the treatment of unusual problems inherent with the topography of this site. It should be of interest to the Town that in spite of the fact that the grading contractor encountered a considerable amount of solid ledge in his preliminary work on the lot, no extra money was in any way authorized to this contractor.

While no final figures are possible at this time on the total amount of money spent, out of the $340,000.00 appropriated for the completion of the job, the committee can confidently state that the building will be completed and furnished without the need for further appropriations from the town.

This committee earnestly hopes that all citizens of the Town will make an effort to visit the site and inspect the building as soon as it is completed, as the transformation of hilly terrain as well as the many modern educational facilities provided in the building should prove of interest to everyone.

Respectfully submitted,
Daniel F. Barnard, Chrm.
Emily A. Marks
Alvin M. Litchfield
William J. Speers, Jr.
Walter A. Redding, Sec.
West Side School Building Committee.

DANGEROUS TO WINCHESTER

Editor of the Star:

Do you know that the northwest express highway now being advocated in the Master Highway Plan goes through the middle of Winchester? This highway is an express highway with entrances only at certain points along the way. Its purpose is to carry the heavy traffic from northern points in New Hampshire, Vermont, and Massachusetts into Boston. The plan calls for doing away with the Mystic Valley Parkway in Winchester and West Medford, crossing Bacon street at Wedgemere through the Ginn Estate parallel with the railroad to a point about half way between the Wedgemere and Winchester station, then going underground to a point on the shore of Wedge Pond near the Medical Center. Wedge Pond is to be filled in making two small ponds. The highway goes up Horn Pond Brook Valley near Middlesex street into Woburn.

A great deal of property, including many houses, will have to be taken. There will be three entrances to this parkway in Winchester - one at Pond street near the Edison plant which will draw all the traffic in from Woburn and that district, one at Lake street where the Town Barn is now situated, and one at Bacon street.

This express highway will depreciate the value of a large part of Winchester. Winchester will receive no benefit from it. In fact it will be a serious menace to our town. Winchester is one of the most beautiful and well-governed residential towns in Massachusetts and many people wish to come here on that account. If this highway is constructed many people owning beautiful places will move away and Winchester will change as Brookline has changed from a town of residences to a sleeping place for Boston. It is unfortunate that the planners of this express highway did not take into consideration that it would be of no value to Winchester.

If something isn't done immediately to acquaint the citizens with this monstrosity it will be forced on us, good-bye to good old Winchester. It is now up to the Board of Selectmen and the Planning Board to acquaint everybody with this serious menace. Unless Winchester starts a campaign of objection we are done for. Nothing has ever so menaced the prosperity of Winchester as this scheme.

I have presented the facts as I know them. Now it is up to the citizens of Winchester to do something about it.

Ed Sanderson

THE HOBBY CENTER

Editor of the Star:

I want first of all to thank those Winchester voters who were kind enough to rally around our cause and give me their vote Monday. The total vote for Recreation Commissioner was surprising and I deeply appreciate the strength offered us. As Chairman West of the Recreation Commission once said to our Committee "You put up a good fight on your request which you have vigorously and thoroughly presented". We now ask one more thing of that strength. The fight comes to its conclusion at Town Meeting.

As to the letters in last week's Star from Mr. West and the Hobby Center Committee. We would point out that if Mr. West is to present the Hobby Center cause they should at least get their figures to agree before again presenting them to the public. It seems to me that the Hobby Center Committee in commenting on what they call our proposal "to share" the building are lacking some of the facts pertaining to this. This sharing was Mr. West's idea, not ours. But we agreed to share the building if that would be the only way we could get in. Agreed on the basis that one room would be ours, one the Hobby Center's and our room to be made available on Saturday if enough children were in attendance.

We appreciate the fact that the Hobby Center operated for twenty two weeks in 1948. Do you appreciate we operated for the full fifty-two weeks and participated in many civic affairs during that time?

Tuesday, March 9th, the American Legion and VFW Post of Winchester while participating in a Military funeral heard the first public remarks made regarding their efforts and giving of time in public affairs. Thank you Reverend Bailey. May more of your thinking sort show their interest at Town Meeting.

HOW WILL THE PARKING PROBLEM BE MET

Editor of the Star:

In all discussions relating to the proposed auditorium to be built as part of the Junior High School Building program little serious attention has been paid to the problem of where automobiles are going to be parked when a capacity audience of over 1200 people attends affairs at this Auditorium.

On Monday night of this week by actual count 193 cars were parked on adjacent streets to the High School. At the same time the count was made, 9:15-9:30 p. m. there were just 2 cars parked in the parking area at the station and 19 cars parked in the rear of the Town Hall, with most of these presumably belonging to people busy with the town election.

It is believed that a commitment has been made to the officials of the Unitarian Church that no part of the Manchester Field property adjacent to the Church will be used for parking facilities.

Will the residents on those streets adjacent to the proposed auditorium tolerate a continuance of this parking nuisance in the future if thorough planning is not made to solve this problem?

Nelson K. Brown,
8 Francis circuit.

COMMUNITY CONCERT MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN NEXT WEEK

Entertainment by top ranking Columbia concert artist will again be presented in Winchester next winter through the Community Concert Association, which under the sponsorship of the Winchester Smith College club, opens its third annual membership campaign with a tea next Sunday afternoon, March 13, at five o'clock at the Winchester Country club for officers, directors and workers of the association.

Next week's campaign which closes promptly at noon on Saturday, March 19, will be the only opportunity to purchase membership in the association, which entitles the member to attend three concerts during next season, and no single admissions are ever sold. Miss Adelaide Homer, president of the association, in announcing the spring membership campaign, said that by having it now rather than in the fall, a wider choice of artists is available to us in Winchester, as contracts are signed so far in advance. We will also have the added advantage of knowing the concert dates in September.

During the past two seasons the local Community Concert Association has brought to Winchester Sanroma, the celebrated pianist, Todd Duncan, world renowned baritone, Nona Paulee, popular young mezzo soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, the Graudans, talented piano cello duo, the Saldenberg-Sinfonietta, and the concluding "smash hit" performance last Tuesday evening of Whittemore and Lowe, the famed piano team. These artists and ensembles have set a high standard of excellence in the concerts presented, and the executive committee promises to maintain this prestige. With a minimum of travel in winter weather, and at remarkably low cost, the opportunity for cultural entertainment on a high level is not to be missed. We urge you, therefore, to get your memberships early in the week of March 14, as the campaign closes when the capacity of the high school auditorium is sold out. Student membership will again be available at half price as before.

Headquarters for the campaign will be at Peck and Peck who have generously offered office space, and the telephone number will be Winchester 6-1147. All returns will be made there by the various workers.

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

WHITEMORE AND LOWE IN THE COMMUNITY CONCERT

The second highly successful season of the Community Concerts came to an end last Monday with the presentation of Whittemore and Lowe the well known duo-pianists. After hearing these artists it is easy to understand the reputation they have acquired in both the concert and recording fields.

They have the verve of youth combined with the poise of maturity, the ability to make simple melodies sing as well as to deal with intricate modern rhythms, the versatility to compass Bach-Reeger and Cole Porter and above all the power to make the audience enjoy both. The changing of places at the two pianos, the informal comments on the music made by both artists and their generosity in giving encores—there were five, all this added to a delightful evening.

The first part of the program was given to classics of the most gratifying variety, a dignified Handel, four of the beautiful Brahms waltzes, with a sigh of pleasure from the audience over the familiar one in A flat. Then came the tour de force, Reger's Variations on a Theme by Bach played with a fine grasp of the change of color and tempi. After that the popular numbers by American composers combined those of South America and Spain.

The encores should be mentioned as they were practically a program in themselves. After the Reger a seldom heard waltz by the same composer, the artists' shortened version of the haunting themes from the Second Concerto by Rachmaninoff, then the Ritual Fire Dance by De Falla, truly burning as played by Whittemore and Lowe the entertaining and humorous Polka from the Golden Age ballet by Shostakovich and for the final touch Kreisler's Liebesfreud.

The Smith College Club is to be congratulated on having the vision and vigor to bring these concerts to Winchester. In order to command a still wider choice of artists with dates of the concerts to be given out early in the fall, the president, Miss Homer announced that the campaign for membership would be held next week.

CRITICS VISIT STAGE DESIGN SHOW
The exhibition of Stage Designs for Scenery and Costumes in the Art Gallery of the Library under the auspices of the Winchester Art Association is a rather unique collection of many top New York Stage Designers. So unusual an opportunity is it to see so many examples of work that a group of Drama Critics came out to see the collection last Monday evening, there being no play opening.

The magnificent designs of Woodman Thompson are very pictorial and include those for "The Warrior's Husband" which was the play Katherine Hepburn made her first real conquest of Stage and a Hollywood contract. Mr. Thompson is now president of the Scenic Artists Union, and it is wished he would do more shows today, using his superb skill.

Jo Muelziner has four sketches, of special interest to the critics, since he designs more shows than any other one designer, and his for "South Pacific" opens next week in Boston.

Donald Gensler's rather classic and superbly atmospheric designs for "Hamlet" and "Tristan and Isolde" are impressive. He is Dean of Stage Design at the Yale Drama School and a prolific designer on Broadway.

Other delightful examples of Oliver Smith, Stewart Clancy, Richard Whorf, Herman Rossi, Alvin Bernstein, Lucinda Ballard, Helen Pons are included.

There are 16 amusing costume plates of Renna Barr's cowboy musical "Shootin' Star". Handsome designs of David Ffolkes for scenery, and his "Henry VIII" and delightfully nostalgic (to many) costumes for "Man and Superman" with materials used in executing attached to the design, cover the back walls.

Miss Helen Eager, Traveler; Miss Eleanor Hughes, Herald; Miss Marjorie Adams, Globe; Mr. and Mrs. Silas Durgin, Globe; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ely, Roving Reporter Herald; Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Harwood-W-B 2; and Mrs. Cosgrove an artist spent some time in the gallery, and admired our beautiful Library. Later they all joined Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Taggart at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff for the rest of the evening.

TOWN ELECTION

Next in interest to the Park Commissioner's contest was that for moderator, in which the contestants were Philip P. Wadsworth, former chairman of Selectmen, and William C. Cusack, former Finance Committee member who has been an active participant in town meeting. Some believed Mr. Wadsworth's chairmanship of the Junior High School additions committee might hurt his chances, but apparently there was nothing to that theory, for he was successful by a comfortable margin, 2323 to 1682.

In the three cornered fight for the two vacancies on the Board of Selectmen Nicholas H. Fitzgerald, former Registrar of Voters, and Richard C. Cunningham, retiring Finance Committee member, were successful over Eugene Rotondi, who, however, polled over a thousand votes in a rather surprising showing. Mr. Fitzgerald led with 3578 votes, second highest on the ballot, with Mr. Cunningham polling 2863.

win the third place on the slate. Francis W. Tansey's 3482 votes was high for the contest with Gleason W. Ryerson, a constable for some years, polling 2060 to be re-elected.

CHARLES A. FARRAR
New Member Board of Public Welfare

In the other contest Dr. Eugene M. Pollard defeated Thomas E. Duddy for Recreation Commissioner, 2339 to 1360. Mr. Duddy's prominence in the Veterans' campaign to get the old Mystic School away from the Hobby Center as quarters for the V. F. W. did little to enhance his popularity with many particularly interested in the contest for recreation commissioner, and in view of everything his 1360 votes constituted a good showing.

Ralph H. Bonnell, former Selectman, running unopposed for the Planning Board, led the entire ballot with 3676 votes.

There were some surprises along the line in the contests for town meeting member, with probably the biggest being the defeat of the veteran ex-Planning Board Chairman William L. Parsons, who was a candidate for town meeting member in Precinct 3. The retiring Chairman of Selectmen Kenneth P. Pond, also failed to be elected in 3, though he did finish in a tie for the 11th member spot with John P. Anderson, each receiving 395 votes. It was Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson's opinion that a meeting of precinct members in 3 would have to be called to fill the vacancy, occasioned by the failure of those voting Monday to elect an 11th member.

MARSHALL R. PIHL
Re-elected Assessor

In the contest for Assessor, Marshall R. Pihl, who defeated John F. Cassidy a year ago for the unexpired year of Mr. Cassidy's three-year term, was again successful over the former assessing veteran of 23 years, polling 2365 to Mr. Cassidy's 1913 votes. Mr. Pihl's big votes in Precincts 3, 4 and 5 proved too much for Mr. Cassidy's big edge in 1 and 2.

Pasquale A. Tofuri, running for re-election to the Board of Public Welfare, was defeated by a newcomer to local politics, Charles A. Farrar, long prominent in local Elks' circles, who of the three candidates for the two vacancies on the Board waged any sort of campaign. Mr. Farrar led the slate with 2831 votes. Maxwell McCreery was re-elected to the Board, receiving 2662 votes. Mr. Tofuri polled 1774.

Ernest R. Eustis, veteran member of the Board of Cemetery Commissioners, easily defeated Frederick LaTorella, who has been a candidate for this office in previous years, 3303 votes to 728.

JAMES H. COON

Winner of Five-man Park Commissioner Contest

In the contest for Constable there was surprise in some quarters over the failure of the veteran Michael J. Foley to be elected. Mr. Foley's 2014 total was over 400 votes short of newcomer Thomas J. McKee's 2490 which enabled the latter to

FRANCIS W. TANSEY

High Vote in Contest for Constable

Horace Ford led the Precinct 1 members-elect with 443 votes. J. Waldo Bond and Francis P. Dolan tied for top vote in Precinct 2 with 472 votes. In 3 Park Commissioner-elect James Coon led with 608 votes and in 4 retiring Moderator Joseph W. Worthen came out on top with 548. Dr. F. Ronald Brown's 460 was high in 5 and in 6 the veteran Mr. Cassidy polled 607 to lead the successful candidates and fall a single vote short of Mr. Coon's high for all successful precinct members.

County Commissioner James A. Cullen was one of five unsuccessful candidates in Precinct 4. Following are the complete election results:

AN APPEAL TO YOUR WARM WINCHESTER SPIRIT... GIVE TO THE 1949 RED CROSS FUND

The American National Red Cross safeguards our community as it does all others in time of need. The Red Cross functions when disaster of any kind strikes -- saves lives, gives the injured and homeless practical aid. People know where to turn. The Red Cross coordinates individual efforts to help. It is a people's partnership, worthy of every bit of support, moral and money, that we can give.

What the RED CROSS Does For US... Right Here in WINCHESTER!

You probably know what the Red Cross does during disasters. But are you aware of the scope and value of its year round activities in our community?

Here are some of them:

GRAY LADIES Through this Red Cross service, hospital patients unable to feed themselves are fed. In addition, candy, smokes and magazines are distributed and letters written for patients. Assistance is given in putting on movies, playing games and records and in electric shock treatments. Altogether, at Bedford Veterans Hospital 1,867 hours of work were supplied for these activities.

CANTEEN An average of 12 women gave 359 hours in preparing and serving food for special occasions such as teas, Christmas parties, picnics -- for the benefit of 2,515 Bedford-veterans.

NURSES' AIDES of invaluable service to the Winchester Hospital.

MOTOR SERVICE

The local chapter supplies transportation for 12 Winchester health and social agencies and for many residents of the Home for the Aged. Sixteen drivers answered 325 calls, drove a total of 850 hours, covered over 10,000 miles in 1948.

PRODUCTION

Four women, on weekly trips to Bedford, put in 1400 hours of their time to mend 2,575 garments. Over 22,000 surgical dressings were supplied. 465 garments were knitted and 1,597 other miscellaneous garments were furnished or repaired.

This striking and dramatic picture of Red Cross disaster relief work was done by Jes Schlaikjer, noted American poster artist.

FIRST AID INSTRUCTION

and water safety and swimming instruction at Wedge Pond and Leonard Pool. Home nursing instruction, too.

BLOOD DONOR

program for the benefit of all.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

activities and contributions to community welfare.

46% OF YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE RED CROSS GOES FOR SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE WINCHESTER CHAPTER, a large increase over previous years.

GIVE, AND GIVE GENEROUSLY TO YOUR RED CROSS

MAIL YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO Winchester Chapter, American Red Cross, Winchester, Mass.

WINCHESTER BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 6 Scouts Enjoy 3-Day Camping Trip

On Thursday, February 24th, Committeeman James McElroy took a group of Troop 6 Scouts through the Charlestown Navy Yard. The boys were very much interested in the tremendous variety of work done at the yard from making rope to chemical analysis of steel. Of course the highlight of the trip was "Old Ironsides" which is steeped with American history and Colonial naval action.

The following day, Friday, 25 Scouts took off for Professor Carl C. Zimmerman's farm between Gilmanton Iron Works and Gilmanton Center, New Hampshire. They were driven by Committeemen Zimmerman, Elliott, and Nichols. Mr. Nichols is the newest member of the committee. Scoutmaster Hooper followed that night with his car full of Scouts and arrived about 10:30 to find most of the boys in their sleeping bags and under canvas.

Troop 6 has set up three classes of campers, A, B, and C. The C campers are those with little previous experience and are required to sleep indoors the first three nights in this case, the Zimmerman attic, until they have learned by observation how to take care of themselves on winter camping trips.

Saturday, the two groups into which the Scouts had been divided cooked breakfast under the group cooking plan and took off for Gilmanton and the Belnap Ski Area. Superintendent "Red" Haymer extended every hospitality to the group, including special rates on the ski tow, wood for cooking the noon-day lunch and the invitation to come back soon and use the cabin the area provides for Scout activities.

Those Scouts who skied made good use of the ski tow and Scoutmaster Hooper gave them a bit more time than the rest of the group. Before leaving, they visited the Arlington Inn and met its owner, Freddy Nachbauer, who sent them merrily on their way with a beautiful Tyrolean yodel.

Sunday morning, Scouts Murphy and Palladino, went to Laconia with Committeeman Elliott for church services. The other Scouts held services in the open under the pines and conducted by Scout Ricky Phippen. After the services, they worked on advancement and then started breaking camp and getting lunch cooked. Everyone was delighted to see Assistant Scoutmaster Jack Reaney appear and after lunch the packs were stowed in the various cars and everyone started back home. On the way, they were passed by Committeeman James McElroy who couldn't make the trip Friday but did want to see winter camping in real life. It was too bad that camp had been broken before he arrived.

The Scouts in Mr. Elliott's car detoured to Goffstown, N. H., to see how the maple syrup situation at his farm in Riversdale was coming along. They met Mr. Robert Bailey, Headmaster of Goffstown High School and boss of the syrup operations and decided on the weekend of March 18-20 as the best time for a camping trip there to see maple syrup making and "sugarin' off."

At the Troop meeting Monday night, February 28th, Scoutmaster Hooper showed his colored slides of his trip to Turkey and followed these up with some beautiful colored slides of his recent trip to the island of Jamaica. The meeting was very well attended, as most Troop 6 meetings have been this season, and the boys enjoyed it very much.

After the big turn-out on the Zimmerman Farm trip, it seems as though almost every member of Troop 6 must be an out-of-state camper and entitled to wear the "Mass." patch on his left shoulder. Those who went are: Scouts Wolfe, Murphy, Hooper, Zimmerman, Neal Muncaster, Elliott, Moore, Godsoe, Phippen, Swazey, Swonger, Harvey, Sharon, Carrier, McElroy, Craig, Muncaster, Palladino, Kelley, Nichols, and Walker.

Troop 12 Prepares for Exposition
Winchester troops are working hard in preparation for their "Big Moment" . . . the Boy Scout Exposition at the Winchester High School on Saturday, April 30th. For example, at their last meeting, Troop 12 was practicing "like all get out" for the Fire by Friction and Flint and Steel events. They have booth plans well underway, too.

It looks like a group of Troop 12 boys will attend the Board of Review next week for First and Second Class badges. Norman Doucette, Scoutmaster, has a hike lined up and outdoor skills will be tested. Committeemen present were: Washburn, MacFeeley, McDougall, Fr. O'Neill, and Erhard. Troop 12's welcome mat is still out for parents of the boys. How about visiting the Troop folks?

Scout Drawing Contest Ends Tuesday

Winchester Scouts and Cubs have only a few more days to enter a pen and ink drawing of a Scouting scene in Fellsland Council's contest. (Hey, fellows! Make your drawing 13x20 inches, black and white only. While you're at it, use the drawing to advertise the Exposition by lettering the words: "Boy Scout Exposition, Winchester High School, April 30th." Get your drawing to Scout Headquarters on Border road by Tuesday, March 15th.) Ed Dodd, who draws the comic strip "Mark Trail" in the Boston Herald, will judge the drawings and two sets of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes will be awarded to three lucky Cubs and three Scouts at the Exposition.

Scouts who aren't making a Scout Exposition poster at school, may enter Fellsland Council's Poster Contest "of their own" by making a poster at home. Use colors . . . poster color crayon, pastels, oils. Size 13x20. Draw a Scout scene or design and advertise the exposition, including the date and place: Winchester High School, April 30th. Put your name, Troop, town, grade, and age at the bottom. Get your poster to Scout Headquarters by April 1st. Prizes will be awarded at the Exposition.

Troop 7 Visits Camp Lane
Last Saturday, fourteen Troop 7 Scouts enjoyed a cook-out at Camp Lane, Winchester's Boy Scout camp in Burlington. The boys selected their campsite and built their own fireplaces. Russ McLeod, Don Lewis, and Ken and Ernest Hiscoc built a complete outdoor "kitchen" including a useful table. Don MacFeeley, Stan Mullen, and Roger Foster laid out trails in the snow and helped Lee Staff, Don Lewis, and Russ McLeod pass their tracking test. Then Roger Foster took the three test-passers on a nature hike to pass their wildlife requirement. The boys spotted a Quail and some deer tracks. Cecil Pride, Troop 7's newest member, wasted no time in joining the Troop. He celebrated his twelfth birthday the day before this trip. Cecil has already learned something from Scouting. He's learned not to wear sneakers on a winter camping trip. Poor Cecil spent most of the day perched on a rock, his cold feet wrapped in a jacket, glumly watching his soaked sneakers steaming over the fire! The boys spent most of the day building a rustic lean-to shelter which they are looking forward to using on some overnight trips to Camp Lane. Scoutmaster "Doc" Millican showed the boys how to bake potatoes in the hot coals by wrapping the "spuds" in tinfoil. Other Troop 7 Scouts who enjoyed this interesting trip were: Ken Cleaves, George Gavostes, Ray Simpson, Dave Ripley, and Phil Dresser.

BETTER HOMES AND GARDENS

Has Article by Winchester Woman

The magazine Better Homes and Gardens for April will be of especial interest to Winchester readers because of the fact that a resident of this town is numbered among its contributors.

Mrs. John S. Swift of 41 Fells road is among the women who collectively have contributed to the article, "I Hated Housework Till . . ." a series of letters by housewives from far and near telling how they have planned to take some of the drudgery out of their household routine. North Hollywood, Cal., Banning, California, Downers Grove, Ill., Norwood, O., Portland, Ore., and Sherman Oaks, Cal., are the addresses of other women, besides Mrs. Swift, who are contributing.

Following is Mrs. Swift's contribution:

I streamlined with short cuts. I dispensed with washing and ironing tablecloths and napkins except for special company. Instead I used plastic cloths or place mats and paper napkins. I cut ironing of clothes in half by purchasing only seersuckers and corduroys for the children, by using sheets and dish towels unironed. I kept table tops well waxed so they'd resist scratching and spotting, and I used handy coasters under glasses to prevent moisture rings.

I put easily removable, washable slipcovers on upholstered furniture. I bought all the labor-saving equipment I could afford. Thus I began to look upon my role of housewife as a job I enjoyed doing both quickly and well. -- Mrs. John S. Swift, Winchester, Massachusetts.

NORTHERN FLOORS OPEN HERE

Northern Floors, Inc., specialists in all types of resilient floors and wall coverings, announces the opening of their new Winchester store on Friday, March 11, at 17 Church street in the National Bank Building. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to visit the store and see the latest materials for modernizing floors and side-walls actually on display. You don't look at pictures at Northern. You see the store and the materials of floor coverings with many colors and kinds of tiles at hand in accessible racks.

A special feature is a mirror-backed space in which special designs in tiles can be created by Northern Floors specialists, or where customers with a flair for that sort of thing may work out their own designs in the colors they choose. Northern Floors has on display actual examples of its products in use as they appear in the home, an added feature.

Proprietors of Northern Floors are Paul E. Lajoie and Ralph C. Norgren. Both are experienced in their various lines. Mr. Lajoie, a resident of Arlington and graduate of Boston College, was for three years New England district manager for David E. Kennedy, manufacturers of Kentile and Kencork products, and also for 18 months general manager of one of the largest floor contracting companies north of Boston. He is married, has three children and has been active in Scouting in Arlington as a Scoutmaster for four years.

Ralph Norgren is a resident of Melrose, is married and has two children. He has had five years of Army Service with the rank of staff sergeant. For 12 years he has been in the installation end of the business, formerly with Johns Mansville and as foreman of one of the largest union floor contracting shops north of Boston. He is an expert in underlayments and floor preparation, that all important part of any floor installation. Patrons of Northern Floors need have no fears for their finished installation no matter the condition of their floors to start.

Northern Floors' advertisement appears elsewhere in this week's Star. Look for it and plan to attend their opening March 11.

Your NEW HAVEN RAILROAD

Its Only Master is the Person at Its Wheel!

From the standpoint of agility, smoothness and quickness of acceleration—the 1949 Cadillac is a never-ending challenge to the imagination. Yet, in the hands of the person at its wheel, it is as docile as a kitten!

Never before has a car so dynamic been under such certain and easy control. The big, powerful hydraulic brakes are completely dominant—yet they are as soft to the pedal as sponge rubber. A touch from the faintest foot—and the car settles down to a quick and easy stop. A touch on the accelerator, and it moves quickly into any position its driver wishes to occupy. The big, slender steering wheel is feather-light in the hand—and quick and positive in its action.

Yes, the driver is boss in a Cadillac!

It's a great thrill to take command of such a car—as hundreds are learning every day. Why not come in and see for yourself? Regardless of the price class from which you expect your next car to come, you ought to be familiar with Cadillac.

THE WINCHESTER STAR.

VOL. LXVIII NO. 31

THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1949

PRICE SEVEN CENTS

JAMES F. DWINELL, JR.

HEADS BOARD OF SELECTMEN

An organization meeting Monday evening James F. Dwinell, Jr., was elected chairman of the Board of Selectmen, succeeding Kenneth P. Pond. Mr. Dwinell was elected to the Board in 1947, after serving as chairman of the Finance Committee. He is in the insurance business, is married to the former Alice Eaton, and they have a son and daughter. Their home is at 7 Fernway.

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF WDNA MARCH 22

Fifty candles on a special birthday cake, flower arrangements in gold colors, and two pretty girls wearing the district nurse uniform of today and 50 years ago will set the mood of the Golden Anniversary celebration of the Winchester District Nursing Association, to be held Tuesday evening, March 22, at 6:30 in Parish Hall, First Congregational Church. During the preceding days, a special exhibit of the uniforms will be seen in Filene's window, and posters at the Winchester Public Library.

An informal reception, followed by a Seiler-entertained dinner, birthday cake cutting, and brief talks will comprise the program of this occasion, with Dean George Kinsley Makechne of Sargent College of Physical Education for Women as key speaker on "What's Next in the Field of Health?" Mrs. James Russell will review the story of district nursing in Winchester, Mrs. Donald H. Powers will "look ahead" in this field as it concerns the town, and Mrs. William A. Kugler will preside. Dr. Howard J. Chidley will give the commemorative prayer, with all standing, before dinner.

Miss Virginia Synnes and Mrs. Richard Merrow (Joan Moffette) will model the uniforms and will assist in the birthday cake ceremony. Seated at the head table will be Mrs. Raymond Holdsworth, Mrs. Richard Johnson, Miss Helen Monroe, Dr. Daniel C. Dennett, early medical representative; Mrs. William Spaulding, Mrs. Makechne, Dr. Chidley, Mrs. Powers, Dean Makechne, Mrs. Kugler, Mrs. James Nowell, trustee; Mrs. Russell, only honorary member of the Association; Dr. Philip J. McManus, medical representative; Mrs. June H. Lord, Mrs. Henry E. Moffette, Mrs. Harold A. Given, President of the Fortnightly; Mrs. George E. Connor, Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., Mrs. Alice Gormley and Mrs. Angeline O'Leary, both former Executive Directors of the Association.

Acceptances to the dinner have come from lending doctors in Winchester, representatives from the Public Welfare and Board of Health, Winchester Hospital, clergymen, and from Miss Sophie Nelson of John Hancock Life Insurance; from neighboring District Nursing Associations such as Medford, Arlington, Lexington and others.

Mrs. Henry K. Spencer is in charge of decorating the hall and the tables to maintain the theme of "golden" anniversary. Assisting her are Mrs. W. Campbell Ross, Mrs. William L. Davis, and Mrs. J. Waldo Bond.

Highlights of Progress

The Winchester District Nursing Association was founded in February, 1899, with Mrs. Joshua Coit as first President (today the portrait of this splendid woman is in the foyer of the Winchester Hospital). In 1909, the Association established a school nurse, later opening a Tuberculosis Clinic here (taken over by the Board of Health), and a Baby Clinic every Tuesday, under Dr. Harold Gale. In 1912, the Association established the first hospital here, in the old Governor McCall house on Washington street. Six years later, the Association's nurse received the gift of a most useful Ford from Mr. and Mrs. William Palmer -- it was the year of the terrible influenza epidemic, and the car did much to help the nurse carry on her work. In 1919, WDNA started the Public Health Nurse, which, with the school nurse, was taken over by the town.

TWIN SONS DIED

Twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crafts of Grasmere, N. H., failed to survive, one dying shortly after birth, Monday, March 14, at the Elliot Hospital in Manchester, N. H., and the other, Tuesday night at the Children's Hospital in Boston. The twins were premature babies. Their mother is the former Barbara Corwin, whose first husband, Jacob Bond, lost his life in World War I.

CARL F. A. SIEDHOF

Carl F. A. Siedhof of 9 Harrison street, retired New England Telephone and Telegraph Company executive and long time resident of Winchester, died Sunday, March 13, at his home. He was 78 years old and had been ill with a heart ailment since last December, though recently he had seemed much improved.

Born in Boston, Mr. Siedhof was the son of Carl and Sara H. (Underwood) Siedhof. He was educated at Hopkinton's School and at Harvard, from which he was graduated in the class of 1892. He came with his parents to Winchester in 1897, living then at 8 Norwood street. After his first marriage he lived at 18 Lloyd street until 1920 when he moved to Harrison street.

Mr. Siedhof entered the employ of the telephone company in 1897 as an installer of instruments. Later he was in charge of service inspection for Greater Boston. In 1906 he was transferred to the offices of the president of general manager as chief clerk, and a few years later became secretary of the company. He retired in 1935.

He was a member of the Institute of 1770, Hasty Fudding, Telephone Pioneers of America, Boston City Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Winchester Historical Society and Winchester Art Association. Years ago he was active in the old Shu Shu Gah Canoe Club, prominent in Winchester canoeing and having a red boat-house on the Aberjona just south of Bacon street which was torn down at the time the present concrete bridge was erected there. Fond of music, he played the bass viol and was a member of the old Winchester Orchestral Society orchestra of more than 35 years ago.

Mr. Siedhof was twice married. On September 2, 1903, he married Mary Emeline Sanborn of Church street, who died September 2, 1943. On June 26, 1948, he married Ethel Knott, Dean, until her retirement at the time of her marriage a teacher of French at Winchester High School for 24 years. His wife survives with two sons, Mrs. Edith G. Brown of Winchester and H. Thaxter Underwood of Belmont.

Private funeral services were conducted at the late residence Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Unitarian Church. Cremation followed at Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge.

DAVID J. MESKELL

David J. Meskell of 50 Clark street, a resident of Winchester for half a century and widely known, particularly in the north end of town, died Saturday morning, March 12, at his home, after a week's illness. He was in his 87th year.

Mr. Meskell was the son of David, and Julia (McKee) Meskell. He was born in Ireland, but came as a young man to this country and for 50 years had been a resident of Winchester, working for many years as a gardener. He was a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters and was the oldest living member of St. Mary's Holy Name Society.

Mr. Meskell's wife, the former Ellen O'Connor, died in 1902. He leaves a daughter, Miss Julia Meskell of Winchester; six grandchildren and two sons, Michael, of Medford, and Bartholomew Meskell of Wakefield. Another son, Lt. David J. Meskell, Jr., of the Winchester Fire Department, died last fall.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning from the M. G. Moffett Funeral Home with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Fr. William Mullen of St. Peter's Church, Lowell, was celebrant. Rev. Fr. Thomas F. Sennott, deacon, and Rev. Fr. Joseph O'Neill, sub-deacon. Seated in the sanctuary was Rev. Fr. Paul Donahue of St. Peter's, Lowell.

Bearers were Charles Meskell of Medford, David Meskell of Wakefield and David Meskell of Winchester, grandsons of the deceased; Robert McHugh and Timothy Callahan, also of Winchester, and John Miles of Woburn.

Interment was in Calvary Cemetery where the committal prayers were read by Father Mullen.

MISS WYMAN SURPRISED

Miss Marion Wyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wyman of 59 Holland street, was pleasantly surprised last Friday evening when she was given a miscellaneous shower at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George Widdell, 125 Montvale avenue, Woburn. Miss Wyman an operator at the Winchester Telephone Exchange, is to marry Jerome Rooney, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rooney of Wilmington, on Sunday, May 1.

Following the opening of the many packages, Miss Wyman expressed her appreciation to her friends and the party adjourned to the attractively decorated dining-room where refreshments were served. Serving were Mrs. Robert Wyman and Miss Dorothy Wyman, sister-in-law and sister of the bride-to-be.

MRS. GEORGINA PEARLE MILLER

CITATION TO HANLON AND WINCHESTER

Lt. Col. John D. Hanlon and the people of Winchester will receive the "Good American Citation" from Ted Malone, the Westinghouse Story Teller, on his program of Wednesday, March 23, commencing at 11:30 a. m.

The award will be heard locally over Station WCOP and is being given in connection with the international gesture of Col. Hanlon, former Winchester and University of New Hampshire football star, in returning to the people of Hemroulle, Belgium, sheets which the good people of that little town gave to Col. Hanlon's troops for camouflage during a Nazi attack in World War II.

At the time the sheets were given his troops Col. Hanlon promised to return them, but it was not until after the war that he was able to do so, aided by the people of his home town, organized by Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye.

STUDENTS VISITED MURPHY GENERAL HOSPITAL

On last Thursday, March tenth, two students from Winchester High School, Joan Scott and John Power, were among the representatives of high schools from neighboring communities which visited the Army's Murphy General Hospital.

The trip was arranged and sponsored by the Medford Recruiting officer of the United States Army and Air Force. The group was transported by Army Bus from the Medford office to the hospital in Waltham where they were greeted and addressed by Chaplain Novak, and the head nurse Major Murphy, who spoke to the group on the sound future offered by the Army for nurses.

The tour of the seemingly endless corridors was then begun. The remainder of the morning was spent visiting the many administrative offices, laboratories, and departments of the high hospital. At noon, time was taken to enjoy a lunch in the mess hall, and to relax while listening to a concert by the well known Murphy General Hospital Band.

Immediately after the concert, the tour continued with visits to the gym, operating rooms, several wards and barracks, and numerous other interesting departments so essential to the functions of a hospital.

Late in the afternoon, after a brief meeting in the Recreation Hall, the foot-weary group left the hospital for Medford, well satisfied that this hospital at least is doing everything possible for the well-being of its servicemen patients.

FORUM INTERNATIONAL WEEK-END AN OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

The Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church, cooperating with the International Student Association of Cambridge, pioneered in a new venture in international relations last week-end when the young people and their families were hosts to 32 students of 23 different countries studying in eleven colleges and universities of Greater Boston. The following families entertained the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Kimball Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowe, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Bulard, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davis, Mr. and Mrs. George DeCamp, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fernandez, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. ### LUCKY ESCAPE IN CENTER

Two men experienced a lucky escape from injury or possible death in the center Wednesday noon when a piece of iron became detached from the Montreal express passing through at 12:42, crashing through the upper half of the gateman's tower. A. F. Hitchcock, operator in the tower, was showered by broken glass and received a glancing blow on the arm from the iron bracket. Gleason Ryerson, who was standing outside at the window, saw the piece of iron flying towards him as the train hit the crossing. He just had time to duck, and it was his quick motion that Mr. Hitchcock saw and made his turn just enough to get his head out of the way.

The train was stopped at Lowell and examination made. The piece of iron appeared to be either a step or break rod support. The upper half of the window was completely cleaned out. Dr. Brown examined Mr. Hitchcock and treated glass cuts, and beyond these and a stiff arm he did not appear hurt.

FURTHER ADVENTURES OF STORROW TROOP 1

On Friday, March 4, Storrow Troop 1 left for a weekend skiing trip to New Boston, New Hampshire, where they stayed at the farm of their leader Mrs. Welden B. Hersey.

The first evening was spent getting acquainted with the new bunk rooms and kitchen which are all new additions this year. The greater part of Saturday was spent skiing on the slopes of Mount Sunapee near Newbury, New Hampshire.

After a hard day of skiing they climbed into their best bib and tucker and drove to Peterborough for a good old-fashioned square dance.

The weather being rather damp the girls were able to stay in bed on Sunday morning. Breakfast was served at nine-thirty. Just about the time dishes were finished, the sun came out in all its glory and the rest of the morning was spent riding horseback and reading the Sunday funnies.

A late afternoon start home, and a meal on the way allowed an early evening arrival home.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES

The trefoil-shaped cookies that Girl Scouts sell open the door to more and better camping because the funds raised in this way are generally used to improve camp sites or to purchase camp equipment.

The Cookie Drive is on, and enthusiasm is running high. Mrs. Robert Tonon, Finance Chairman, reports, All Scouts from the littlest Brownie, to the oldest Senior Scout, are selling as many boxes as they possibly can. . . . And why not, when there are such prizes? . . . Mrs. Tonon and her committee are pleased to announce that the prizes are as follows: Senior & 8th grade Scouts 1st prize, one half the cost of the Washington trip; 2nd, three pairs of socks; 3rd, a picture in uniform taken by Dwight Davis. For the Intermediates and Brownies, 1st prize, 2 tickets to the circus; 2nd, free camping at our Day Camp; 3rd prize, a picture in uniform taken by Dwight Davis! Sound good, don't they girls? Get going, and may the most persuasive girl win!

Plans for the coming trip to Washington, D.C. are being perfected, and even the Council would like to go, families and such permitting! Only the Senior Scouts may go and the first ones at the office with their five dollars deposit will be the lucky ones, as owing to the fact that just a few mothers or leaders are driving, the number is limited to about 24. The total cost will be $40, including gas and oil for the cars. Expenses will be kept to a minimum, thanks to the hospitality of the Bethesda Girl Scout Camp Rockwood and the girls cooking their own meals while there.

March 21st at 7:15 Waterfield Hall - Camp Joy reunion with all the Senior and 8th grade Scouts invited, we're having colored slides of all our Day Camp and Outdoor Activities and hope to have colored movies of a trip to Washington for the older girls at 8:30 - We'll let you "Washington trip girls" know as soon as we find out so you may invite your Mothers.

Mrs. Cary - Commissioner and Mrs. Metcalf attended the Regional Commissioner's luncheon at the Hampshire House last Thursday. Outdoor Course - for all leaders wishing to take girls on cookouts or hikes and a must for overnights. We'll start at the Girls Scout office Tuesday, March 22 at 10 A.M.

Brownie Leaders workshop - Easy crafts with inexpensive materials - Girl Scout office Monday evening - March 28 at 7:30.

The Winchester Music Garden meets Sunday at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. George Budd, 81 Walnut street. The Garden will welcome new members, especially young people interested in music. Any wishing to become members are asked to communicate with Mrs. Budd.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH APPOINTS

Acting under a resolution unanimously passed at the Annual Meeting of the First Congregational Church, Mrs. Charles H. Tozier, Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., and Rex T. Crandall have been named to the Rehabilitation Fund Committee. Miss Isabel Copland will act as secretary to the Committee. The Committee is charged with conducting a special effort among the members of the Church and Parish to raise a special fund to be used exclusively for much needed improvements to the Church properties.

The work will include painting the exterior and redecorating the interior of the Church proper, attention to roofs, gutters, and heating plant, as well as improvements to the north parking area and making the grounds more attractive.

During the first two weeks in April, the entire membership will be solicited to finance these very necessary repairs.

Messrs. Joseph L. S. Barton of Swan road and John P. Carr of Gardner place have been reported as ill in bed at their homes this week.

"JACK" DONAGHEY, PARK DEPARTMENT VETERAN, POSES WITH TOWN'S ICE CLEARING EQUIPMENT

In the above picture is some of the equipment your Recreation Committee and Park Department has had in readiness this winter to improve skating conditions in Winchester. Flood lights installed at Big Winter Pond, not in picture. Reading left to right, back row: planer; tractor and plow. Front row: power mower with plow; signs. And that is John F. Donaghey, foreman of the Park Department crew, by the tractor. Other members of the Park crew who have been on the alert to use this equipment to help the Town have better and more skating, are: Herbert S. Mullen, Superintendent; Aubrey Baresdale, Frank Dattilo, Frank J. Holland, Thomas J. Kilcoyne, John Lang, William F. McDonald, Jr., Thomas J. Murphy, Francis P. O'Melia, and James J. Rogers. Mrs. Alice C. Eberle at the Park Department office took calls about skating. And several young men of the town were to act as ice guards under advice and instructions from Chief of Police Charles J. Harrold. However Winchester was treated to a peculiar winter and the ice did not get thick enough to go aboard with heavy equipment which needs 5½ inches of ice. After plow was built for light weight power mower, conditions did not allow its use either. The phenomenon was that absence of snow gave Winchester more days of skating this winter than usual: 14 days each at Winter Pond and Leonard Field; and 16 days at Wedge Pond. Had the ice been thick enough for tractor and planer, skating would have been beautifully smooth and lights turned on at Big Winter for evening skating. This may happen next year. The Recreation Committee which will be three years old come Town Meeting, with the aid of facilities and cooperation of the Park Board and School Committee, has in operation a basic year-round program consisting of late-fall, winter and spring basketball; Christmas week reunion activities for high school graduates; ice-clearance and lighting for skating program; and summer soft ball. In activities to date, the participants have helped support their own programs. This cooperative support has strengthened the program. Some teams of 80 basketball players have been playing before walk-in free audiences totalling about 4000 people a season; and some 11 teams of 165 soft ball players before admission-free audiences totalling up to 25,000 in a season. (See page 99 of 1948 Winchester Town Reports for fuller account). This week, William S. Packer, long-time dean of tennis and member of the Park Board, retired from Park Board and James H. Coon was elected; and John D. West, chairman of the Recreation Committee since its inception, retired. Eugene M. Pollard was elected to the committee.

EXHIBIT OFFER TAKES 21 YEARS TO ARRIVE

The National Geographic Society has just received a reply to a letter written 21 years ago. With it came a sealed bottle of stratified volcanic ash, gathered soon after the cataclysmic eruption of Alaska's Mount Katmai in June, 1912.

Here is the story:

TUXEDOS FOR HIRE
'Middi-Tux'
Tuxedos

Purchase

PHILIP CHITEL
MEN'S SHOP
Tel. Winchester 6-0736-W

Back in 1928 Mrs. H. W. Jack, of Seattle, Washington, wrote the Society that she had collected the ash while on a visit to Kodiak not long after the eruption and would like to present it to the Society. The offer apparently was prompted by the work of the several expeditions sent by the Society to the Katmai area to study the effects of the volcanic explosion. One of the expeditions discovered the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, now a national monument.

Mrs. Jack's offer was promptly accepted by the Society, but she never replied to its letter. The long-delayed answer just received came from her daughter, Mrs. Lan Ketcham, 1553 Interlaken Boulevard, Seattle, Washington, who, as a little girl, had been with her mother at Kodiak when the layers of ash were obtained and sealed in a bottle.

Mrs. Ketcham explained she had just come across the letter in the effects of her parents, both now deceased. She said that a long series of illnesses began in the family at about the time the Society's letter arrived, and her mother evidently had never got around to sending the ashes. Now she was making good her mother's promise.

Mrs. Ketcham is being informed of the Society's appreciation and the ashes probably will be included in some future exhibit here.

The eruption of Katmai volcano is rated among the greatest known to man. It showered a foot of ashes on towns hundreds of miles away. The quantity of dust thrown into the air seriously diminished the intensity of sunlight throughout the entire Northern Hemisphere for several months afterwards.

TEACHERS' BOWLING LEAGUE DINES

Leary Captain of Winning Team

The handsome hand hammered sterling silver trophy presented by The Winchester Sports Center is now in the possession of Team Three of the Teachers' Bowling League captained by Otis Leary. Other names engraved on the cup are those of the Misses Charlotte Foley, Helen Goodwin, Phyllis Roberts, and Mrs. Sheila Young.

Winding up another successful season, the league held its final meeting in the dining room at the Winchester Country Club, where post prandial performances were emceed by William Branley, whose team just missed first place. Each of the team captains heaped coals of fire on the winners, and Miss Marguerite Asher, President of the Winchester Teachers' Club, conveyed the congratulations of the club.

Mutual admiration and gift receiving were highlights of the occasion, only a few bowling efforts being among the unsung. Naturally the team winners received items that will long serve as happy reminders of an important extra-curricular activity.

As the most improved left-handed bowler, G. Hartley Curtis was a popular choice. Careful observation of the winning ways of portersiders Larry Cooper (High single for men co-winner) and Director Leary was his inspiration. Captain Tom Morse of Team Eight, which tied for third place with those of Captains Henry Fitts and Joseph Aversa, matched Larry Cooper's prize winning string. Among the fairer bowlers Mary Cullen shared several honors, reserving for herself a high single string, finishing the season with an average one-tenth of a point behind Phyllis Roberts, the winner. Sarah McGowan's highest three strings won her an award also.

Captain Forbes Norris was also a winner, finishing the season with an average of 96.5, the honor selected for him to accept. Captain Aversa won two awards, one for the highest three-string total and another for having the greatest pinfall from the shortest distance.

A team mate, Marion Ashburn, was awarded a prize for being most humane to the pin boys.

Captains Mary Mackendon and Fred Felmet were honored respectively for tardiness and enthusiasm.

Gifts were also presented to Miss Helen Bronson and Miss Peggy Hogan for their production of weekly bowling news and publishing the final standings. Miss Helen Goodwin, Secretary Treasurer also received a gift.

For his services as Director, Mr. Leary was presented some highly appreciated cigars.

Fifty bowlers competed on the league's ten teams.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

Miss Barbara Sipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sipp of Wedgemere Avenue, was among those placed on the Dean's List at Lesley College, Cambridge, for the first semester of the current year.

Monday morning Water Superintendent James Halwatz discovered that some time over the weekend 13 panes of glass had been broken in the pumping station at the west side well field. The police were notified.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The League of Women Voters held their annual Legislative luncheon at the Parish Hall of the Church of the Epiphany on Thursday, March 10th. Again this year the happy combination of good food and excellent legislative reports gave the members an afternoon both delightful and informative. With the Mass. League filling its own Bill on Jury Service for Women, interest was particularly keen. Mrs. Edgar J. Driscoll, Vice-President of the Mass. League, and principal speaker of the day, gave a most interesting report on how the Bill was written, explaining its provisions and chances for being written into law by the General Court this year.

Mrs. Harold A. Hall, President of the Winchester League, opened the meeting with a warm welcome to the members and their guests. The program was then turned over to the Chairman of Legislation, Mrs. William Spaulding, who called attention to several Bills in the General Court which are of particular interest to the League. She announced that a visit to the State House has been arranged for Wednesday, March 23rd. The group will attend a hearing in the morning, have lunch in the State House lunch room and go to sessions of the House and Senate in the afternoon. She asked that anyone interested get in touch with her before that date. Mrs. Spaulding then introduced the speaker, Mrs. Driscoll.

In her address Mrs. Driscoll pointed out that Massachusetts is the only north-eastern state which does not permit women jurors. They are allowed to serve in 35 states. As to the wish of the voters of Massachusetts nothing could be more expressive than the overwhelming vote on the 1946 ballot in favor of the General Court enacting jury service for women. The League Bill, filed by request by Paul A. McCarthy, Representative from Somerville, is simply and carefully drawn. It proposes two things: first to clarify Mass. law so that women shall be deemed "persons," liable to serve as jurors; second it adds appropriate exemptions. As to the reasons why women should be given this right and duty of citizenship Mrs. Driscoll quoted the following statement made by Dean Griswold of the Harvard Law School.

"Women are well qualified for jury service. A jury is intended to represent a cross-section of the community, and that representation can never be complete as long as women are excluded from jury service. The proposed statute excuse women with the responsibility of small children at home, and the court always has, and exercises, power to excuse any person where there are special reasons which would make jury service an undo hardship. No difficulties have arisen in other states where women have long served on juries and where such service is now taken as a matter of course, just as voting by women is here. But the most important argument is that this remaining discrimination against women is no longer appropriate in the middle of the twentieth century when women have so fully taken their place with men as equal partners in the tasks of life."

During the discussion which followed Mrs. Rodney Long gave a brief and entertaining account of a visit to the East Cambridge Superior Court. In the group who made the trip on February 23rd were Mrs. Long, Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Harold Hall, Mrs. Wilbert Underwood, Mrs. Gary G. Grant, Mrs. John McIntyre and Mrs. J. G. Jimenez. Another visit is planned for April 4th.

Mrs. Theodore Browne, chairman of Town Affairs, presided during the second part of the program which was concerned with items in the Town Warrant. Pertinent facts were brought out by Mrs. Browne and Miss A. Natalie Jewett in connection with the article having to do with granting to the V. F. W. of the use of the old Mystic School.

Miss Corinne Mead and Mrs. Langley Keyes were heard on behalf of the trustees of the Library. They pointed out that the difference between the recommendation of the Finance Committee and the amount requested by the Trustees is only $1475. Their concern was with the salaries paid to Librarians and Assistant Librarians not to the Chief Librarian. The maximum salary which we pay to our Librarian, after sixteen years of service, and two college degrees is $300. less than the average salary paid to graduates of Simmons

Mrs. Robert Drake introduced the question of the School Building Program. A very full discussion followed in which the varying points of view were expressed. There was an underlying agreement however in the desire of each person who spoke to secure the best possible schools for the town. In summing up Mrs. Hall urged each member to inform herself about the problem, and to act upon it as an individual.

Mrs. Kern Folkers with the other members of her lunch committee, Mrs. Robert Fletcher and Mrs. Carle Zimmerman took a well deserved bow for preparing so excellent a luncheon for the one hundred and fifteen members and guests present.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

The Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R., held their February meeting in the Parlor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church. The Regent, Mrs. Earle E. Andrews presided and the opening exercises were conducted by the Chapter, Miss Grace Pound.

The President General's message was read by Mrs. William Goodhue, and the letter from Mrs. Helen Holcombe, Chairman of the Building Promotion Committee. National Daughters of the American Revolution was read by Mrs. Harold Twombly, Secretary Protem. The letter stressed the "Major Building Project" asking for immediate action on part of the Chapters in the raising of the $900,000 by 1950.

The date of the State March Conference to be held at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston, March 24-25 was announced by the Regent and it was hoped that many members would attend this important meeting.

Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, the Chapter Chairman of Good Citizenship Pilgrimage Committee introduced the Good Citizenship Pilgrim. Miss Margaret A. O'Leary who had been chosen from the Senior Class - Winchester High by students and faculty as one possessing the following four qualities to an outstanding degree - 1 - Dependability - 2 - Service - 3 - Leadership - 4 - Patriotism. Margaret spoke briefly of her pleasure of being chosen and thanked Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Nichols and the Chapter for their part in making this honor possible.

The Good Citizenship Girls sponsored by the Chapters will attend the Thursday morning session of the Conference on March 25th, and each girl must register by 9:30 a. m. A luncheon for the Good Citizenship Girls will be held at the Boston City Club, directly following the morning session. After luncheon they will tour the State House and be received by the Governor of the Commonwealth.

The National Board voted on April 17, 1948, that the Pilgrimage of the Good Citizenship Pilgrims to Washington be discontinued commencing in 1949, and that instead a Government Bond of maturity value of $100 (or its equivalent) be awarded to each of the 49 State Pilgrims by the National Society.

Delegates to the 58th Continental Congress are the Regent, Mrs. Earle E. Andrews and Mrs. William Cusack - Alternates Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, Mrs. Stephen Nichols and Miss Emma Louise Boardman.

Mrs. Walter Hawkes, Chairman of D. A. R., Manuals for Citizenship gave a report on the work she had done for the Chapter.

Mrs. William Eklund, Program Chairman introduced the Guest Speaker, the Rev. John Snook, Jr., Pastor of the Methodist Church who gave an interesting talk on "The Philosophy of War and Peace."

Afternoon Tea was served by the Hostess, Mrs. Harris LeRoy and her Committee. Those assisting were Mrs. Harold Dover, Mrs. William Cusack, Mrs. Ernest Dade, Mrs. Samuel Griffin, Mrs. William Denison, Mrs. Everett Kidder, Mrs. J. Frank Hodge, Mrs. Clifton Hall, Mrs. Marshall Symmes, Mrs. Robert Collins, Mrs. Burton Cary, Mrs. Arthur Butters, Mrs. Rony Snyder and Mrs. Howard H. P. Wright. Miss Grace Pound and Mrs. George Peckham poured.

SCOUTS WORK FOR EXPOSITION

All Troops, Cub Packs and Senior Units are working like Trojans in preparation for the Scouting Exposition which is due at the Winchester High School on Saturday, April 30th from 2:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. and Winchester Units are no exception. In fact visitors to the Troop meetings of the Scouts for example will see for themselves, the boys working on their Fire by Friction tests, Fire by Flint and Steel, signalling and the like. The enthusiasm is boundless and Medford Units who amass prizes year after year because of their numerous units and training had better watch out this year. Of course there will be units from the rest of Fellsland namely Stoneham, Woburn and Burlington but it is to be hoped that Winchester will compete successfully with these units also. It won't be from lack of trying anyway if Winchester Troops and Packs and their Senior Unit do not "bring home the bacon." Admission will only be the huge sum of 25c. and we urge all parents to come. Show your boy that you are proud of his accomplishments in Scouting and be there to root for him or view his handiwork if he is not a competitor. This is the first time in nine long years that Winchester is playing host to the affair and it may be the last opportunity for you parents to see your boy in action in Scouting.

PACK 6 HELD MARCH MEETING

Pack 6 of the Winchester Cub Scouts held their March meeting in Metcalf Hall of the Unitarian Church on last Friday evening, with Rev. Paul H. Chapman, Cub Master of the Pack in charge. A large number of parents and friends were present, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The usual short business meeting was followed by the special awards for the month. Den 3, Mrs. Nelson K. Brown, and Mrs. William C. Ross, Den Mothers, received the Flag award for the highest percentage in achievements for the month. Den 3 also tied with Den 7, Mrs. Herbert F. Ross, and Mrs. William Spaulding, Den Mothers, for the highest percentage in parent attendance. The announcement that Den 7 was disbanding was received with real regrets, and the Den Mothers were congratulated on the fine showing that this Den has made. The Cubs in the Den have all received their Webelos and moved on to Scouting.

The colorful candlelight service initiating the Boys into Troop 6 of the Boy Scouts was carried out by Scouts of Troop 6, Scoutmaster Olcott L. Hooper welcomed the new Scouts, and outlined briefly the activities connected with Scouting. Rev. Mr. Chapman also welcomed the boys to Troop 6, and gave a resume of the many accomplishments which Troop 6 has made up to date.

Donations to the Pack Fund were received from Dens 2, 3, and 4. A large exhibit of items which were made by the Cubs during the year was viewed by the parents and friends. Many favorable remarks were passed about the many useful and cleverly made articles. Refreshments served to the Cubs, their parents and friends by the Boy Scouts brought a most enjoyable meeting to a close.

The following awards were made for the month:

DISTRICT NURSING TO RAISE RATES

Reluctantly, but with no alternative in view of today's rising costs, the Winchester District Nursing Association has voted to increase the fee per hourly visit of the visiting nurse to two dollars per hour, or any part thereof, and one dollar for any additional half hour, effective April 1.

The vote was taken at the March meeting of the Association, held at the home of Miss Margaret Copland, 6 Norwood street, last Friday morning, at which every board member was present.

At the present time, many District Nursing Associations in other towns have had to raise their cost per visit - Boston has been charging two dollars for some time now - and all other Nursing Associations are facing this problem of rising costs and eventual raise in charges.

In making the increase to two dollars in Winchester, Mrs. Donald H. Powers, President of the Association, points out that all Winchester's costs have been carefully analyzed by experts, and that the increase must be made to cover costs of this Red Feather organization. Mrs. Powers stresses a vital fact for townspeople - that "Winchester District Nursing is NOT a charity organization. It exists for all people in all income brackets. Those who can afford to pay the established fee are expected to do so. Those who can pay only part of the fee will still be entitled to the nurses' visits, and those who can pay nothing will certainly never be refused aid from the district nurse."

Mrs. Jane H. Lord, executive director, told the board on Friday that each time the visiting nurse picks up her bag to make a visit to the patient, - it is costing the Winchester District Nursing Association a little over two dollars. In raising the rate per visit at this time, the Association is doing much to cover its costs.

Office visits, however, will remain the same, one dollar.

Mrs. Lord also told the board on Friday of the visiting nurse's "comfort fund." This "fund" (now quite low, alas!) is built up by grateful and generous patients who call on the visiting nurse - grateful for the comfort and relief her visit brings - instead of paying her the established fee, insist on giving her "a little extra for herself." The nurse doesn't, of course, keep the "little extra for herself." She turns it into the "comfort fund." And that little secret fund has been used many, many times by the nurses, for needs of the less fortunate patients.

Thus in the day of the visiting nurse, going from homes where the maid opens the imposing front door to the small cottage where several boisterous youngsters greet her, there are many little dramas that seldom reach the public's eye!

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Greco of 27 Sheffield West, returned this week from a month's auto trip to Miami Beach, stopping on their way home, at Sea Island, Georgia.

The Winchester Auxiliary of the M. S. P. C. A., met at the home of Miss Mary Alice Fitch, 14 Sheffield West, on Thursday, March 10, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Alfred Hildreth, the president, conducted the meeting and several matters of business were discussed. It was voted that the membership shall be unlimited, and it is hoped that many more friends will join the society. All those having pets are especially urged to do so, and thus help support the work of the Winchester Shelter, which is doing such a valuable service for animals in this section under Mr. Arthur Bryer's care.

Emphasis was placed on the need of a small electric refrigerator for the Shelter in order that food for the animals can be taken care of properly. Any interested person can make such a gift please contact Mrs. Alfred Hildreth, Winchester 4-1955 M.

It was voted to hold a Food Sale and Tea on April 20th, at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Underwood, 9 Ravenscroft road. All members and friends please keep this date in mind.

Following the meeting a delicious tea was served by Miss Fitch, with Mrs. Howard Wright pouring.

VAUDEVILLE APRIL 1 AND 2

Two weeks from today the Seventeenth Annual Vaudeville Show of Winchester High School will begin a two-day performance that will again bring to the stage representative samples of the talent among the students.

Positively a high school production, Vaudeville, directed every year by Ray V. Hayward of the faculty, is definitely a Winchester High School show. Only rarely has a skit prepared by outside professional writers been used. Instead there are always student written briefs and annually Mr. Hayward writes, directs, and produces at least one dramatic feature that is in keeping with the theme of the show.

Over the years there have been outstanding performers and this year's show will be sure to produce favorites among singers, dancers, monologists, comedians and comedienne, and tumblers.

Assisting Mr. Hayward with the direction are Athletic Director Henry Knowlton, Assistant Athletic Director Helen Carroll, Music and Vocal Music Director Eleanor Anifantis and Tom Morse expert in lighting.

BONNELL MOTORS TOWN LEAGUE FINALISTS

The Bonnell Motors fought their games in the semi-final playoff for the Town Basketball League championship by defeating the American Legion in two straight games in the semi-final playoffs series. The Monday night game in this series was a dandy as the Bonnell Motors edged the Legion 26 to 25 after trailing from the beginning of the game until the final minute. In the final minute with the Bonnell Motors trailing 24 to 25, Ed Hicks was awarded two foul shots and made them good to clinch the victory for the Bonnell Motors.

On Monday night the Sons of Italy defeated the Mercurio Insurance 37 to 25 to win the playoff of the tie for fourth place and entered the semi-final playoff series against the Rotary. In the first game of this series on Wednesday night the Sons of Italy sprang an upset by knocking off the favored Rotary quintet by a score of 40 to 38. Trailing by four points entering the final period, the Provinzano brothers sparked the Sons of Italy rally by scoring three baskets apiece to put their team into the lead which they projected to the game's end.

On Monday night the second game of this semi-final series will be played. If the Sons of Italy win, they will enter the final round of the playoffs against the Bonnell Motors on Wednesday night. If the Rotary wins, a third and deciding game will be played on Wednesday night between the Rotary and the Sons of Italy.

WINCHESTER GIRLS HAD GOOD HOOP SEASON

Winchester High School girls' basketball team enjoyed a good season on the court this past winter, winning five out of six intervarsity games, and dropping an interschool match to Medford, losing the senior and sophomore games and winning the junior match. The Medford seniors won their game by a single point, the Winchester girls being far from satisfied that the better team won. Arlington's capable sextette gave Winchester its only varsity loss, beating the locals here by a single basket in a well played game, 26-24. A 12-5 advantage at half time enabled the rangy visitors to get by a determined Winchester second half surge.

Both Belmont and Watertown gave Winchester close games, but the locals had the edge and deserved to win, though Watertown was but a single basket behind at the final whistle.

Lynn Aitken's, aggressive guard, captained this year's team and played consistently good basketball. She and "Ginny" Gaffney, sharp-shooting center forward, played every game without relief, but with these exceptions Coach Helen Jay Carroll juggled her lineup quite a bit, using nine players in most of the games.

First team letter winners were Captain Aitken, "Dee" Barrett, Marilyn Chase, "Ginny" Gaffney, Marcie Knowlton, "Peggy" O'Leary, Joan Rallo, Fay Zamanakos and Caroline Zinn. Of these Barrett, Gaffney, Chase and O'Leary were forwards and Knowlton, Aitken, Rallo, Zamanakos and Zinn, guards.

"Ginny" Gaffney led the team in scoring 78 points, "Dee" Barrett was runner-up with 52, "Peggy" O'Leary had 35 and Marilyn Chase, 28. In girls' basketball the defense does not shoot, even foul shots being made by the forwards.

Helen Jay Carroll again coached the team with Lorraine Augusta as senior manager.

The Winchester seconds won five of their six games, beating Belmont, Malden, Melrose, Arlington and Watertown, while losing to Lexington. Second team letter winners were Elmina Baldacci, Margie Carroll, Barbara Chase, Pat McDermott, Harris MacDonald, Jean Neiley, Priscilla Symmes and Joan Wolsey. Managers were Nancy Townley-Tilson and Alice Hodge.

Following is the varsity record: Winchester 28 Lexington 20 Winchester 26 Belmont 22 Winchester 31 Malden 11 Winchester 19 Medford 20 Winchester 24 Arlington 26 Winchester 28 Melrose 22 Winchester 37 Watertown 35

BADMINTON NEWS

This week we played the last of our League mixed doubles matches of the season at Wellesley, and a week ago Needham's team came over to Winchester to play their return match. The results versus Needham were as follows:

B. Hichborn & E. Williams defeated Parker & Wheeler, 15-14, 18-13.

M. Moore & W. Gray lost to Routledge & Routledge, 6-15, 14-15. M. Moore & J. Tarbell lost to B. Routledge & V. Wheeler, 12-15, 15-6, 7-15.

L. Hersey & B. Hersey beat Frye & Frye, 15-5, 15-12, and against Maugus Club:

L. Ladd & J. Tarbell beat Martin & Martin, 15-12, 15-9.

M. Moore & J. Tarbell lost to D. Morse & Mrs. Copeland, 15-14, 8-15, 8-15.

B. Hichborn & W. Hichborn beat G. Kuntz & Mrs. French, 11-15, 15-9, 15-10.

L. Hersey & B. Hersey beat Copeland & Copeland, 12-15, 15-5, 17-14.

Though the results of our year's efforts have not been spectacular, we have managed to even up the score in the six matches played, so we feel satisfied if not elated -- and our players can certainly say they have had a lot of fun playing these games against an exceptionally fine group of opponents.

The men's doubles competition is also over for the year, but to date all the results have not been handed in to the secretary, they will be published later if, and when they are recorded!

The next date of importance for the Club will be Tuesday, March 29th, when we have our Annual Meeting and the election of officers for the 1949-50 season -- in the mean time, play as usual each Tuesday and Thursday evening.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL DANCING CLASS

Last Friday, March 11, the Fifth and Sixth Grades of the George Washington School held the final meeting of their dancing class with Mr. Russell Curry. It was a gala occasion, with banks and gliders as favors for each member from Mr. Curry, and delicious refreshments provided by a committee from the Mothers' Association.

The Elimination Contest provided great fun for all. Linda Nanry and David Peter were left after everyone else sat down and won special prizes. Linda Leavitt and Jimmy Urmsen were chosen to demonstrate the waltz turn for the rest of the class. The whole class danced waltzes, fox-trots, and a square dance.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Herbert Dayton, Mrs. S. Alexander Di Pietro, Mrs. Chester E. McElhinney and Mrs. Albert Thompson. Several other mothers also attended. Those who were present at both the first and last meeting of the class were impressed with what the class has accomplished both in learning dance steps, and acquiring general poise and ballroom etiquette.

One of the articles on which the town meeting members will be asked to pass is that authorizing the town treasurer to act as collector of taxes. How much general desire there is for this consolidation is conjectural, particularly in view of last year's election, and why we need to argue the question so soon after the town has decided against combining the offices is hard to see. Proponents of the consolidation argue that combining the offices will save money and result in greater operating efficiency, particularly in the interchange of office personnel during busy periods. Sounds good of course but somehow some of these efficiency schemes do not work out just the way they are expected to and quite often the savings claimed are either negligible or actually non-existent. Mr. Wyman, a candidate for tax collector a year ago, contacted several communities where the offices of collector and treasurer have been combined. Actual figures, as he presented them, showed little, if any saving, and the Star is inclined to believe that one man will be likely to handle one job better than he will two, particularly when one of the jobs is collector of taxes. Tax Commissioner Long, who should know, expressed himself strongly in opposition to consolidation last year, and the town's vote indicated that it is satisfied to have the two offices separately administered. Proponents of the consolidation claim that combining the offices and paying a slightly higher salary for the combination will attract a higher type of man for the office. We are by no means sure that this so-called higher type will be any better than the men who have administered the offices independently in the past. Nor is there any guarantee that this high type man, provided he can be persuaded to seek the office, will be elected. There have been some high type men in the not too distant past who have, surprisingly as it may seem, failed of election. Incompetence in either the office of treasurer or tax collector would be bad, but incompetence in both at the same time would be that much worse. The Star's feeling is that we have done pretty well with separate collectors and treasurers. If the offices had been poorly administered, there would be some excuse for the proposed streamlining. Finally the town as a whole rejected the proposal to combine the offices last year when it defeated the popular Mr. Heath for re-election to the office of treasurer, despite his length of political service and the fact that his opponent was an absolute newcomer to local politics. Mr. Heath was a candidate for both collector and treasurer. He was elected collector, but failed to be re-elected treasurer. A majority of voters thereby indicated clearly that they did not want the two offices held by one man. Why those sponsoring the consolidation think the voters have changed their minds so quickly is hard to see. The offices of collector and treasurer were filled last year for three years. There would seem to be plenty to discuss at the current town meeting without arguing over something we can not do for two years. Action on Article 26 might well be indefinitely postponed.

MASTER HIGHWAY OBSERVATIONS

Editor of the Star:

I have gone over the maps estimates etc. of the Proposed E. Highway Scheme and as I analyze the thing the main objective is to reach Winchester, Woburn and Route 3, and R-38 north of Woburn Center, and tie in with the proposed route of R-128.

I can see no objection to using the Parkway location south of Bacon street but there surely will be a problem of damage to real estate at Bacon street on both sides. If this layout is diverted at or were Sandy Beach and thus following thru via Glen road and Wedgemere avenue to Pond street at the intersection of the Union College Parkway, then this Bacon street problem would be eliminated as well as Wedge Pond fill and the ### Lake street outlet problem.

If however the route is via Wedgemere avenue I can readily see much objection and much property damage from Everett avenue to the end of Wedgemere avenue.

The outlet for Winchester would be via Church street. The old Witherill property would offer this chance, yet the property on the corners of Church and Wedgemere avenue would be eliminated and the crossing of Church street a problem effecting property on both sides of it.

I would think that the cost of a bridge at the crossing of the Mystic Lakes south of Everett avenue would be far less than the tunnel under Church street and crossing of Wedge Pond as now planned and the difference applied to be land damage if the Wedgemere avenue route was to be used.

If this was to be used the Lake street problem would be eliminated and the destruction of the Edison Plant, since the road would pass it. To the south there would be quite a bit of property damage at or were Pond and Chesterford road.

As I look at it the Volume of freight coming to Winchester is small and it could well be via Church street outlet, since it might as well enter this way as from Lake street. The congestion would be no worse.

I would say however the proposed route via a tunnel under Church street will not disrupt any valuable property other than at Bacon street and that of Tom Quigley and the Town Yard, district, although it may upset some along Rangley Ridge, since the ledge there must be removed to get proper width of road as I expect they would not take any of the Railroad right of way? Yet the map does show some overlap for a short distance. This would help the situation. The grade of Church street over the tunnel does not show. I can see no great objection to the fill across Wedge Pond if properly graded on the embankments and well landscaped slopes.

One other solution is possible and that is to direct the highway at or near River street, Arlington (See Exhibit 13, on Master Plan for this by following the Parkway the West side of Mystic River instead of crossing same then following the Parkway around and along Lower Mystic Lake to and across Mystic Street Route 3 in Arlington and continue on and along the old Turnpike road leading to Billerica and connecting with the (6) lane road now built in part which intersects Route 4 in Lowell.

This to my mind, would give a more direct road to Lowell, Nashua and point north. I would say that the Express road could go under Route 3, this side of Arlington Center and thus avoid a grade crossing. The property damage would not be great since the houses are relatively cheap. An outlet would be at the 4 corners on the Woburn, Lexington road. (R-128) giving Lexington an outlet, also Woburn, although not as near Woburn as the proposed one. But the main traffic beyond Woburn. The entire route from Route 3 in Arlington to its connection with Route 4 in Lowell (several miles having been constructed) is thru a thinly settled section north of Route 138 at Lexington street. It has no advise grades in either direction. The fact that it leads north to the Daniel Webster Highway in N. H. and skirts Lowell thru north Chemsford it would seem to me to be the logical route.

Of course this would leave Winchester out for this use of this Super Highway. But why does it need it? The main thing is to be rid of this heavy traffic thru our center.

TO REDUCE RECRUITING SERVICE

Editor of the Star:

The following should prove of interest to all your readers since it deals with the all-important recruiting service.

Gladys M. Toye,
Headquarters First Army
Office of the Commanding General Governors Island,
New York, N. Y.
February 25, 1949

Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye,
Chairman, Winchester
Military Manpower Committee
Winchester, Massachusetts.

Dear Mrs. Toye:
I wish to thank you and all members of your Military Manpower Committees for your valuable assistance in raising the voluntary enlistment rate to the highest in the nation's history.

During the six months ended 31 December 1948, the Army and the Air Force accepted a total of 307,301 voluntary enlistments and re-enlistments. The monthly average was rising rapidly toward the end of the year. This extremely high rate of strictly voluntary enlistments is the reason the draft calls were reduced, then suspended.

Much of the credit for our remarkable success in recruiting can be attributed to the splendid, unselfish, patriotic work of the members of the Military Manpower Committees. You have actively informed your communities of our manpower needs, worthwhile careers offered by the Armed Forces, and the continued need for volunteers. Unified community activity and support of the Recruiting Service has built prestige for the Army and for the Air Force.

Since the Army and the Air Force have reached their budgetary personnel ceilings and our monthly procurement requirements will be lower, we are planning a substantial reduction in the size of the Recruiting Service. We also plan to place more emphasis on the quality of men accepted.

However, your full support and cooperation will be needed for months to come to insure that the future of the Armed Forces receive the intelligent, fully-qualified volunteers that are necessary to a really effective, highly technical, modern military establishment. We also want your help on special procurement problems. We are still faced with an urgent need for doctors, nurses, dentists, aviation cad### ets, and other allied personnel to balance our personnel program.

Please accept my appreciation for your excellent work in the past. I hope you and all the members of your Committee will continue to serve during the period of reduced activity in explaining our change in program and our present needs to the people of your community.

Sincerely,
R. B. WOODRUFF,
Major General, U.S.A.

ARE THESE OUR CHILDREN?

Editor of the Star:

I would like to think that I am writing this for all mothers with young children, pre school, as well as school age.

The question uppermost in my mind is, why a town of Winchester's reputation for being up and coming, could be so neglectful of the future and welfare of its youngsters.

Why has it not provided the proper playground space for these children?

I grant you the town is wonderfully landscaped, but in some very unnecessary places. I would much prefer, and I am sure many will agree with me, to see, swings, slides, sandboxes and jungle gyms, in the place of trees, flowers, and etc. Where in the town is there such a place?

Some may say Palmer Beach. Why is it necessary for mothers of young children to have to take their youngsters over there when there is a space at the beginning of Middlesex street that could be converted into a playground, and where mothers would have no fear of their children being too near the water.

Why couldn't this particular spot be fenced in and the proper gear be supplied.

There would be no need for paid supervision, I am sure there would be enough mothers on hand to solve that problem. This idea has worked out in other cities and towns, why not Winchester?

Let us get the children off the streets. Give them what rightfully belongs to them. They are our future leaders. By providing the playground space, the drivers of cars will have that many less unnecessary gray hairs caused from near misses.

Mr. Harris Richardson was elected President of the Massachusetts State Senate, who knows maybe we have a future President of the United States among our youngsters. Provide him with the right play space, so his future can be assured. Remember, it is better to be safe than sorry.

Sylvia F. Elliott,
15 Linden street.

COMMENTS POLICE FOR CAPTURE

279 Cambridge street,
Winchester, Mass.,
March 15, 1949.
Mr. Charles Harold,
Chief of Police, Winchester, Massachusetts.

Dear Chief:
Through you, I wish to commend officers Clarence Dunbury and John Boyle for their efficient work in apprehending a burglar at four o'clock last Saturday morning in my gas station. This is the second burglar caught by your men at my station within the past six months. Police protection such as this deserves public recognition and I am only too glad to extend it. My thanks and deep appreciation to you and your men.

Sincerely,
Charles A. Murphy.

Ed. Note: Officers Dunbury and Boyle became suspicious when they saw the burglar alarm showing at the gas station. Officer Dunbury stood guard while Officer Boyle went to Mr. Murphy's home nearby, returning with Mr. Murphy who unlocked the station. Officer Dunbury went in and brought out a man who gave his name as John Tierney, Jr., of 1 Aldie street, Allston. Police say he has a record. He was booked on charges of breaking and entering a building in the night time with the intent to commit larceny. In the Woburn Court Judge William Henchey held him in $5,000 for appearance before the Grand Jury. Wednesday morning a fully loaded .38 caliber revolver was found in the trunk of a car that had been in the station on the night of the robbery. Police believe it was thrown in the car by Tierney.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

A bill has been filed at the State House in behalf of the Massachusetts C. I. O. Industrial Union Council.

It is House Bill No. 726 and it calls for the abolition of the "Merit System" from the Employment Security Law.

Under the amended bill, every employer would have to pay a full 2 1/2% "contribution" (tax to you) on all wages paid up to $3,000.00 per person. Even if your record is a good one, it will cost you just as much as if you were a bad employer with frequent lay-offs of help.

This looks like an evil bill and, in the opinion of most men who know of it, SHOULD NOT PASS. Unless this bill is defeated, it will probably increase unemployment, which in turn will call for more relief payments and that, as you may have gathered, means another hike in your tax bill.

You are urged to communicate at once and as forcefully as possible with your State Senator and Representative to see that this measure is defeated.

If you don't know who your representatives are, read the list in the STAR.

Some Reasons for Opposing Bill

1. It will put Massachusetts manufacturers at a disadvantage when competing with concerns located in other States.

2. It penalizes the employer who tries to and does keep his employees on steady employment the year round.

3. It will increase the tax for this purpose in some cases as much as 400%. (From 1/2 of 1% to 2 1/2%).

4. The cost of the change has been variously estimated up to Sixty Million Dollars ($60,000,000.00).

5. Merit rating is in effect in all other States except one.

NEW PRECINCT MEMBERS CHOSEN

Town meeting members in Precinct 3 on Tuesday evening chose Kenneth P. Pond, retiring member of the Board of Selectmen, to fill one of two vacancies existing in that precinct. This vacancy was occasioned by Mr. Pond and John P. Anderson tying for the 11th and last place on the ballot at the town election.

The other vacancy was made when Frederick C. Hatch, a town meeting member, was elected chairman of the Planning Board. Thereby becoming a town meeting member ex-officio and resigning as an elected member. His resignation did not come in time to have his vacancy filled at Tuesday evening's meeting, and another meeting of precinct members was held last night before town meeting to fill the vacancy, Mr. Anderson being chosen.

Henry E. Moffette of Rangely road was elected a town meeting member at a recent meeting to fill a vacancy in Precinct 5.

REPORT ON DISCIPLINE PANEL AT LINCOLN SCHOOL

The Round Table held at the Lincoln School Auditorium under the sponsorship of the Lincoln School Mothers' Mass. on the question "Discipline: What Is It?" was enthusiastically received and participation of speakers and audience devoted the keen interest felt in the subject.

Each speaker brought from his own observation and knowledge pertinent facts on discipline in the home, school and town that were a challenge to those present.

Quotable Quotes—

"Discipline is far more important than a mere device to make children bearable to adults. We don't want yes-men-we want children to be adults who have maintained their own initiative, personally able to conduct every day life in orderly and acceptable manner. There are no bad children to start with."

Most important thing about the children has been the emotional attitude of the home, more important than any mistakes made along the way. Love and encouragement is needed from start to finish and important to remember. Every child punches the time clock of development at a different time.

The ideal aim of schools today is self-direction, self-management and self-control. Idea is to build up in pupils a feeling of responsibility for themselves. A school with good teaching is one where discipline is least evident. It is also where you find pupils assuming responsibility in studies, in classes and in treatment of others.

Law enforcement not only is concerned with the acute problem of juvenile delinquency today but also for the future. Need for effective crime prevention is one that primarily belongs to your community. There are more disciplinary problems with the over-privileged child than with the under-privileged child in Winchester. No program can be really effective that does not take into consideration a Juvenile Protective officer in the department.

What goes into the mind comes out in life. Most children we have trouble with never have belonged to the Boy or Girl Scouts or any similar organization and have been left to get along more or less by themselves. Children should have proper respect for Police officers but they don't.

There is a lack of respect in all of us today. We should try to keep right on to train leaders and the higher we can raise the general intelligence of the rest of us the better followers we will be."

The Lincoln Mothers Association extends their thanks to Rev. Paul Smith, Dr. Donald McLean, Dr. Forbes H. Norris and Mr. Winthrop Palmer, also to Mrs. S. Mortimer Ward for arranging the program and to Mrs. Hiram Smith III and her committee for the delicious refreshments.

The interest in this discussion prompted the Mystic School Mothers Ass. to request the entire group of panel members to present the same topic at an evening meeting May 11, in the Mystic School and further notices will be in the STAR regarding this program.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY COUNCIL MEETING

Sunday, March 13, 1949, marked an important event for Winchester Post No. 97, the American Legion when it acted as host for the first time in its 30 years history to the Middlesex County Council of the American Legion. Approximately four hundred delegates, Legionnaires (male and female), members of the American Legion Auxiliary and invited guests attended the meeting.

Commander Robert F. Murphy opened the meeting by greeting the delegates and the assembled guests. He then turned the meeting over to County Commander Anthony Sweeney.

Among the invited guests were Past National Commander Daniel J. Doherty; Chief Charles J. Harold, Past Commander of Winchester Post, County Commissioner James Cullen; Carl Gustin, 6 year old Official Mascot of Winchester Post; Commander Francis Murray, Sr., Vice-Commander Thomas E. Duddy and Jr. Vice-Commander Joseph Duran of Winchester Post 3719, V.F.W., and State Officers of the American Legion and the Auxiliary.

A very special mark of appreciation is given to Mrs. Joseph McKee, President of the Auxiliary Unit of Winchester Post and her very efficient committee for the buffet supper which was served following the meeting.

All the visiting Legionnaires were loud in their praise of their hosts for the day and admired the Legion Home which they rated as one of the finest they have seen.

DOING WINCHESTER SURVEY

Boston University graduate students are in town currently interviewing citizens in connection with a survey of the town which they are making.

The students have been assisted by the Citizens Committee, the members of which have written citizens about town asking their cooperation in receiving the young surveyors at their homes and in answering their questions.

The students ask all sorts of questions covering every phase of town activity.

MULLINS SEES REPUBLICAN 21 CLUB AS HELP TO PARTY

W. E. Mullins, political writer of the Boston Herald, is known as an astute observer of State and National politics, which makes his comment upon the Republican 21 Club the more interesting.

Mr. Mullins got first hand information and an actual look at members of the organization when he came to Winchester recently and met leaders of this young group at the home of Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes, an ardent patron of the young people. Mr. Mullins' article upon the growing 21 Club resulted largely from this meeting.

In general the Herald's political writer believes that the Republican 21 Club can act to offset the young people who were wooed into the Democratic Party in the days of FDR and have remained there, some of them knowing no other than a Democratic president.

It is planned to organize as many as 100 of these 21 Clubs all over the State with the approval of the Republican State Committee. The response thus far is encouraging many to believe that the ardent young Twenty-ones will bring many new faces into the ranks of the party.

In the 1948 campaign the Republican 21 Club offered valuable information to the elder party organizations and early in the game stated that Devey wasn't getting over with the young people, adding that Devey's state proposals were appealing to the younger voters. Unfortunately their advice was ignored by the oldersters who figured the "young amateurs" were becoming panicky. In the future it is likely that the 21 Clubs will be much used as listening posts and their observations treated with respect by the older party heads.

Republican 21 Clubs have an appeal for young people because of their many social functions as well as their practical concern with politics. The original charter under which the clubs function was granted by the Republican State Committee. Winchester has one of the growing clubs, and the local young people have been very active, socially and politically.

MR. CHARLES H. WATKINS HONORED

Mr. Charles Hadley Watkins of 2 Ridgely road was signally honored upon the occasion of his retirement as president of the Harvard Club of Boston at its annual dinner held Monday evening, March 14. This function was attended by more than 400 members and guests, with John Foster Dulles, U. S. delegate to the United Nations assembly, and Ex-Gov. Robert Bradford as speakers.

The conclusion of Mr. Watkins' term as president marks the end of thirty-four years of activity in various capacities, as chairman of the program committee, director, secretary, vice-president and president. In recognition of his devoted service, a portrait of Mr. Watkins, painted by the distinguished artist Gardner Cox and given by a group of club members, was unveiled Monday evening by former president Ralph Lowell. He also presented to Mr. Watkins, as the gift of the club, a silver after-dinner coffee service.

HELICOPTERS AID SCIENTISTS IN PANAMA JUNGLE EXPEDITION

Something new has been added to the equipment by which the modern archeologist hunts his clues to ancient relics.

It is the "motorcycle of the air," the helicopter, which has just been tried out successfully over the jungles of Panama, where an expedition sponsored by the National Geographic Society and the Smithsonian Institution is digging into the secrets of remote civilizations.

"In half a day we accomplished what would have taken us up to two weeks by canoe and on foot," reports the expedition leader, Dr. Matthew W. Stirling, to the Society's headquarters here.

"The maneuverability of these machines is almost incredible. Their use for archeological exploration often has been suggested, but to my knowledge this is the first time it actually has been done."

The site to be investigated was a group of mounds believed to exist in the Tigre River region of the jungle east of the Panama Canal Zone. Two helicopters were made available for the search by the Caribbean Air Command of the U. S. Air Force. A pair of these versatile "air buggies," it was explained, usually work together on such missions, to provide a spare in case one should be forced down.

There were no mishaps. The party located the site and landed in a small jungle clearing. The mounds turned out to be peculiar natural formations which had been utilized by the Indians, said Dr. Stirling, because of their elevation above the surrounding low ground.

Later the expedition returned to the same general region and set up camp for 11 days. In the two excavations of five sites encountered within a short range of the camp evidence of an entirely new culture was discovered. Particularly interesting was the long-buried pottery with its geometric designs and forms of frogs, turtles, snakes, monkeys, and birds.

PAUL REVERE TEAM PLANNING FOR SEASON

Though the season is still quite a long way off Manager "Lew" Warsky of Winchester Paul Revere League baseball team is making plans now for the coming summer.

Winchester got back into league competition last year after a long lapse, playing in the second half of the league schedule and making a good showing. Manager Warsky hopes to improve this showing during the coming season and already has approached several new players who he hopes will strengthen his club.

A good nucleus remains from last year's team, and the newcomers will have to show they can improve on the play of last year's team members to win starting berths.

Fine new uniforms have been bought for the team, and Winchester will be the best turned out team in the league at least. Manager Warsky believes that a well uniformed team plays better ball and many smart managers and coaches will agree with him. There are probably newcomers to Winchester who are good ball players and would like to play on the local team this summer. They should get in touch with Manager Warsky at 12 Stowell road. He plans to carry 16 players this season to safeguard against vacations or business engagements making him shorthanded for games.

Mrs. Chandler, a member of the Winchester School Committee, said that $11,500,000 is needed to erect a modern 12-story Children's Medical Center which will be large enough to handle the rapidly growing list of patients and equipped with the latest research facilities to fight child diseases. Of this sum, $4,500,000 has already been contributed.

BRAHM'S REQUIEM SUNDAY

This Sunday afternoon, March 20, at four in the Unitarian Church, a notable musical event will occur in the presentation of Brahms' Requiem under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham. The Unitarian Choir has been augmented by some of Winchester's finest voices to a well balanced chorus of forty. Weston Brannen will be guest organist and Ralph Stevens will play the kettle drums in the thrilling climaxes of the second, third and sixth sections.

John Ffestyn Jenkins, bass and Dorothy Perkins, soprano of the Unitarian Quartet will sing the solo passages.

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman will read the Scripture upon which the text is based.

This Vespers, memorializing those who have fallen in World Wars I and II will be attended by members of Post 97 of the American Legion and all service men and women as well as the townspeople in general are cordially invited.

Preceding the Requiem, Mr. Brannen will play "Benedictus" by Reger; for the Offertory "O Welt, Ich Muss dich lassen" by Brahms, and for the Postlude "Psalm XIX" by Marcello.

Because of the technical difficulties involved in this finest of choral works, it is seldom heard in its entirety and next Sunday's performance will afford this opportunity to all.

Plans for presentation of the Requiem were initiated while the members of the Choir were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Kelley on January 23rd at the Towne Lyne House in Lynnfield. Tonight the singers are to be guests of Aram and Betty Mouradian at their home when they will listen to the Vienna Philharmonic recordings of this work.

Following the Vespers on Sunday, Garrett Shanklin will join his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar Shanklin in entertaining the group at their home.

Not all of the members of the Unitarian Choir were able to give the extra time necessary to prepare properly the Requiem, but those singing are:

SHOW NEW PLYMOUTH AUTO AT MAGUIRE MOTOR CO. ON MARCH 18

The new line of Plymouth automobiles, with outstanding mechanical improvements and up-to-the-minute styling, make their appearance in dealer showrooms here and throughout the United States Friday, Mr. E. Frank Maguire, President, Maguire Motor Company announced today.

Completely redesigned and streamlined, the new Plymouth contains a 97-horsepower engine which is smoother, livelier, and more economical. Other changes make notable contributions to beauty, safety, and passenger comfort.

Wheelbase has been increased for a better ride and more road stability but at the same time the overall length has been reduced for ease of handling. Although lower and narrower, the new bodies provide greater interior room for passengers. The car's appearance reflects a complete change from last year's models. The Plymouths may be seen at Maguire Motor Company, 808 Main street, Winchester.

Designers have achieved a "common sense" streamlining in which ease of handling, safety and comfort have received strong consideration. Fenders which blend perfectly into body lines are nevertheless separate and detachable thus avoiding sheet metal masses so costly to repair or replace.

Increased visibility is provided in the windshield which is 37 percent larger and the rear window which is 35.4 percent larger. Windshield wipers clear 61.5 percent greater area.

Sedan seats are wider and deeper, both in front and rear. The width of both cushions has been increased with panels and arm rests so located as to take maximum advantage of the interior space. Rear seat room in the Club Coupe has been increased to the equivalent of the Sedan.

FINAL REPORT OF THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL ADDITION BUILDING COMMITTEE FOR WINCHESTER TOWN MEETING MARCH 17, 1949

(This letter and report were received by the STAR on March 10th but could not be published last week because of lack of space).

Editor of the Star:

The Junior High School Addition Building Committee would appreciate your publishing for the information of the Townspeople, the enclosed Final Report of the Committee, containing its recommendations to the Annual Town Meeting.

The Committee feels that the filing of this report completes the first step in the Junior High School project. The second step is the action to be taken at Town Meeting. Every Winchester citizen is urged to become familiar with this proposal, to weigh the merits from a long-range point of view, and to make certain that his Town Meeting representatives are informed of his opinion in order that the Town Meeting action will indicate, without question, the Town's decision. We sincerely hope that the third step will be the construction of the proposed additions, which should be under way this spring in order to be available by the fall of 1950.

With the completion of this portion of the Committee's duties, I am submitting my resignation as Chairman and as a member of the Committee, in order that I may undertake the duties of the office of Moderator. I would like to take this opportunity to express publicly my personal appreciation of the time and effort spent on this problem by Messrs. Borden, Fitzgerald, Main and Rush, my associates on the Committee, and to thank the many citizens of the Town who co-operated on various phases of the study, for their valued suggestions and criticisms.

Respectfully yours,
Philip P. Wadsworth

Pursuant to the recommendation of the School Committee in its Annual Report of last year, the Junior High School Addition Building Committee was established by a vote of the March 1948 Town Meeting. It was specifically authorized and empowered by the vote "to make a study of the proposed addition to the Junior High School Building, to procure engineers' plans and architectural drawings and to make the necessary plans for such addition."

In directing our Committee to study and make plans for the "proposed addition" to the Junior High School, the vote had reference to the addition proposed in the Final Report of the Committee on School Facilities and Activities, containing that Committee's recommendation, after an extensive and thorough study over a two-year period, as to what accommodations and facilities should be provided for the pupils of the seventh to twelfth grades.

It seems proper to review briefly the conclusions reached by the School Facilities Committee. Their report, prepared in close cooperation with the School Committee, the Superintendent of Schools, and the principals of the High and Junior High Schools, who were in accord with the Committee's conclusions, states their belief that the enlargement of the Junior High School building to house grades seven, eight and nine should have priority in the school building program after construction of immediate Elementary School needs.

For many years, the School Committee and the School Administrators have desired to establish a 6-3-3 division of grades in the school system and to get away from the detached ninth grade in the Wadleigh Building which has reduced the efficiency of administration and teaching in both the Junior High and High Schools.

Furthermore, the Facilities Committee and the School Committee both agreed unanimously that to effect economies in construction and operation there should be the maximum possible interchange in the use of facilities between the Junior High and High Schools, particularly in the case of the cafeteria, auditorium and various art and industrial art rooms. Having reached these conclusions, the Facilities Committee recommended plans for enlarging the present building with new wings at either end of the main building, an addition above an enlarged gymnasium and the addition of an auditorium and cafeteria at the north end of the present Junior High School Building.

It was this suggested plan which our Building Committee undertook for study. Our preliminary report, prepared for printing in the Town Reports, contained much of the contents of this, our final report for presentation to the 1949 Annual Town Meeting.

Our Committee is of the opinion that the necessity and urgency of building a Junior High School Addition, was well presented in the reports referred to and that the Town signified its interest in the proposed project by establishing the Building Committee.

The School authorities have outlined to our Committee in considerable detail the requirements for a school to accommodate 750 pupils. These include additional classrooms, art and music rooms, enlarged accommodations for the science, home economics and shop courses, enlarged gymnasium and physical education facilities, and certain miscellaneous changes in the offices, teachers' rooms, supply, book and store rooms, etc.

In addition to these, the school authorities recommended a cafeteria capable of seating 600 diners, to relieve the present crowded and unsatisfactory conditions existing in the high school cafeteria which serves both schools. The proposed cafeteria room is also to be used as a study hall and for social functions. The school authorities also recommended an auditorium to be built above the cafeteria, with an adequate stage, dressing rooms and other facilities, suitable to be used by both schools and to provide additional room needed for high school graduation exercises, school plays

Committee has set 1,000 as the minimum number of auditorium seats required for school purposes and the School Facilities Committee recommended a seating capacity of 1,200 to make possible the use of the auditorium as a Town Hall, as well as for school purposes.

The Building Committee was organized in May, 1948, and set out to study the proposals presented in detail. Numerous conferences were held with the various school administrators and the School Committee with a view to determining the fundamental aspects of the problem. The location of the addition was necessarily determined by the site of the present school buildings. After a thorough study of the probable increase in school population, it was decided to plan for 750 Junior High School pupils, with some consideration being given to future additional classrooms if required. It was determined that the building addition should be planned with joint use of the cafeteria, auditorium, shops and Industrial Arts facilities, by both the Junior High and High Schools. The Committee retained the firm of Sturgis Associates, Inc. as architects for that firm designed the existing building and prepared plans for the enlargement of the building for the School Facilities Committee and was considered fully qualified to serve this Committee in proceeding to its objective.

The Committee proceeded to study alternative plans to those proposed by the Facilities Committee, particularly in reference to the auditorium, gymnasium and cafeteria. Various schools were visited by members of the Committee and the architect sketched various arrangements with a view to finding a less expensive plan that would satisfy the accepted requirements. After several weeks of study, the Committee decided unanimously that the original proposal was the most acceptable solution. Detailed sketches were prepared adopting many suggestions and revisions of interested persons meeting with the Committee. In comparison with the plans presented by the School Facilities Committee, some of the stairways were widened, rooms rearranged, additional balcony seats provided in the auditorium, thereby increasing the total seating capacity to 1,290, and additional kitchen facilities, needed by the cafeteria, incorporated. As a result of these and other minor changes the cube of the entire project as proposed by the School Facilities Committee was increased by between five and ten per cent to a total of something over a million feet.

With the detail of the floor plans decided upon, the architect proceeded to complete the preliminary eighth scale plans and outline specifications. The Committee has since studied certain problems of heating, has prepared interior specifications, has recommended some changes to modernize and improve the present school rooms, hallways, etc.

The present heating plant of the Junior High School is inadequate to supply the proposed addition and to supply the heating now furnished the Senior High School. It is proposed that the plant be enlarged, and be so planned that it can be made adequate for the enlarged Junior High School and be so planned that it might ultimately be increased to fill the requirements of an enlarged Senior High School or any new High School, within reasonable proximity to the Junior High School.

The School Committee has requested our Committee to plan its recommendations with a view to possible occupancy by the fall of 1950. If such a schedule is to be possible, it will be necessary for the Town to take action immediately in order that building can get under way this spring.

In order that the townspeople could be adequately informed of the details of the proposed plan, and in order that the Committee might get the benefit of suggestions and criticisms in regard to their proposals, a series of six meetings were held prior to the Town Meeting, one in each of the elementary schools and one in the High School auditorium. Detailed sketches and floor plans were shown by lantern slides and were discussed by our Committee and members of the School Committee with several hundred interested townspeople attending these meetings.

The proposed addition to the Junior High School would probably add between $1.15 and $1.30 per thousand dollars to the tax rate. Although this addition comes when the tax rate is already high, the Committee feels, nevertheless, that this is the proper time to proceed with this important step in the school building program. These facilities are needed to rectify a long-existing shortcoming in our Junior High School and are a required first step for providing the more adequate facilities needed in the Senior High School.

Certain persons present at the meetings held to discuss the plans, expressed the opinion that the building of the addition housing the cafeteria and auditorium should be postponed. With this the Committee cannot agree. First of all, an auditorium fills an important educational need in any school and for sixteen years the Junior High School has had to operate without benefit of an auditorium. Next, the present cafeteria facilities are woefully inadequate. In order to serve the Senior and Junior High School pupils, the present High School cafeteria requires at least three shifts, commencing as early as 11:00 a. m. The auditorium and cafeteria will serve both schools and are an integral part of the joint facilities planned which will mean a material saving not only in building costs, but also in annual operation costs. It is also planned for use as a social hall for dances or other forms of entertainment. The auditorium above the cafeteria will give both the Senior and Junior High Schools an auditorium. It will fill the present need for an auditorium of sufficient size to accommodate larger school functions such as graduation exercises. It will also serve a long-felt need for an adequate municipal auditorium.

MRS. LORD AND TWINS

Mrs. Jane H. Lord, Director of Winchester District Nursing Association, visits the Pooler home, 49 Grove place, to check the twins, Ann and Peggy, who have been under the nurse's care since birth. With the twins is Maureen Pooler, helpful older sister. This is but one of the many services rendered to the townspeople by this Red Feather organization, which this coming week marks its 50th anniversary.

It should be pointed out that this estimate does not include the cost of any tunnel connecting the Junior High School with the Senior High School, it being the opinion of this Committee that such a project should be considered as a part of the Senior High School problem.

This is the proposal for the Junior School Addition which our Committee believes will meet the considered requirements of the Town. We realize that this is an expense involved is substantial. However, it is our opinion that Winchester should have adequate and proper school facilities. We feel our conclusions are strengthened by the previous exploratory study and excellent report by the School Facilities Committee.

The proposed plan meets with the approval of the School Administration authorities and the School Committee. We therefore unanimously recommend that the Town take appropriate favorable action to proceed with the plan as presented. A set of two sketches, a plot plan and five floor plans are attached hereto to be included as part of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

NATIONAL SCHOLASTIC ART AWARDS

Junior High School Art Winners

The success of the Junior High School course in ceramics is ably demonstrated by the work of two eighth graders, John Donovan and Beverly Browne, gold key award winners at the recent Scholastic Art Contest held at R. H. White's in Boston. John's exhibit was a turtle with green matt glaze; Beverly's entry was a small bowl with high-fire gray glaze.

Also winning gold keys were Jennifer Meigs for her water color "Sale! Sale!"; and Pamela Johnson for her water color "Street Fight." Certificates of merit were presented to Philip Salmon for the water color "Street Scene", and to Betty Lou Martensen of grade seven for her water color "Skating on the River."

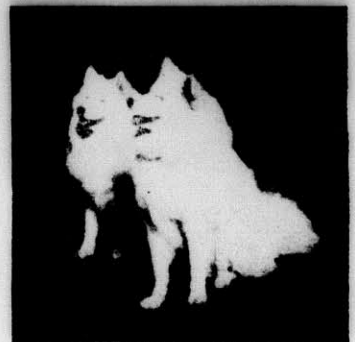

The award of a gold key indicates that the piece of work will be sent to Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh for competition in the National finals. Children receiving a gold key also receives a Certificate of Merit.

High School Art Winners
Among the 100 or so winners of Gold Keys awarded at the Scholastic Art Contest at R. H. White's Boston store were three Winchester High School students.

These four paintings will be sent to Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, for the Scholastic Art Contest.

In the front window of R. H. White's appeared two Winchester paintings "Lucky, A Dog" by Susan Ordway and one of three water colors by Jean Neiley. Other pictures shown at White's, winners of certificates of merit were an ink scratchboard by Douglas Macneil entitled "Leisure"; two water colors by Elmira Baldacci entitled "Gym Lesson" and "Despair"; another tempera by Barry Grace entitled "Boston's North End," and two water colors by Jean Neiley.

Ch. Niek of Snowland, Siberian Samoyed owned by Helen L. Irving of Winchester and his 15 months old son, Nanoog, owned by Mrs. Edward M. Peters of Humberston, Mass.

One of the oldest, domestic breeds in the history of the dog world the Samoyed was originally used by the herders of Siberia as sled dogs and for herding reindeer. In later years they have been known to explorers as the most dependable, hardy and intelligent of all the northern husky sled teams. The males weigh from 65-70 lbs. full grown and are powerful in build and outstanding in the beauty of their gleaming white coats.

As house pets they are most desirable for their affectionate disposition, fighting only in defense of themselves or their owners and are responsible guard dogs of the home, but never aggressive except to suspicious intruders of their property.

They are ideal companions for children, never being "snappy" or temperamental.

The Samoyed is not related to any other breed. He stands alone and always shows his characteristic traits of superb build and brain power. Although of Arctic origin he thrives in any climate, his heavy undercoat acting as an insulation against the heat of summer.

Niek of Snowland is the only living son, at the age of 6 years, of the late Ch. Nim of Snowland considered throughout his life as the finest male in the country. Niek made his championship with the distinction at the shows of never losing his best of breed rating through the completion of his Ch. title.

Niek and his son are the closest of friends having visited each other every three months since Nanoog was a puppy so that as grown dogs they would still be the best of pals. This is usually impossible to attain when two grown dogs from different homes are brought together for the first time, the result being jealousy and instant antagonism ending in an irretrievable feud.

GEN. MAURICE ROSE BRYM NO. 23 PRESENTS 4TH ANNUAL SPRING DANCE

SPRING MEETING OF WINCHESTER WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The regular Spring meeting of the Winchester Women's Council will be held in the Art Gallery of the Public Library on Friday morning, March 25, at ten o'clock. There will be reports of committee chairmen and the annual election of officers.

The speakers will be Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff whose topic will be "Creating International Friendship through your Hospitality to Foreign Students", and Mrs. George A. Marks who will give a report on the Winchester Hospital Building Fund and tell what lies ahead.

The Winchester Women's Council was organized in 1944 for the purpose of providing a clearing house for information, publicity and general cooperation among existing women's organizations in Winchester. Each group is entitled to send its President and a chosen representative to council meetings and they in turn report back to their organization items of interest to the membership. By arrangement with the President of the Council a representative may announce activities of her group which she feels will be of general interest.

The Council keeps a calendar for the recording of dates of activities. This is of value to member organizations in that it enables them to avoid planning projects on conflicting days. This calendar hangs in Mary Spaulding's Book Shop where it is easily available. Representatives are urged to write in dates on their programs as soon as they are announced in order that other groups may not plan meetings or activities for the same date.

The Council also compiles and distributes a list of officers of member organizations each year. Extra copies of this list are available for special purposes. They have been used by the Community Fund, The Winchester Tuberculosis Association, the Salvation Army and others.

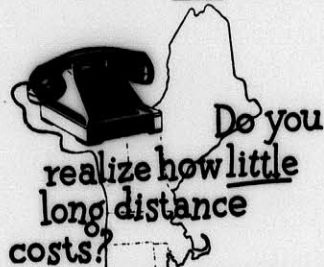

The two meetings which are held each year are open to the public and guests are most welcome.

Why wait?

Don't wait and worry if you have a small or large decision to make demanding the advice and counsel of someone living miles away. Over long distance telephone lines your thoughts, your ideas — yes, your fears or your joys — can be transmitted to another as easily as though you were sitting together in your own living room. And the help and "lift" you need can come back to you quickly. For separation, loneliness, distances are banished when you chat by telephone.

Why not visit by telephone now? It costs so little — it's so satisfying. You get so much and you give so much.

TROOP 7 PREPARES FOR EXPOSITION

Troop 7 Goes On Another Hike

If you were in Winchester center about 9:45 a. m. last Saturday morning, you might have seen Troop 7 starting out on another one of their hikes to Pine Hill Camp, the Troop's campsite on Ridge street. Scouts Stan Mullen, George Govostes, "Feet" Foster, Ken Cleaves, Dave Ripley, Andy Robertson, Ray Simpson, Stu Carlisle, Terry Tallman, Philip Dresser, Cecil Pridmore, Russ McLeod, Jim Ekstrom, Don Lewis, and Russ's Cub brother, Jim, took part in this camping trip.

Cecil Pridmore, now a "veteran" Scout of one week, wore good sturdy boots this time, and left his sneakers at home. (He says his sneakers shrunk an inch, anyway, after the trip to Camp Lane!) George Govostes complained that his feet were "frozen stiff" and he spent most of the day feeling his toes to make sure none had broken off.

The wind almost blew the boys off the hill, and they had to search for a more sheltered spot for their fires. That is, all but Ray Simpson and Andy Robertson who braved the gale and pitched their tent and built their fire on top of the hill. (It was a good fire, too!) Stu Carlisle and "Feet" Foster couldn't get a fire started to save their lives, and finally, to save them from starvation, Mr. Swanson let them use his fire.

Phil Dresser cooked a beautiful top-of-the-round steak that was one-fourth the size of this newspaper page and over an inch thick. It took him over an hour to eat it all. (He did, too, except for a little piece Mr. Butterworth finally talked him out of.)

It was too cold to do any serious test-passing, so the boys played three lively games of "Capture-the-Flag" and then gathered their equipment together and started for home.

Troop 7 has grown rapidly during the past few months and now has twenty-two members. The most recent boys to join the Troop include: Ken Hiseo, Ernie Hiseo, Chip Honsinger, Cecil Pridmore, Donald MacFeeley, and Donald Lewis. The boys have missed Mr. A. O. Weld at recent meetings and camping trips. Mr. Weld, who has been a Troop 7 Scoutmaster for eighteen years, is confined to his home because of sickness. The Troop hopes he'll soon be back on his feet again. The boys missed Scoutmaster "Doc" Millican at the last meeting, too. But "Doc" had a good excuse. He had to go to the hospital to visit the latest addition to his family... a little girl scout!

Camp Fellsland to hold Reunion in Winchester

Every year, all the campers and leaders of Camp Fellsland, the Council's summer camp in Amesbury, hold a mid-season reunion. This year, the reunion will be held in Winchester, at the First Baptist Church. The date is Saturday, March 26th, and the program will begin at 7:30 p. m. An interesting entertainment is planned, including three magicians, movies, and refreshments. All Winchester Scouts, Scouters, and parents are cordially invited to attend. Tickets are now available from a representative in each Troop.

Many Winchester Scouts are planning to go to Camp Fellsland this summer for one to six weeks. This year, the camp will be open from July 10th to August 1st, and the rate is only $14 a week if the boy enrolls before June 1st. The boys enjoy their meals and indoor activities in the big new Memorial Lodge, and they sleep on double bunks in cabins. This year, for the first time, the brand new wharf will add greatly to the boys' enjoyment of the many water activities at camp. Camp Fellsland offers many other attractions including a large athletic field with all kinds of outdoor sports, modern flush toilets and shower room, handicraft instruction, nature instruction, evening campfire entertainments, special hikes and camping trips.

Winchester Scouts to Help "Strengthen The Arm of Liberty"

As its share in helping America to establish and maintain international friendship and peace, the Boy Scouts of America have embarked on a two-year program to "Strengthen The Arm of Liberty." This worthy campaign was inaugurated with an impressive torch-lighting ceremony conducted by Boy Scouts at the Statue of Liberty in New York. This symbolic torch will travel all over the country, spreading the light of liberty to every city and town, including Winchester. Soon Winchester Troops will hold their own torch-lighting ceremonies and pledge themselves to "Strengthen The Arm of Liberty." As their part in this great national campaign, Winchester Troops have promised to attain certain specific objectives during 1949 and 1950 which will improve and strengthen the Boy Scout organization (and the cause of peace and good citizenship) by improving and strengthening the Troop's program, membership, and leadership.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON LEAGUE

The Florence Crittenton League of Compassion is planning a "Come and See" tour of the Maternity Home and Hospital on April 7. This is an opportunity which many members will welcome as it will give visitors a chance to see the work which is being done every day by the excellent staff of workers and officers connected with the organization.

Members will meet at McCormack's Drug Store at 10:15 a. m. Those wishing transportation may call Mrs. J. W. Robertson, Winchester 6-2530-M. Bring sandwiches, coffee will be furnished.

FRENCH CAR HERE SUNDAY

Many residents of Winchester visited the French 40 and 8 car of the Mercier Train last Sunday afternoon while it was in Winchester on Common street under the auspices of Winchester Post 47, the American Legion.

The car, a roomy box type of car, was decorated on the outside with plaques bearing the names and coats-of-arms of French cities and provinces. Inside were two concrete memorials to General Patton.

The attendant in charge of the car which was mounted on a big truck explained that most of the relics from the car were on display in Worcester. The car was the one officially assigned to Massachusetts from the train sent to this country as a gesture of international good will. There was a large percentage of children among those who visited the car.

A MESSAGE TO THE CUSTOMERS OF BOSTON EDISON COMPANY

THIS COMPANY has mailed to 22,564 stockholders and 3300 employees a detailed report of its operations for the year 1948. The expense of sending the full report to 423,335 customers would be prohibitive, so the Company takes this method of informing its customers of some of the significant trends in the Company's operations during the last twenty years.

It is our paramount obligation to provide adequate and dependable service in the manufacture and distribution of electricity at the lowest possible cost. The management of this Company strives at all times to fulfill this obligation to the public, consistent with a fair and reasonable return to the investor and fair and reasonable wages and good working conditions for the employees.

We believe our customers will be interested in our Income Statements for the calendar years 1928, the last complete pre-depression year; 1938, a typical pre-war year; and 1948, a post-war year. We also submit condensed Balance Sheets as at December 31, 1928, 1938 and 1948. The figures and accompanying charts tell an eloquent story of the manner in which this Company has met your steadily increasing demands for service by plant expansion, has offset phenomenal increases in costs by improved operating efficiency and has actually reduced rates to make electricity the shining exception to the rule of high prices.

OPENING SESSION OF TOWN MEETING HELD

Delegates Supported Finance Committee in Brush with Library Trustees

A crowded hall turned out for the opening session of the limited town meeting last Thursday evening, lured by the possibility of fireworks developing in the discussion and action upon the various town budgets. On the whole the meeting ran smoothly, most appropriations being passed without debate, and many of those questioned being disposed of after explanations by the Finance Committee or department heads.

One hundred and ninety-five of the 229 limited meeting members were present for the meeting, first to be presided over by the new moderator, Philip P. Wadsworth, who was given a round of applause as he banged the gavel to open the session.

Routine business was quickly disposed of and the meeting took up the fateful Article 5, under which departmental appropriations are voted. Following the custom of recent years the Moderator read the various motions in order, any one having a question in connection with the motion or appropriation having by a simple declaration that article deferred for further discussion. Those articles not questioned were accepted together at the end of the Moderator's reading with Mrs. McDonald questioning this procedure as hasty and a good thing to dispense with next year.

Principal opposition to the various appropriations under the deferred articles came from Mr. Saraco and Mr. Hewis, who vainly attempted to effect economies in the Health Department and Snow and Ice Removal budgets, while Mr. Saraco and Mr. Rotondi questioned the wisdom of purchasing a four-wheel drive truck by the town.

Mr. Dwinell, new chairman of the Board of Selectmen, bore the brunt of the questioning of the Selectmen, with Mr. Fitzgerald briefly championing the purchase of the truck, and Mr. Symmes, chairman of the Board of Health, defending his department's budgetary requests.

After vainly attempting to have an overdraft for snow and ice last year taken from the Excess & Deficiency account instead of revenue, Mr. Saraco asked permission to address the meeting and warned the delegates that their prodigality in municipal expenditures will result in a tax rate so high many citizens, particularly veterans, will be driven out of town.

Mr. Dwinell explained that arrangements have been completed to have the town's garbage trucked out of town to its "last resting place" in Woburn, Mrs. McDonald's expressed hope that the residents in the vicinity of the garbage house at the town yard will not have to live through another summer with conditions as they have been, bringing a vehement denial from the "old war-horse" Mr. Craughwell, that there had never been any odor from the garbage in the yard.

LEWIS PARKHURST
NEW SCHOOL NAMED FOR LEADING CITIZEN

The new school in the west side hill district was on Monday evening by vote of the limited town meeting named the Lewis Parkhurst School in honor of one who has been a leading citizen of Winchester since he came to town as principal of the high school in 1882.

He served five years in this capacity before being persuaded by his fellow townsman, the late Edwin Ginn of Rangely, to associate himself with Ginn & Co., publishers, of which he became before his retirement treasurer and director of manufacturing. He made Ginn & Co. a leader in the field of scholastic publishing, and he himself has been a leader in many fields. A graduate of Dartmouth College in the class of 1878, he served as an alumni and life trustee of the college from 1908 until his retirement in 1941. He holds the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from his alma mater, to which he gave Parkhurst Hall in 1911 in memory of his older son, Wilder, who died at Hanover at the beginning of his sophomore year in college.

In Winchester Mr. Parkhurst has played a leading civic and philanthropic role. He was a leader in the movement through the years to beautify the town's waterways, has served as chairman of the Committee that built the high school and was also on the committees which built the old Mystic School and the Unitarian Church. He gave an organ to the church and a library to the high school, and after serving as chairman of the town's World War I Memorial committee paid for nearly all of the expense involved in the erection and erection of the statue which stands on the high school grounds. He also played a prominent part in the campaign which removed the mortgage from the new Hope Baptist Church some years ago.

Mr. Parkhurst served the State as senator in the General Court and has been a tireless worker for prison reform. It was largely through his continued efforts that the State finally erected the fine prison colony in Norfolk, in which Mr. Parkhurst has taken the greatest interest and to which he gave a library for the prisoners.

Mr. Parkhurst lives in his fine old home on Oak Knoll, a stone's throw from Symmes corner. He numbers his friends among residents of all walks in life and from every race and creed.

- Editorial reprinted from the Boston Traveler:
"In one sense the Red Cross drive is in the home stretch. In another sense it is only half way to its goal. With only a few days remaining, it isn't much beyond the half way mark in funds collected. It is time for Greater Boston to dig down deeply. The Red Cross no longer has over-subscribed drives on which to fall back. ## FIRST ADJOURNED TOWN MEETING SESSION

Schools Referred to Committees. West Side School Named for Lewis Parkhurst

Another big crowd was on hand for the first adjourned session of the limited town meeting Monday night, with both galleries filled to overflowing and a large gathering at the rear of the delegates section and in the small town hall. One hundred ninety-six precinct members attended.

The only action taken on the much discussed articles covering proposed additions to the Mystic and Junior High Schools was referring them to committees together with consideration of enlarging and modernizing the high school or erecting a new high school building.

Much of the meeting was devoted to school discussion, but those who came to the meeting expecting a battle between the school proponents and the economy minded on the school program were doomed to disappointment. There was some debate, but it was far from acrimonious, and left one with the feeling that things had been pretty well decided before the meeting began.

Mr. Speers championed the School Committee's motion asking for the appointment of a Committee to prepare plans and secure estimates for an addition to the Mystic School, reporting to a special town meeting to be held May 15, at which time Mr. Speers expressed the hope that the necessary funds for the erection of the addition would be voted so that work could start at once.

Mr. Speer spoke strongly of the urgency of the Mystic School problem and expressed the School Committee's unanimous opinion that the enlargement of the present building is an absolute necessity to meet the increased school population expected in the district served by the school as the result of greatly increased building there.

Prof. Bartlett of the School Committee reinforced Mr. Speer's arguments with lantern slides of graphs calculated to show school load and population trends in the Mystic area as a means of driving home the necessity for an immediate addition to the school. There was no opposition, and the meeting voted to establish the Mystic School Addition Building Committee of five members, one from the School Committee, chosen by it, and the other four to be appointed by the Moderator, the committee to prepare plans and secure estimates for a five class-room and two kindergarten room addition to the present school. The Committee is to have $5,000 from the Excess and Deficiency Fund to spend and is to report with its findings and recommendations at a special meeting May 15.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

Do You Know?

That the Historic Records of Winchester, Volume 1 and 2 maintained at the Public Library, contain many interesting items regarding the noteworthy achievements of The Fortnightly. And in the "History of Winchester" compiled by Henry Smith Chapman the following statements are found: "Quite unusual is the list of valuable public services The Fortnightly has rendered to Winchester. As a body, particularly in the early years when the progressive spirit in the community at large was not so effective as it is to-day. The Fortnightly was always thinking and planning in advance of the town itself. For its foresight and its active leadership in so many movements for the protection and improvement of the Community, Winchester should always be grateful to the Fortnightly Club."

That many of the Women's organizations in Winchester to-day stem from The Fortnightly. That The Fortnightly still maintains active committees on Art, Conservation, Education, International Relations, Legislation, Literature, Preservation of Antiques and "The American Home" - what it stands for and what it means to the World at large. The Fortnightly also maintains an alert and efficient committee operating to assist in the rehabilitation of War Veterans.

That the Industrial Training Departments now maintained in the public schools of Winchester were pioneered by The Fortnightly.

That in a note of acknowledgment received from the School Board in May, 1893, the following statement is recorded, "On motion of Mr. Suter it is unanimously voted: 'That the Secretary express the cordial thanks of this Board to the President and other members of The Fortnightly for their intelligent interest in the Manual Training Departments of the public schools, its appreciation of their pioneer efforts therein, and the value of their continued moral support, cooperating with the efforts of the committee to place the schools of Winchester in a satisfactory condition.'"

That progressive steps have been taken by The Fortnightly during this season - 1948-49 - in an attempt to interest all Women's Organizations of Winchester to unite their efforts toward the construction of a "Woman's Club House" for the town of Winchester.

That Winchester has eight Fortnightly members serving in the State Federation of Women's Clubs in the following capacities: Mrs. Harold H. Given, Recording Secretary of Division of Education.

Mrs. Clifton S. Hall, Club Institute Forum; Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes, Mrs. Kenneth B. Hiscoc, Meetings.

Mrs. William Priest, Vice-Chairman, Division of Inter-Racial Unity.

Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, Eastern Chairman, Division of Legislation.

Mrs. George Budd, Mrs. Theodore von Rosenzweig, Division of Inter-Racial Unity.

Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, Chairman, Division of Legislation.

That all Fortnightly Members are invited to attend an "All Day Music Festival" to be held on Thursday, March 31, at the Copley Plaza Ball Room, Boston. Detailed information may be found in the March issue of "Federation Topics."

That it is not too early to be considering the Annual Meeting of the Federation to be held in May, at the New Ocean House at Swampscott, Mass.

That: Spring has arrived clothed all in white Its bowers of green waiting the light We bow to the snow, 'tis not for long Earth will soon blossom in glorious song."

DR. DOUGLAS HORTON

Noted Churchman Here To Speak March 29

Dr. Douglas Horton of New York, internationally known churchman, and Minister of the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches in America, will speak to the Women's Association and their guests at the First Congregational Church on Tuesday evening, March 29.

Coffee will be served in the foyer at 7:15 p. m. by the Jr. Mrs. Guild and the Business and Professional Women's Guild, hostesses for the evening. Mrs. Robinson Whitten is in charge of the Worship Service, and Mrs. Charles Tozier, Vice-President, will preside in the absence of Mrs. Walter Winship, President.

Active in the councils of the ecumenical church, Dr. Horton is as well known in other communions for his spiritual leadership as he is among the more than a million ministers and lay members of the Congregational Christian Churches. As Chairman of the American Committee and member of the Central Committee for the World Council of Churches, Dr. Horton is a central figure in the united efforts of Protestant Christendom.

With three other distinguished Protestant churchmen Dr. Horton flew to Japan in the fall of 1945 to confer with Japanese Christians in a visit made with the full approval of President Truman and General MacArthur. Dr. Horton attended the meeting in February 1946 of the Provisional Committee of the World Council of Churches in Geneva, the first full session since 1939. He also attended the Planning Committee for the International Congregational Council in Bournemouth, England last year, and is Moderator of the International Congregational Council at Wellesley this year.

Dr. Horton's parish is indeed the world since his travels abroad in Asia, Africa and the Near East have familiarized him with the younger branches of the Congregational Christian Churches abroad and the overseas work of the denomination carried on by its foreign service arm, the American Board of Foreign Missions. He has been a delegate to many significant international conferences and councils, one of the largest being the great International Missionary Council at Madras, India, in 1938.

B. U. STUDENTS INTERVIEW RESIDENTS IN STUDY OF WINCHESTER

A consensus of Winchester's community opinions was undertaken last week by the Boston University School of Public Relations. The students were in Winchester carrying out a preliminary interviewing program which launches a three-month community study.

Each student personally arranged for interviews from a group of citizens selected from the list of town residents. For convenience, the interviews were grouped according to precincts. Citizens were asked for their opinions on many questions of general local community interest. Areas covered by the questions asked included the school system, parking, regional plans and other Town facilities.

Final results and tabulations have not been completed at this time. However, the response of the citizens interviewed has been very co-operative, giving promise that the study, when completed, will be of tremendous interest to the people of Winchester.

Mr. Raymond Merrill left last Friday to fly to Puerto Rico for a short stay.

17TH ANNUAL VAUDEVILLE NEXT WEEK

The annual two-day performance of Winchester High School's Vaudeville Show will open Friday afternoon, April 1, with a matinee for school children at 3:30.

Again under the direction of Mr. Bay V. Hayward, the seventh presentation of this all-school feature will introduce new and interesting acts and return to the local stage talented youngsters who have starred in previous shows.

The popular Harmonizers will again furnish the musical background for skits, plays, group and solo dances, and a variety of other items.

Among the specialists assisting Mr. Hayward is Miss Marguerite Derro, star of last year's show, coach of the new tap chorus, and a guest star this year. Mrs. Olcott L. Hooper has designed and made can-can costumes for the ponettes. Mr. Thomas Morse has taken charge of lighting arrangements and has worked out some effective innovations. Betsey Hooper, a star in her own specialty, has coached the ponettes. Miss Eleanor Anfantis is this year directing the music in the show, both vocal and instrumental. Miss Pauline Goodrich's art classes have not only prepared posters but have done an outstanding job in making the programs attractive.

The cover design, display advertisements and picture arrangements are products of their talent. Fifty of the one hundred or so specially designed advertisements were sold to local merchants by a committee headed by Ann Keeney and Nancy Townley-Tilson.

Dan O'Donnell's constructive criticism, creative ability, and imagination are effectively demonstrated by the entertainment items in which he has had a personal interest.

Repeaters from previous years will be Betsey Hooper in a ballet solo, Jim Quine as a versatile comedian, the Girls' Octette -- good to look at and to hear, Charlotte Maroney and Ellen Shoe maker better than ever, Phyllis O'Neil, featured as Miss Personality herself, the colorful Mexican harmonizers, a better jazz band, Jimmy Hennessy and Bob Horne as Hum and Strum, and fourteen ponettes, each as cute as a button.

New features will be George Johnson, acrobatic dancer; a trained dog act; Hats from Paris; Scotch pony chorus, baby-sitter business; girl tumbler; black-face chorus, military tap; and the return of Silver Statuettes, always a popular number.

All evening performances will begin promptly at eight. Stands are not permitted. The moral is obvious.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB OUTCLASSES RYE, N. H. 10 TO 0 IN NEW ENGLAND A. H. A. TOURNEY

Winchester Hockey Club made what the press and officials thought was the most impressive showing of any of the eight teams chosen to compete in the New England Amateur Hockey Association Senior B Championship Tournament when they shut out Rye, N. H., Hockey Club 10 to 0 in the first round at the Boston Arena last Sunday afternoon. A large audience came from Maine, N. H., and locally.

Whip Saltmarsh passed to Don Armstrong in the fourth minute of the first period to open the scoring. Less than two minutes later Whip took a pass from Jim Fuller and flashed the red light for goal No. 2. Wimpy Burtnett on an assist by Roy Monson, Bob Collins on a pass from Deane Tolman and Frank Livingston on a pass from Wimpy rounded out the first period total of five markers.

The New Hampshire opponents held the locals down to two goals in the second period. Nonny Cogan garnered the first of these assisted by Scott Doh and Livingstone got the second assisted by Monson.

Winchester rolled up three more in the final period. Dave Merrow scored assisted by Saltmarsh. Then Livingstone slammed in his third of the game to gain him a hat trick on Monson's assist. Finally Doh, just to show that he had plenty of strength offensively as well as defensively rushed up the ice in a solo, went in and scored Winchester's 10th unassisted.

Livingstone with three goals, Saltmarsh with one and two assists and Monson with three assists shown on offense, with Burtnett and Doh following close on their heels. Doh and Don Ellis played their usual stellar defensive rolls, with Billy Dingwell and Jim Fuller alternating with them just as effectively. In fact the defense and the back checking of the locals was so good that Scott Connor did not have a very busy afternoon in goal. However, he did have some hard shots to parry and came up with several excellent saves.

In the other tourney games, St. Andre's Hockey Club of Biddeford, Maine, romped over Gardner, Mass., Hockey Club 9 to 1, Westbrook (Maine) Crusaders defeated Dover (N. H.) Legionnaires 5 to 2 and Squantum Naval Air Station edged Lynn General Electric 4 to 2. All games were cleanly played with few penalties.

In the semi-finals Wednesday evening, March 23, at the Arena, Winchester is paired with Squantum Naval Air Station in the first game, and St. Andre meets Westbrook Crusaders (an all-Maine affair) in the second. The winners in these two matches are at present scheduled to battle in the final next Tuesday evening at the Arena.

NORRIS INTERCOLLEGIATE SWIM WINNER

Forbes H. "Ted" Norris, son of Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. Forbes H. Norris of Church street, won the 1500 meter swim on the opening day of the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming League championships last Thursday evening in the Princeton University pool.

"Ted" outlasted Yale's best distance men in winning the event, thereby getting sweet revenge for one of the few reverses of his entire swimming career at the 440 yard distance this season. He gradually pulled away to a two yard lead at 40 laps, gradually increasing until he was in front by nearly six yards at 60 laps.

For all the News read the Winchester Star.

DR. CHIDLEY TO PREACH TO FORUM

Members of the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church will attend the morning worship service on Sunday at 10:45 o'clock to hear Dr. Howard J. Chidley preach a youth sermon entitled, "How To Be Uncommon."

The chaplain at this service to represent the young people will be, Robert Oxford.

The Junior Choir will sing, "Beautiful Saviour," melody recorded in 1677 and the Senior Choir will sing, "O Saviour of the World" by Goss. Over one hundred voices will sing in the combined choir under the direction of Mr. J. Albert Wilson, organist and choirmaster.

At 6 p. m. on Sunday the Forum will have a supper in the Social Hall of the church. Following the supper Dr. Ray Johns, General Secretary of the Boston Y. M. C. A. will lead a discussion entitled, "My Life Work."

Dr. Johns has a long and distinguished background in "Y" and social work. He has degrees from George Williams College, the University of Michigan, Springfield College and Columbia University. During World War II, Dr. Johns was the National Director of Operations of the U. S. O. He has been the General Secretary of the Boston Y. M. C. A. since 1946.

The discussion to be led by Dr. Johns promises to be one of the most interesting held by the Senior Forum this year.

TELEPHONE COMPANY APPEALS TO SUPREME COURT

Joe E. Harrell, President of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company issued the following statement in connection with the recent order of the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities.

"After careful consideration of the order issued by the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities late Friday afternoon, March 18, the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company is convinced that it cannot continue to operate effectively under the order.

"This order denied the Company any increase in revenues. In fact revenues would be reduced. The rates permitted are only 5 percent above the rates established in 1925 and are wholly inadequate in the light of our increased labor and material costs.

"The Company has proceeded with postwar telephone construction and development to meet the needs of telephone users throughout the Commonwealth. It has hired large numbers of employees to carry on this work. It recognized the need for increased telephone rates as this work progressed and placed before the Department of Public Utilities all the evidence required to support the urgent need for increased revenues.

"To safeguard the financial integrity of the Company and permit it to meet the telephone needs of the people of Massachusetts, the Company is appealing to the Massachusetts Supreme Court."

USE OF SCHOOL PLAYGROUNDS

Article 6, Section II of Rules and Regulations adopted by the Winchester School Committee on March 1 reads as follows:

"School playgrounds may be used by the school for supervised play after the daily dismissal. The grounds may be used for unsupervised play, after school, by residents of the town provided that property is not damaged.

Exceptions to this rule are the grounds at the High School, Junior High School, Wadleigh, and the lower level of the Lincoln School grounds, which may not be used at any time. The upper level of the Lincoln grounds may be used for public play purposes in after school hours."

This weekend the Misses Copland, of Norwood street, will have as their house guest Mrs. Phyllis Biscoe, of the English Speaking Union in London. Mrs. Biscoe was recently awarded the United States Medal of Freedom with Bronze Palm, in recognition of her work for American forces during the war as Hospitality Secretary of the English Speaking Union.

WINCHESTER HAD SUCCESSFUL HOOP SEASON

Illness Handicapped Team at Start. Won Last Nine

Winchester High, though it failed to win the Middlesex League title or get a Tech tournament bid, enjoyed another successful basketball season this year under the coaching of Ted Bartlett. The Red and Black won 14 of 20 games, finishing 14th in the Middlesex League with a record of eight wins in 12 games. Any one who saw Winchester at its best would scarcely rate the locals as low as fourth among teams of the Middlesex League. Only Belmont was a better team on form than Winchester, and the locals might have won their second game from Belmont had they shot fouls a bit better. They led the league champs in floor goals.

Winchester had its usual poor luck in the matter of scheduling, playing Winthrop and Belmont during the Christmas vacation when both Pete Dillingham and Dennis Sanford, regulars were away from town. The Lexington game right after the holidays found Dillingham and Sanford playing with a single day's practice and far off form. Adding to that handicap Kenney Donaghey, scoring star for the season was out of the Lexington game with illness.

Illness plagued both Donaghey and Roche during much of the early season, both having difficulty shaking gripple colds contracted during the vacation. Donaghey missed both the Wakefield game at the Garden and the Melrose game the same week, both defeats for Winchester; and Roche was kept out of the second Lexington game which the Minutemen won in a double overtime.

For the first time during the season Winchester was at full strength for the second Belmont game at Belmont January 28, but Donaghey and Roche were both away below par because of their illness and the locals were defeated 38-30 with foul shots deciding the issue.

Commencing February 1, Winchester started to roll by defeating Stoneham, 62-40, and from then until the end of the season won all its games, including two with Woburn, a return game with Winthrop, and Kennett High of Conway, N. H., "Junior" Davidson's school. At full strength all season Winchester would have amassed an impressive record. The locals had the stuff.

This year's team was captained by Kenney Donaghey and managed by Dick Richmond. The roster included Donaghey, Dillingham, Dick Mathews and Bob Zirkel, forwards; Walter Murphy and Tom McGowan, centers; and Paul Roche, Sanford and George Tansey, guards. Of these Murphy, Sanford and Tansey will be back next year with Sanford elected captain.

Second team members were Dan Devlin, Bob Walsh and Joe Migliacci, forwards; Jack Costello, center; and Tony Curuso and Sandy Burbank, guards. Bob Surtees, Bill Rand and John Borden were second team managers. The team won 11 of 17 games and was coached by Athletic Director Henry Knowlton.

Kenney Donaghey led the varsity in scoring with 99 field goals and 43 free tries for a total of 241 points and an average of 13.4 points per game for 18 games. This eclipses any scoring mark previously made by any Winchester basketballer as far as any records are available.

Following are scoring records and the season's results:

All lovers of music will want to hear the Choir Festival to be presented at the First Baptist Church, Sunday, April 3rd, at 4 o'clock. Raymond Sheppard Pugh, Organist and Choir Director of the Baptist Church has prepared a program including many of the finest and best loved anthems and organ selections of Church music, representing the three most important seasons of the Christian Church - Christmas, Lent and Trinity.

Mr. Pugh has an interesting background of musical training and experience. He is a pupil in organ of Weston Gales and Lynwood Farnam. At the age of fourteen he was assistant organist at Emmanuel Church, Boston, and has been organist and music director in a number of suburban churches.

Mildred Zwicker Abrahamson, soprano soloist and well known to Winchester audiences, will be heard in special numbers, as will also Dr. Cecil W. Pride, popular Winchester baritone.

The public is especially invited to enjoy this festival of music Sunday afternoon, April 3rd, in the First Baptist Church.

MYSTIC MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The Mystic Mothers' Association held their winter meeting on March 15, 1949, at the Mystic School. The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Richard Bolster, president. The Ways and Means project being successful financially this year, the meeting voted to contribute $300.00 to the Scholarship Foundation and purchase a second record player for the school with an additional supply of records as requested by the teachers.

Mrs. Hugh Erskine was the speaker for the afternoon. She brought us an interesting picture of the Family room and its contents at the Public Library. Refreshments of coffee and homemade coffee rolls were served by the Tea Committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary A. Wilder.

NAVY BEATS ARMY IN WINCHESTER

Editor of the Star:

On Friday evening, March 18, through the courtesy of Mr. John Navarro, community-minded proprietor of the Sports Center, a team of Navy Recruiters bowled a team of Army Recruiters as part of the program introducing the display of SPORTS IN THE ARMED FORCES which can be seen at The Sports Center. The Navy won by some 29 points - if this figure is not correct, the writer will promptly hear from the Navy! The bowlers were:

Navy
PNC, O. A. DeNino
QM 1st Class, John Mills
ENC, Robert Carroll
GMC, Irving MacLeod
ADC, John E. Burke

Army
Corp. Joseph L. Mitchell
Corp. Edward W. Boyson
M. Sgt. John Burke
Sgt. Gardner L. White
Corp. Leonard Kovars
Sgt. Patrick Farino
1 Sgt. Robert J. Schallot

We were very glad to welcome Capt. Harold A. Fancher of the Boston Main Recruiting Station and L. Julian E. Lindstrom, USN, of the Navy Recruiting Office, Boston, to Winchester. Inasmuch as Friday turned out to be the worst day of the year, weather-wise, we hope they will return and see the town at its best.

We appreciated the presence of Mr. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., representing the Selectmen as well as Mr. Patrick Foley who represented the American Legion and Mr. Thomas E. Duddy representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Because of the great cooperation given the Armed Forces by the Winchester Star, the Recruiters were especially anxious to have the STAR represented in the official photograph and it was so represented in the person of our good friend "Jim" Penaglion. This photograph, and the story connected with it plus a photograph of the display, will be printed in the various Army, Air Force and Navy magazines.

After the bowling, we gathered at the home of the writer for a little sustenance. I must express deep thanks to Mrs. Francis Millett and Miss Marjorie Bradford for taking over at this point. All in all, it was quite an evening!

Unification may be a terrific job in Washington, but at the grass roots it works out well. This display is in the spirit of unification, this match was in the spirit of unification and the writer hopes such affairs will be duplicated everywhere.

We turn now to the Medical Department Personnel Procurement Program. This coming Friday night the Military Manpower Committee has invited Winchester representatives in the professional field to meet with us and with a medical officer of the United States Army to consider the pressing requirements of the Armed Forces. Such a serious undertaking is beyond the powers of the ordinary layman.

Then follows Army Week. Although Army Day is officially April 6, various activities will extend throughout the week starting with Open House at Fort Devens, April 2. As this is on a Saturday it is hoped that many Winchester residents will take the opportunity to see what is going on up there. A most interesting program has been planned:

10:30 Engineer Booby Traps - Demonstration
11:30 10th Field Artillery Bn. Message Pick-up Demonstration 12:30 Picnic facilities on the Post
2:00 Firing demonstration - All Infantry Weapons
2:30 Infantry attack on an enemy village - Demonstration
4:00 Parade

an Army bus to take High School students to Devens and I am sure everyone who goes to Open House will greatly enjoy it.

Very truly yours,
Gladys N. Toye, Chairman,
Military Manpower Committee.

NOT TENNIS COURTS BUT WADING POOL!

Editor of the Star:

On page 12 of your March 18 issue I came upon an interesting, but surprising, news item which must have been communicated to you by some dreamy-eyed super-optimist. It would seem that our High School tennis teams had been warming up "on the hard courts at Manchester Field." Now, Mr. Editor, I should like to go on record as maintaining that no Winchester High School tennis team that I have ever known could possibly "warm up" on these so-called tennis courts. It may be that all of us at some time or other shall chance to espy some youngsters striking at a tennis ball on these "courts," but we can rest assured that the only racket game which can be played at the particular spot under discussion is one popularly known as "pat ball." In addition, this spot can also be used to practise the volley; but an unqualified act of tennis is physically impossible. This is all due to the fact that, strange as it may seem, it has been possible for a tennis court lacking the indispensable twenty-one feet between the back line and the fence or barrier to the rear.

It is only fitting and proper that the perpetrators of such an act of stupidity should have their names engraved upon the monstrosity. If one will provide a certified list of the names of these offenders, I am willing to undertake to raise the necessary funds to prepare and erect the plaque.

Since it is evident that there are in reality no tennis courts on Manchester Field, one might well inquire what purpose is served by the richly paved spot in a corner of the Field. Hockey boards did surround the spot during the past winter, but persons highly qualified by experience in Winchester recreation tell me that ice can be maintained on such a spot as this only under the most ideal conditions. These ideal conditions would seem to move in these parts in cycles of ten years!

If this location on Manchester Field, where many men worked for still more days spreading stone and asphalt is neither a tennis field nor a hockey rink, what is it? Here, Mr. Editor, I must admit to a total lack of imagination. We can not call it a dodo, for we all learned long ago that the dodo is no longer extant. Could it be that, all unwittingly, one of our Town Commissioners or Departments has provided the little tots of our Town with a wading pool? I have admitted to ignorance as to just what to call that Manchester Field "hole-in-the-ground," but until better informed I shall be obliged to call it THE WINCHESTER WADING POOL.

Sincerely,
James K. Ware,
1 Highland terrace.

GLAD TO DO IT

Editor of the Star:

All of us who worked for the 50th Anniversary of the Winchester District Nursing Association are indeed appreciative of the help you gave us through the STAR. It was a milestone in the life of a community-wide service organization, and the celebration of it was aided greatly by your cooperation in giving us so much space in the STAR.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. George E. Connor, Publicity Chairman.

COONS FETE W.H.S. HOOPSTERS

On Saturday evening, March 19, the Winchester High School basketball team was tendered a supper at the home of Dave Coon, one of the players. Promptly at seven o'clock, a delicious roast beef dinner was served which was enjoyed by all. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Warkley, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knowlton, and Mr. "Lou" Goddu. The conversation was centered around the recently completed basketball season and the oncoming baseball season. Mr. Bartlett, who coaches both basketball and baseball at W. H. S., interestingly expressed his views on both topics. During the course of the evening, the team elected next year's varsity captain. His name will be revealed at a later date.

APPRECIATION

In behalf of St. Mary's girl's choir, I would like to extend sincere gratitude to Rev. John P. O'Riordan, pastor of St. Mary's for the wonderful time he gave us on March 19, Saturday. The transportation, by reserved train cars and subway cars was a treat for all. This wonderful play "Pill of Daughter" given to the girl's choir, boy's choir and altar boys will never be forgotten in their hearts.

Thanks again, Father O'Riordan! Members of Girl's Choir,
- Maureen Cullen.

PALM SUNDAY MUSIC

On Palm Sunday afternoon, April 10, at 4 P. M., the Polyphonic Choir of the First Congregational Church will present a concert at which they will sing selections from Brahms' Requiem and other beautiful Lenten music.

The Choir, under the direction of J. Albert Wilson, organist and choirmaster, will be augmented for the occasion to forty-two voices. The public is cordially invited to this special service at which an offering will be taken.

Marty Daschbach, an Honor Student and recipient of a Scholarship, Class of 1948, has made excellent grades in her freshman year at St. Mary's, South Bend, Indiana. She plans to spend the Easter holidays with her grandparents in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

BRAHMS' REQUIEM

The Unitarian Choir, directed by Mary Ranton Witham and augmented by the performance, did well by the great Requiem of Johannes Brahms last Sunday afternoon, holding the close attention of an audience that overflowed the auditorium into the rear section of the church. Weston L. Brannen was guest organist and Ralph Stevens, tympanist. The vespers service was a memorial dedicated to the dead of World Wars I and II. Colors of Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion, and of Aberjona Post, 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were posted at either side of the chancel and uniformed members of both posts attended. Beautiful memorial arrangements of white flowers decorated the chancel.

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister, conducted a brief service of worship and read from the scriptures the text on which the Requiem is based. Let it be said at once that the choir's performance of Brahms' monumental work was very creditable. Few attempts at the Requiem because of the difficulty of the score and the almost impossibility of the average choral group's measuring up to its demands. With this in mind such few shortcomings as were apparent last Sunday paled into insignificance beside the general competence and at times outstanding performance of the choir.

Its singing of the soft music of the score was beautifully done with agreeable tone and good balance. The musical contrasts were nicely brought out and if the great climaxes fell a bit short of the mark it was only because of the limitations of the group. The real drama of the score was there, particularly that stirring buildup of the third movement with its difficult cross rhythms leading up to the monumental fugue and broadening into a tremendous double forte climax with the chorus heard against a crashing full organ and tympany. For those who might have felt that the choir should have been permitted to be a bit more articulate in these climatic passages it can be said that they were done with the idea that this climax transcends the mere choral and becomes orchestral with the organ score and tympany of equal, or perhaps even greater importance than the voices.

The score abounds in passages of sheer beauty. Phrases like "for lo, the grass withereth" sung by the women in harmony after the somber unison "behold all flesh is as the grass" run through the rhythmic second movement, with its measured cadence and the throbbing of the tympany for added atmosphere.

The choir made much of this, and in the final movement the fine alto section scored heavily in its singing with the tenors. Mrs. Witham asked, as usual, a lot from her singers and their response was exceptional. There was a poor entrance by the tenors early in the afternoon and later the sopranos and organ seemed a bit at odds. For the most part however the difficult music went smoothly, at a tempo that avoided dragging but equally avoided any semblance of haste.

Mrs. Witham's reading of the score was not routine. She let the inner voices be heard, and had throughout a nice regard for both nuance and rubato. She had her singers well in hand, getting effectiveness from the chorus both in preciseness of attack and release as well as in dictation and volume of tone.

In this connection it was too bad that the beautiful pianissimo singing of the opening movement with its interweaving of voices was marred by the seating of late comers, for the hushed opening bars of the score were superbly done.

John Ffestyn Jenkins' fine solo was heard to advantage in the solo passages of the third and sixth movements, the writer being struck by his voice enabling him to sing the music scored for baritone without effort and with admirable effect. Dorothy Perkins sang the softer soprano solo passages with a beautiful quality and clarity of tone that literally floated above the pianissimo of the chorus.

Mr. Brannen colored his organ playing effectively and added greatly to the performance of the choir with his support. Where the organ was important it was heard with authority, and at all other times it was helpfully and properly subordinated to the voices. At no time was there any suggestion in his playing of the difficulty of the score. Mr. Stevens playing of the tympany was very sensitive and added greatly to the more intense passages of the Requiem.

SHOWER

A surprise bridal shower was given in honor of Miss Louise Perkins of Maple road, by the Laverett sisters, Peggy, Joan, and Nancy, at their home on Orient street, on March 17th. The occasion also being St. Patrick's Day. The decorations were appropriately green and white.

Miss Perkins was showered with many beautiful and practical gifts which were admired by all. Delicious refreshments were served including a special St. Patrick's Day cake. Mrs. Eva Perkins poured, assisted by Mrs. Mildred Augusta and Mrs. Anne Watson.

Other guests included the Misses Jean Conley, Anne and Eleanor Dalton, Midge Dyson, Mary Jane Halwartz, Marilyn Tucker, Marion Wynnot, Betty Griffiths, Bunny Perkins, Barbara Gould of Wakefield, Betty Dolloff of Lexington, Alice Davis of Boston and the Mesdames Ingrid Bemis, Muriel Dyson, Bea Farnham, Louise Griffiths, Elsie Lavery, Elizabeth Small and Mrs. S. E. Perkins.

Special out-of-town guests were Mrs. Maurice Shaungnessy of Biddeford, Maine and Miss Catherine Hughes of Boston.

A Nominating Committee was appointed consisting of the following members: William E. Ramsdell, Paul Goddu, Ralph Scott, C. Norman Noonan and Ralph Colliander. The latter was appointed Temporary Chairman of the Committee. Nominations for Officers will be presented to the Post at its next regular meeting.

After the meeting a delicious oyster stew was served by the very efficient Board of Stewards consisting of Chairman Carroll Murphy, Whitelaw Wright and Fred Mitchell.

LOCAL MINISTERS URGE PEOPLE TO HEAR BROADCAST "ONE GREAT HOUR"

Saturday, 10:00 p. m.

The undersigned ministers of Winchester heartily endorse the radio program, next Saturday evening at 10 o'clock, sponsored by 75,000 Christian Churches in the United States, in an endeavor to raise ten million dollars in one day for reconstruction and rehabilitation abroad.

Artists of international reputation will have part in the program, and President Truman will speak.

This is the most complete and dramatic cooperative effort ever undertaken by American Churches, and should be of special interest to all church people.

Although some churches will defer until Easter the taking of an offering for this reconstruction and rehabilitation program, the majority of churches will undoubtedly respond to the appeal.

We ministers urge our people to set aside the hour from 10 to 11 o'clock, next Saturday evening to listen to the broadcast.

Westbrook won its way into the finals by edging St. Andrew's of Biddeford, 6-5, in Wednesday evening's semi-finals at the Arena. ### GRAFLEX FEATURES GRIFFIN

The Graphic Graflex News for March features an article on Winchester's ace color photographer, Arthur Griffin of Euclid avenue and its front cover is a color shot of Art, camera held aloft, squinting through the finder for a still like those to be seen in the pages of Saturday Evening Post, Holiday, American, Colliers and Coronet. The article, by Rosemary Moore is entitled "Love It or Leave It" which Mr. Griffin explaining that free-lance photography is a 24 hour detail.

Mr. Joseph L. S. Barton has sold his home at 58 Swan road to Mr. Robert Reynolds of Arlington who buys for occupancy. It will be good news to the Bartons' many friends that they plan to remain in Winchester.

THE NAVY AS AN EMPLOYER

Americans don't often think of their Navy as an employer, but the fact remains that the Naval service is one of the world's largest employers of technically trained personnel.

Because most Navy jobs are closely related to civilian occupations they must be able to stand squarely on their own economic legs, and they must be able to face fair competition with civilian pay, job security and promotion.

The Navy has just published a handbook containing detailed information on 62 jobs in the naval service, plus sections on advancement opportunities. The book has been expertly prepared and is now in the hands of naval recruiters and high school education counselors.

It should prove to be worthwhile reading for the high school class of 1949, and others on the threshold of making a decision affecting their careers.

"THESE THREE MEN"

W. H. S. STUDENTS TO DISCUSS UNITED NATIONS

Upon receipt of a letter from Miss Irene Armstrong of the United Nations Association asking her to accompany four students to the United Nations Center in Boston on Saturday of last week Mrs. Ella Stacy took with her Betty Chipman, Blair Currie, Richard Cleary, and John Sargent.

Representative students from Brookline High School, Lexington High School, Brimmermay School, and Dorchester School for Girls joined the Winchester delegates in asking what they wanted to know about the United Nations. Mr. Barnard Fox of the staff acted as moderator.

This meeting served as preparation for a broadcast to be heard tomorrow afternoon at four p. m. The program will be transcribed and rebroadcast over Station WJOP at nine-thirty.

The questions asked by the secondary school students last Saturday have been combined and redistributed to the five schools. A board of experts consisting of Harvard professors and a delegate from the Security Council at Lake Success will answer the students' questions.

MR. GARNET HAZARD AT W. H. S. ASSEMBLY

Concluding a series of four assembly programs provided by professional talent, Mr. Garnet Hazard, artist and illustrator, gave an illustrated lecture on the artist's technique before the students of Winchester High School last Friday morning.

Mr. Hazard emphasized the points in his lecture by doing two landscapes in pastel during his brief hour on the stage. Art students were particularly interested in his mastery of technique and many in the audience gained a wholesome regard for the artist's point of view.

On other occasions Mr. Richard Caradine had performed in scenes from Shakespeare's better known plays; Mr. Pierot Pierot, Croatian singer, had provided a program of classical and popular music; and Mr. Burton Jackson had demonstrated the versatility of the Marimba as a musical instrument.

Each of these artists came to Winchester with the approval of the School Assembly Service, an organization that provides professional talent for special school assemblies.

BONNELLS AND ROTARY TO MEET FOR TOWN LEAGUE CROWN

The Bonnell Motors and the Rotary will meet on Monday and Wednesday nights in the final best two out of three series for the Town League championship. These same two teams met in the final series last year with the Rotary emerging as the League champions. The so-called experts are picking the Bonnell Motors to win the title this year, however, and base their opinion on the more consistent record this season of the Bonnells. An indication of the possible outcome of the series is the fact that the Bonnell Motors have defeated the Rotary twice during the regular schedule while losing one game to them.

The Rotary had to come from behind twice in the games this past week to avoid being eliminated by a surprising Sons of Italy team. The Sons of Italy had won the first game of the semi-final series a week ago. In last Monday night's game the Rotary was trailing the Sons of Italy 17 to 20 at the half, pulled up to lead 28 to 26 at the end of the third quarter, and won 43 to 37 in the final period. Joe Errico and Dick Coon spear headed the Rotary rally in the last half as they paced the scorers with 14 points for Errico and 12 for Coon.

It was much the same story in the third and deciding game on Wednesday night. The Sons of Italy again led at the half by a score of 18 to 13 but the Rotary staged a big third period to go ahead 31 to 24 at the three-quarter mark and held that margin during the last quarter to win 43 to 35. Jack Errico and Dick Coon provided the scoring punch for the winners as they netted 14 points apiece while Sam Tibaudou equalled that figure with 14 points in a losing cause. Much credit is due the Sons of Italy for their game exhibition and they came within a few minutes of springing the upset of the season.

SCIENCE CONFERENCE AND EXHIBIT AT WYMAN SCHOOL

Speaking before a conference on the teaching of science in elementary schools, sponsored by Winchester science teachers and held at the Wyman School on March 17, Dr. John G. Read, Associate Professor of Science Education at Boston University, pointed to the home community as the source of material which greatly aids the teaching of science. Dr. Read's topic "This Wonderful World" indicates the approach he suggested for furthering children's interest in their environment. Continuing, he said that through science work in the schools teachers have an opportunity to assist the pupils for living in this scientific age. After proper teacher guidance and encouragement, students may study individually in the field of scientific progress and development.

Miss Sybil L. Daniels of the High School science staff was general chairman of the conference which heard Dr. Read. Under her leadership exhibits of teaching materials were prepared for three different levels of instruction. The primary exhibit was in charge of Miss Frances Doherty, Mrs. Esther Laughner, Miss Margaret Harkins, and Mrs. Myrtle Dodge. The intermediate section was prepared by Miss Anne Gallagher, Mr. Roland Nault, and Miss Phyllis Roberts. Miss Mary Barr arranged the Junior High School exhibit and used several filmstrips to illustrate teaching methods. Miss Daniels showed many slides in natural color, two inches square, which she has prepared by her own photography methods for teaching science.

The conference and exhibit was a natural outgrowth of activities of the Elementary Science Committee of Winchester which was organized by Dr. Forbes H. Norris early in December. Since then the committee has worked with the purposes of using the conference -- exhibit to acquaint elementary teachers with ideas for teaching science in their grades, and of preparing and outline of experiments and activities which can be closely correlated with and included as a part of the social studies outline.

Members of the Science Committee are Miss Frances A. Doherty, Mystic Kindergarten; Mrs. Esther Laughner, Mystic Grade I; Miss Margaret Harkins, Lincoln Grade II; Mrs. Myrtle Dodge, Wyman Grade III; Miss Anne Gallagher, Noonan Grade IV; Mr. Roland Nault, Washington Grade V; Miss Phyllis Roberts, Washington Grade VI; Miss Mary Barr, Junior High School; and Chairman Sybil Daniels of the High School.

The crocuses at the Winchester Savings Bank grounds have been particularly beautiful this week and are well worth walking by there to see. Don't try to "snitch" any either because Gunnar Abrahamson may well have a weather eye on the flowers!

BOY INJURED BY AUTOMOBILE

Keith Puffer, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Puffer of 25 Englewood road, was painfully injured Tuesday afternoon shortly before 4 o'clock when he was struck by an automobile while riding his tricycle on Englewood road.

According to the police account of the accident Keith and a friend, Robert Gowdy, 5, of 33 Englewood road, were riding tricycles on the sidewalk on the southerly side of the street and turning into the driveway at the home of Mrs. Haggerty, 15 Englewood road, rode into the street.

As they did so they were in collision with a Mercury convertible coupe, driven by Marion K. Thorpe, 22 Bonad road, who was headed east on Englewood road. Mrs. Thorpe said she did not see the boys but felt her car strike something and stopped, finding Keith Puffer lying in the street unconscious.

The little boy was taken to the hospital by Fire Chief James E. Callahan, assisted by John Carroll of 8 Bonad road. Dr. Charles Rooney and Dr. Phillip McManus attended him at the hospital. His injuries were reported as a severe laceration of the forehead, concussion and possible fracture of the skull and a broken leg. Later, however, the head injuries were found to be not so severe and his condition was considered good.

Robert Gowdy was not badly hurt, sustaining only a small cut on his left thumb and a scraped chin, his tricycle apparently having struck the side of the car. His tricycle was wrecked while Keith's was not damaged.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Cookie Drive is almost over! Mrs. Robert Tonon reports that it looks as if the girls are the best salesmen ever! Keep going girls, for those prizes are well worth it! Mrs. Tonon asks that all Cookie order books be turned in by the leaders no later than Monday, March 28th. Any after that will not be ordered. So, leaders, please get all order books to the office by Monday!

Plans for the Father-Daughter Dinner are really developing. Every daughter-Scout is urged to bring her Dad, but if he can't come, then a brother, cousin, uncle or Grandad will be as welcome. Mrs. E. G. Pierce, Program Chairman, urges every Girl Scout to attend, even tho she may not have a dad, or available relative that evening. Remember the date, . . . April 7th, at the Town Hall, and the food is to be a Fried Chicken Dinner from Harrow's, . . . and the price will be about 99 cents! Mrs. Kenneth Wright of the Massachusetts Girl Scout Board will be master of ceremonies in the Dr. I. Q. program after dinner, and those who know her are anticipating a lot of lively chatter and fun.

Excitement is also running high among the 8th grade and Senior Scouts, for now it appears that 53 girls have signed up for the trip to Washington, during Spring Vacation! There will be three cars of mothers and a Greyhound bus has been chartered to take the girls. Leaving Friday, April 15th, the caravan heads south, with a Y. W. C. A. in New York city as their first night's stop. Then on to Washington a whirl of sight seeing, with the quiet of Camp Brookmont outside Bethesda each night. The mothers are busy planning good hearty meals for the stay at camp (and which is one of the reasons for the reasonableness of the trip's cost.) All in all, great dreams are coming true for the girls, and thanks to Mrs. Metcalf for fostering these dreams, and Mrs. Cary for her support of these projects, and of course to the mothers and dads for their cooperation. And that, my friends, is the splendid part of Scouting . . . everyone cooperates!

The regular meeting of the Rainbow Mother's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Albert Finethy, 58 Mishawum road, Woburn.

It was decided at the business meeting that the April meeting date will be changed from the 19th to the 20th on account of the holiday.

For the social part of the evening Mrs. Finethy's daughter Cynthia entertained the group by playing a few selections on her Hammond organ which was followed by delicious refreshments served by co-hostesses Mrs. John H. Johnson and Mrs. Harold Burnes, both of Woburn. A very delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

ICE CHIPS OF 1949

Champions galore will be featured in the Ice Chips of 1949, The Skating Club of Boston's colorful annual skating production, which opens tomorrow night and runs through Sunday with matinees Saturday and Sunday at the Boston Garden.

Heading the list of champions is pretty Barbara Ann Scott, Olympic and two times world champion and one of Canada's foremost athletic personalities. The cute 20-year-old skater has twice won the Lou Marsh Memorial trophy, the equivalent of this country's Sullivan award, as Canada's outstanding amateur athlete and she has three times been named Rose Bowl winner as Canada's top woman athlete.

Then there is also Gretchen Merrill, six times national champion and a member of the American Olympic team last Winter; little Jo Barnum of Milton, national novice titlist; Doris and Walter Noffke of Holyoke, national pair skaters; and Lois Waring and Walter Bainbridge, national and North American dance kings. Two recently crowned Eastern figure skating champs, 14 year old Tenley Albright of Newton and 12 year old Sarahann Wilson of Providence, junior and novice classes respectively, and their runners-up, 13 year old Betsy Lyons and 12 year old Marion Murphy, both of Newton, will also appear in specialty spots.

This will be the Skating Club's most lavish production. The show's directors, Shirley Bowman Burns, former Ice Polies star, and "Bud" Wilson, have included several colorful production numbers and sequences to fit around the specialty bits and the whole extravaganza runs as smoothly as a top professional show.

Lt. Col. Nathan Thumin is spending several weeks in St. Petersburg, Fla.

NOONAN SCHOOL NEWS

On Wednesday afternoon, March 16, Mrs. Matthew Benincasa, 895 Main street, extended the hospitality of her home to Mrs. Marion Ashburn and Mrs. Edna Smith, teachers of the first grade, Mrs. Kenneth MacArthur, president of the Noonan School Mothers' Association, the mothers of children attending the first grade, and Miss Leonor Rich, principal of the school.

The artistically arranged tea table, with its centerpiece of jonquills and attractive St. Patrick's Day decorations, provided pleasure for each guest.

Mrs. Smith gave a demonstration of how reading is taught at the First Grade Level. Mrs. Ashburn talked about Certain Characteristics of six-year-olds, and Miss Rich spoke about Standards of Achievement for First Grade Children.

Though the group in attendance was not large, it was made up of forward-looking parents who realize the value of following closely the work of the school in order to promote the best all-round growth for their children. An active discussion period followed the remarks made by the teachers with worthwhile questions presented for group consideration by the mothers.

An enjoyable social hour followed, giving parents and teachers an opportunity to become better acquainted.

The tea for the mothers of children in the second grade will be held on Wednesday, March 23 at 3:30 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Robert F. Haggerty, 87 Sylvester avenue.

you'll live longer!RELAX...and you'll feel better,

Every businessman (and every wife of a businessman!) knows that he can't possibly avoid many of the tensions arising from a busy life. He also knows that these continuous strains take a heavy toll in fatigue, irritable disposition and jumpy nerves! He knows that for his own good, and his family's good, he ought to take every chance he gets to relax.

RECEIVED STANFORD
DEGREE

Frederick J. Donahue, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donahue, of Mystic avenue graduated this month from Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, with the degree of Bachelor of Social Science.

Fred graduated cum laude from Winchester High School in the Class of '39, where he was a member of both the varsity track and cross country teams, entering Boston University College of Business Administration in the Fall of that year. He left his studies in early 1942 to enter the Army, leaving the Service in August of 1946 as a Captain and Company Commander in a Tank Battalion which served throughout the Pacific for over two and a half years.

Returning to his studies, Fred entered upon a Pre-Medical program, which he nearly completed when he changed to Economics and Political Science. While at Stanford, he held several positions in his class, being Resident Counselor of his dormitory, President of the Stanford Newman Club, Chairman of the Interfaith Council, a member of the Stanford Chapel Committee, Social Committee of his class, Vice President of Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity, and member of the Stanford tennis team. Fred is remaining on the West coast, establishing his home in San Francisco. However, he is anticipating a visit to Winchester soon.

Fred is the second member of the Winchester Donahues to establish themselves in California. His father's brother, Thomas, has been in San Francisco since 1909, where he has his own business dealing in printing presses and paper. Fred has cousins in both California and Oregon whose ambition is to visit Winchester.

WINCHESTER RESIDENT TO BE SALUTED ON WCOP SHOW

John Hanlon, of Winchester, will receive the Good American Award of roving reporter Ted Malone on his March 23 broadcast over WCOP at 11:30 a. m. Malone gives daily "Good American" awards to persons performing outstanding acts of public service. Mr. Hanlon, who was a Colonel in the Paratroops during the Battle of the Bulge, appealed to the town of Hemmouille, Belgium, for white cloth to camouflage his men's uniforms. The people of Hemmouille gave him their sheets, which Hanlon promised to return. In February, 1948, he sent sheets donated by his friends in Winchester to the people of Hemmouille who had helped him.

FIRST ADJOURNED TOWN MEETING SESSION

There was a bit more debate on the proposed Junior High School addition. Mr. Fitzgerald, reporting for the Junior High School Addition Building Committee, read a carefully prepared and dispassionate report of the Committee's activities over the past year, of its meetings with the School Committee and the School Facilities Committee, and of its final plans for the Junior High School, which incorporated the desires and recommendations of both of these groups, as well as the convictions of the Junior High School Addition Building Committee.

He introduced a motion asking for the appropriation of $1,030,000 to build an addition to the Junior High School, to include a cafeteria and auditorium, class rooms and a general remodeling of parts of the building to house the 7th, 8th and 9th grades of a 6-3-3 school system recommended by the School Committee and Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Speers, speaking for the School Committee, sought to amend this motion by substituting the sum of $600,000 for the larger amount, with the thought that the cafeteria and auditorium be omitted from the immediate plans.

Mr. Speers stated that the amendment was favored by a majority of the present School Committee, though he admitted that past committees had favored the plan proposed by the Junior High School Addition Building Committee.

Mr. Harold Farnsworth asked for a sense of the meeting vote as to whether the meeting wanted the School Committee's or the Junior High Building Committee's Plan, proposing that in the event the School Committee's plan was accepted that $500,000 be voted a committee to prepare plans and get "true bids" so as to avoid repeating the mistakes made when the high school was enlarged and the committee in charge of the plan found it had insufficient money to carry out its proposed alterations.

Mr. Cusack asked for the Finance Committee's position in the matter, stating that he believed because of the conflicting ideas and failure of even the school authorities themselves to agree upon a plan all action should be deferred.

Mr. Hennessey, reporting for the Finance Committee, pointed out the town, if it accepted the School Committee's plan would be spending approximately three times for an addition to the Junior High Building what the building cost new. He felt that because of the cost and the possibility of lessening cost in the future, and also because of the conflicting ideas among school proponents that action should be deferred and voiced the Finance Committee's recommendation of unfavorable action on both Mr. Speers amendment and Mr. Fitzgerald's original motion.

This unfavorable action was also voiced for the Planning Board, by Mr. Hatch who admonished the various school factions to get together on some single satisfactory plan involving both the senior and junior high schools and then face the necessary program to carry out this plan.

Both Mr. Speers amendment and Mr. Fitzgerald's motion were defeated on voice votes that were not even challenged, there being no room for doubt.

The meeting then established the High School and Enlarged Junior High School Building Committee of eight citizens, two to be chosen by the School Committee from its membership and six to be appointed by the Moderator. This committee is to study the question of putting both schools in adequate condition, to prepare plans and secure drawings and estimates, reporting to the town on or before the next annual meeting.

The remainder of the meeting was pretty much routine. The town voted permission for the Selectmen to go ahead with last year's plan to erect a garage and service building at the town yard, at a cost of $50,800, this sum being appropriated last year with additional money for a garbage house, which now is not to be built in accordance with wishes of residents of the vicinity, the town garage being trucked out of town as it is collected.

It was voted not to install manually operated traffic lights at the intersection of Park avenue, Swanton and Washington streets, Mr. Dwinell explaining that having an officer on duty during peak traffic there is affording better protection than the proposed lights.

The meeting failed to support the Committee on Names in its recommendation to name the new West Side School the Indian Hill School, the report being read by Mr. Rowe. Mr. Craughwell proposed the name of the Lewis Parkhurst School to do honor to Winchester's long-time leading citizen and former high school principal, pointing out a few of his many benefactions to the town and enumerating some of the devilry for which the Indians of the district were noted.

Mr. Cullen favored the Parkhurst name and reminded the meeting that the principal Indian of this town, Hannah Shinnors, owed her claim to fame to the fact that she got drowned in the Aberjona while drunk. Mr. Rotundi and Mr. Hewis both spoke in favor of the Parkhurst name and the meeting voted for an amendment to so name the school, introduced by Mr. Hewis.

The meeting voted the usual authorization of cemetery funds for the embellishment of Wildwood Cemetery, appropriated $18,000 for the reconstruction of Forest street from Washington street to the Stoneham line as a Chapter 90 project with the State and County reimbursing the town for a part of the expense, and established a committee to look into the possibility of having committee chairmen and town officers hold office through town meetings in which articles with which they have been concerned are to be considered.

The meeting elected Mrs. Elizabeth C. McDonald as director of the town's participation in the county aid to agriculture program in Middlesex County, succeeding Mr. George Franklin, who adorned the office last year. The sum of $50 was voted for her use.

Street layouts for Arlington street, Andrews road, Emerson road, Indian Hill road, Samoset road, Henry street, North Gateway, Canterbury road, and Town Way, as proposed by the Selectmen were voted at a cost of $112,600.00, with $65,000 to be transferred from the Excess and Deficiency account. Mr. Rotundi, unsuccessfully attempted to amend the motion so as to let the construction work out to bids, being opposed by Mr. Dwinell for the Selectmen, Mr. Hennessey, for the Finance Committee, Mr. Saraco and Mr. Cullen.

The meeting passed three appropriations under Article 5 deferred at the first meeting voting $46,234.40 for Parks and Playgrounds, to include resurfacing two tennis courts at Leonard Field; $2,485.00 for Recreation and $52,994.00 for Water Maintenance.

Upon the usual motion by Mr. Rowe the meeting adjourned at 10:58 o'clock until Thursday evening, March 24.

PRIEST AND CHORAL GROUP
THRILL AUDIENCE

Oratory of the finest degree and choral music of the highest order were featured at Winchester High School Auditorium on Thursday evening, March 17th, when St. Mary's Holy Name Society sponsored an address by Rev. Joseph A. Robinson, Ph.D., LL.D., noted traveler, lecturer and orator. Fr. Robinson is Pastor of St. Stephens parish in Boston and is Catholic Chaplain at State Prison. The Society also sponsored the appearance of the Boston College Choral Group who arranged a musical program done in excellent fashion with numerous encores of Irish flavor and others. Their final encore was a medley of Boston College songs that were very stirring to the audience.

Of Father Robinson, the fact is that it is hard to put down on paper the proper tribute that should be paid to this most eloquent speaker. Launching into his discourse entitled "Faith and the Iron Curtain", Fr. Robinson took the assembled listeners behind the Iron Curtain of Hungary and Yugoslavia and denounced Communism to the hilt. He narrated how first Archbishop Stepinac, then Cardinal Mindszenty and high ranking Churchmen of the Protestant Faith were put on trial. Fr. Robinson stormed at the treatment these men of God had received and are still receiving.

The speaker paid tribute to St. Patrick, the Apostle of Ireland, and urged his listeners to imitate the faith and courage for which this great man is noted. He then discoursed on the "Iron Curtain" of self that many place around themselves to preclude any assistance or friendship for one's fellow-man.

Then followed a fine clear oratorical talk on crime, penal systems, judges, steps leading to crime, lack of home influence, bad parents, no family life, children shifting for themselves and no religion.

Fr. Robinson eloquently pleaded for understanding for inmates, released from prison so that they can take their place in society once more and announced the formation of the Guild of Our Lady of Redemption, a society which will undertake to aid these unfortunate men and women to take up a new place in life with a friendly hand helping them. Money and books and clothing is needed. He cited one instance where a prisoner in solitary confinement asked for books on engineering and plugged hard while serving his term and is now a first class engineer in another state. Books allotted to prisoners now are hopelessly out of date and antiquated. Fr. Robinson asked his listeners for books on Elementary Law if there were any on hand to spare.

The Guild will assist in locating jobs for released men and women prisoners. Society spends much money to incarcerate these who have gotten on the wrong track. It is to be hoped that society will come to the fore and spend as much to rehabilitate these people also. Looking after the families of these people while the father or mother or son or daughter is another function of the Guild. Many prominent people are aligning themselves with Fr. Robinson for this work while many others are offering their support in whatever way they can.

Fr. Robinson summed up his remarks by stating that the cure for an unprincipled world, the communist, crime and the egotist is Jesus Christ.

All Wives Should Tell their husbands
About George!

George is a smart business man, as well as being a smart husband.

George never misses his business engagements. George never has to phone his wife he's sorry but because of a cancelled schedule he can't get home for that birthday party or neighborhood bridge date.

George's wife never has to worry about him while he's away. For George never makes traveling an adventure. Highway accidents never worry George, either. George rides in safety by train.

George enjoys the NEW HAVEN's new faster schedules between Boston and New York, as he speeds safely, comfortably and surely between Back Bay and Grand Central in 3 hours and 55 minutes on the Merchants Limited.

George knows also that, if the Merchants isn't convenient for any particular trip there are a dozen other speeded-up NEW HAVEN trains, both day and night, between Boston and New York. George knows that the trains run no matter what the weather, or how congested the hazardous highways.

George gets his New York hotel reservations right in Boston, at the NEW HAVEN's ticket offices in South Station or Back Bay or at the Stadel Building. George has fourteen different New York hotels to choose from and he never has to worry about a place to sleep in New York.

George frequently telephones his wife from either the Merchants Limited or the Yankee Clipper as he speeds between the two cities. George knows that from either these NEW HAVEN trains passengers can telephone anyone anywhere in the world as they ride along.

George saves money, too, because he has no additional transportation to pay for, either in Boston or in New York. George knows the NEW HAVEN takes him from in-town Boston to mid-town New York.

George is a smart business man and a smart husband.

The police officers were voted a raise in pay of $150 per year with a $200 raise for the chief. The fire chief also got a $200 raise and the fireman's work week was reduced from 70 to 56 hours, with however no more money. Most of the wages granted were effective as of April 1, in accordance with the Finance Committee's belief that such procedure is sounder municipal finance. Mr. Dwinell explained that the appropriation for the Highway Department included a catch-basin cleaner, new air compressor and a heavy duty tractor, which can be used for certain types of snow removal as well as highway work.

The School Department budget was one of those deferred and the meeting tensed in anticipation of a battle when it was taken up. There was however only a statement of the positions of the Finance Committee and School Committee in the matter of salary raises made respectively by Mr. Hennessey and Mr. Speers. The two committees had reached a virtual agreement by compromise and the School Committee accepted an approximate $5,000 slash in their requested figure and the salary recommendations of the Finance Committee, which briefly are $200 raises for the Superintendent and principals, effective January 1, a $200 across the board raise for all teachers effective April 1 and another $100 effective September 1.

The Finance Committee asked that this $100 be granted only to women teachers in an effort to reduce the differential here between the men and women in the School Department. This the School Committee opposed, asking that they be permitted to grant this raise as they believe best with the money available for them. This was agreeable to the Finance Committee and the meeting voted the Finance Committee's amended figure, $560,332.44, the School Committee having asked for $565,865.77.

The meeting's principal debate came under the Library appropriation article, with the Library Trustees and the Finance Committee at odds over the raises to be granted the library staff. The trustees asked raises scaling down from a top $800, arguing that pay inequities have long existed in the library in view of the education and training required of its employees, who in the trustees' opinion should be paid at the same rate as teachers.

The Finance Committee recognized the problem of inequality in library pay, but felt the high raises asked by the trustees to be excessive and likely to be damaging to the morale of other employees. No one in town history had gotten a raise of $800, and the raises recommended for the library staff by the Finance Committee approximated 15 to 17 percent as against about five percent for teachers. They were willing to go along on raises approximately fifty percent of what the trustees asked.

Mr. Sargent strongly argued the trustees position, and was backed by Mr. Worthen, Mr. Cullen, Mr. Nowell and Mr. Borggaard. Mr. Hennessey presented the Finance Committee's position. The meeting supported the Finance Committee's amendment to reduce the amount for personal services so that the over-all figure appropriated was $39,458.00 instead of $40,933.00, asked by the Library Trustees. Actually only $37,493.47 is to be raised by revenue, the balance coming from transfer of dog licenses. The vote was rather surprising in view of past library strength, 133 voting against the trustees' request with only 59 in favor.

With the clock showing two minutes past 11, Mr. Rowe moved that the meeting be adjourned until Monday evening, March 21. Following are the amounts appropriated:
